A dozen of the imported men were gathered in the front of the barn telling stories when an explosion occurred about forty feet in their rear. Several of the men were knocked down by the force of the explosion. The air was filled with dust and flying glass. As soon as the men could see and become convinced that another explosion would not occur they went back into the barn to investigate. They found that some explosive had been thrown among the cars with which the big barn is filled. Nearly all the windows in the cars were broken by the explosion.

Texas Mob Law Invalid.

Dallas, Tex., June 24.—The State Court of Criminal Appeals has declared the "Mob law" unconstitutional. Attorney-General Smith wrote a letter to Assistant Attorney-General Morris, who is at Athens, advising him of the court's action and instructing him in the Humphrey lynching examining trials next Monday to prosecute under the statutes for murder in the first degree, and not under the Mob law statute. The Court of Criminal Appeals holds that the Mob law statute is inoperative and void because not capable of construction.

Strikers March.

Rochester, June 24.—A big demonstration was made in front of City Hall by the striking street laborers, and every policeman in the city was at once ordered out, although many of them had been on duty twenty-four hours. The strikers absolutely refuse to abide by the agreement made by the State Board of Arbitration, the contractors and a committee of laborers.

One thousand of the men joined in the march to the City Hall.

Publicly Horsewhipped.

Wilmington, N. C., June 24.—At the railroad depot in Washington, N. C., a young white man, J. F. Woodward, solicitor of produce for M. G. Snyder & Co., 207 Duane street, New York city, was publicly horse-whipped by several citizens of Washington, who declared that Woodward had insulted a young woman of that city.

Ox Wrecks Train.

Winsted, Conn., June 24.—An ox on the track of the Central New England Railroad, thirteen miles east of here, derailed the engine and three front cars of an east-bound freight train.

Fireman Daniel Hickey received internal injuries, but doctors say he may recover. The engineer was not hurt.

Hires Hurled Through Space

Hammonton, N. J., June 24.—Isaac Hires, who makes root beer, is in Cooper Hospital at Camden with several bones broken. His horse balked on the railroad crossing and an express train threw the whole outfit seventy-five feet. The horse was killed and the wagon demolished.

Suicide Jumped Into a Well.

Bunker Hill, Ill., June 24.—William Denother, a farmer, aged 28 years, living near Fosterburg, a village twelve miles west of this place, committed suicide by jumping into a well.

A young man whose home is in East 76th street, New York City, has a considerable acquaintance among medical students and hospital doctors. Almost every morning, when riding down town to business on the Third Avenue Cable Road, he meets one or more of his professional friends, and this has happened so often that the conductors, knowing him and his associates by sight, have come to address him as Doctor. One morning not long ago the conductor approached our friend and said: "Doctor, I have been troubled so much with dyspepsia that I haven't been able to eat a square meal in two days and am nearly dead. What shall I take?" The man addressed put his hand in his pocket and, taking out a carton of Ripans Tabules, replied: "Here, take these, and when you use them buy some more at the druggist's." A week later the same conductor, while collecting his fare, said: "I used those Tabules you gave me, and then bought some more at the druggist's. They fixed me up all right. I have no more dyspepsia, and I can eat without getting sick."

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This new packet is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York,—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

RIO GRANDE IS RAGING

Recent Big Floods Cause the River to Change Its Course.

Austin, Tex., June 24.—The Rio Grande River is on the greatest rampage known for forty years. The old town site of Carizzo, county seat of Zapata cunty, was washed away by the flood of that river. Not a vestige of the settlement which once had a population of about 1,200 Mexicans, remains.

The present big flood has caused the river to change its course at several places, transferring thousands of acres of Mexican territory to the United States. The International Water Boundary Commission will be called upon to define the disputed boundary when the flood subsides. At one place on the river bordering on Hidalgo county the river is cutting off a large tract of United States territory This land is apart of Jose Benevide's ranch and there are several hundred head of cattle thereon. It was near that place that the river, when on a rise a few wyears ago, transferred a part of a Mexican ranch stocked with several thousand sheep to the Texas side of the stream. The United States officials made an effort to colect a duty on the sheep, but the ranch owner successfully resisted payment of same. The full effect of the present flood has not yet reached Brownsville, where Fort Brown is located.

Steps have been taken to make the buildings of Fort Brown secure from the overflow.

Pingree For Alger

Detroit, Mich., June 24.—Governor Pingree announced that he combined with Secretary Alger in the interests of the latter's senatorial candidacy. Gen. Alger will not withdraw from the race under any circumstances, nor will he spend any money in the campaign. The platform of their campaign is to include opposition to trusts and a declaration in favor of the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people. The alliance was made at a conference at which several of the Pingree state leaders, the general and the governor were present.

Jealous Husband Shoots Wife.

Jersey City, N. J., June 24.—With a steadiness of aim that resulted in the instant death of his victim, Antonio Macaerle fired a pistol shot at his wife, at the corner of Henderson and Ninth streets, this city. The murder was committed in the open street, within view of scores of persons. When the body of the woman lay at his feet, he turned the weapon upon himself. He also died instantly. Jealousy was the cause of the tragedy.

The Smelter's Strike

Denver, June 24.—The managers of the smelters owned by the American Smelting and Refining Company are conferring and arranging labor scales while the strikers are quietly awaiting overtures. It is considered by both sides to the controversy resulting from the operations of the new eight-hour law that nothing stands between the managers and the men that cannot be arranged, and the resumption of operations at the smelters it is not likely to be delayed long.

To Defend The Miners.

Fort Smith, Ark., June 24.—Superintendent Brown of the K. & T. coal mines at Huntington, was in the city buying arms with which to defend the new men who are going to work in mine 61. The new men are a car load of negroes, which have just arrived. The United States Marshal's office reports everything quiet at Huntington, but other sources reveal the fact that there is much fear of a riot there.

Killed by Boiler Explosion.

Pittsburg, June 24.—The boiler at Davis Island dam, owned by the Government, exploded with terrific force. Harry F. Welbush, assistant lock tender, was instantly killed. He was 34 years old, married, and had three children. No other person was hurt, although a tugboat was in the lock at the time. The boiler was blown over 100 feet.

$3,500 From Trolley Company.

White Plains, N. Y., June 24.—A jury in the Supreme Court, before Judge Jenks, returned a verdict of $3,650 against the Yonkers Trolley Company in favor of Robert Scott, a colored man. Scott was working as a laborer for an asphalt company in Broadway, Yonkers, when a trolley car came along, struck him and seriously injured his back.

Feared Hydrophobia.

Bridgeport, Conn., June 24.—John Falls, of Southport, is in the hospital here in delirium of fear lest he go mad from a dog bite. Last October he was bitten while attempting to separate fighting dogs. Doctors cauterized the wounds, and no symptoms of hydrophobia developed, but dread of it has so preyed upon him that he has collapsed.

Was a Singular Fatality.

Towanda, Ill., June 24.—James W. Rankin, operating a portable sawmill in Money Creek Township, was instantly killed during a storm. A tree was blown down, falling across a heavy chain drawn taut between the mill and a tree. The chain broke and the hook struck Rankin, smashing his head. He left a widow and two sons.

Clergyman Tired of Life.

New York, June 24.—Daniel Moralle, 70 years old, of Wilmington, Ga., who is said to be a clergyman, attempted suicide in an unoccupied building at No. 228 West End avenue, by turning on six gas jets. He was taken a prisoner to Roosevelt Hospital.

Death of D. E. Bourgeois.

London, June 24.—D. E. Bourgeois, of New Orleans, died last evening at Chester Terrace. He was a personal friend of United States Ambassador Choate, who arranged for the immediate shipment of his body to the United States.

Jay Gould's Brother Dead.

Troy, N. Y., June 24.—Abram Gould, aged fifty-six, a brother of the late Jay Gould, died at Salem, where he was visiting. He lived in St. Louis and was manager of the coal department of the Union Pacific Railroad.

AGUINALDO TO LEAD THEM

The Filipino Chief Will Take Personal Charge of Gen. Luna's Army.

A LARGE NATIVE FORCE.

General MacArthur's Men Sleep on Their Arms and Are Ready to Repel Any Attacks.

Transport Centennial Has Exciting Time Off Point Engano—Struck a Rock and Was Fast Several Hours Surrounded By Swarms of Menacing Natives in Canoes.

Manila, June 24.—Aguinaldo does not seem to be satisfied with the attempt of the insurgents to retake San Fernando and he has taken command of Gen. Luna's army and has massed the largest native force yet mobilized, bringing 2,000 men from the Antipolo region. He is exceedingly troublesome. In a night attack his men wounded two members of the seventeenth regiment. Gen. MacArthur's men are constantly on the alert to repel any attacks by the Filipinos, sleeping upon their arms. The general sincerely hopes that the Filipinos will give him another chance for battle, for the soldiers really would enjoy an opportunity to fight them when they can do so without wading through swamps to catch them.

Railway trains between Manila and San Fernando have been stopped for several days while permanent repairs were being made to the bridges along the route, but traffic is resumed.

The transport Centennial, which has arrived here, had an exciting experience while rounding Point Engano on the northern coast of Luzon on her way to this port. She struck a rock on Wednesday and remained fast for several hours, during which time she was surrounded by swarms of natives in canoes, who became menacing. Capt. Eagle who commanded the transport, was compelled to throw overboard a hundred tons of supplies in order to lighten the ship sufficiently to get her afloat. Before this was effected the Filipinos had towed the cases ashore and were fighting over the spoils.

The cruiser Baltimore recently grounded at the same point, but the natives feared to approach her.

A Junta Story.

Hong Kong, June 24.—The Filipino Junta here has been greatly excited over a dispatch alleged to be from Aguinaldo, in which he stated that the Americans had promised to grant independence. To testify their happiness the Junta gave a largely attended ball and reception, much to the amusement of the English.

Consul General Wildman says he believes the affair was organized with the purpose of enthusing the wealthy Filipinos and causing them to contribute to the funds of the Junta.

General Luna's death is admitted here and has caused gloom among his supporters.

The Concord will leave for the Lingayan Gulf, in the north of Luzon to search for filibusters.

Pfeffer's Politics

Carthage, Mo., June 24.—In an interview here, W. A. Pfeffer, former United States senator from Kansas, denied that he had joined the Republican party. He said:

"What I did say is that as a factor in national politics the Populist party is a cipher that it is a mere adjunct to the Democracy briefly, that for all national purposes the Populist party is swallowed in the Democratic party and as between the Democratic and Republican parties I have always been against the Democrats."

Is Tired of Feuds.

Frankfort, Ky., June 24.—Gov. Bradley will call a special session of the Legislature within the next two weeks to meet in July, to pass laws giving power in cases of feuds to special Judges to summon jurors from remote counties. It is urged that under the present laws a fair trial could not be had in the Baker-White feud, as citizens of Clay county are members of feudal factions, and a jury could not be drawn to find an indictment.

Three Drowned While Boating.

Danbury, Conn., June 24.—Three members of a boating party were drowned in East Lake, one of the reservoirs here. The party consisted of James Rasmussen, forty-five years old, a tailor, and his son, John, six years old, of this city; Rudolph Johnson, forty-five years old, of Bethel, and Henry Seymour, of this city. The two Rassmussens and Johnson perished.

Big Social Event in Havana.

Havana, June 24.—The biggest social event since the American occupation occurred here. Mrs. Rathbone, wife of the Director of Posts, Major E. O. Rathbone, gave a ball at which over 500 persons were present, including all the best of Havana society—American, Spanish and Cuban.

Was Taken to Detroit.

Chicago, June 24.—Baron Edgar de Bara, recently convicted of carrying on a fraudulent business through the United Statee mails, has been taken to Detroit, Mich., to serve a term of three years in the House of Correction. The Baroness de Bara has already been taken to the Wheaton (Ill.) jail to serve her term of one year.

Schley Chester's Guest

Philadelphia, Pa., June 24.—Admiral Schley is to be the guest of the city of Chester on July 4, and has consented to make an address to the citizens on that day.

Matricide Hanged

Hamilton, Ont., June 24.—Benjamin Parrott was hanged for the murder of his mother.

WHEAT TRAVELS WEST.

Its Recent Invasion of Kansas, Nebrasha and Texas.

New York, June 24.—A Kansas City correspondent of "Bradstreet's" remarks upon the significant Western drift of the wheat area. Attention is called to the fact that in 1880 Kansas, Nebraska and Texas raised only 33,738,000 bushels of wheat. In 1890 the same States raised 47,085,000 bushels. In 1896, with Oklahoma included, the yield was 57,316,000 bushels, and in 1898 the crops of these States reached 123,405,000 bushels. With this increased production in the new West and the coincident lowering of values, the older wheat States in the central West have given less attention to this crop. In 1890 the wheat crop of Illinois was less than half as large as in 1880. Indiana raised 20,000,000 bushels less and Missouri, too, fell off greatly in her yield. In 1896 Illinois raised less wheat than Kansas and Indiana and only a trifle more than Nebraska, while six years earlier its crop was nearly double that State's. Last year there was a still greater discrepency, and Oklahoma and Texas added to the big yields of Kansas and Nebraska over 23,000,000 bushels.

It is not surprising therefore, that the currents of trade have shifted in recent years, and that at Kansas City in less than half a decade has grown up one of the greatest wheat markets of the country.

With these changes in the area of production the milling interest has been developed in Kansas City and its neighborhood. With the completion of a mill now building Kansas City mills will have a capacity of nine thousand barrels a day. The southern route is the nearest one to tidewater and trade with Europe is by way of New Orleans and Galveston.

Illinois is now producing only half as much wheat as twenty years ago and Indiana has decreased its production; Kansas, on the other hand, has trebled its yield and Nebraska more than doubled its crop, while Texas and Oklahoma are now raising much good wheat against nothing twenty years ago.

Going to Central America.

Kansas City, Mo., June 24.—Grant G. Gillett, the Kansas City plunger, whose failure last winter for nearly $2,000,000 caused a sharp flurry in financial circles, is reported to have suddenly left Chihuahua, Mexico, where he has been in the hotel business, since his flight from creditors. The Kansas City Star states that Gillett has taken his family to the City of Mexico, whence they will go into Central America, where the plunger hopes to engage in business and be safe from the creditors and others who have hounded him in Chihauhua. According to the Star, Gillett has been a victim of blackmailers, who have repeatedly threatened to kidnap him and bring him back to the United States.

Women Conductors Discharged.

Madison, Ind., June 24.—Every woman conductor employed on the street cars here has received a notice of discharge. Five of them have been employed ever since the electric line was started, in July, 1887—Beatrice Earlinghouse, Ada Douglas, Lydia Martin, Rose Aplinger and Emma Meyer. While on duty they wear neat uniforms of a light tan colored skirt coming to the tops of the shoes, a light colored shirt waist and sailor hats. Patrons of the road have made a protest against the discharge of the women as they say that their service has been a model of pleasantness and courtesy.

$6,000,000 Brewery Combine

Paterson, N. J., June 24.—All the breweries of Passaic County have been brought under one management. The new company is to be known as the Paterson Brewing and Malting Company. The capital involved is placed at $6,000,000. The directors are Bernard Katz, Philip Katz, Christian Braum, Louis F. Braum, James A. Graham, Herber Katz, Arthur Katz, John Hinchcliffe, James C. Hinchcliffe and William F. Hinchcliffe.

Gen. Cassius M. Clay Blind.

Louisville, Ky., June 24.—Gen. Cassius M. Clay, ex-Mnisiter to Russia, is almost totally blind. His sight is so impaired that he cannot distinguish one person from another. His home, Whitehall, is falling into decay, but is guarded as closely as when the General was in hiding there against persons who threatened his life. His divorced wife, Dora, is living with her husband at Pinard, Woodford county.

Mrs. Fair's Estate

San Francisco, June 24.—John W. Mackay and R. V. Dey, trustees under the will of the late Mrs. Theresa Fair, have sued the city and county of San Francisco and Tax Collector Sheehan to enjoin the collection of taxes on $298,000 worth of Southern Pacific bonds, $27,000 worth of West Shore Railway bonds and 625 shares of the Commercial Cable Company.

To Enlist 35,000 Volunteers

Washington, June 24.—Adjutant General Corbin admitted that the War Department purposes to enlist a majority, if not all, of the 35,000 provisional force authorized by law for use in the Philippines. The enlistment is going forward rapidly now, and it is intended to push the work vigorously.

Mount Tired of Politics

Laporte, Ind., June 24.—Governor James A. Mount, for whom western politicians have developed a vice-presidential boom, has written to a personal friend saying he will retire from politics at the close of his term of office. The letter disavows any future political aspirations.

He Died of Fright.

Paterson, N. J., June 24.—Cornelius J. Spear, a wheelwright, 66 years old, of No. 71 Cliffe street, died while riding on the side step of a trolley car, having been frightened by a large truck running up close to the car.

Gorman's Condition Still Serious.

Washington, June 24.—Ex-Senator Gorman is still a very sick man. He is at present at his country place at Laurel, a few miles from Washington, and his friends are very much worried over his condition.

Two Feet of Pain.

Pain is not usually measured by the foot, yet it is a fact that the unfortunates who suffer the miseries of aching feet endure an inch of torture to every square inch of foot they own.

Pain of any kind causes a strain upon the nervous system, and if prolonged and unchecked will create depression of spirits and despondency.

Aching feet are vexatious, aggravating and irritating, and nothing is more annoying than feet deformed and distorted from corns and bunions. Mr. Brown's painless method for the treatment and cure of corns, bunions, ingrowing and club toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty, chafed and burning feet, is endorsed by all eminent physicians. He has made diseases of the feet a life study. Corns, bunions and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago in Plainfield have not come back and the feet today are sound and well. Read the proof:

D. S. Scheuer, grocer, Front St; H. A. Weber, grocer, Liberty and Second streets; S. Sharkey, grocer, Third and Richmond streets; G. Voehl, bakery, 127 Front street; F. R. Vanderhoof, at F. Endress' meat market, Front street, and many others had corns, bunions, and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago; no trouble since. Albert Runyon, 41 Mountain avenue; J. Q. Miles, J. P., 28 Somerset street; F. Cullen, and Mrs. Cullen, 1001 Second street; Mrs. M. C. Terry, 331 East Third street; J. D. Smalley, meat market, 153 Front street; H. L. Overbaugh, 118 Elmwood place; W. W. Warnock, bakery, 138 North avenue; J. J. Stites, blacksmith, Dunellen; and hundreds of others say that Mr. Brown completely cured their bunions, ingrowing toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty and tender feet, etc. They all say the treatment was painless; no soreness after.

When You Are Away

For a week, or a month, or the whole summer, there is nothing more welcome than the news from home. There is only one way to get this news in the right shape, and that is by having The Daily Press sent to you at your vacation stopping place. When leaving town for a season be sure to order The Daily Press to follow you by mail. The address will be changed as often as desired. Ten cents a week will cover all expenses.

COMING EVENTS.

June 25—Rev. Thomas Houston, "The Blind Evangelist," will speak and sing at the Y. M. C. A. at 4:15 p. m. Good music.

June 29—Opening of the camp at Northfield, Mass. Information at Y. M. C. A.

The New York World has complied statistics which show that there are 116 trusts embracing and controlling nearly every necessity of life and employing over 3,500,000 wage earners who represent over 17,000,000 individuals. As nearly all of these trusts are run as cheaply as possible and get the most they can from the consumer, the extent of the evil can be recognized.

If the political prophets are right the Republican renominations for the Senate will be as follows: Salem, Richard C. Miller; Camden, Herbert W. Johnson; Gloucester, Solomon H. Stanger; Somerset, Charles A. Reed; Monmouth, Charles A. Francis; Union, Joseph Cross. In Essex county the Republican nominee will be either William Riker or Thomas N. McCarter Jr.

The decision handed down by the Court of Errors and Appeals which declares unconstitutional the District Court Act of 1898, under which Atlantic City formed its District Court, also invalidates the District Court of Asbury Park, which was constituted under an amendment passed by the Legislature last winter.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

Assemblyman Roger F. Murray, of Plainfield, is an honest, reliable, well-meaning gentleman; all that he needs to make him a model lawmaker are toe weights. He is prone to interfere and break.—Trenton State Gazette.

But with toe weights Roger Franklin Murray would not be able to bob up as he does now and scatter terror among the lobbyists and keep the corporation advocates on the run. He is somewhat of a free lance, and and that is why the people of New Jersey want Union county to send him back to the Assembly.—New York Tribune.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

The other day one of Plainfield's brightest boys of 6 years made a remark that has much force to it. It was about time for the little fellow to go to bed and after putting on his night attire his parents told him that he must now say his prayers. At this time he was in a position that was not altogether proper for saying his prayers, and the parents urged that he get on his knees. At first he objected and preferred to remain in the position of his own choosing, but after a few minutes' silence he said, "That's right, I will get on my knees. It's not right to turn your back on God." The remark startled the parents, and the young hopeful spoke better than he knew.

* * * * *

Attention is again directed to the many complaints which have been received by The Press of late regarding the difficulty experienced by women in stepping upon or alighting from the passenger coaches of the Central Railroad. The complaint is made that the steps are too high; that they do not hang close enough to the ground. It is the opinion of many people that the cars of the Pennsylvania Railroad are equipped with steps which are much lower than those on the Central road. Last April a lady from Woodbury, Gloucester county, who was visiting Mrs. H. B. Paul, of 409 Central aveuue, was considerably shaken up while alighting from a car at the North Avenue station, and was not able to leave her room for several weeks. While it is true that a porter is supposed to place a stool near the steps for the passengers to use when leaving trains, it is also true that this convenience is not always at hand, and in consequence the ladies are often subjected to much trouble in boarding a train as well as in alighting from it. The car steps should either be made lower or a porter should be on hand to place a stool at the steps of each car for passengers to use.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

Fortunate in the possession of two New York theatres spoken of as having always "the coolest auditoriums in the Metropolis," Mr. Proctor devotes especial attention to the compilation of programmes such as appeal peculiarly to vaudeville patrons in the heated season. The special summer prices now prevailing in the Pleasure Palace, 58th St. and 3d avenue, of 10 cents to the ladies in the afternoon is the biggest boon to the shopper. They jam the Palace every day and it is the sensation of the theatrical world how so great a show can be given for a dime. The exhibition of the magnificent views of foreign points of interest in both the Proctor houses are of real practical value and instructive to an uncommon degree. The big stars of the programme week of June 26 at Proctor's 23d St. Theatre are: Corinne, the lyric comedienne; Mr. and Mrs. Franz Wilczek, of the Philharmonic Orchestra; the Eldridges, Barton and Ashley, and 30 others. At the Pleasure Palace week of June 26 are: Lillian Burkhart, the charming commedienne; Smith and Cook, comedy acrobats; Arras and Alice, and some 30 others.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on L. W. Randolph, Druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

Miss Elizabeth Long, of Somerville, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Clara Long, of Park avenue.

GIVE THE CHILDREN A DRINK

called Grain-O. It is a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the finest coffee but is free from all its injurious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about ¼ as much as coffee 15 and 25c.

SOME CURIOUS PHRASES.

An old French lawyer, writing of an estate he had just bought, added: "There is a chapel upon it, in which my wife and I wish to be buried, if God spares our lives."

On a tombstone in Indiana is the following inscription: "This monument was erected to the memory of John Jinkins, accidentally shot as a mark of affection by his brother."

A Michigan editor received some verses not long ago with the following note of explanation: "These lines were written fifty years ago by one who has, for a long time, slept in his grave merely for pastime."

A certain politician, lately condemning the Government for its policy concerning the income tax, is reported to have said: "They'll keep cutting the wool off the sheep that lays the golden eggs until they pump it dry."

An orator at one of the university unions bore off the palm when he declared that "the British lion, whether it is roaming the deserts of India or climbing the forests of Canada, will not draw in its horns nor retire into its shell."

A reporter, in describing the murder of a man named Jorkin, said: "The murderer was evidently in quest of money, but luckily Mr. Jorkin had deposited all his funds in the bank the day before, so that he lost nothing but his life."

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Love, like ice, is awfully slippery, and it soon thaws.

Beauty is like a cooking stove—no good when the fuel gives out.

Leading a woman to the altar is usually a man's last act of leadership.

A woman's idea of a hopeless fool is a man who praises some other woman.

Some men are so dignified that they never unbend until they are dead broke.

No one has ever been able to explain why bald-headed men have their hair cut oftener than other men.

With the exception of some of the gold mines offered for sale by promoters there isn't much left on earth to discover.

During courtship lovers overlook each other's faults, but after marriage they spend most of their time in looking for them.

A wife certainly has no cause for complaint if her husband doesn't love her any more—providing he doesn't love her any less.

PENCILINGS.

"I am greatly indebted to you!" is a polite remark that a great many men could truthfully make to the grocer and the provision dealer.

The unsuccessful man never lays up anything, excepting possibly a grudge against the world.

It is easy enough to manage a wife, provided she isn't yours.

The man who is always punctual never gets to a place a minute ahead of time. Even so, he usually has to wait for some one else.

You can't offend a 14-year-old girl by estimating her age two years too high.

The girl who leaves the point of a pin sticking out of her belt behind doesn't deserve to be hugged.

It is generally safe to say that the man who hears the clock strike at 3 o'clock every night isn't successful in his business.

Table Damask Sale.

This is not the season for a Sale of Table Linens, but when we are able to give such values as we shall offer for the next few days we feel justified in making this sale. A large Importing house about to move was anxious to dispose of as much stock as possible to avoid moving same. The remarkably low prices quoted for very desirable goods induced us to buy very heavily, and we now find ourselves in a position to offer the people of this community such Bargains in Table Damask as they never dreamed of. The lot comprises some inconceivably choice 72 in Bleached Damask in the most attractive designs.

There are also many exceptionally good half-bleached German Damasks made to stand hard service. They will bleach very quickly and wear interminably.

THIS SALE is one of supreme importance to all thrifty housekeepers who wish to "stock up" with little expense.

Sale Begins Saturday 7 P. M.

—At an early date it is expected that needed improvements will be made at the Church of the Holy Cross.

—The Sunday-school of the Congregational church will hold special missionary exercises tomorrow morning.

—The next regular meeting of the Borough Council will be held Friday evening, July 7th, and several important matters will be introduced at that time.

—Fresh milk, cream, ice cream, buttermilk and pot cheese every day at Debele's creamery, 111 Somerset street. Telephone 1113. Orders delivered.

—VanArsdale says low shoes for everybody are the rage these warm days. So for this season he has put out more of these goods than he has in any previous year.

—The Woman's Relief Corps met last evening but nothing outside of routine business was considered. There was a good attendance and the meeting was of interest.

—Tickets are selling rapidly for the oratorio concert to be given by the choir of the First Baptist church next week Tuesday evening. The entire proceeds will be given to the hospital for the new building.

—The complimentary concert to Rev. Mr. McKane at the Christian church, Grove street, will be given next Thursday evening. M. A. Korff, Garrett Dunham, Herbert Herold and the ladies' orchestra will appear.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that their is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

MEN WHO SAVED VICTORIA

Instances in Which the Queen Had Some Narrow Escapes.

The first man to save the Queen's life was an Irish soldier, who not until fifty years afterward, however, was aware of the honor that had by chance fallen to his lot. When in her 5th year the Princess Victoria—as she was then—was one day taken for a drive in a pony chaise, when from some cause the vehicle upset, and would, but for the prompt action of the passing soldier—who, seizing the child by the frock, snatched her from danger—undoubtedly have fallen upon her.

Ten years later, while yachting, an accident occurred, and a falling mast would undoubtedly have struck the Princess had not a pilot named Saunders, with great presence of mind, pulled her from her perilous position.

Two months before her coronation, while riding through Hyde Park, her Majesty's horse took fright at something and bolted. Fortunately Andrew Ducrow, the famous equestrian of Astley's Amphitheatre, chanced to be riding a short distance ahead. Hearing the furious thud of the horse's feet he turned, and, grasping the situation at a glance, leaped from his saddle in time to catch the bridle of the runaway and bring it to a standstill. For his prompt assistance Ducrow afterward received a handsome scarf pin from her Majesty.

Soon after her accession, the Queen, accompanied by her mother, the Duchess of Kent, was driving through Highgate, when the horses attached to the royal carriage became restive, and at the same moment, something going wrong with one of the wheels, the royal ladies were in considerable danger.

Luckily help was at hand in the person of the landlord of the Fox and Crown, who had the good luck to stop the horses. He then sent for a wheelwright to put matters straight, and, while this was being done, accommodated her Majesty with a seat within his hostelry. For this service he was permitted to display the royal arms, with an inscription to the effect that "This coat-of-arms is a grant from Queen Victoria, for services rendered to her Majesty when in danger travelling down this hill."

The cases of Bean and O'Connor, who were respectively seized by a man named Bassett—himself afterward arrested and examined before the Privy Council—and the Queen's celebrated attendant, John Brown, can hardly be included in this article, as in neither instance was the pistol loaded with ball, so that, even had no one interfered, her Majesty's safety would not have been imperilled.

On May 27, 1850, when leaving the Duchess of Cambridge's residence in Piccadilly, the Queen was grossly assaulted by a certain Lieut. Robert Pale who struck at her with a cane. Luckily, however, the force of the blow was broken by the head of a youth named Holder, who chanced to be standing in front of the dastardly assailant.

But for his unwilling intervention her Majesty would have been receiving its full strength, the youth was for a time completely dazed by the stroke. Young Holder subsequently entered the Congregational ministry from which he retired some two years since.

If All Men Knew How to Sew.

A mother who believed in higher education and an all round usefulness for both boys and girls made the remark one day in my hearing:—

"It would be a good thing if every woman would teach her boys to sew as her girls."

Not long ago I was at the house when the boys, quite grown up, were dressed for an evening party, waiting for the carriage to come to the door. One of them suddenly discovered that there was a button missing off his vest.

"Shall I sew it on for you?" I asked.

"Thank you," he replied, "but I think perhaps I can do it more quickly myself."

Was it effeminate? Why, certainly not. The boy was only capable, and saved himself much time and trouble by being able to do things for himself at the moment when most needed.

"All right," remarked a man to whom I told the story, "but those fellows are going to be much more particular about what their wives can do, and if they are not also capable what is going to happen?"

I could not answer that question, for there are so many queer combinations in domestic life, and those who would naturally be supposed to be happy are unhappy and vice versa, that no one could tell what would happen if the young man who could sew on his buttons should marry a young woman who could not.

The Matinee Hat.

A clergyman has discovered a formidable reason for the abolition of the matinee hat. These articles of fashionable attire are, it seems, the resort of diabolical agencies, which may be the real cause of so many gentlemen in theatres and concerts using strong language about them. At any rate, the reverend gentleman asserts that in the days of the Archbishop of Canterbury the "matinee hat," or its ancient prototype, was common among the women who attended church, and became such a nuisance that the prelate proclaimed that the hats were full of demons, and stopped his sermon in order to tear the "ornaments" from their heads and stamp them under their feet. From that time until quite recently the "matinee hat" was unknown. Unfortunately, theatrical managers have not the power of a mediavel Archbishop of Canterbury, but the reverend correspondent has apparently succeeded in tracing the origin of what most people regard as a modern nuisance.—London Telegraph.

Novel Tablecloths.

A pretty fad is to embroider a fine cloth for afternoon teas by copying so far as possible the pattern on the cups and plates used, and to do the work in the colors of the dishes. The work looks best on a white ground, unless the china has a very decided tone, when it is best to get a linen to correspond. Washing silk or linen thread should be used. Other novel tablecloths have a monogram of a woman embroidered in gold thread on a pale blue or pink silk foundation, and placed at the corner of the fine damask cloth, but in this case the silk has to be removed when the cloth is washed and reappliqued with fine silk buttonholing when again to be used.

THE SUMMER WARDROBE.

New Poplins—How Traveling Gowns Are Made.

Poplin is one of the best of the season's materials. It is used for all sorts of gowns, from simple ones to those of great elaborateness, and is seen in black and all the new colors—several blues and violets, a number of greens, grays and beiges and poppy and venetian red. There is a lovely shade of pastel green, another of light hortensia blue and a beautiful silver gray. Poplin is employed for little girls as well as women.

Traveling gowns are very simply made, the tailor made style being preferred, and all elaborations of fastening and troublesome adjustments are avoided. A pocket is a necessity, but it is difficult to put it anywhere except in the back seam and yet keep it out of evidence. Where there are no plaits at all in the back of the skirt it cannot be kept out of sight even there. In such a case it is best to trim the two sides of the front and conceal the opening of the pocket under the trimming. The skirt should be short, so that it need not be held up in the hand during walking. The bodice which is most convenient is the jacket or bolero, which may be open or closed, according to circumstances. It should be worn over a neat shirt waist of percale or wash silk.

The cut shows a gown of flax blue linen. The upper part of the skirt is adorned with heavy white embroidered motifs, and the bodice, which forms a slight blouse in front, is similarly trimmed. The upper part of the bodice is cut away in a fanciful form to show the neck, and the edge is finished with a plaiting of white mousseline de sole. The half length sleeves and the epaulets are finished in the same way. JUDIC CHOLLET.

FASHION HINTS.

Items of Interest Concerning the Wardrobe.

Capes are still worn for the carriage, for evening and as traveling wraps, and their utility will keep them in fashion for a long time yet, but the bolero or short jacket is now preferred for general use.

The fashionable wedding costume includes something beside the gown, veil and accessories. The bride must have special garments all through, beginning with underwear of fine linen trimmed with real valenciennes lace. Then come the short petticoat of white liberty silk, the long petticoat of white moire or satin, elaborately trimmed with lace, mousseline de soie and ribbon, and the corset of white satin or opal broche silk. These concealed decorations are quite as costly as the gown itself and are of the finest quality and workmanship.

The bodice differing from the skirt is still worn, both by girls and women. Corsages are no longer made with a blouse effect at the back, the front only being allowed to overhang the belt. Bodices of taffeta or of mousseline de soie over silk are in as much favor as ever.

The cut shows a costume of poppy red taffeta. The skirt is covered with an application of yellow guipure and has a tunic of plain taffeta with a stitched edge. The little coat is cut to match and has a stitched edge also and opens over a plastron of the guipure over taffeta. The sleeves are plain, the epaulets being cut in one with the bodice. Fancy buttons decorate the corsage, and there is a neck frill of yellow chiffon. The hat of yellow straw is trimmed with red poppies and red tulle. JUDIC CHOLLET.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Provinz Ostpreußen.

Lyck. Das Schwurgericht verurtheilte den Gutsbesitzer Licht-Justusberg wegen vorsätzlicher betrügerischer Brandstiftung zu sechs Jahren Zuchthaus und zehn Jahren Ehrverlust, seine Ehefrau wegen Beihilfe zu zwei Jahren Zuchthaus. Am 16. Dezember des Vorjahres brannte das ganze Gut Justusberg nieder, das Feuer war gleichzeitig an drei Stellen ausgebrochen.

Neidenburg. Wie nunmehr festgestellt, ist der hiesigen Stadtkasse durch die Flucht ihres früheren Rendanten Smolenski ein Fehlbetrag von 11,379 Mark entstanden. Davon sind nur 3500 Mark durch Kaution gedeckt.

Provinz Westpreußen.

Danzig. Die Stadtverordneten genehmigten einen Vertrag mit der Staatsregierung, daß das Danziger städtische Archiv unter staatliche Verwaltung tritt. Für den Bau eines Dienstgebäudes stellt die Stadtgemeinde eine Fläche von etwa 1500 Quadratmeter kostenlos zur Verfügung. Damit ist die Errichtung eines Staatsarchivs für Westpreußen gesichert.

Christburg. Im nahen Baumgart brannte die Hildebrand'sche Dampfschneidemühle nieder. Der Nachtwächter hat bei der Brandkatastrophe seinen Tod gefunden.

Thorn. Als Lehrerin für die jüngsten kaiserlichen Prinzen ist die Tochter des kürzlich verstorbenen Konrektors a. D. Ottmann dahier berufen worden. Fräulein Ottmann, die lange Jahre hindurch als Sprachlehrerin im Auslande thätig war, wird die Prinzen in der englischen Sprache unterrichten.

Rheinprovinz.

Köln. Der Bürgermeister von Ründeroth wurde von der hiesigen Strafkammer zu 20 Mark bestraft, weil er als Standesbeamter einen minderjährigen jungen Mann getraut hatte, obgleich die erforderliche Einwilligung des Vaters nicht vorlag.

Bonn. Dieser Tage wurde an der hiesigen Universität der 1000. neue Student immatrikulirt. Die Gesammtfrequenz beträgt jetzt annähernd 2100 Studirende.

Düsseldorf. Die Stadtverordneten genehmigten den Gesammtkostenanschlag für die Umwandlung und Einrichtung der Straßenbahn in eine solche mit elektrischem Betrieb in Höhe von 3,200,000 Mark.

Essen. Der Beigeordnete v. Bruchhausen wurde einstimmig zum Bürgermeister von Recklinghausen gewählt.

Koblenz. In dem Dorfe Kennfuß richtete eine Feuersbrunst verheerenden Schaden an; 32 Häuser wurden in Asche gelegt, ehe es gelang, dem wüthenden Elemente Einhalt zu thun.

Provinz Sachsen.

Magdeburg. Nach Unterschlagung nicht unbedeutender, ihm anvertrauter Gelder ist der Kaufmann Keil von hier verschwunden. Sein in Wanzleben ansässiger Vater wurde verhaftet.

Halle. Auf dem Riesen des Saalkreises, dem hohen Petersberge, soll ein Bismarck-Denkmal errichtet werden. Die Gesammtkosten werden auf 22,000 Mark geschätzt.

Weißenfels. Die Grubenarbeiter des Zeitz-Weißenfels-Guselwitzer Kohlenreviers haben an die Bergwerksverwaltungen die Forderung gestellt, den Lohn um zehn Prozent zu erhöhen.

Provinz Schlesien.

Görlitz. Das größte Geschäftshaus Deutschlands in der Lederbranche ist dieser Tage hier eröffnet worden. Der Firmeninhaber Ludwig Heinrich beging die Fertigstellung und Einweihung des Riesengebäudes mit seinem Personal und zahlreichen, zum Theil aus weiter Ferne herbeigeeilten Geschäftsfreunden durch ein großes Fest. Aus kleinen Anfängen hat sich das 1845 gegründete Geschäft zu diesem Welthaus entwickelt.

Kattowitz. Wie in Stettin so wird auch hier eine staatliche Baugewerkschule errichtet.

Provinz Schleswig-Holstein.

Schleswig. Die Errichtung einer großen Schiffswerft zum Bau eiserner Schiffe ist in Apenrade geplant. Eine Gesellschaft hat bereits geeignetes Terrain angekauft.

Kiel. Professor Klaus Groth ist hier gestorben.—Der neue hiesige Bahnhof wurde kürzlich unter Betheiligung der Spitzen der Behörden eröffnet.

Oldenburg. Bei dem Goldschmied Asmussen wurde Nachts ein frecher Einbruchsdiebstahl verübt. Der Werth der gestohlenen Sachen, massiv goldene Ringe, Broschen, Uhrketten sowie eine Anzahl silberne Löffel u. s. w., wird auf weit über 7000 Mark veranschlagt.

PLAINT OF A BOY.

I don't see why it's 'spected of boys,
To be just as quiet as mice,
When everything that's a-growin'
Don't sit still an' be so purcise!

The corn is always a wavin'
At the oats across the way;
And I know when I've bin a-fishin',
That the streams sing all the day.

Fact everything keeps a movin',
An' a-makin' lots of noise,
An' the birds sing just as plain like,
"Come, have lots of fun, little boys!"

An' even the little boy sunbeams
That come from away up in the sky,
Always dance! An' they never get scolded
Or put in the corner to cry.

An' I don't see why it's 'spected of boys
To be just as quiet as mice,
When everything what's a-growin'
Don't sit still an' be so purcise!

—Annella Gilmore.

BOB'S FRIEND JIM.

To many people the jigglety-jogglety, jigglety-jog night is as soporific in its effect as counting imaginary sheep jumping over imaginary fences, or saying one's prayers backward. The through express from Florida to New York had kept up this music steadily and rythmically for some hours. The occupants of the sleeper Oleomargarine were presumably soothed to slumber, when a sharp, childish treble broke in upon the cadenced jigglety-jogglety, jigglety-jog. It was a little boy's voice. "Mamma," it cried; "mamma, Jim has escaped."

Silence. "Mamma, do you hear? Jim has got away." The big man in upper No. 6 stopped snoring and blinked his fat eyes. "Jim got away——" What's that? A vision of a thief danced before his waking consciousness. He put his hand hastily under his pillow and clutched his watch. Ah, Jim had left that, at all events.

"Mamma," the voice began again, "why don't you wake up? Jim has——"

"Sh'sh, Bob," came in a gentle feminine tone, "if we talk, you know, we'll wake every one in the car, and people love to sleep when they're traveling at night."

'Let 'em schleeb, then," grunted a Hebrew from lower No. 7.

"You don't understand, mamma; it's Jim; he's escaped."

"Hush, Bob, go to sleep. You're dreaming. There isn't any Jim. Who's Jim?"

"Why, Jim's my great big alligator, mamma; the one who tried to bite me to-day. He's got out of the box and gone to take a walk in the car, and I'm afraid he can't find my berth again."

There was a wild chorus of "Jim," "Alligator escaped," and a concert of screams. Presto! the scene changed! The quiet car aisle, dimly lighted, hung with the somber, flowing drapery we American travelers know so well, was suddenly alive with people. Upper No. 6 tumbled on to the very nose of the Hebrew—lower No. 7—and almost sat astride it in his excitement.

A mother and child in the classic attitude and clinging drapery of Niobe and her youngest posed motionless with terror. Further on a bewildered Adonis of a youth, in pink pajamas slid from his berth. A fair, fat, forty creature was calling in a pretty feminine way for some one to save her. Bob's mother, in her peignor, plunged into Bob's berth.

"Oh, Bob, Bob! not Jim! Don't say it is Jim. He's so fierce. Why couldn't it have been one of the others."

"One of the others!" shrieked the chorus again, changing positions.

"They're in the box, the others," said Bob's mother, addressing the entire car. "Don't be frightened, good people, pray don't; and I really think Jim must have gotten away by this time, he crawls so fast."

"Crawls so fast! oh-h-h!" shrieked a woman.

"Oh, porter, find him; find him!" screamed two girls together; "find the alligator," and the black porter, aided by the more intrepid men, looks under berths, opens traveling bags, feels in ladies' pockets and adds to the general pandemonium.

"Hush! there he is!" cried fair, fat and forty, pointing upward.

"Nonsense, ma'am," says the fat man. "They don't go up; they go down. Look in your shoes. They always go for shoes, spiders and lizards, and snakes and crawly critters generally."

The fat man was getting back into upper six. "Jim can't get up here, then," he said, "can he?"

"Oh, yes; they climb," cried ignorant Bob cheerfully.

"No, no, Bob," pleaded his mother.

"Oh, they climb," cried the chorus.

"Crawl and climb," added the fair, fat and forty, hysterically.

"I have him!" called the Jew, excitedly. "Here he is," and he held up at arm's length the wee, struggling, straggling creature.

"Throw him out! throw him out!" called the women. "Throw him out! throw him out!" echoed the men.

"He's found!" shrieked Adonis into the left eye of the spinster's spectacles. "He's found, the alligator's found, and he's nothing but a little bit of a thing."

"A little bit of a thing!" cried Bob excitedly. "Then it isn't Jim!"

"Oh, Bob," said his mother, desperately, but Bob was at the fat man's elbow. "No, that isn't Jim. That's—let me see his leg—yes, that's the lame one. He hurt his left fore leg this morning. That's only Joe."

"Joe," moaned the chorus, "only Joe. Who's Joe?"

"He's my lame alligator, I tell you," replied Bob, bravely. "I guess he got out of the box, too. I'm afraid they are all gone."

"Holy Moses!" ejaculated the Jew, and a French maid crossed herself.

"My darling," gushed Niobe, folding her child in the warm embrace of her large arms, "we must pray to God to protect us."

The time had come to take to one's religion.

"What's the matter?" cried Bob. "I tell you it isn't Jim."

"Hush, Bob!" whispered Bob's mother. "Don't mention Jim. Can't you see that it infuriates the mob."

"They're little critters," said the porter. "Get back into bed, ladies."

"Yes, ladies, get back into bed. They're only little things," called out upper six. "Don't mind them."

People gradually began to get back into their berths, and Bob's mother crept into his with him to cheer him up, and to examine the sheets and coverlets to see that none of the alligator family was left.

"They have not caught Jim, anyway," whispered Bob. "My! weren't they mad? I thought they would lynch us, didn't you?"

"Hush, Bob, go to sleep." Jigglety, jogglety, jigglety-jog went the train, and sighs and screams gave way to snores and dreams again.

About an hour later a little voice called: "Look, mamma!" Bob's mother peered out from between the bed curtains, and there, coming down the aisle of the car like a vitalized curio from a Japaneses bazar was Jim, the alligator. His eyes glistened. His wet feet paddled slowly along; the lamp light shone on his black, scaly back, as alone in stately majesty he made his way down the car aisle. So his ancestors moved by the banks of the Ganges—centuries ago.

As he passed Bob's berth Bob made a dab at him and breathed, "Jim! Jim!" but a loud cough from upper six made the little boy and his mother both glance up. The fat man was regarding them. He wore a very savage look on his face; his finger was on his lips, and he was shaking his head menacingly at Bob. So Jim, the alligator, went on his peaceful way.

The porter saw him and stood respectfully aside. Then the fat man began to laugh and to shake and to laugh again, till the tears came. When they did he leaned over and whispered most familiarly to Bob and his mother:

"I'm crying crocodile tears. Ha, ha, ha!"

"What's the matter?" called Niobe.

"Hush-sh-sh!" came from a dozen berths simultaneously. "Sh-sh!"

"Hush, Bob!" said his mother. "We shall know, perhaps, in the morning."

But they never did know.

To Lift a Decanter by a Bent Straw.

An interesting trick is to lift a decanter half filled with water by a bent straw. This would seem impossible, but it is not. The decanter should have a narrow neck and wide and rather square "shoulder" part. The straw, which must be a good and whole one, about two and one-half feet long or two feet. This is to be bent upwards one-third of its length, or enough to bring it under the "shoulder" of the decanter. Doubled, it is pushed into the decanter, and then it spreads apart, leaving the long end outside and the short one inside. This end is lifted carefully and as it is it displaces the center of gravity which is brought directly under the point of suspension. It is well for the performer to have two or three extra pieces of straw, to be sure to find one without crook or break.

Wouldn't Tell a Story.

A boy once applied for a situation.

"We don't like lazy boys here," said the manager. "Are you fond of work?"

"No, sir," responded the boy, looking the other straight in the face.

"Oh, you're not, aren't you? Well, we want a boy that is."

"There ain't any," said the boy doggedly.

"Oh, yes, there are. We have had over half a dozen of that kind here this morning to take the place we have."

"How do you know they are?" asked the boy.

"They told me so."

"So could I. But I'm not a liar." And the lad said it with such an air of convincing energy that he was engaged at once.

Where Boys Yell in School.

In Burmese schools making the lads shout is the approved method of elementary instruction. The Burmese educationalists argue that so long as a boy is shouting his mind is occupied. When he is silent he is certain to be scheming mischief. Therefore the best shouters are the best pupils.

CYCLING COMMENT.

Mrs. Chas. Conover, of Elmwood place, has purchased a Victoria wheel.

Alfred Springer's ten-mile handicap road race was held last evening with six starters. The course was out Park avenue to Pumptown and return. The men finished in the following order: W. Slater, 1½ minutes, Rahway, first; J. Boland, 1½ minutes, Rahway, second; Robert Angleman, 2 minutes, Plainfield, third; Albert Marsh, 1½ minutes, Plainfield, fourth; John Turner, 1½ minutes, Plainfield, fifth; Jep Sorenson, scratch, Plainfield, sixth. Jep Sorensen was award time prize. His time was 21 minutes, 10 seconds. The judges and timers were George H. Rockfellow, Frank Schuck, Chauncey F. Stout.

GOLF.

The Park Golf Club has arranged an open handicap tournament for July 4th as the attraction for that day.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the Park Golf Club June 21st, Major F. W. Coleman, J. P. Welles Tayler, Clinton E. Braine and Dr. F. C. Ard were elected to membership.

Politics and golf seem to go well together. Assemblyman Roger F. Murray has been playing on the links of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club and making an excellent showing there. On the other course across the brook Senator Reed is a constant visitor.

the railway cannot be compelled to issue excusion, commutation or 50-trip tickets, or even to provide fast trains. The fact that the company has not exacted its full legal rights may be put down of course to self-interest, nevertheless all the favors we now receive should be accepted with gratitude and full credit given to the company.

The suggestion that the trolley should be used to reach New York via South Plainfield and the Lehigh Valley reminds me of the golden opportunity that was lost when the Lehigh Valley extended its line to New York. If North Plainfield had been a city in the western States no effort would have been too great to induce the Lehigh Valley to locate their new line through North Plainfield, which would have given that town a short, direct and independent route to New York. As a matter of curiosity I would like to know where in the United States is another town of the size, population and wealth of North Plainfield without a single foot of steam railway within its corporate limits. I know of none.

To go back to the original point, we in Plainfield are using the old system of three cents per mile, a steam railway and a ferry to Liberty street of thirty-year-old side-wheel boats, in competition with electric roads, the Brooklyn Bridge and an extremely low uniform fare, irrespective of distance. It is the old against the new, with the inevitable result, which slightly cheaper fares cannot materially affect. I am, dear sir,

A commuter who spends the same time and the same amount of money to travel to and from Plainfield as he did nearly twenty years ago.

SIX TRIBES COMING THE FOURTH.

Miantonomoh Tribe Will be Host on the Fourth.

Last evening at the meeting of Miantonomah Tribe, I. O. R. M., the warriors and chief's degree were worked on several candidates. The secretary was instructed to notify every member to be present at the rooms Fourth of July morning at 9 o'clock to join the parade. Already six letters of acceptance have been received from out-of-town tribes, out of thirteen tribes invited. The committee from Miantonomah was given full power to complete arrangements for their part of the celebration, and to arrange for the entertainment of guests.

At this meeting a warrant for $100 was ordered drawn in favor of Mrs. Grollmisch, of East Front street, whose husband, a member of the tribe, died last evening. The members will assemble at the lodge rooms tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock for the purpose of attending the funeral services to be held at 2 o'clock from the house on East Front street, and 2:30 from the German Reformed church.

—There will be Danish Lutheran service in the German Reformed church on Craig place Monday evening at 8 o'clock by Rev. Chas Wenger, of Philadelphia.

MEXICAN MONEY EVOLUTION

In Early Days Things Were Traded for "So Many Beans."

Before Mexico was invaded by the Spaniards, coins were unknown in this country, the natives using in the place of money the smallest cacao beans, reserving those of larger size and better quality for the manufacture of liquor, to which they were much addicted.

About fourteen years after the conquest—that is to say, about the year 1535, Castilian coin commenced to make its appearance in Mexico. As it arrived, however, only in very small quantities, it proved itself insufficient for the needs of trade, even though the latter was still of very insignificant proportions. It was then that the ruling viceroy, under authority of a royal decree, ordered the manufacture in the City of Mexico of small pieces of silver of certain weight. These pieces were not stamped with any coinage whatsoever, and their value was determined entirely by their weight and size. From this was derived the name "peso," which has outlived the first attempt at making money in Mexico up to the present. These pieces of silver remained in circulation a number of years, and pieces of gold and of copper were also added in time. Soon, however, it was found that this sort of circulating medium made fraud and abuse extremely easy, and the Spanish Government, taking cognizance of this fact, established by royal decree three mints, granting them a perpetual existence for America. These mints were located in San Luis, Santa Fe and the City of Mexico.

The same decree also provided that in San Domingo, on the Spanish island known to-day as Puerto Rico, only copper money should be made, acording to the regulations governing the mint of Castile in the year 1689. The coinage of Mexico was actually begun during the reign of Viceroy Antonio de Mendoza, who established a mint in a building belonging to the Marquis del Valle. Here it remained only a short time, being transferred first to the council building, and later to the Viceroyal Palace. During all this time the coinage was of considerable amount, and the facilities of the establishment were not sufficient to meet the demands made upon it for coins, for which reason frequent demands for minting apparatus are found in the ancient records. In the year 1778 the mint was established in the Apartado Building, and has continued since then in the street of that name. From the declaration of independence until the year 1847 the mint was rented out to private parties, who supplied with coin all the States of the Republic that had no mints of their own.

How It Feels to Be Hanged.

Richard Hicks, an old-time actor, tells of his narrow escape from being hanged on the stage of the Queen's Theatre, Dublin. He was playing the part of Achmet, a particularly villainous character, who after a long career of crime is, to the general satisfaction of the audience, captured by two British soldiers and promptly hanged. "One night, while struggling with my captors, the rope supped from my shoulders and knotted itself around my neck, just as I was being hauled up!" says Mr. Hicks. "Never shall I forget that awful moment. Directly I felt the tug at my neck I gave a convulsive kick and tried to shout 'Stop!' but the word could not escape from my twitching lips. I could only make a gurgling noise! Frantically I kicked and struggled. Pain there was none, strangely enough, beyond a choking suffocating sensation; and I could hear the tumultuous applause of the audience, who were hugely entertained with what they imagined was my realistic acting. Then a terrible sensation, like molten lead rushing down my spine, prevaded my body, and I thought my legs were bursting. I gave another mighty struggle and strove—ah! how I strove—to scream; I seemed to behold a mighty rush of green water, and my ears were filled with the roar of a cataract! I have a dim recollection of seeing a great crimson sun shining dimly from behind the waterfall, and I can remember falling indefinitely through space! Two days afterward I recovered consciousness, and then I suffered indescribable agony. The suffocating sensation still remained, but was accompanied by an unquenchable thirst, not to mention fearful pains in my body and limbs."

Able Gin Drinkers in Belgium.

Belgium is famous all over the world for the quantity of alcohol drunk by its inhabitants. Every one who has spent a Sunday in the mining districts or has visited the poorest quarters of the large cities knows the terrible evils caused by the cheap spirits, especially gin, consumed. Belgium, with a population of between 6,000,000 and 7,000,000, has about 220,000 bars where gin is sold at the rate of 6 centimes (a little more than an American cent) for a small glass. In some of the small towns there is a bar for every twenty inhabitants, and often I have met workmen who drink daily their twenty small glasses of gin. I remember one stonecutter who was famous among his comrades because he drank his thirty small glasses daily. Half of his wages was spent in drink, and he ate nearly nothing.

Earthquakes.

When an earthquake occurs the entire crust or surface of the earth experiences some effects of the disturbance. An earthquake in Calcutta which was accurately recorded gave a basis for determining the speed of transmission of the wave of disturbance due to the shock. The disturbance was registered at the Edinburgh observatory, thousands of miles distant, and gave a speed of transmission of six and two-tenths miles per second for the heavier shocks and less than two miles per second for the lighter ones.

Inoculating Land.

Clover sickness, a common disease that often ruins clover crops, has caused German scientists to make experiments. They now say that farmers will soon be able to inoculate their lands just as human beings may be treated.

EXPERTS AND NOVICES ON THE GOLF LINKS.

Scores Made by Hillside and Park Club Players.

GILBERT CUP COMPETITION.

MISS KAUFMAN AND WHITNEY BAKER THE LEADERS.

The Threatening Weather Kept Many Away From the Links of Both the Clubs—Park Club Has a Promising Player in the Person of Edwin T. Douglass, Who Makes Fine Scores.

The very warm and threatening weather of Saturday afternoon kept many persons away from the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club grounds; however, there was a good-sized crowd present and many occupied the links throughout the afternoon. The chief event of interest was the first play this season for the Gilbert cup for mixed foursomes, and there were about eighteen entries for the event. Of this number eleven finished, and the weather by this time became so threatening that the others failed to complete the eighteen holes. The play throughout was exciting and much interest was manifested. Miss Grace Kaufman and Whitney Baker succeeded in winning the cup with a net score of 89. The other scores were quite close, as the following table will show:

	Gross.	Handicap.	Net.
Miss Grace Kaufman, Whitney Baker	109	20	89
Miss Reinhart, F. O. Reinhart	103	10	93
Mrs. N. P. Rogers, C.W. Fisk	96	0	96
Miss May Holly, H. Huntington	118	20	98
Miss E. VanBoskerck, Wm. Tyler	120	22	98
Miss H. Bushnell, W. L. Glenney	112	13	99
Miss Margaret Holly, L. H. VanBuren	121	22	99
Miss Smalley, George VanBoskerck	118	18	100
Miss Steel, Owen Fleming	125	22	103
Miss Wadsworth, Parker Mason	114	8	106
Miss Scheenmaker, A. R. Fisk	117	10	107

A large number of members and friends remained in the evening to dinner and enjoyed some of the social features offered by the club. The serving of meals has become very popular at the club. Every evening last week there was a dinner party at the house and Steward Ivamy is kept very busy attending to the wants of the patrons. Next Saturday afternoon the event will be men's foursomes, and a goodly number of entries are looked for.

The chances of a thunder storm seemed so good Saturday afternoon that many of the golfers of the Park Golf Club stayed at home. The Saturday afternoon play on the club links near the mountain was not as largely attended as usual in consequence. The course was in fair condition and the greens were in good shape, but the need of more rain was very apparent. There was a fair attendance at the clubhouse and a few of the members played round for the Mrs. C. W. McCutchen cup. There were a number of others who did not record their scores for the cup. Anderson and several of the other crack players were absent.

The feature of the day was the brilliant playing by Edwin T. Douglass, who, though having remarkably hard luck, succeeded in lowering his already enviable score. It is well to add that those interested in the game should watch this rising player, for he is conceded by those who come in contact with him daily to have remarkable ability in this direction.

Thanks to a good handicap Mr. Douglass made the lowest net score for the day and gained three points in the race for the McCutchen cup. G.W. Cooley and G. W. Faber made the best scores for the day, each completing the round of eighteen holes on 110 strokes.

During the afternoon tea was served in the charming little parlor of the clubhouse. Mrs. E. T. Douglass and Mrs. J. C. Peck presided over the tea table.

The scores recorded during the afternoon for the McCuchen cup were as follows:

	Gross.	Handicap.	Net.
E. T. Douglass	121	26	95
G. W. Cooley	110	14	96
Meredith Dryden	124	28	96
H. D. Hibbard	125	22	103
J. L. Myers	130	27	103
G. W. Faber	110	3	107

CLOSING HIS PASTORATE.

REV. T. LOGAN MURPHY'S LAST SERMON AT HOLY CROSS.

For Nearly a Quarter of a Century He Has Been a Faithful Rector—Affectionate Parting Words in His Discourse.

Rev. T. Logan Murphy, rector of the Church of the Holy Cross, severed his connection with that parish yesterday, after a faithful pastorate of about 23 years. The parish of the Church of the Redeemer having been consolidated with that of the Holy Cross, the parishoners of Rev. W. Montgomery Downey will hereafter worship at the Church of the Holy Cross, which will be in charge of Rev. Mr. Downey. Rev. Mr. Murphy preached his farewell sermon yesterday morning. His text was taken from St. John 4:16—"God is Love."

It was an able discourse and closely listened to by a large congregation. The only personal reference Mr. Murphy made to the close of his pastorate was toward the end of his sermon, when he said in substance that for nearly 23 years he had participated in the joys and sorrows of the members of his church as well as their children. He did not wish to turn back the pages of the past, in which he had striven to do his duty toward God as well as the church. He had received many kindnesses at their hands, had sympathized with them in their sorrows and shared with them their joys. There comes a time, besides, when all must part—a fact he regretted exceedingly, but he viewed in sacred remembrance the many pleasant features of his connection with the church and he felt grateful for the kind assistance which had been rendered him by the members of his congregation.

The affectionate words of the good priest made a deep impression upon the congregation and many were visibly affected.

At the close of the services many stepped to bid God speed to their beloved pastor who is soon to go abroad for his health.

The choir yesterday was augmented by Miss Sara Wood, the contralto soloist of St. James' church, Newark, who rendered beautifully after the oppertory, "Rest in the Lord."

No services were held at Holy Cross last evening. Next Sunday the congregation of the Church of the Redeemer will unite with Holy Cross and services will be held in the latter church, Rev. Mr. Downey officiating.

GROWLER IN THE ALLEY.

FINALLY WENT TO MAGGIE BENFORD'S HOME.

As a Result She Spent Saturday Night in Jail After Disturbing Paradise Alley—Trial Takes Place Wednesday.

The open wickednesses of Paradise Alley are fast becoming happenings of the past, but the Alley enjoys its scandals as well as the rest of the world. There was a little outbreak Saturday afternoon, however, that necessitated a visit from Roundsman Frederickson and the subsequent departure of Mrs. Maggie Benford for the city jail.

In the confabs held at every gateway in the alley the visits of one man on another man's wife were remarked upon. He used to call, it is said, on Saturday afternoons, bringing with him his "growler." Then man and woman were reported to partake together and sometimes get gloriously drunk.

Saturday afternoon, the gossips say, the man came as usual but found the husband at home. He didn't call and the "growler" and its contents finally wound up at the home of Maggie Benford. The police say that Maggie is all right when there is nothing to drink.

When the "Jersey lightning" began to take possession of the actions of Mrs. Benford there was trouble. She was soon plunged in a lively altercation with some of her neighbors and made things lively in the alley. Her son Pete tried to persuade her to return to the house, but she only replied with a rock that nearly knocked the lad off his feet. Then the policeman came.

Mrs. Benford was released yesterday and will be tried before City Judge Runyon Wednesday.

Death of Miss Randolph.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, June 26.—The death of Miss Mary F. Randolph, aged seventy-one years and eight months, occured at her home at Greenbrook yesterday. She was well and favorably known throughout this vicinity and in Plainfield. Her illness extends over a long period and she suffered with diseases that are incurable. She was a native of this vicinity and has always lived near here. The funeral services will be held at the Friends' meeting house, Watchung avenue, Plainfield, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

HOUSTON'S DEMAND MAY DEFEAT CROSS.

Present Union County Senator May Not be Renominated.

J. MARTIN ROLL'S AMBITION.

HE WANTS TO GO TO THE HIGHEST LEGISLATIVE BRANCH.

It is Feared That There is a Secret Movement on Foot Between Plainfield and the Other Towns Against Elizabeth—Sheriff Kirk Hot After the County Clerkship—Howard Would Like to Succeed Himself.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, June 26.—Former Assemblyman J. Martin Roll, of Springfield, is in the field as a candidate for Senator from Union county, in opposition to Senator Cross.

It begins to look as though a secret movement is on foot to prevent Mr. Cross's renomination by a combination between Plainfield, the other townships of Union county and Elizabethport. The latter place wants Assemblyman Houston nominated for Sheriff and stands ready to enter any deal that will bring about this result.

Houston was promised the nomination for Sheriff three years ago, but was beaten by William T. Kirk, of Plainfield, at the county convention. Kirk now wants to be County Clerk, and if his forces combine with those of Houston they will be a formidable power in the convention.

William Howard, of Rahway, present County Clerk, wants another term of five years, but the outlook is that he will he have the fight of his life on his hands to get it in the event of Kirk remaining in the race and pooling his strength with Houston.

The rest of Union county claims that Elizabeth should be satisfied with one county office next fall and herein lies the danger to Senator Cross, as Houston's friends will not give way, but will demand that the pledge made by the leaders in 1896 to the Elizabethport man be carried out.

This is where J. Martin Roll hopes to come in as a candidate of the townships for Senator.

SERIOUS MENACE TO HEALTH.

State Board Will Investigate Condition of Elizabeth River.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, June 26.—Dr. E. R. O'Reilly, of Elizabeth, and a member of the State Board of Health, has called the attention of the Board to the filthy condition of the Elizabeth river, into which the sewage of the city flows. Dr. O'Reilly says there is not enough water in the bed of the river to carry off the refuse.

Dr. O'Reilly suggested to the Board that the sewage of the city be directed to the pipe proposed to be laid through Elizabeth by the townships of Irvington and Orange to the Staten Island Sound. The distance of this sewer will be about seven miles, and will carry the sewage of Orange and Irvington and will flow into nineteen feet of water into the sound. Dr. O'Reilly also informed the Board that something must be done to relieve Elizabeth, as the danger to health is great.

The Board directed that the secretary place the Board in communication with the township authorities at once and open negotiations with them to allow Elizabeth to jointly use the contemplated sewer.

Cranford Still Excited.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Cranford, June 26.—The people of Cranford are still excited over the death of Mrs. Porcella, and there are men in the town who are not backward in saying that they will be a part of a hundred men to ride the Christian Scientists out of town on a rail. Nothing rash is expected, however. At the entrance to the Cranford Athletic Clubhouse some one has pasted up a picture, taken from The Ram's Horn, showing a woman, who represents a Scientist, and a little girl, the victim. Under this is pasted a clipping from a newspaper calling attention to the Scientists in Cranford and warning people to keep away from them.

Reports to be Made.

Tomorrow afternoon at the W. C. T. U. rooms the members of the Loyal Temperance Legion will hold their annual meeting at which time reports will be presented and other interesting exercises will be held. There will be also a report on the proposed public drinking fountain.

A Lucky Find.

AN INCORRIGIBLE YOUTH

THOS. SELLERS, OF SCOTCH PLAINS, IS A BAD ONE.

Has a Record for Holding-up Young Children for Pennies—Now Involved in Having a Bicycle That was Stolen.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Scotch Plains, June 26.—Thomas Sellers, the incorrigible boy, who was involved in trouble about a year ago for his passion of stopping on the street and robbing small children of their pennies, appears now to have a weakness for helping himself to other people's bicycles. Last week a Cleveland bicycle belonging to Joseph Singer, of Westfield, was found in Seller's possession. Two weeks ago Singer left his wheel in front of Walpole's Hotel. No trace of it could be found until last week when Sellers was seen riding it. Sellers said he had found the wheel in Smith's coal yard. Mr. Singer was satisfied to recover the wheel and would not prosecute the boy.

The boy's parents are respectable Germans, of Fanwood, but do not appear to have control of him. Efforts will be made to have young Sellers committed to a reform school.

FAREWELL TO HORSE CARS.

Construction of Kean's Trolley Road Will be Started This Week.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, June 26—Senator John Kean is all ready now to begin the work of building his trolley road from the Elizabethport and Staten Island Ferry to Cranford. Saturday was the last day horses were seen hauling street cars in Elizabeth.

The steel rails for the new trolley line are arriving and some car loads of rails from Steelton, Pa., are now on the ground, while the ties arrived early last week.

Contractor Quien is ready to begin the work of tearing up the horse car line and laying the trolley road. He also has been given the contract by Senator Kean of paving the streets in Elizabeth through which the new line will run. This will cost from $56,000 to $60,000. Contractor Quien hopes to have to have the trolley line completed from the Staten Island ferry to the Elizabeth city line by the end of August and it is intended to have the electric cars running over this distance in September. It will take some months longer to complete the line to Cranford station. The cars for the road will be ordered this week.

TYPOS TO INSPECT THEIR FARM.

Big Excursion of New York Printers to Herbert Farm July Fourth.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Bound Brook, June 24—Typographical Union No. 6, of New York, is making preparations for a grand time the Fourth of July. A special train has been chartered to leave New York at 9:30 and arrive here at 10:30, which will bring out 400 or 500 members of the union and their families to spend the day with the farmer-printers on the Herbert farm, where 48 of them are now raising potatoes and other vegetables. Dinner will be served at a reasonable price in the hall of the mansion, and in the afternoon speech making will be in order, the union having several orators in its membership.

Professor Edward B. Voorhees, Director of the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station at New Brunswick, visited the farm last Friday and made a careful inspection of it. He declared himself as being very much pleased with what he saw.

To Aid the Hospital.

Tomorrow evening "Stabat Master," and the "Redemption," will be given at the First Baptist church by the choir under the direction of E. J. Fitzhugh for the benefit of the building fund of Muhlenberg Hospital. Both of these works are renowned and for many weeks the choir has been rehearsing the various parts so that they will be given in a finished manner. This concert affords a fine opportunity for Plainfield people to enjoy excellent music and at the same time assist a worthy cause.

A Preparatory Service.

Next Friday evening preparatory service will be held in the Crescent Avenue church. A meeting of the session will follow and those who wish to come into active membership of the church may confer with the session at that time. Next Sunday morning the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed.

LAW AND ORDER LEAGUE FOR SCOTCH PLAINS

Sequel of the Agitation Started by Rev. G. M. Shott.

TO PROSECUTE VIOLATORS.

ANOTHER SENSATIONAL SERMON PREACHED LAST NIGHT.

The League to be Furnished With Finances so That it Can Do Effective Work—Rev. Mr. Shott Advises That Persons Using Profanity be Arrested and Prosecuted—Many Hypocrites.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Scotch Plains, June 26—Rev. Gideon M. Shott, pastor of the Baptist church, who characterized this town as one of the wickedest places that he had ever seen, is still engaged in carrying his reformatory energies into the camp of sin and iniquity much to the discomfiture of many of the staid old citizens of the community. The perseverance and aggressiveness of Rev. Mr. Shott is induced to a large extent by the knowledge that as soon as the street railway is running from Plainfield to Scotch Plains there will be a far greater influx of people who will come here to carouse. The minister preached another sensational sermon on the morality of the town last night, which was preceded by a meeting of a number of residents who decided to form a Law and Order League for the purpose of fighting the undesirable practices that are said to obtain here.

The Law and Order League is not to be confined to the Baptists, but will take in its membership other denominations, Rev. C. C. Woodruff, pastor of the Methodist church, having announced his intention of aiding Rev. Mr. Shott in his crusade. The league will be organized on a basis that it will have financial resources with which to prosecute the violators of the law in the town.

In his sermon last night Rev. Mr. Shott said that Scotch Plains had saloons enough for a town ten times its size. He made a special point of the prevalence of profanity on the streets of the town, and stated that it was the duty of Christians to cause the arrest of every man they heard talking in an obscene manner, and to prosecute him to the full extent of the law.

The trouble is, said Rev. Mr. Shott, that too many men and women are hiding their immorality and sin under a church membership. He said that he wished the Township Committee would hurry up the lockup that the people voted the money for at the last election, as he could have filled it with six drunks who passed his door in the afternoon. Mr. Shott also indulged in some other sharp statements as well as a great deal of moralizing.

AT CHURCH OF REDEEMER.

Rev. Mr. Downey's Congregation Meet for Last Time Alone.

Yesterday the last services of the Church of the Redeemer were held in the German Lutheran church on Grove street, and the rector, W. M. Downey, took occasion to speak in a feeling manner of the consolidation soon to take place between his congregation and that of the Holy Cross church. There was a large attendance at all of the services.

Next Sunday the consolidated church will meet for the first time and Rector Downey will officiate. There will no doubt be a large attendance at the services, and special music will be a feature.

Handy Calendar Pad.

Leader & Bookstaver, printers, 52 Duane street, have issued a handy memoranda calendar pad for the desk of business men and others. Each page contains the day and date of a week of working days from July 3d, 1899 to June 30th, 1900, each day and date being ruled off by itself. It is a very handy pad to keep a record of coming events, engagements, etc. Mr. Leader is a resident of Plainfield, at 63 Duer street. Anyone desiring one of the pads can have it for the asking or addressing a postal card to his office.

Hop at The Hunterston.

Quite a number of young people from this city went to the Hotel Hunterston Saturday evening to attend the Saturday evening hop. Invitations have been sent out to a number of the younger society set inviting them to attend these dances and the morning and afternoon concerts as well. These weekly events promise to be very popular this season.

Pastor to be At Home.

Pastor Richards, of the Crescent Avenue church will be at his home, 534 East Front street, tomorrow afternoon to confer with anyone desiring to meet him.

BISHOP M'FAUL'S VISIT.

HE CONFIRMS A CLASS OF FORTY CHILDREN AT ST. JOSEPH'S.

Impressive Services and Inspiring Music—Bishop Entertained at Dinner at the Parochial Residence by Father Miller.

The Rt. Rev. James A. McFaul, bishop of the diocese of Trenton, administered the rites of confirmation to a class of forty children yesterday morning at St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church.

The bishop reached town early Saturday evening and was driven to the parochial residence on Jackson avenue. It was the Bishop's canonical visitation and the services at St. Joseph's, which began at 8:30 o'clock with high mass, were most impressive.

The Bishop was received at the entrance to the church by Rev. Father Miller, pastor of the church, Rev. Father Norris, chancellor of the diocese, and Father Brennan, the assistant priest, who escorted him to the chancel, where the confirmation services were held.

The children had been prepared for this sacred obligation under the direction of Father Miller, assisted by the Sisters of Mercy, who have been training the children for about three months.

After the confirmation Bishop McFaul preached an eloquent sermon on "Christian Marriage," which was one of the celebrated prelate's best efforts.

The music yesterday was a special feature of the services, Prof. Bailey, the leader of the choir, having prepared and elaborate programme. The choir was made up of A. E. LaPorte, tener; Miss Tina Smith, soprano; Mrs. David T. Kenney, alto. Miss Quinn rendered charmingly an allegretto on the violin, which was by no means the least of the excellency of the music.

After the confirmation services the Bishop was entertained at a dinner at the parochial residence, Revs. Father Smyth and Westman, of St. Mary's church, being the guests of Fathers Miller and Brennan.

In the afternoon the Bishop and some of the clergy made a visit to St. Joseph's home.

Bishop McFaul left early this morning for Stoney Hill, where he is to administer the rites of confirmation to a large class.

DUPEE GOES TO EUROPE.

YOUNG PLAINFIELDER CHOSEN ON YALE TRACK TEAM.

Will Go Abroad with the Team to Participate in the Oxford-Cambridge Games—Was at his Home Over Sunday.

Yale is to send a team of her crack athletes abroad this year to represent America in the Oxford-Cambridge games and one of Plainfield's sons has been chosen from the hundreds of students at Yale as one of the team. Charles Dupee, of Rockview avenue, is the young man who has been thus honored.

Dupee returned home from New Haven Saturday and spent Sunday at his home in Washington Park. He returned this morning to New Haven where he will remain with the team until they sail for England on July 5th. He is looking well and is in excellent health.

Dupee has been chosen to represent Yale in the short dashes after many trials. The honor is a great one and much coveted. Dupee is considered one of the fastest short distance runners in any of the colleges, having covered a hundred yards in ten seconds. He has been in college two years and has successfully passed his examinations for the Junior year. He was fullback on the Freshman team two years ago and first substitute for that position on the 'Varsity eleven last fall. He has always been considered a good runner. He made his first notable victory in the Plainfield High School games several years ago when he won easily from a strong field representing the best scholastic talent in this part of the State.

Summer Kindergarten

Miss Lue R. French and Miss Elsie Jobs, musical and literary young ladies from Plainfield, N. J., recent graduates of Elliman Kindergarten, New York, are guests of Mrs. C. M. Vermeule, Bangs avenue. They have opened a summer kindergarten in Cooper's building, and a number of little ones are booked for the season. Visitors are welcome at any time.—Asbury Park Press.

SEVENTY-SIX YEARS OF LIFE IN PLAINFELD.

Jarvis A. Freeman Died Suddenly Saturday Night.

WAS A QUIET PERSONAGE.

EXCESSIVE HEAT URGED THE FATAL MOMENT.

He Had Been Feeling Comparatively Well, Except That the Heat Had Affected Him—Born and Always Lived in Plainfield—Of Cheerful Manner—Leaves Three Children—Died on Piazza.

Plainfield lost one of its oldest living marks in the death of Jarvis A. Freeman, who passed away suddenly Saturday evening. Born and reared here, he spent all his life in Plainfield where his face was familiar to all of the older residents. He was a quiet personage with a kind word for all and went through life cheerfully until death ended his career.

Saturday morning Mr. Freeman appeared in his usual good health although he felt the effects of the great heat considerably. In the evening, he walked up to a neighboring store. On his return he became dizzy and a friend assisted him to his home at 403 Watchung avenue. When seated on the piazza, he gave a sudden gasp and passed away before a physician could be summoned.

Mr. Freeman was seventy-six years old. He was born in Plainfield and has spent most of his life here. He attended school here and afterwards became a merchant tailor, in which business he has since remained.

Fifty years ago, he married the daughter of Jacob Thorn. There were three children, all of whom are living. His wife died and he married again. His second wife was Mrs. Barnard B. Winnie who died some years ago. Mr. Freeman has one sister living, Mrs. Randolph, of West Second street, mother of L. W. Randolph.

The house in which Mr. Freeman has lived for so many years was built by him over forty years ago. He has always lived there since and was loath to give it up. Mr. Freeman was well liked by all who came in contact with him, a pleasant manner and a Christian character combined to make him an agreeable friend. He was a member of the Trinity Reformed church.

While one of the oldest of Plainfield's business men and always interested in any movement for the advancement of the interests of the city, Mr. Freeman never took an active part in politics. His life was rather a retired one for he was content to remain at home and look quietly after his business. His loss will be greatly deplored by the older generation in particular to whom he was so well-known and identified with Plainfield.

He leaves three children, Miss Annie and Miss Norma, who lived with him, and Oscar, of Easton. Oscar Freeman is one of the oldest conductors on the Jersey Central Railroad and is very popular with the patrons of that line.

The funeral services will be held at his late residence, 403 Watchung avenue, tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

You Can Laugh

at tight shoes and the breaking in of new ones after Specialist Brown perfectly cares your bunions and corns by his painless method, says Mrs. M. C. Terry, 331 East Third street. "Bunions and corns kept me in constant misery. Patent medicines nor anything did any good until I was completely cured by Mr. Brown, 145 West Second street." Mrs. Jas. Tilby, 27 Summit avenue writes, that for years she suffered untold agony from corns and bunions. Nothing or nobody gave any relief until her feet were completely and perfectly cued by Mr. Brown. Mrs. A. L. Storms, New Market, N. J., considers the specialist a public benefactor as he has permanently cured her bunions and corns. A short visit to this expert specialist will save you years of misery and suffering, for when our feet ache we ache all over. Mr. Brown's Plainfield visit soon closes.

Improving a Bad Road.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, June 26.—Wheelmen and horsemen in New Brunswick and through all of Middlesex county are jubilant over the fact that the worst road in the county, from South Amboy to Old Bridge, is to be improved by the county. At a special meeting of the Board of Freeholders yesterday afternoon the contract for macadamizing the road was awarded.

The First Excursion.

The annual excursion of the Sunday-school of the Crescent Avenue church will be Thursday, July 6th, leaving Plainfield at 8 o'clock, and returning from Asbury Park at 5:50 o'clock.

BIG STRIKE IS THREATENED.

Over Ten Thousand Men Are Seeking a Ten Per Cent. Advance in Wages.

NOTICES ARE POSTED.

The Mines Where Trouble is Looked for, Operated by Mine Workers and Knights of Labor.

Striking Smelters in Colorado May Build an Independent Smelter—Funds to Be Raised by Individual Assessments—The Strike at Rochester Finally Settled.

Colorado Springs, Col., June 26.—The striking smelter employes of Colorado, in closed session at the leading centres, have under advisement the project of an independent smelter. The proposition is to be carried to the National Federation of Labor, in which the Smelter's Union has its membership through its connection with the Western Federation of Miners.

Each member of the National order will be asked to contribute $1. By this method $800,000 may be raised. The movement may be completed and the funds be in the treasury within thirty days. The men now on strike propose to operate the smelter for 75 cents a day until it shall reach a profitable standing, when the present scale is to go into effect. All profits are to go into the general fund of the Federation of Labor. At Elyria, Col., ground has been surveyed and plans perfected for the smelter. Work is to begin as soon as the money is secured. Within sixty days the smelter will be in operation. The smelter capacity of Colorado is unequal to the output of smelter ore by about one-fourth. The strikers may make a success of their undertaking without affecting the strike situation.

Big Mining Strike Threatens.

Chattanooga, Tenn., June 26.—Notices have been posted in all the mines of the Jellico and Brayerville districts that unless the demand of the miners for a ten per cent. advance is complied with before July 1 the miners will strike. The mines are operated by the United Mine Workers and the Knights of Labor. The strike will involve about ten thousand men. Mine operators hope to compromise with the miners at a 5 per cent. raise. The operators cannot now afford to close down, owing to urgent contracts and the great rush of business, especially in steam coal. The miners are in an ugly mood, and will not listen to compromise. Inquiries have been made in the Adjutant General's office as to whether or not several companies of militia could be secured in case they were needed to protect property. Not an organized body of militia now exists in the State.

Rochester Strike Settled.

Rochester, June 26.—The street laborers' strike is over. The men will receive $1.50 a day for eight hours, and all have returned to work. The difficulties were settled at a conference. Commissioners Gilbert and Webster, of the State Board of Mediation and Arbitration, were present. The contractors agreed to the wages that the men asked. The agreement is subject to review by the courts. If the courts decide that under the eight-hour law the employers are not required to pay the old wages for ten hours, then the contractors will have the right to reduce the wages to $1.20 a day, or 15 cents an hour. The contractors originally offered $1.40 a day, with a promise not to reduce wages even if the courts should decide against the men.

Trolley Strike Rumored.

Brooklyn, N. Y., June 26.—There are rumors of a strike among the employes of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company's system of transportation lines, but President Rossiter denies absolutely that he has received a single complaint from the men on any of the lines. It is known, however, that the motormen and conductors on the Nassau system have been discontented since they have been working under the regulations of the Brooklyn Heights road. Formerly, under the Johnson regime, these men were paid by the hour; now they are paid by the trip. This, they declare, has resulted in smaller earnings for them, and there has been much complaint.

Strike of Car Works Employes.

Jeffersonville, Ind., June 26.—The Ohio Falls Car Works, a branch of the American Car and Foundry Company, is wrestling with a strike in which one thousand moulders are taking part. The men struck because they wanted their wages paid weekly, while the State Loan Commission gives the company the privilege of paying every two weeks. The other workmen will probably join them. The works employ 2,500 men and are unusually busy.

Mrs. Field Her Husband's Guardian.

San Francisco, June 26.—Mrs. Minnie Field has been appointed guardian of her husband, Major Edward Field, of the United States Army, who broke down physically and mentally several weeks ago. As he is not competent to transact business, his wife applied for letters of guardianship so that his personal matters might be attended to by her in a legal manner.

New Kansas City Trust Company.

Kansas City, Mo., June 26.—The Fidelity Trust Company, capital $500,000, has been incorporated here. Henry C. Flower, of Kansas City, will be President. The largest stockholder is James Stillman, President of the National City Bank of New York, whose holdings amount to $150,000.

McDuffie Broke the Record.

Fall River, Mass., June 26.—Eddie McDuffie, of Boston, broke the quarter and half-mile records in a mile exhibition ride at Buttonwood Park, cutting the quarter two-fifths of a second and the half four-fifths of a second. His time for the mile was 1:34 3-5.

CHEERS FOR ROOSEVELT

Wild West Welcome for the "Rough Rider" in Las Vegas.

Las Vegas, N. M., June 6.—Governor Roosevelt of New York, former Colonel of the Rough Riders, acompanied by many members of his old command, took Las Vegas by storm.

Never before in the Territory of New Mexico was there such a scene as greeted the New Yorker when his train, all covered with yellow bunting, steamed into the station here. Cheers followed cheers as the Rough Riders, who were here waiting, caught sight of their old commander. Nor was the cheering confined to Rough Riders, for fully 5,000 persons surrounded the little station and blended their voices in the mighty welcome, which brought tears of joy to the object of all this mighty demonstration.

The Reception Committee of citizens and Rough Riders, headed by Governor Otero, Chairman Whitmore, Mayor Coors, Colonel Brodie and Captain Llewellin, met Governor Roosevelt at Wagon Mound.

The meeting at Wagon Mound between Governor Roosevelt and his old comrades in arms was most cordial. To Colonel Brodie he said:

"I am delighted to see you; glad to be here." To other Rough Riders who pressed around him to shake his hand and whom he recognized immediately, his greetings were: "How are you, old man; mighty glad to see you; where's Jack Greenway?" "Does me good to see you." "Delighted to be with you." "How do you do," etc.

The citizens of New Mexico procured a handsome gold and diamond medal, which the presented to Gov. Roosevelt at the close of the regimental review of Rough Riders. The speech of presentation was made by Frank Springer, a well-known attorney and President of the Maxwell Land Grant Company, and the badge was pinned on Roosevelt's breast by Miss Eva, the handsome young daughter of Mr. Springer. Governor Roosevelt exhibited much emotion, and he spoke rapidly and feelingly in response to the compliment.

Governor Roosevelt is being lionized to the highest degree here, and says he should have attended the Rough Riders' reunion if he had been compelled to walk to Las Vegas.

To Strike Trusts Through Railroads

Chicago, June 26.—Ex-Governor Altgeld declares that the railroads will be placed under fire by the Democratic convention next year. "It is my belief," he said, "that if the convention were held within thirty days, it would almost unanimously adopt a tentative plan declarin gfor governmental ownership of the railroads. Without the continuous assistance from the railroads the trusts would not survive a year."

Twenty Died in the Desert.

San Diego, Cal., June 26.—Word has been received here that a party of twenty miners, bound for the Sierra Pintada placers, lost their way in the desert and wandered a long time, finally dying of thirst. The information came in a leter received by J. P. Catlin, one of the characters of the schooner Thomas S. Negus, which took a party of forty prospectors to San Rogue Landing.

Artillery Ordered Home.

Washington, June 26.—Orders have been issued by the War Department for the return from Porto Rico of three batteries of artillery. Battery B, Fifth Artillery, was ordered several days ago to proceed to New York for assignment. Since then Batteries C and M of the Seventh Artillery have received similar orders and left San Juan for the United States.

Extradition for Alleged Thieves.

Washington, June 26.—The State Department has granted extradition papers to the British Embassy in the case of Elizabeth Annable and William Johnson, who were arrested in New York. They are charged with larceny of about $1,000 in Nottingham, England. The money, it is said, belonged to the husband of the woman, who eloped to this country with Johnson.

Klondike Yield Summed Up.

Seattle, Wash., June 26—Purser Carroll, of the steamer Humboldt, just arrived from Alaskan points, says he has in his custody $280,000 in gold dust, and estimates that there was $300,000 more on board not turned over to him. Returning Klondikers estimate the clean-up for the last season as from $12,000,000 to $16,000,000.

Ruhlin Lost to Kennedy.

San Francisco, June 26.—Joe Kennedy, of San Francisco, was given the decision over Gus Ruhlin, of Ohio, at the end of a tweny-round fight in Woodward's Pavilion under the auspices of the Excelsior Athletic Club. Ruhlin was favorite in the betting at odds of 2 to 1. The Ohio man weighed 190 pounds and Kennedy weighed 195.

Protest Against Teacher's Dismissal.

Kearny, N. J., June 26.—A big public meeting was held here in the Town Hall to protest against the dismissal of Miss Mary Greenfield from her position as a teacher in the High School. Resolutions urging her reinstatement and sharply criticising the seven members of the Board of Education were adopted.

Delaware and Hudson Canal Sold.

Port Jervis, N. Y., June 26.—H. G. Coykendall of Kingston has purchased the Delaware and Hudson Canal property, which extends 108 miles. Mr. Koykendall ordered the discharge of every employe of the old company.

John R. Gentry's Fast Mile.

Detroit, June 26.—John R. Gentry paced a practice mile on the Grosse Pointe track in 2:05. The last quarter was made in 0:29¾. It is the fastest mile record of the year. Time by quarters: 0:31¾, 0:04, 1:35½, 2:05.

Fatal Fire at Jamestown.

Jamestown, N. Y., June 26.—The house of Andrew Johnson, a lake engineer at Mayville, was burned to the ground. Johnson was unable to escape and was burned to death.

WILL RAISE NEW TROOPS.

Plans Being Formulated For Sending More Men to General Otis.

MAY BE TEN REGIMENTS

War Department Officials Collecting Data to Enable the President to Act in the Matter Promptly.

The Department Not Yet Officially Informed as to How Many More Troops Are Needed—How the Volunteers Are to be Designated—Immediate Action to be Taken.

Washington, D. C., June 26.—That the President may make prompt determination of the number of volunteers to be sent to reinforce General Otis at Manila the War Department is collecting data regarding former officers and the method of securing men for submission to him immediately upon his return.

Acting Secretary Meiklejohn says that Gen. Otis has not yet furnished the Department a statement of the additional men he desired, but he will certainly be consulted before the President takes action.

The Department is continuing its work apparently with the idea in view that ten regiments will be organized in addition to the three volunteer organizations which General Otis has been directed to form from the men desiring to re-enlist. Officers having the matter in charge are figuring on the advisability of forming the proposed regiments of ten companies of 150 men each or twelve companies of 128 men each, the former idea being suggested by the desire of the department to minimize the number of officers to be appointed.

It is proposed to designate the volunteer regiments organized in the order of their enlistment—Eleventh Volunteers, Twelfth, Thirteenth, etc.—so in future they cannot be confused with the ten regiments which served during the war and have been mustered out of service.

It has been suggested that the department, as it did in the organization of the immune regiments, designate their officers, to be appointed by the President, to enlist men. By such means, it is pointed out, there would be no difficulty in promptly securing the necessary number.

Applications have been received from regiments in all parts of the country which desire to see service under General Otis. A reading of the law shows, however, that the President is not required to "call" for troops, but is authorized to "raise" them, and he will take advantage of the authority by recruiting, or by pursuing the same course he did in the case of the immune regiments.

As seventeen thousand volunteers will be mustered out in consequence of the return of the Western regiments from the Philippines, and only about twenty thousand volunteers will be enlistered to take their places, it is apparent that few additional general officers can be appointed.

Chicago, June 26.—Gen. Alger, in an interview discussed the Philippine situation. He said that on his return to Washington he would recommend to the President an increase of the army now under Gen. Otis's command. Asked whether there was any intention to send Gen. Miles to Manila he said:

"Not that I know of. All I know about it is what I have read in the newspapers. The matter never has been discussed so far as I am aware Gen. Otis is doing good work. He is conservative, level-headed, and aggressive. His conduct of the war in the Philippines has been satisfactory. But there's no doubt he needs more men. We intend to give them to him. I cannot say how many. After I return to Washington and the President gets back there I will make recommendations to him."

"I'm not prepared to say there will be a call for volunteers. Gen. Otis's fighting force has been reduced because a large number of men have been stationed at different points to hold them. But I do not apprehend any new regiment will be sent before Oct. 1 or in time to arrive there when the rainy season is over."

Drowned at a Regatta.

New York, June 26.—Two lives were lost at the twenty-ninth annual regatta of the Seawanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club in Long Island Sound. The men were lost off C. T. Pierce's catboat, the Dot, in a squall which came out of the northeast, forcing all the fliers to take down their sails. One of the men was a Mr. Lockwood, of Englewood, N. J., a friend of Mr. Pierce, and the other a sailor named Mitchell.

Good Increase of Wages.

Lebanon, Penn., June 26.—Notices of an increase of wages of laborers and factory operators have been posted at the Pennsylvania Bolt and Nut Works. The increase takes effect July 1, and laborers now receiving ten cents an hour, under the new schedule will receive 12½ cents an hour. The increase for factory operators is from 10 to 15 per cent. Over one thousand employes are affected.

Restraining Order Granted.

Evansville, Ind., June 26.—A temporary restraining order has been granted by Judge Mattison in the Circuit Court on behalf of the Ingle Coal Company against the officers of the United Mine Workers and striking miners forbidding them to visit the Ingle mine or attempt to induce the workers to quit. A motion to make the injunction permanent will be heard on September 4.

The Khalifa Penned In.

Cairo, Egypt, June 26.—Deserters who have reached the British lines say the Khalifa is confined in a narrow valley by the Tagalas, a friendly body of tribesmen. The latter say they killed 500 of the Khalifa's followers during the recent engagement. It is not thought likely the Tagallas will be able to secure the Khalifa.

We won't say anything about our 20c Coffee. Everybody uses it.

"Do you sell many of these?" asked the student of human nature as the village druggist handed him a 5-cent packet of Ripans Tabules.

"Sell many?" answered the druggist. "I hardly sell anything else. Those people have only taken an old prescription and put a name to it. I wish I could hit on a snap like that."

"They don't claim anything more, do they?"

"Why, no! and that's the funny part of it. Even the name is made of the initials of the drugs of which the stuff is compounded, and I have been making about the same mixture for all the doctors about here ever since I was a boy."

"Yes, but you used to sell it as a powder or a liquid. This tablet form is more convenient and better, isn't it?"

"Doubtless, and it's the people who buy it now instead of the doctors, though the doctors buy the R.I.P.A.N.S too."

"And everybody else?"

"Yes, I think half the business men in town carry one of these 5-cent cartons in their vest pockets, and the women use them as much as the men do. I guess about everybody uses them now—more or less."

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (60 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a sin le carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents. RIPANS TABULES may also be had of grocers, general storekeepers, news agents and at liquor stores and barber shops.

Two Feet of Pain.

Pain is not usually measured by the foot, yet it is a fact that the unfortunates who suffer the miseries of aching feet endure an inch of torture to every square inch of foot they own.

Pain of any kind causes a strain up on the nervous system, and if prolonged and unchecked will create depression of spirits and despondency.

Aching feet are vexatious, aggravating and irritating and nothing is more annoying than feet deformed and distorted from corns and bunions. Mr. Brown's painless method for the treatment and cure of corns, bunions, ingrowing and club toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty, chafed and burning feet, is endorsed by all eminent physicians. He has made diseases of the feet a life study. Corns, bunions and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago in Plainfield have not come back and the feet today are sound and well. Read the proof:

D. S. Scheuer, grocer, Front St; H. A. Weber, grocer, Liberty and Second streets; S. Sharkey, grocer, Third and Richmond streets; G. Voehl, bakery, 127 Front street; F. R. Vanderhoof, at F. Endress' meat market, Front street, and many others had corns, bunions, and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago; no trouble since. Albert Runyon, 41 Mountain avenue; J. Q. Miles, J. P., 28 Somerset street; F. Cullen, and Mrs. Cullen, 1001 Second street; Mrs. M. C. Terry, 331 East Third street; J. D. Smalley, meat market, 153 Front street; H. L. Overbaugh, 118 Elmwood place; W. W. Warnock, bakery, 138 North avenue; J. J. Stites, blacksmith, Dunellen; and hundreds of others say that Mr. Brown completely cured their bunions, ingrowing toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty and tender feet, etc. They all say the treatment was painless; no soreness after.

EDISON HARD AT WORK.

The Inventor Trying to Make Automobiles Light and Cheap.

Orange, N. J., June 26.—Thomas A. Edison, the inventor, is working on plans to make automobile vehicles light and economical. What his plans are or how the Edison motor carriages are to be propelled Mr. Edison is not ready to say, but that he will succeed in turning out something better than anything yet placed on the market he is confident. He laughs at the French idea of motor tricycles and declares that he will turn out a tricycle which can be sold at a low price and which will run 150 miles without being recharged. He is looking for simplicity, and he says he will not be satisfied with anything that a child cannot safely operate, and that will not be entirely noiseless.

Prison for Hippinstiel.

Mount Holly, June 26.—John C. Hippinstiel, the defaulting Tax Collector of Beverly Township, has been sentensed to two years in State Prison by Judge Goskill. Hippinstiel stole nearly $6,000 and went to Virginia, sevety-five miles from any railway or telegraph station. His bonds were forfeited and his bondsmen will lose $5,000. Hippinstiel was a prominent citizen and was represented by Judge Westcott, George M. Bacon and charles Vanhorn. He pleaded guilty.

Trying to Corner Cattle Market.

Austin, Texas, June 26.—L. M. Grogan, member of the State Legislature and cattleman from Nolan County, says an English syndicate with a capital of $100,000,000 has started in to buy all the cattle in Texas, with a view of cornering the market in this country. He says the syndicate is operated through George B. Loving, of Fort Worth, and that options have been secured on hundreds of thousands of head of cattle. These options are all for ninety days.

Stopped Praying to Kill Snakes.

West Union, Ohio, June 26.—During a meeting at the Dunkard Church in Highland County, while one of the members was praying, a great commotion occurred among the congregation. A stop was made in the midst of the prayer to learn the cause of the disturbance, when it was learned that a large blacksnake was crawling about the room. The praying member, who was leader of the meeting, secured a club and killed the snake, after which he concluded his prayer.

M. K. & T. Troubles Over

Dallas, Tex., June 26.—Reports were current in Dallas railway circles that the suit brought by the State of Texas to forfeit the charter of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad Company of Texas has been practically dismissed by the State. For several days negotiations have been in prolooking to the dismissal of the suit in gress at Austin between the railway company and Attorney-General Smith, the District Court of Dallas.

To be Coached by Doucette.

Laporte, Ind., June 24.—Doucette, formerly of Harvard, one of the greatest centre rushers ever seen on the gridiron, ranking with Balliett of Princeton, will coach the Notre Dame University eleven the coming season. Doucette will develop a team for the great Catholic university to compete with Harvard, Yale, Princeton and other Eastern colleges at the athletic meet at the world's fair at Paris.

Baby Killed by Falling Tombstone.

Wauseon, Ohio, June 26.—Ransom Terry, baby boy of John Terry, was killed here in an unusual manner. His father and mother, accompanied by the child, were at the cemetery, and while passing a big monument the stone crumbled and fell. A large piece struck the child, killing it almost instantly. The family were going to the graveside of another child they had buried a short time ago.

The Concord Goes to Luzon.

Washington, June 26.—In a telegram received at the Navy Department Rear Admiral John C. Watson, commanding the Asiatic fleet, reported that he had sent the gunboat Concord from Manila to Lingayan, on the west coast of Luzon. No explanation of the action was contained in the despatch, but it is supposed at the Navy Department that it was in line with the policy of establishing a close patrol around the island.

Trying to Release Spalding.

Chicago, June 26.—Although many of the men who were the most active in the prosecution of Charles W. Spalding, President of the wrecked Globe Savings Bank and Treasurer of the University of Illinois, are signing a petition to secure his release from the penitentiary, where he is serving an indeterminate sentence, it is doubtful if he will be released.

Barrow Makes a Confession.

Sing Sing, N. Y., June 26.—George Beauregard Barrow has made a complete confession in the Marion Clark kidnaping case, in which he wholly exonerates his wife in the matter and blames himself for the whole affair. His confession will be used in an effort to clear Mrs. Barrow, who will be tried this week.

Charged With Abduction.

Marion, Ind., June 26.—George St. John was arrested here by Dunkirk officers on the charge of enticing and abducting Miss Maude McCullough, a girl 16 years of age. St. John and the girl were located. The complaint was filed by the girl's brother, Alonzo McCullough.

No Requisition for Duhme.

Detroit, June 26.—After a long conference with the Attorney General, Gov. Pingree has announced that he will deny the application for a requisition for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duhme, charged with kidnaping their nephew, Moses Fowler Chase.

Major Drenner Dies in Manila.

Washington, June 26.—The following cablegram was received by the War Department last night from Gen. Otis: "Major Drenner, First Montana, died at 1 this morning Bright's disease; ill three months."

CUBANS UNDER ARREST.

False Identification of Soldiers at Paying Stations Causes the Trouble.

THEY RESORT TO FRAUDS

The Guilty Parties Trapped by Detectives Sent Out By the Chief of Secret Police.

Six Arrests Made at La Punta—Five Cuban Officers and the Official Interpreter Got $5.00 From Each Man Who Fraudulently Collected $75 of the American Money.

Havana, June 26.—The suspicions which have been existing for some time past of collusion between the Cuban officers connected with Col. Randall's pay corps, which is paying off the Fifth Army Corps and Cuban soldiers seeking the $75 reward, has been verified, and six men have been arrested for fraud. Col. Randall became convinced that men were being identified as on the lists who were not Cuban soldiers, and notified Col. Bacallao, the head of the secret police, who sent detectives to La Punta, where the payment of the Cuban soldiers was in progress. The detectives discovered that the official interpreter, Jose Elizalde; two Cuban Captains, two Lieutenants and one Major had been collecting $5 a head for passing bogus applicants. All were arrested and locked up in the guardhouse on a charge of swindling.

The pay corps paid 140 men at La Punta. The reports from the outlying points where payments are being made are favorable, except from Santa Clara, where 212 men whose names were not on the list raised a disturbance when payment was refused. The American troops quieted them without difficulty and nobody was hurt.

Reports of the depredations of bandits have been numerous, but none of the cases are serious. The Alcalde at Ceibadel Agua wired Gen. Rivera, the Civil Governor of Havana, reporting the occurence of a fight between a party of bandits and the rural guard, in which one guard was killed. The bandits escaped. Press despatches say the bandits looted two plantations near Guaimara and escaped. The guards are pursuing them. At Guanajay a party of nine men attacked a wine vault and were chased by the guards, but the marauders got away.

Gen. Gomez has conferred with Gen. Brooke as to the best way to satisfy the veteran Cuban soldiers who have not been paid because their names are not on the lists.

Chief of Police Menocal has withdrawn his resignation, learning that Gen. Brooke will not appoint him Director of Public Works.

Bitten By a Snake

Geneva, N. Y., June 26.—Austin Morrison, a farmer living near this city, while frog hunting in Gregory's Swamp, southwest of this city, hung his coat on the limb of a tree. When he returned and put the coat on, two or three hours later he noticed that it was unusually heavy on one side. He put his hand in the coat pocket to see what caused the weight and felt something bit his finger and a burning pain flash up his arm. He clutched the object that had bitten him and jerked it out of his pocket. It was a curiously marked black and yellow snake, about two feet long, of a species unknown to Morrison. It had bitten him in the second joint of the second finger of the right hand.

Morrison dropped the snake on the ground and killed it. He ran a mile and a half to a doctor's house, which he reached in an exhausted condition. The hand and arm had swollen to almost twice their normal size. Antidotes were administered and hypodermic injections made. The swelling is now under control. It is believed that Morrison will recover, although amputation of the arm may be necessary.

City Auditor Arrested.

Pittsfield, Mass., June 26.—George A. Learned, Acting City Auditor, has been arrested, charged with forgery and misappropiation of city money. He admits the charge. It was discovered on Wednesday that Learned had forged the indorsement on a city warrant for $81 and cashed it. He made restitution of this amount and resigned. Afterward it was discovered that he had been raising the amounts of small city orders to larger sums and he was arrested.

Chicago Traction Co.'s Directors.

Chicago, June 26.—Jesse Spalding expects to have associated with him in the directorate of the Chicago Union Traction Company such men as C. K. G. Billings, the gas magnet; William Dickinson, of the American National Bank; Clarence Buckingham, of the Diamond Match Company; Walton Nelson, of the Royal Trust Company, and probably Charles L. Hutchinson, of the Corn Exchange Bank.

Kautz Interred at Arlington.

Washington, June 26.—The remains of Gen. A. V. Kautz, a veteran of the civil war, were buried at Arlington National Cemetery, having been brought here from Seattle, Wash. Gen. Kautz entered the army as a private and rose to the rank of Major-General of volunteers. He was retired from the regular army in 1892 and died at Seattle in 1895.

Received With a Smile.

Hartville, Mo., June 26.—Jennings, one of the train robbers on trial here for complicity in the MacComb holdup in January last, for which robbery Jack Kennedy was given 17 years in the penitentiary, was found guilty and given 20 years in the penitentiary. He received his sentence with a smile.

Badly Injured by a Cab.

Chicago, Ill., June 26.—While on his way to lunch with his bride, known on the stage as Gladys Wallis, Samuel Insull was run over by a cab at Jackson Boulevard and Wabash avenue. His injuries are quite serious.

It means it is the purest made.
Soaps, strong with alkali, will eat
And burn the clothes, and leave them frayed,
But Ivory Soap is clean and sweet.
It washes out the stain and dirt,
And leaves the fabric all unhurt.

TURNED CANNIBAL.

End of a Remarkable Murder Case—Packer Must Serve Out His Term.

Colorado Springs, June 26.—The remarkable case of Alfred Packer has finally been settled by the Colorado Supreme Court. The case dates back to April, 1874, when Packer reached the Los Pinos Indian agency in Hinsdale county, Col., with a sad tale of hunger and suffering in the mountains. Gen. Charles Adams, who recntly lost his life by the blowing up of a Denver hotel, was in charge of the agency, with Otto Mears of railroad fame as post trader.

Packer was too fat to have suffered from hunger. He said his companions had perished. They were Israel Swan, James Humphreys, George Noon, Frank Miller and Shannon Wilson Bell. Together they had attempted to cross in midwinter the Saguache Mountain range. Severe storms had overtaken them and starvation seemed imminent. One night while the others slept Packer killed them. Then for two months, according to his confession and accumulated evidence of a circumstantial nature, he lived on their flesh.

He was questioned closely as to his companions at the agency. He undertook to guide a party of officials to where their bodies could be found, but he seemed to have lost the route. Finally Theodore P. Davis, an artist, while on Saguache Mountain as the representative of Harpers' Weekly, discovered the bodies of the five men, with unmistakable evidence of cannibalism. On this testimony Packer was tried for murder in the first degree, convicted and sentenced to be hanged.

Meanwhile after the crime had been committed, but before conviction, Colorado had abolished capital punishment. The case was remanded for a new trial, this time in Gunnison county. He was charged with manslaughter on five counts and convicted of each. On Aug. 2, 1886, he was sentenced to forty years in the penitentiary at Canon City—eight years for each count.

The legal tangle was such that the case has been before the Supreme Court on five separate occasions since. It is believed to have been finally settled, the conviction having been affirmed. The Board of Pardons, to whom alone he now can look, will hardly release him. Parker is now over 50 years old.

Plans System of Summer Schools.

Chicago, June 26.—Jane Adams, of Hull House, has a new plan for a broader and more general system of summer schools of interest to the entire country. Mrs. Adams proposes that the dormitories of women's colleges and other institutions of learning in the country, but outside the large cities, be opened during the summer to schools for the bread-earning girls of the city. The idea is to utilize the splendid equipment of the schools so as to afford a summer outing, spiced with pleasant intellectual exercises, for girls and young women obliged to work in offices and shops most of the year.

Suicide at Niagara.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., June 26.—The body of a young man was found in the river below the Falls. With the exception of a collar, a cuff, shoes and stockings, it was nude. The skin was white indicating that it had not been exposed to the sun. After the body was found, George Wright, of the Cave of the Winds said that a man had excitedly told him on Wednesday afternoon that he had seen a young man leap from Goat Island Bridge. Mr. Wright hears many such stories and he thought nothing of it. The body is believed to be that of a suicide.

President Goes to Sunday School

Adams, Mass., June 26.—The rain kept the President and al members of his party indoors most of the forenoon yesterday, but it cleared up later, and all but Mrs. McKinley attended services in the Congregational Church, where the pastor, the Rev. A. B. Penniman, preached on the theme, "War for Richteousness and Peace." His argument was that a struggle is necessary for development. The President's party attended the exercises of the Sunday-school.

Two Saved From Drowning

Cape May, N. J., June 26.—Willis L. Moore, Chief of the United States Weather Bureau, and Philander Johnson, a Washington newspaper correspondent, were rescued from drowning by Congressman Henry C. Loudenslager, of New Jersey, assisted by W. H. Kirkpatrick, of Philadelphia. The men were bathing in the surf and got beyond their depth.

Laurel Perhaps Set on Fire

Laurel, Del., June 26.—All indications at present point to Laurel's big fire of Saturday bein gof incediary origin, and also that the burning of the Horsey block, where the blaze was first discovered, was done to cover up a murder.

Two Men Caught Are Robbers

Helena, Mont., June 26.—United States Marshal Woolman has advices from Beaver Head County that the two suspects captured here on Tuesday are the men implicated in the Union Pacific train robbery, for whose capture a reward of $3,000 each is offered.

Some Cat Stories.

In San Francisco there is a cat that washes windows. It belongs to one of the Chinese companies of that City. It is a cat of a Chinese breed, and those who own it claim that it belongs to the same family as the cats in the temple of the emperor of China. The cat is a mixture of Maltese and Tortoise shell, and is said to be very beautiful.

Tom's Chinese friends declare he is so clean that he will not lie down until he has dusted the place where he is to lie. It is claimed that he will take a rag and dip it in a pan of water and wash the glass of the window in front of which he is going to lie down, and then rub it dry, and that he has never been known to lie down in front of the glass without first washing it.

A man in Point Pleasant, N. J., has a cat that seemingly grew tired of home life and wanted to see the world. It boarded a train for New York some days ago and was discovered by the brakeman when half way to the city. He poor man could only surmise where kitty came from, but he had a warm place in his heart for all animals, and he kept an eye on her till the train reached the city. On the return trip at each station, as the brakeman opened the door she would rush to the platform and remain there until satisfied it was not her home.

At Asbury Park she jumped to the platform, but evidently realizing her mistake, jumped hurriedly back again as the train started. When Point Pleasant was reached she leaped from the train with an I-am-at-home air, feeling quite the most distinguished cat in the neighborhood, having traveled a distance of over 150 miles.

A Match Trick.

Give a person sixteen matches and ask him to lift up from the table fifteen of them on the surface of the remaining one. There are but very few people who will be able to do it, as it is not a trick that is well known. To accomplish it you must act as follows: Place one match on the table, now place seven of the matches on this single crosswise, one end on the table, the other portion on the single match; now in between these, seven more matches, leaning in the opposite direction, on top of all the matches just were they cross place the remaining match; now grasp the first single match placed on the table, lift up and you have all the matches raised clear from the table.

COMING EVENTS.

June 29—Opening of the camp at Northfield, Mass. Information at Y. M. C. A.

Somerset Senatorship.

The Jersey City News has the following to say of the political situation in Somerset county:

It is reported that the Democrats of Somerset county propose nominating James J. Bergen, of Somerville, to run against Charles Arthur Reed for the Senate next fall. This would be a wise and judicious nomination. Mr. Bergen is one of the strongest men in the party in that county, and he has demonstrated his strength on more than one occasion. He has been four times elected to the Legislature by large majorities for that phenomenally close county. In 1876 he did excellent service on the committee appointed to prepare amendments to the State Constitution, and as speaker of the Assembly during the sessions of 1891 and 1892 he proved himself a man of executive ability. Mr. Bergen has also occupied many local offices in Somerset county, and from 1877 to 1883 he satisfactorily filled the post of Prosecutor of the Pleas. He is in every way equipped to sit in the Senate, and his presence will add strength to that body.

Albert B. Carlton, controller of Elizabeth for the past sixteen years, it is said is about to resign owing to the large demand on his time by other business interests. He has been elected president of the Consolidated Electric Light Companies of New Jersey, is one of the chief officials of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, of Newark, and is interested in other enterprises. Mr. Carlton took hold of Elizabeth's finances when the city was in its darkest day. He finally placed Elizabeth on its feet, and, with Mayor Rankin, redeemed its fair name. Mr. Carlton was one of the commissioners who helped to adjust the delinquent taxes in Plainfield to be collected under the Martin Act.

The Paterson Press thinks that "the most anomalous thing in the whole catalogue of anomalies are the anomalies of the law. A New Jersey court has declared the life of a child worth nothing, an Indiana court has found it to be worth about $150, and now a New York court permits a jury to award a verdict of $16,666 merely for the loss of a child's leg. The divorce laws are not the only ones needing attention."

Gov. Voorhees will appoint July 1st forty-two election officers, two from each county of the State. They, with the forty-two appointed last year for terms of two years, will constitute the County Boards of Election. The boards are all to be non-partisan. The selections will be made under the new election law. The county representatives have been notified to send in their candidates.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

The discussion in the State papers over the successor to Chancellor McGill seems to take it for granted that his reappointment is out of the question. Is there any reason why Chancellor McGill should not succeed himself, except that he is a Democrat; and has his being a Democrat ever interfered with his able and faithful discharge of his duties?—Newark News.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

Abram S. Hewitt, ex-Mayor of New York and for ten years a representative in Congress from that city, has become a legal resident of Ringwood, Passaic county, in this State. Mr. Hewitt was a resident of Ringwood, where he has always had, and still has, large business interests, until 1874. Although he will retain his house in New York, and will go and come at his pleasure, his real home will hereafter be at his spacious and picturesque country seat at Ringwood. Mr. Hewitt says that he is an old man, having reached his 77th year, and that "most of his large business interest" are now in New Jersey, and that he wants, when he dies, his estate to be administered here.

* * * * *

The approach of the glorious Fourth reminds one of the quantities of fireworks that are displayed in the shop windows about town. Time was when the variety of such goods was comparatively limited. The small powder cracker was about all the fireworks obtainable, save, perhaps, the torpedo and a few Roman candles of an inferior quality. Today there are dozens of kinds. Twenty-five years ago a boy would have to pay from eight to ten cents a pack for fire-crackers. Today the small boy can indulge his enthusiasm and buy a pack of the small crackers for three cents; or if he wishes something a little more noisy he will have to pay as high as fifty cents apiece for them. Among the new features this year is a contrivance something like a Roman candle in design, but considerably larger. It is called a "Star Bouquet," and when fired throws up a quantity of fire to resemble bouquets. The small powder crackers are all made in China, but the larger ones, commonly known as cannon crackers, are made in this country. The small crackers are so cheap that the manufacturers of fireworks cannot compete with the Chinese, and they do not try to. As for flags, no person need be without a flag, if they wish to display their patriotism, for the national colors can be bought as cheap as one cent a flag, and from that up to as many dollars as your pocket-book will admit and your patriotism warrants.

He Fooled the Surgeons.

All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on earth, and the best Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

GRAIN-O BRINGS RELIEF

to the coffee drinker. Coffee drinking is a habit that is universally indulged in and almost as universally injurious. Have you tried Grain-O? It is almost like coffee but the effects are just the opposite. Coffee upsets the stomach, ruins the digestion effects the heart and disturbs the whole nervous system. Grain-O tones up the stomach, aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. There is nothing but nourishment in Grain-O. It can't be otherwise. 15 and 25c. per package.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

By our new process of ironing we are enabled to give you a perfect domestic finish, and to launder turn down collars without breaking them. Call and see how we do it; you are welcome to inspect our plant at all times; no mystery about our work.

Hand work on all shirt waists, cost a little more, but perfect satisfaction guaranteed.

Table Damask Sale.

This is not the season for a Sale of Table Linens, but when we are able to give such values as we shall offer for the next few days we feel justified in making this sale. A large Importing house about to move was anxious to dispose of as much stock as possible to avoid moving same. The remarkably low prices quoted for very desirable goods induced us to buy very heavily, and we now find ourselves in a position to offer the people of this community such Bargains in Table Damask as they never dreamed of. The lot comprises some inconceivably choice 72 in Bleached Damask in the most attractive designs.

There are also many exceptionally good half-bleached German Damasks made to stand hard service. They will bleach very quickly and wear interminably.

THIS SALE is one of supreme importance to all thrifty housekeepers who wish to "stock up" with little expense.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, June 26.—J. W. Case, who fell from a cherry tree recently and sustained severe injuries is still in a critical condition, and is unable to get about. Dr. Brakeley is in attendance and he hopes to bring his patient about all right.

The death of Gottfried Maier, formerly of this place, occurred at Hilltop, N. J., yesterday, after a long illness. He was 58 years of age. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from St. Joseph's Catholic church, at Bound Brook, and interment will take place in the cemetery at that place. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend.

Saturday afternoon the usual play at bowling on the green was resumed on the green at the home of Christian Schepflin. There was a good attendance of the members and a good time was had by everyone.

Last evening at the M. E. church the pastor, Rev. E. S. Jamison, delivered a highly interesting sermon on the subject of "Lorenzo Don." There was a large congregatien present to enjoy the discourse.

The Borough Council is determined to give the people good sidewalks and ordinances to that effect have been introduced and adopted by the Council.

The Borough Council will hold a regular meeting one week from tonight at which time important business will be considered.

Prof. VanSyckle and family will leave this week for Oradell, Bergen county, where Mr. VanSyckle will teach school next year.

Rev. A. I. Martine officiated morning and evening yesterday at the Presbyterian church and two good sermons were delivered.

At the meeting of the Building and Loan Association Saturday evening dues were received and routine business was transacted.

Street Commissioner Staats has entirely recovered from a severe sprain to his ankle and is able to attend to business again.

James McElvar and family, of Brooklyn, have taken possession of the G. W. Churchill residence for the summer.

There seems to be a falling off in interest in the Dunellen Gun Club, and it is difficult to arrange any matches.

Adam Dealaman, who has just been appointed postmaster by President McKinley, will take his office July 1st.

William Carpenter has returned to his home in Philadelphia, after a pleasant visit with borough relatives.

Rev. W. C. Kinsey and wife, of Newark, have returned home after a pleasant visit with borough friends.

Mayor and Mrs. R. J. Swackhammer entertained relatives from out of town yesterday.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, June 26.—The Christian Endeavor Society of the Baptist church held a short meeting in the parlors of the church last evening, after which the meeting was changed into a business meeting. It was unanimously decided to change the society from a Christian Endeavor to a Baptist Young People's Society. Rev. Mr. Shott was chosen as the representative to the National convention to be held at Richmond, Va., the middle of July. Rev. Mr. Shott was elected president; Mr. Bettman, of Fanwood, vice-president; George L. Dunn, treasurer; Miss Hannah Hayes, recording secretary, and Miss Addie Johnston, corresponding secretary. The society, which has done good work under the Baptist Young Peoples' name before, will probably take new root in the church work and be a great help to Rev. Mr. Shott in his work.

Dr. and Mrs. James H. Parks recently celebrated their forty-first wedding anniversary in a quiet way at their home on Park avenue. The event was observed in a very quiet manner, but, nevertheless, the doctor and Mrs. Parks received a number of congratulations upon the happy occasion, and their many warm friends in the village hope they will continue in the journey through life together for many years to come.

Joseph Schmidt, who is working at Nyack, N. Y., spent Sunday with friends in town.

Mrs. Thomas Bogh has added an addition to her home on Cook avenue.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help, but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion build up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by L. W. Randolph, druggist. Guaranteed.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that their is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night, and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

JACK CHINN'S KNIFE

A Handy Weapon For a Deadly Encounter A Sketch of "Col." Jack Its Inventor.

When the courts in Kentucky have nothing else to occupy their time and attention they indict Colonel "Jack" Chinn for disturbing the mental peace of his neighbor, and you can gamble that the neighbor is in the wrong.

Because he is broad-shouldered, and big and strong-hearted, pettier men find fault with him, and Chinn, like a big Newfoundland dog, finally takes umbrage at the jackal and maltreats him, if that can be called maltreatment.

With him the use of a knife is not intended as a joke, and is only resorted to when he thinks a life wager has been made. Nor does he use a Bowie knife, but always a weapon made from ideas of his own and which some day will bear his name, just as the famous American dagger has handed down to posterity the cognomen of that famous Kentucky colonel who carried his knife at the back of his neck.

But why does he use a knife?

The narrator will answer that as Chinn once answered him when he put the same question. Chinn is a man larger and more powerful than John L. Sullivan. He has the shoulders of an ox. After the news had been received of the doubly fatal encounter between Goodloe and Swope in Lexington, Kentucky, in which the latter used a pistol and the former a knife, the narrator was talking to Chinn about the dramatic encounter, when the latter was handed a telegram, which, after he had opened and read, he handed me. It contained simply these words:

He used your knife.

Chinn being looked at inquiringly, said: "You wonder what that means. I will tell you. More than one year ago my friend, Colonel Goodloe, and Swope had a wordy encounter, I told Goodloe at that time that the other man would attempt to kill him and that he should be prepared for such an onslaught, and that he owed it to his family—he having quite a large number of children—to arm himself.

He said that he would do so, and that he would at once provide himself with a pistol. I laughed at him. You should know that Goodloe had been palsied for a number of years and that his hands were continually trembling. I said to him: 'What can you do with a pistol? There can be no certainty about your aim. You must carry a knife.' He rather shivered at the suggestion, and said he did not know how to use one. Then I taught him. I had two knives made. Their handles were of horn with grooves cut in them to fit the hand, in order that the grasp could not slip. The blades, which fitted into them exactly—not extending beyond, like the Bowie knife—were fully one-eight of an inch thick at the top, narrowing to an almost razor-like edge. The steel was moved by a spring which, when touched, not only sprung the weapon into place, but held it there, so that when plunged into a body it could not double up on the hand as an ordinary penknife would. This spring also served another purpose. Colonel Bowie had to reach down his back to pull out his weapon, and then afterwards get the blade into position.

My knife, however, could be carried in the breeches pocket, and as the owner drew it, by touching the spring, the blade would throw itself into place even before the knife came into sight, and its wielder would be ready for battle. I had two of these knives made and presented one to Colonel Goodloe, and taught him how to use it. He said that with such a weapon he would have no show against a man armed with a revolver. I quickly showed him that he was mistaken. I handed him an empty revolver and told him to try to place it against my breast and pull the trigger. As he moved his right hand forward with pistol I grasped the cuff of his coat with the fingers of my left hand, and with the powerful grip which I thus obtained twisted backward the hand, holding the weapon in such a way that he was powerless. Then with my right hand I sprung my knife from my breeches pocket and made a score or more of mock stabs into his defenseless breast. Again and again I showed him how to accomplish the feat, and that is how he killed Swope."

It was after this and after Chinn had made the narrator's blood run cold by using him as a model upon which to exemplify the graceful use of this Kentucky tooth pick, that I said to him: "But why use a knife?" He answered: "Different countries have different customs. Why use a pistol? Why use anything to defend yourself? If a man is seeking your life, why take any chances in the matter? Why not at once put a stop to the menace? You of the east look upon the use of fists as preferable to a pistol, and the latter is far less bloodthirsty than the employment of the knife.

"But it is all a matter of custom. In Kentucky men carry weapons habitually, and I think he who uses the knife is a far more courageous man than the one who engages in the long-range attack of a pistol. With a knife you must be close to your foe; if you use it on his back you are a dastard and should hang for it, but should you meet him face to face and plunge it into him after fair warning and for a proper cause, there is no reason why a true man should not take you by the hand."

How to Renovate Old Chairs and Tables to Look Like New.

Many old and shabby pieces of furniture are discarded as useless without any trouble being taken to renovate them, and yet it is marvelous how a little trouble and ingenuity will so transfigure them that they look better than they did when they were new. For instance, a girl who was about to be married, and with whom money was, and would be, a very scarce commodity, could furnish her drawing room, as far as chairs and tables go, for a mere song, if she purchased some old ones at a second-hand shop and exercised her taste and patience in doing them up. A shabby cane bottomed chair with the seat out could be made quite presentable.

First of all, nail some stout webbing across in criss-cross fashion to form a seat, and put a cushion stuffed with flock or mill-puff upon it; then cut down the legs of the chair to make it lower ,taking more off the back than the front ones, and paint them with black or white enamel. The whole must then be put into a cretonne cover, back and seat, with a deep frill round the latter reaching to within three inches of the ground. Four of these, say with white legs and pale green coverings, would be quite effective in a room.

The plainest wooden table may be made beautiful by very simple means. For instance, to make a writing table get an ordinary deal dressing table with a drawer. Take the ugly knobs off the drawer, sandpaper the table, size it and stain it leaf green with green stain. When quite dry screw on brass handles in place of the knobs. With brass candlesticks, inkstand, &c., and a pretty blotter and stationery case, this will look well in a recess or near a window.

A very quaint table can be made out of a white wood one stained the color of dark oak and an arabesque design in white paint, and then hammer in the nails, which should be plain "studs," in continuous lines. A thick row must go round the edge and half way down each leg. Other small tables can be enamelled white and the tops tightly covered with brocade edged round with ball fringe. Silk coteline, fifty inches wide, makes excellent tops, with the fringe exactly matching.

A Few Good Recipes:

POTATO CHOWDER.

Cut potatoes into cubes, cut four slices of salt pork into small pieces, put them into the frying pan; when hot add one half a sliced onion, fry until a light brown, put in a stew pot some of the potato, then add the onion and pork and some finely chopped parsley. Add one pint of boiling water, cover, and let simmer until the potatoes are tender. Scald one pint of milk, rub together two tablespoonfuls of butter and two of flour, add to the scalding milk, let boil, add this to the potato chowder; stir carefully. Season highly and serve very hot.

CHICKEN CROQUETTES.

One cup of chopped cooked chicken and one-half cup of canned mushrooms chopped fine; put one-half cup of cream in a frying pan; rub together two tablespoonfuls of flour and two of butter; add this to the hot cream, let boil; then add the chopped chicken and mushrooms, one teaspoonful of salt, a little pepper and a little onion juice; beat one egg, add to the chicken; thoroughly heat but do not boil after the egg is added; remove from the fire, add one tablespoonful of lemon juice; spread on a platter when cold; divide into as many portions as are to be served; shape, beat one egg, add one tablespoonful of water, dip the croquettes in egg, then in bread crumbs, fry in deep fat, drain on paper, arrange the croquettes on a folded napkin; garnish with parsley or watercress; serve with mushroom sauce.

MUSHROOM SAUCE.

Put two tablespoonfuls of butter in a frying pan, add one-half slice of onion, one of carrot, a small stalk of celery, one small bay leaf, a sprig of thyme; simmer this on the back of the range (do not brown), then add two tablespoonfuls of flour, stir well; pour over slowly, stirring all the while, one cup of white stock or milk, let this boil add salt and pepper; then add one-half cup of cream and one-half cup of mushrooms cut in halves; serve in a sauce boat.

CREAM WAFFLES.

Cream one half cup of butter; add the well beaten yolks of four eggs and one half teaspoonful of salt; beat this well; then add two cups of sifted flour, one cup of milk and one cup of cream, alternating, making a smooth batter; beat the whites of eggs to a stiff froth and beat them in; have the waffle iron very hot; grease it with salt pork; bake the waffles and serve with syrup or sugar and butter.

IMPERIAL PUDDING.

Boil one half cup of rice one hour; soak one half box of gelatine in one half cup of cold water until soft; heat this and strain it into the rice; add one cup of granulated sugar; set this in the refrigerator or in ice water; when partially cool add one cup of cream whipped, four tablespoonfuls of sherry wine; cut in small pieces one banana, three figs, three slices of pineapple; add this fruit to the pudding; when quite stiff pour into a mould; serve with a thin whipped cream.

Now was Henri come back from the wars, only to find Beatrice married to another.

"So, after all your vows you forgot me!" he exclaimed, with much bitterness.

The girl hung her head guiltily.

"Yes," she faltered, and then she added, with great vehmence, "that's what I get for trusting to my memory. I should have made a memorandum. Mon Dieu!"

Ah, but it was too late to think of that now.—Detroit Journal.

FASHION'S SIMPLICITY.

It Does Not Imply a Decrease of Expense.

The fashionable gown is usually simple in appearance, but its exquisiteness of cut, fit and finish compensate for its lack of elaboration. Elegant simplicity is the order of the day, and the tailor made gown leads the van of out of door gowns. In Paris walking is a fashionable amusement, and very elegant costumes are worn by promenaders in the Bois de Boulogne, where society takes exercise on foot, on horseback or in its carriage. Tailor made costumes of thin cloth of most delicate tones—cream, pale blue, heliotrope, white, water green, lastic, light gray—are enjoying special favor and are certainly very charming. In more sober and subdued tints such gowns also predominate in the city streets.

The style of skirt varies but little. Always tight at the top and molded to the figure, flat trimmings only are employed for it, such as stitched bands, heavy cording, embroidery and galloon. The skirt being long, it is lifted in the hand, the lining of bright silk being thus revealed.

The bodice is usually a bolero or a short jacket, but the bolero is the smarter, and its fronts are generally a little elongated. A blouse is worn beneath, silk and gauze being now less fashionably employed than the finest lawn, tucked, puffed, embroidered and covered with delicate lace.

The jacket illustrated is of cloth, with applications of embroidery. It is close fitting at the back, but straight in front, crossing to the left with a single rever faced with grosgrain. The front is pointed, the basque being rounded at the sides. There are flaring wrists to the sleeves and a Valois collar.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

OLD GLOVES.

The Many Purposes For Which They Are Useful.

Old gloves should not be thrown away as soon as they are discarded, for they are still useful in a number of ways after they are no longer fit for wear in the street. Probably everybody understands their value as a protection for the hands in gardening, rowing or cleaning a bicycle, and most persons have a few glove fingers laid away in reserve for use in case the hand is injured, but bits of glove kid may be utilized in many fashions. They are excellent for applying dressing to kid shoes, for making watch cases and pen wipers and for tying over the tops of bottles, in traveling, to keep the stopper secure. Suspenders may be mended with kid, spectacles, jewelry and finger nails polished with it. Strips may be cut from the clean part of the wrist of mousquetaire gloves, these strips to be neatly stitched upon the edge of the collar, cuffs and belt of a tailor made gown as an appropriate finish. There is material enough in the arms of long evening gloves to make pretty little shoes for infants, and those long arms usually go to waste, the hand part becoming soiled and worn long before the rest is defaced.

The little girl's dress illustrated is of dark blue summer cheviot. The skirt is stitched around the foot and trimmed with white mohair braid. The blouse bodice, which has a plaited yoke of white silk framed in blue velvet, is trimmed with white braid and pearl buttons. The close sleeves are also trimmed with braid. The collar and the belt, which ties at the back with long ends, are of blue velvet. JUDIC CHOLLET.

ALLIGATORS PLAY PYRAMID

Rules of the Game As It Appears to a Spectator.

Did you ever see the Zoo alligators play "pyramid," or any other of their famous games? They wrestle like old-time Graeco-Roman boys, and strain and struggle in all sorts of ways at it. When, finally, one wins by getting the other on his back, a funnier thing occurs. The victor makes a sound like escaping steam—alligators' applause, if you please. Then they all become still and watch the vanquished brother squirm to get off his back and onto his legs again. If he's longer in doing it than the gang think is proper, they move up in single file and give him a jab with their jaws in his upturned belly. When finally he gets himself righted all hands again set up the steam-escaping racket, cheering him long and as loud as they did his victor. Their meaning no fight is shown by their never hurting each other.

Another of the great midsummer pastimes of these Zoo alligators is playing pyramid. The 'gators play pyramid several times a day. To see it done you'd declare that the ugly things had been trained to it. But no. It's just one of the ways of the sporty side of their life. The game comes on by one of the biggest alligators uttering the steam-hissing noise. This calls the others to attention. Then the big one says a line or two of alligator talk and stretches himself full length in the centre of the pen. No sooner is this done than a little bit smaller alligator crawls on top of the other and stretches out lengthwise, but head to tail with the other. The second one being settled, he lets off a little steam talk, and a third, a little smaller alligator, climbs up on top of the second and settles down as the second did. They keep this up until six or seven have builded themselves into as strange and wonderful a pyramid as ever an eye beheld. After each one has settled on top of the other he lies perfectly motionless, so that when the pyramid is completed it appears as some marvellous carving.

But this effect lasts only about two minutes after the pyramid is finished. Then comes a new chapter of the act. The Sandow 'gator underneath all, starts to crawling. He heads for up-and-down places in the pen, the game clearly being to see how long it will take him to jolt his strange pyramid load to pieces. And right here develops what appears to be a strict rule of the game. Say there are seven in the pyramid, and the sixth from the bottom jolts off first, taking, of course, the seventh one with him. You'd naturally think the game done for that sixth and seventh alligator. But not at all. It seems that the sixth one is in disgrace for having been shaken off before the seventh one, who was on top of the heap. Therefore, what does the seventh do but cling to the back of the sixth, after they've fallen off, and proceed to ride Mr. Alligator No. 6 around the pen until Mr. Sandow Alligator has succeeded in dumping the whole shooting match. If the fourth is shaken off before the fifth, the fifth, like the seventh, proceeds to ride his disgraced "next" until Sandow gets rid of all his load and another game is started.

That Famous Blackbird Pie.

An interpreter of Mother Goose says: "The four-and-twenty blackbirds' represent the four-and-twenty hours. The 'bottom of the pie' is the world, while the 'crust' is the sky that overarches it.

"The 'opening of the pie' is the day dawn, when the birds begin to sing and surely such a sight is fit for a king.

"The 'king,' who is represented as sitting in his counting house, counting out his money, is the sun, while the gold pieces that slip through his fingers as he counts them, are the golden sunbeams.

"The 'queen' is the moon, and the honey with which she regales herself is the moonlight.

"The industrious maid, who is in the garden hanging out the clothes, is day-dawn, and the clothes are the clouds.

"The 'blackbird' who so tragically ends the song by 'nipping off her nose' is the sunset.

"So we have the whole day, if not in a nutshell, in a pie."

Whoever thought Mother Goose taught lessons in astronomy!

Hand Blown Bubbles.

Have you ever tried blowing bubbles from your hands instead of from a pipe? It can be done, and the bubbles will be considerably larger than those the ordinary clay pipe produces. The next time you are in the bath tub you can give the experiment a test. Lather your hands well with suds; then place them in the position of a cup, just as if you were scooping up water from a spring, leaving, however, a small hole in the bottom. Hold your hands about a foot from the mouth and blow a current of air into them. After one or two trials you will be able to send skimming about bubbles over a foot in diameter.

New Century Puzzle.

Cut out the four triangular sections. Then fit them together into a perfect square, having at least half of each section exposed. When the square is properly made you will find the first year of the new century.

Your mother agrees with me exactly, Johnny," said his father, proceeding to trim the twigs from a tough switch. "She thinks, with me, that you need a good trouncing, and you are going to get it, my son."

"Yes," bitterly exclaimed Johnny. "You and maw always agrees when it comes to lickin' me. You and maw's the whole thing. I don't never have no show. The fam'ly's run by a trust!"

"Why, Willie," asked a woman of her nephew, aged 4, "what are you crying about? Tell auntie all your troubles, and perhaps I can help you."

"N-no you c-can't," sobbed the little fellow; "I've g-got on my Su-Sunday c-clothes, and m-mamma says I've g-got to k-keep them c-clean, and I c-can't have n-no fun, s-so I c-can't."

CHILDREN'S CORNER

THE BUMBLEBEE

You better not fool with a bumblebee!
Ef you don't think they can sting—you'll see!
They're lazy to look at, an' kindo' go
Buzzin' an' bummin' aroun' so slow,
An' ac' so slouchy an' all fagged out,
Danglin' their lags as they drone about
The hollyhawks 'at they can't climb in
'Ithout 'ist a'tumble-un' out ag'in:
Wunst I watched one climb clean 'way
In a jimson-blossom, I did one day—
An' I 'ist grabbed it—an' nen let go—
An' "Oh-ooh! Honey, I told ye so,"
Says the Raggedy Man, an' don't laugh none,
An' says: "They has be'n folks' I guess,
'At thought I wuz preludust, more or less—
Yit I still muntain 'at a Bumblebee Wears out his welcome too quick fer me!"

—James Whitcomb Riley.

THE KING'S CHAMPION.

Little Frank Dymoke the Thirtieth Champion of England.

It is owing to a girl's pretty eyes that the King's Champion is not now an American. The King's Champion is a person whose office is hereditary. When a monarch of England is crowned the Champion's duty is to ride into Westminster Hall clad in full armor, attended by pages, heralds, etc., and, throwing down a gauntlet of steel, defy the four corners of the earth in behalf of the rights of the new monarch to sit upon the throne.

The Championship is in the family of Dymoke by right of descent from the last of the Marmions, the Marmion whom Sir Walter Scott immortalized. The Dymoke from whom the present Champion is descended, Edward, fell out with his family and started to go to Virginia. But the bright eyes of Abigail Snowden persuaded him to stay in England, and he became yeoman at Grebby. Had he carried out his original plan there would have been an American Champion just as there is an American Lord Fairfax, and when a new monarch was crowned the American would have had to ask for a couple of weeks off to go over and see the new King properly installed in office.

In England there are two little boys, 4½ years old each, one of whom will be called Prince Edward of York and one who will one day, in all probability, be crowned King of England, and the other, Frank Dymoke, the great-great-grandson of a mercer of London town, who will be, on the death of his father, thirieth Champion of England in descent from Robert de Marmion, Lord of Fontenay, hereditary Champion to the Dukes of Normandy to whom he was a near relative. He came over with William the Conqueror and the Duke made him Champion of England, giving him the manor of Scrivelsby, with which manor the Championship goes. Francis Seaman Dymoke now holds the manor, and several others, having come into the property by the will of a relative who discovered that Francis Seaman was the real Champion and should, according to the fitness of things, have the Dymoke property.

Young Master Frank, son of Francis Seaman, is a sturdy boy, with a decided will of his own, and has already announced that when Prince Eddy is crowned he is going to ride into Westminster Hall in full armor, as is his right, and defy the world for the new king.

Every man who ever went to school and "spoke pieces" has stood at some time or other before his fellow schoolboys, his critical teacher and his admiring family, and declaimed with a voice which lost some of its ferocity from the fact that it was "changing," and would fly in a most startling manner from deep bass to high falsetto: "Charge, Chester, charge! On Stanley on!"

Were the last words of Marmion.

That Marmion was Sir Philip Marmion, the last of his name, and from Marmion's daughter Joan is descended Master Frank, the future thirtieth Champion of England., and through her he has his claims to the hereditary honor. This ceremony of the Champion was omitted at the coronation of William IV. and of Victoria, as those in charge of the arrangements for the function desired to keep down the expenses to the lowest possible figure. At the next coronation however, the Champion will appear, as is his right, and flash with his armor in the hall of Westminster. When that peculiar monarch, James VI of Scotland, came to be crowned King James I of England, Sir Edward Dymoke appeared and demanded the privilege of acting as Champion.

"Champion of England ye may be, but wha made ye Champion of Scotland?" asked the King. Dymoke replied that James was being crowned King of England not of Scotland, and the right of the Champion possessed by Majesty's own title.

"Well," said the king, "there's nae need o' ane hole for the cat and anither for the kitten," and then and there created Dymoke Champion for Great Britain.

MASTER'S SALE.

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY.

By virtue of a decree of the Court of Chancery of the State of New Jersey bearing date on the thirteenth day of May A. D. eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, in a cause pending in said Court wherein John Schroppe et al. are complainants and Martha Schuck et al. are defendants, I shall expose to sale at public vendue, to the highest bidder on between the hours of twelve o'clock noon and five o'clock in the afternoon to wit, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, on the premises situate in the City of Plainfield, County of Union and State of New Jersey, described as follows; first tract:—BEGINNING at a stone in the centre of Union street and running along the centre of said Street, South forty-six and a half degrees two chains and sixty-one and a half links to the entrance of the Union Cemetery; thence along the line of said Cemetery, North forty-three and a half degrees East, one chain and seven links to a stone in said line; thence running North forty-six and a half degrees West; two chains and fifty seven and a half links to a stone in the centre of Sixth Street; thence along the centre of said Street South forty-seven and a half degrees West, one chain and seven links to the place of Beginning. Being the same premises conveyed to John A. Schuck in his lifetime, by deed of William Birt and wife, and dated October 13, 1851, and recorded in the Register's office of the County of Essex in Book T-7 of deeds pages 496 etc.

Second tract:—BEGINNING at a stone in the centre of Sixth street and corner of John A. Schuck's lot, and running South forty-six and a half degrees East, two chains and fifty-seven and a half links to a stone in Thomas B. Stillman's line and another corner of said Schuck's lot; thence along said Stillman's line North forty-three and one half degrees East, twenty-six links; thence North forty-seven degrees East, fifty-six links to a stone, a corner of Wm. Birt's lot; thence along said Wm. Birt's line North forty-seven degrees West, two chains and fifty-five links to a stone in the centre of Sixth Street, another of Wm. Birt's corners; thence along the centre of said Sixth Street, forty-seven and a-half degrees West, eighty-two links to the place of beginning.

Containing twenty-one hundredths of an acre of land, more or less. Said Sixth street being forty-two feet in width, and was conveyed to said Schuck by deed of said Birt and wife, dated October 7, 1854, and recorded in Essex County in Book 205, pages 165, &c.

Excepting and reserving out of the last above described tract so much thereof as is covered by the following description, to wit, Beginning at a point in the centre of Sixth street as now laid out in the line of Henry Smith's land; thence running along the centre of said Sixth street South 48 degrees 25 minutes West (magnetic bearing) 42.62 feet to a point; thence South 43 degrees 11 minutes East 168.07 feet to an iron bolt in George E. Hoadley's line; thence along said Hoadley's line North 48 degrees and 37 minutes East 38.04 feet to a point being said Hoadley's corner and in Henry Smith's line; thence along said Smith's line North 41 degrees and 45 minutes West 169 feet to a point in the centre of Sixth street and place of beginning.

Being conveyed to David Seaman by said Schuck in his lifetime, by deed dated May 1, 1877, recorded in Book E—117 of deeds for Union County, pages 160, &c.

Including the estate and interests in dower of the defendants Martha Schuck, widow of John A. Schuck deceased, and in the inchoate rights of dower of Kate Schuck, wife of George A. Schuck and Jennie Schuck wife of Michael Schuck, together with all and singular the hereditaments and appurtenances in the said premises belonging or in any wise appertaining.

In Chancery of New Jersey.

To Sophia J. Lawson, Catherine L. Lawson, Florence B. Lawson and Clinton F. Lawson:

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey, made on the day of date hereof, in the cause wherein Estelia A. Lawson, is complainant and you are defendants, you are required to appear, plead, answer or demur to the bill of said complainant, on or before the Seventh day of August, next, or the said bill will be taken as confessed against you.

The said bill is filed for partition of certain lands in the City of Plainfield, County of Union, of which Samuel Q. Lawson died seized, and you Sophia J. Lawson, are made defendant because you claim to have a right of dower in said lands, and you, Catherine L. Lawson, Florence B. Lawson and Clinton F. Lawson, are made defendants because you are the children of Samuel Q. Lawson deceased, and are therefore tenants in common therein.

Dated the 6th day of June, 1899.

The law students of Plainfield and Somerville met on the Somerville diamond Saturday afternoon, and had an exciting baseball game. The Somerville boys won, of course, by a score of 9 to 6. Up to the eighth inning, the visitors were ahead. Then a wild throw let in four runs for Somerville and Plainfield's embryo lawyers were not able to score again. Koehler and Snediker were the battery for the Plainfield team.

AMONG THE STEPPERS.

Lovers of good horse racing attended the races on the track of the Plainfield Driving Park Association Saturday afternoon and thoroughly enjoyed a fine programme. The programme was arranged for match races and excellent time was made; in fact the best time for the season was made by J. W. Johnson's fast horse "Woven Wind," which was 2:21. This time is is claimed is equal to 2:16 on a mile track. The first race consisted of three heats between Mr. Johnson's "Woven Wind," and Thomas Brantingham's "Myrtle Twig." The latter won the first two heats in 2:32 and 2:24 and "Woven Wind" captured the third heat in 2:21. It was one of the best races of the season. The second race consisted of two heats between C. L. Wright's "Fairmount Maid," and Douglass Darby's "Sunday." The latter won the fiast heat in 2:32 and "Fairmount Maid" secured the second heat in 2:27. The last match race was between R. Fairbairn's pacer "Blumett," and J. W. Johnson's "Leonala." Mr. Jonnson's horse won both heats in 2:27 and 2:29. After these match races there was some exhibition trotting but the time was not recorded. Several fast horses were missed at the track for the reason that they are not of condition and their owners did not care to put them in the races.

ROD AND GUN.

The New Jersey State Rifle Association will hold its annual meeting at Sea Girt this year during the week of September 4 to 9 inclusive, and an interesting series of matches has been arranged. Teams from a number of States and from the United States army are expected to take part in the contests. The Sea Girt range is to be used during July and August for rifle practice by the New Jersey National Guard.

CYCLING COMMENT.

The League of American Wheelmen has established a cycling circuit comprising the states of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland. The first meeting will be held at Mahanoy City, Pa., July 4th, and the second at Atlantic City July 8th. Major Taylor, the Butler brothers, Starbuck, Carroll Jack and a number of other prominent riders will, it is said, remain with the L. A. W.

GOLF.

Fourth of July afternoon there will be a reception at the Hillside Tennis and Golf clubhouse, and the usual social features will be enjoyed.

MRS. BARROW'S LONG TERM.

Sentenced to Twelve Years and Ten Months in Prison.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New York, June 26—Mrs. Addie Barrow will have to serve a term in Auburn Prison for her part in the kidnapping of Marion Clark. The woman's trial was called before Justise Werner in the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court at 10:30 this morning. At that time she was taken from her cell to the court room. Her grandmother, Mrs. McNally, met her and stayed with her during the ordeal that followed. When the case was called Wm. F. Howe, the prisoner's counsel, arose and said that his client wished to withdraw her plea of not guilty and substitute one of guilty.

Brunswick Won the Match.

The semi-monthly shoot of the Central New Jersey Trap Shooters' League was held at the Maples, Saturday afternoon. Five teams were represented. The team match was won by the Reservoir Gun Club of New Brunswick. The other Brunswick Club, the Climax Gun Club, the Dunellen Gun Club and the Perth Amboy Gun Club were also represented.

Who Stole the Boots?

Two pairs of rubber boots, the property of Patsy Christmas, were found Saturday in the cobbler shop of Moses Benner on West Second street. As Moses refused to give up the boots or tell of whom he bought them, Patsy secured a search warrant of Justice Mosher and Constable Gjettleson got the boots. The case will have a hearing tomorrow afternoon.

Disinfecting the Station House.

Chief Grant has given the station house a thorough disinfection by the use of sulphur candles. Tom Martin and family made a hasty exit and will absent themselves for a short period to give the bugs a chance to migrate.

SMALLEST IN THE WORLD.

The smallest cows in the world are to be found in the Samoan islands.

The smallest camels belong in Persia. They are not more than fifty centimeters high.

FINE SHOWING IN ROAD IMPROVEMENT.

The State Aid Plan Seems to Have Worked Well.

300 MILES PETITIONED FOR.

CONTINUOUS HARD ROAD FROM JERSEY CITY TO ATLANTIC CITY.

The Locating of Roads to Receive State Aid is Purely Arbitrary With the Road Commissioner—New Lines Being Built in All Directions—Attractions for Automobilists and Others.

Trenton, June 27.—"We are rapidly getting ready for the coming of the automobile into New Jersey, and we will have the finest system of continuous roads in the country for the recreation of those who will use them," said State Road Commissioner Henry I. Budd recently, after contemplating a road map of the State and pointing out the through lines that are fast being completed.

It is the pride of the State that in building its many roads that it keeps particularly in sight the early realization of the stone road agitators, for direct roads from the hills of Sussex to the sands of Cape May, air lines of crushed gray stones from the Atlantic Highlands to the rocky ledges of Paliaquarry in the upper corner of Warren county.

The work of road building has been going on persistently. To a casual observer it is detached work, but there need be only a few more years of road building when heavy long lines can be drawn across the map of New Jersey, which will be royal highways for the general improvement of the communities and for the particular delight of the biker and the rich automobilist.

As it is now, the long-distance rider can take a hard road spurt from Atlantic City to Jersey City. There is an easy run of sixty miles over gray and yellow roads built under State supervision. The run then goes through Burlington county by the way of Moorestown, Jobstown and Trenton. There are several routes to New Brunswick, and from New Brunswick to Jersey City. This is a run of upwards of 175 miles over hard roads, designedly connected. This makes an interesting connection between New York and Philadelphia, and a good run for the automobilists.

There is now a hard road of thirty-five miles across the State from Jersey City to Hobeken, thence to Paterson and then to New Foundland, in the upper part of Morris county. Roads are reaching out from Morristown in this direction, which will give a great variety of landscape for either the bicyclist or the horseless carriage tourist.

There has just been finished in Morris county a substantially built road from the Essex county line, which is known as the Denville and Pine Brook road, which opens a fine road to Lake Hopatcong from Newark, and the distance of the run is thirty miles. It passes through a country that cannot be excelled for fine scenery and leads to a classical lake region in the upper part of Morris county. These thirty-mile runs will be gradually extended, until they get well across the State.

It is a feature of the New Jersey Road law, slightly known, that the locating of the roads that shall receive State aid is purely arbitrary with the Road Commissioner. Other States make it obligatory for the States to give aid in road building where it is petitioned for, and in the order of the filing of the application. There has been some nominal criticism on this phase of the law, because it places too much power in the hands of one individual. The purpose of this one man power is explained by the existence of the plan to build roads that will sooner or later connect in a line and make broad highways up and down and across the State.

There are seven lines going out of Camden in every direction. Lines are building across Monmouth which will make pleasant and easy access to the seashore towns from the eastern and northert part of the State. Morris county, where the automobile has already been seen, will have, as soon as connections are made, several long roads that will become famous because of their condition and the beautiful landscape they cut through.

Good Advice.

Through The Daily Press Chief Doane requests merchants to clean up their backyards and area ways to avoid a conflagration from fireworks in the hands of careless people. A little precaution in this direction may be the means of saving a big fire that would do thousands of dollars of damage.

VICIOUS DOG'S ATTACK.

KNOCKED DOWN AND BIT A FANWOOD MESSENGER.

Wilbur Miller Quite Seriously Injured by the Brute at Mrs. Hoffman's House at Terrill Road Yesterday Afternoon.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Fanwood, June 27—Wilbur Miller, who has charge of the newstand at the station, had an exciting experience with a savage dog yesterday afternoon. During dull hours at the stand Miller delivers messages for the telegraph operator in the station. Early yester-afternoon a telegram was received for a Mrs. Hoffman living on Terrill road nearly two miles from the station, Miller agreed to deliver it. When he arrive at his destination he was jumped upon by a large New Foundland dog belonging to Mrs. Hoffman.

The brute, which has a bad reputation for ugliness, nearly knocked the messenger down before he was aware of his presence, and before he could recover himself the animal had sunk his teeth into his arm, lacerating it badly. Mrs. Hoffman appeared upon the scene and with difficulty made the dog release its hold.

Miller fainted from shock and injury and it was some time before he was able to make the return trip. As soon as he reached Fanwood he went at once to Dr. Westcott and had the wound dressed and cared for.

It is not thought that there will be any serious results from the bite, but Miller's arm will be sore for sometime and Mrs. Hoffman may have a suit for damages to defend.

$124.46 FOR THE CAMP.

LIBERAL CONTRIBUTIONS ARE MADE THROUGH THE DAILY PRESS.

Two Substantial Checks Have Been Sent to the Treasurer, and Another Starts With the Contribution of Three Boys.

Last week the Daily Press sent Mrs. Hattie M. Myers, treasurer of the Babies' Camp fund of the City Union of King's Daughters, a check for $78.76, the amount then contributed to the fund through The Daily Press. Today another check for $45.50 was sent to Mrs. Myers as the sum contributed through The Daily Press since the first instalment was turned over. This now makes a total of $124.26 raised for the fund by The Daily Press.

Another start is made on the fund this morning by a contribution of $1.34, which is given by Willie and Clyde Doane and Vincent Miner, a trio of ambitious youngsters of La Grande avenue. Last Saturday the lads gave a "wild west" show on the grounds of the Doane boys' father, J. Harvey Doane. It was a realistic affair and attracted a large concourse of youngsters throughout the neighborhood. A small admission fee was charged to see the wonders of the great "wild west" exhibition and the above sum was netted, which the boys promptly decided to turn over to The Daily Press for the Babies' Camp fund.

The contributions to the fund are as follows to date:

Previously acknowledged and check sent to Mrs. Hattie M. Myers, treasurer of the Babies' Camp fund,.....	$124 26
Willie and Clyde Doane and Vincent Miner, profits of "wild west" show,.....	1 34

NEW ELECTRIC CONDUITS.

Patsy Christmas Secures the Contract for Doing the Work.

Patsy Christmas, the contractor who is putting in the storm sewer, yesterday made a contract with the Plainfield Electric Light Company to construct the new conduit which that company is to lay through various streets of the city, including Watchung avenue, Front street, North and Park avenues, Madison avenue and Second street. The work will be commenced on or about the first of July, or as soon as possible after the big sewer job is finished. The contract calls for the construction of nine manholes and seventeen service boxes. About 75 men will be put to work.

Patriotic Celebration.

The eleventh annual celebration of Independence Day by the Washington Camp Ground Association will be held the afternoon of the Fourth of July in the grove of the reservation belonging to the association, near Bound Brook, where Washington's army was encamped, while the General himself had headquarters at the Wallace house in Somerville. A band concert will be given from 2 until 3 o'clock, after which the patriotic exercises will be held, including an oration by Howard MacSherry, Esq., of New Brunswick. The public in general is cordially invited to attend this patriotic celebration.

PLANS FOR HOSPITAL ARE TOO COSTLY.

Board of Governors Decide They Cannot Raise $50,000.

QUESTION AS TO LOCATION.

EXPECTED THAT NEW BUILDING WILL BE ON DIFFERENT SITE.

Committee and Architect Are Now at Work Modifying Plans to Meet the Needs of Plainfield for a Community Sick Room—Nothing Definite to Be Done Until After Summer Vacations.

The board of governors of the hospital held a regular meeting last evening and business of a routine nature was considered. As many of the governors will be away during the coming two months it is not expected that another full meeting will be held until fall.

The building committee reported progress and stated that appointments had been made with the architect, but owing to his illness not much could be accomplished. The fact that the plans as originally drawn and displayed in the window of Armstrong's pharmacy called for an expenditure of $50,000 or $60,000, has led the governors to modify them greatly. The plans were too expensive, and other plans more in accord with the situation of Plainfield and its needs will be drafted.

The committee and the architect are now at work modifying plans to meet the needs of Plainfield, but during the coming summer months not much work will be done, but the committee will still keep at work.

Regarding the location of the new hospital buildings there is a great difference of opinion, which shows that the people can reasonably expect that there will be a change from the present place. There are many disadvantages where the hospital is now located, and many strong arguments are advanced for a change.

The monthly report of the medical director, Dr. M. B. Long, was received. It was in substance as follows: Patients in hospital at last report, 16; number admitted, 15; number discharged cured, 15; discharged improved, 5; discharged not improved, 1; deaths, 0; total number treated, 31; number remaining, 12; dispensary patients, 41; visits, 122.

IT WAS NOT BULLMAN.

Demented Man Picked Up at Morristown Thought to Be Bullman

A report reached Plainfield yesterday from Morristown that a man answering the description of George W. Bullman, who disappeared from Plainfield seven weeks ago, was picked up on the outskirts of that place, and was found to be in a demented condition.

Captain Grant received the word and he immediately telephoned the same to Marshal Campbell, of the borough, who in turn delivered the message to Mayor Smalley. The latter telephoned to the Chief of Police at Morristown and inquired as to the man found. The Mayor was informed that the man found gave the name of Samuel Gill, and his residence Newark, and from what could be leared there is no resemblance to Mr. Bullman.

Newark Free Excursion.

The free excursion to Newark will be run tomorrow, and undoubtedly many Plainfield women will take advantage of the offer of the Newark merchants to visit the Jersey metropolis. The train will leave Plainfield at 8:58 a. m., returning leaving Newark in the afternoon at 4:50 o'clock. In order to ride free to Newark it will be necessary to purchase a special ticket at the station of the Central, and subsequently present the coupon attached to it to one of the big stores in Newark and the amount of fare will be returned to the holder.

The Limb Broke.

Charles Jason, of 316 East Third street, met with a slight accident yesterday noon while picking cherries in his yard. He was standing on a limb that was not very strong and Mr. Jason's weight broke it. He fell a short distance to the ground, but no limbs were broken in his body. He sustained quite a shaking up, and will be a little more careful in the future.

Fine Music to be Heard.

This evening at the First Baptist church a fine concert will be given by the choir under the direction of E. J. Fitzhugh. The works to be given are "Stabat Mater," and "The Redemption." The choir has attained a high degree of efficiency and a rare treat is in store for all who attend. The entire proceeds will be given to the hospital building fund.

MACMURRAY IN TO WIN.

CITY CLERK WOULD LIKE TO BE COUNTY CLERK.

Story That the Plainfield Republican Has Withdrawn From the Race is Declared Not to Be the Truth.

The bunch of plums to be divided among the G. O. P. men of Union county, this fall, promises all sorts of combinations. Elizabeth, after absorbing most everything worth having for the past few years, is beginning to see trouble ahead. The Republicans, whom fate has ordained shall not live at the county seat, are preparing to test Elizabeth's strength at the coming county convention. Meanwhile, there are a number of Plainfielders who are keenly interested in what is going to happen.

As early as last fall, at the county convention in Elizabeth, it was a well-known fact that City Clerk MacMurray, of Plainfield, was in line for the Republican nomination for County Clerk. Rahway also wanted it for the present incumbent, Clerk William Howard.

Of late there have been put into circulation rumors to the effect that Mr. MacMurray had withdrawn from the race. These have been denied by Mr. MacMurray and his supporters and may have eminated from some rival camp. Sheriff William T. Kirk is coming forward for the office with considerable strength. Now it is seldom that the Plainfield delegation goes out to war with a split in the camp so it seems likely that one or the other will be out of the race before the time of the convention is here.

Among the many other things that Elizabeth wants are the nominations for State Senator, two Assemblymen and Sheriff. It's the 'Port, however, that's after the Sherivalty for its favorite son, Assemblyman Robert Houston. Somehow the 'Port and Plainfield are usually in the line together. When Kirk was nominated for Sheriff three years ago, he and his followers promised to aid Houston for the same office three years later. The time is now here and Houston's friends are demanding his nomination.

The announcement that J. Martin Roll is after the Senatorial nomination has put a new phase on the situation. If Plainfield, the 'Port, Springfield and Roll's supporters in the minor townships join hands, then Elizabeth hasn't such an easy thing of it after all. She may get two Assemblymen and she may not, for Summit and other parts of the county are joining in the din against Elizabeth, and want representation on the Assembly part of the ticket.

It's all mere supposition, so far, however, and the situation will not reach anything very decisive until the warm weather is over. Meanwhile the little booms in the various parts of the county will spring forth and keep the G. O. P. leaders on the hustle to secure unity for the fall campaign.

CINDER IN HIS EYE.

Webster Littell, of This City, Undergoes an Operation.

Webster Littell, son of D. W. Littell, of 715 West Seventh street, was yesterday taken to the Eye and Ear Infirmary, New York, where he was operated upon for an injury to one of his eyes. Friday while on his way to New York on the 7:55 train Mr. Littell caught a cinder in his eye which gave him great pain. Sunday the eye grew worse and became greatly inflamed and upon the advice of his family he decided to go to the infirmary. Mr. Little is connected with the United States Leather Company, with headquarters in New York, and he commutes to that city daily. It is believed that he will be confined to the infirmary for for several days, but will not lose the use of the injured eye.

Sale of Valuable Real Estate.

There will be a sale of valuable real estate tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock to settle the estate of Thomas H. Pittis. The property consists of the house and lot No. 912 Central avenue, and also choice lots on Field avenue. The terms are one-half cash and one-half on bond and mortgage. The sale will take place on the premises and will be without reserve.

Evils of Cold Water

Miss Gertude Jones, of 222 West Second street, daughter of J. S. Jones, is still very ill, and a consultation was held this afternoon in the interest of medical science. The cause of her illness is supposed to be the result of taking a large draught of cold water about six weeks ago, while in a glowing perspiration after a long ride on her bicycle.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards Arrive Safe.

Maze Edwards, manager of the Stillman Music Hall, and his wife have arrived safely at SanFrancisco after a very enjoyable trip by the water route. They will return to Plainfield late in the summer.

NAVAL RESERVES TO BE HERE THE FOURTH

The Matter Finally Decided Yesterday Afternoon.

W. C. T. U. TO ENTERTAIN.

JOLLY JACK TARS WILL BE IN COMMAND OF WASHINGTON IRVING.

It is Expected That the Reserves Will Appear in Their New Uniforms for the First Time—Games May be Arranged for the Athletic Members to Participate in While Here.

It is now definitely settled that there will be two hundred members of the Naval Reserves in Plainfield to take part in the Fourth of July parade, the matter having been decided yesterday. The tars will come fully uniformed and will make a fine showing in line. Arrangements are now being perfected to entertain them while in town. One serious drawback is the fact that the Central Railroad Company will not allow any concession in railroad fares, and the men will have to use trip tickets or pay regular rates.

The boys will be in command of Washington Irving, the commandant, and the various other officers will be in attendance. Among the members are a number of fine atheletes and it has been suggested that games of some sort be arranged for the afternoon so that they can take part. This would form an attraction that many would like to attend, and it would prove an enjoyable feature to all lovers of good sport.

The State has just appropriated the necessary amount of money with which to furnish the Reserves with new uniforms, the first that have been purchased in four years, and if possible it will be so arrangend that the boys can have them to parade with on July 4th. The Reserves wore their present uniforms out in the service and it has been the general opinion that the State should refurnish them with new suits. An ample amount has been appropriated so that every member will get a uniform.

$2,800 TURNED UP.

Hunterdon County Farmer Found it Hidden Away in Old Brick Oven.

A story wherein a man suddenly became wealthy has just been reported. The scene of this wonderful discovery was near Little York, Hunterdon county, on a property owned by the late Silas Hawks. Mr. Hawks died several months ago and Silas Hawks, Jr., a son, purchased the property on which stood an old-fashioned house. The latter part of May Mr. Hawks was tearing out an old oven in the house to make some improvements. In tearing out the oven Mr. Hawks discovered about $2,800, partly in gold, partly in silver and the rest in paper.

Some of the coins bear the date of 1700 and it is the general opinion that the coin was placed in the oven during the Revolutionary times.

The amount found rightfully belongs to Mr. Hawks and it is sufficient to pay off the debt on the farm and house which he bought. The very early owners of the property cannot be learned, although efforts have been made to discover who they were.

ONLY A PLEASURE OUTING.

Queer Tale Tale Told by Two Boys to Judge Runyon in City Court.

It was only a pleasure outing, so the boys told City Judge Runyon this morning, but the rest of their story did not seem to substantiate the fact. Benjamin Comisky is the fourteen year old son of a maker of butcher aprons in Newark. He finally admitted that he had run away from home. The other was William Ryan, the seventeen year old son of Roundsman Ryan, of the 56th precinct, Brooklyn, of which Captain Sullivan is in charge.

The boys were taken off a train on the Jersey Central Railroad late last evening by Patrolman Vanderweg and McCarthy. They were caught stealing a ride and were locked up for the night.

This morning they told how they met on the train at Elizabeth, each having started forth on a pleasure trip. The Judge gave them a little good advice and suspended sentence but warned them to keep off the trains while in Plainfield, unless they had the money.

—Gavett is open at his new location, 318 West Front street, next to Peck's. He has a large and attractive store, and will keep a finer selection than ever of china and glass lamps.

MARINES COMING, TOO.

JUNIORS TO ENTERTAIN MEN FROM THE CRUISER BROOKLYN.

Franklin Council Has Also Made Arrangements to Care for 1,500 Lodge Brethren on the Fourth of July

Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., is endeavoring to outstrip all other organizations of this city in the celebration of Independence Day. They expect and have prepared to entertain 1,500 visiting Juniors. During the past two weeks a committee of this Council have been constructing a float planned by a well-known decoration artist, which for size, originality of idea and completeness of detail will probably be unequalled.

As an additional feature this Council expects to have with them on July 4th a body of marienes and sailors from the first-class cruiser "Brooklyn," which was the flag ship of Admiral Schley during the late war.

The marines and sailors who will be the guests of Franklin Council served during the late war and participated in the naval engagement at Santiago.

The Council hope that the people of this city will accord to this body of men the welcome due to them for their brave and honorable services to this country in its time of need.

BOY TIED UP IN GARDEN.

UNFORTUNATE CONDITION OF A WESTFIELD YOUTH.

Sometimes the Boy is Tied With a 20-foot Rope to a Tree, and at Other Times Confined in Wire Chicken Coop

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, June 27—With Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McDonald lives John McIntyre, aged 11 years, a son of Mrs. McDonald by her first husband. At times the boy is seen playing in the garden tied with a 20 foot rope to a tree. He imitates the cries of a dog, but cannot make any articulate sound. At other times he is confined in a wire chicken coop. He makes no attempt to escape, but tries to tear off his clothes, which are sewed on him. Oftentimes he sits on the ground and holds his hands to his head.

Mrs. McDonald, the mother, said: "I do the best I can for the boy. He has pains in his head most of the time. When two years old he fell on the back of his head. The doctors say he will either die or grow better when he is a year or two older."

ST. MARY'S CHAPEL.

Ground Was Broken Yesterday by Rev. Father Smyth.

Ground was broken yesterday morning at Midway avenue and Berckman street for the new chapel of St. Mary's church. The ceremony was very simple, Revs. Father Smyth and Westman each throwing up a shovelful of earth. The chapel has been needed for some time, there being many Catholics living on the East Side of the city who were compelled to walk some distance to worship at St. Mary's. In consequence some of Father Smyth's parishioners often worshipped at St. Joseph's church.

The new chapel will be a frame structure. It is expected that the corner-stone will be laid on or about July 26th.

CREIGER SAYS HE IS INNOCENT.

Alleged Owners of Illicit Still in Rahway will be Arrested.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Newark, June 27.—May Creiger, who was arrested Saturday night in Rahway on a charge of operating an illicit still in an old mansion in that town, was arraigned before United States Commissioner Whitehead yesterday and committed to jail in default of $2,500 bail to await examination Wednesday next.

Creiger says he had been at the place only since Tuesday last, and did not know there was anything wrong. He says he was in the employ of Solomon Bernstein, of New York.

Warrants have been issued for the arrest of Bernstein and Joseph Creiger, who, it is alleged, was an accomplice of Creiger's.

They Were Only Skylarking.

Justice Moffett has dismissed the complaint against Clarence Rittenhouse, who was charged by Martin Muldowney with striking him with a small piece of iron which he hurled at him. It appeared from what came out at the examination yesterday that Muldowney and a boy named Burke were skylarking with Rittenhouse, who, in a spirit of fun hurled the iron. As Muldowney was not seriously injured the Justice decided that he would not hold the accused for the Grand Jury. Hence he was discharged.

—There will be an important meeting of Plainfield Council, Order of Chosen Friends, this evening.

NEW FIVE STORY BUSINESS BLOCK.

To Rise Phœnix-Like From Bard Fire Ruins.

MODERN OFFICE BUILDING.

SUBSTANTIALLY CONSTRUCTED AND UP-TO-DATE IN ITS ENTIRETY.

It Will Have a Handsome Frontage on North Avenue and Extend Back to Second Street, Where it Will be But Four Stories High—In the Centre Will be a Large Court for Ventilation.

The ruins of the Thompson building on North avenue, which was occupied by the Bard Cycle Company, when destroyed by fire some months ago, are being cleared away preparatory to the erection of a fine business block.

The new building is to be a modern one and up-to-date in every particular. It will be built of pressed brick and be five stories on North avenue. It will extend back to Second street, where it will be but four stories.

The first floor will be fitted up for stores and the upper stories for dwelling apartments and offices. In the centre of the building is to be constructed a large court, for the purpose of supplying light and ventilation to the upper floors. The building will be provided with an elevator of the most approved pattern, particular attention being paid to safety and speed.

Entrance to the flats or dwelling apartments will be at the east side and separate from that leading to the offices. The architect is A. L. C. Marsh, who has had his plans approved by Mr. Thompson. Work upon the building will be commenced at once. The debris of the fire is being cleared away and the old iron taken to the Pond Tool Works to be melted up.

It is expected that the new building will be one of the handsomest in the city. It will cost upwards of $25,000.

PICNIC ON THE MOUNTAIN.

Primary Sunday-school Teachers' Union on the Annual Jaunt.

The Primary Sunday-school Teachers' Union are enjoying their annual picnic at Johnson's Drive, on the mountain today. There were about 40 teachers of Sunday schools from this city, Dunellen, Somerville, Cranford and Westfield. The teachers, rode to the foot of the mountain in the trolley cars and from there were taken up in stages to the mountain. These annual gatherings of the teachers are looked forward to with pleasureable anticipation by both the parents as well as some of the children, who are often taken along. A feature of the occasion was the photographing of the teachers in a group.

Fined for Fast Driving.

A party of young men, including Herbert Schutt, E. D. Barrett, Harry Potter and Richard Waring, drove through Grove street in the borough last night at a high rate of speed. They were guilty of fast driving, and they were disorderly by calling loudly to the marshals and talking in a resentful manner. The party drove toward the mountains, but the marshals were waiting for them on the return, and the result was that Messrs. Potter and Barrett were caught while the others got away. Mr. Barrett was arraigned this morning in the Borough Court and fined $5, while Mr. Potter was discharged. Messrs. Waring and Schutt will be asked to appear in court and answer to a similar charge, and if guilty they will be fined.

Suit Against Jersey Central.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Jersey City, June 27.—This city's law department has decided to bring suit against the Jersey Central Railroad Company to compel the company to remove the strip of filled-in land in front of the northern entrance to the South Cove. The suit will be brought before Chancellor McGill and will be vigorously contested by the Jersey Central, which claims it did not fill in the strip.

Hand Badly Smashed.

Robert Nelson, aged twenty-nine, married, and a resident at 222 East Front street, had his hand very badly smashed this morning while at work at the Pond Machine Tool Works, where he is employed. The hand became fastened in a piece of machinery, and before it could be extricated terrible injury resulted. An effort is being made to save the hand, but there is some doubt of it.

Celebration at the Inn.

The Fourth of July will be duly celebrated at the Mountain Park Inn. John Quincy Adams, a direct descendant of the second and sixth Presdents of the United States, will make an address there at 11 o'clock on the morning of the Fourth.

TIN PLATE MILLS TO CLOSE

Complete Shutdown of This Industry to Go Into Effect on July 1st.

WAGE SCALE UNSETTLED

Fully Fifty Thousand Men Will Be Thrown Out of Employment for an Indefinite Period.

A Labor Difficulty Far Reaching in Its Importance—All Negotiations Between The Workmen and Employers Have Been Declared Off For the Present.

Pittsburg, June 27.—The proposed shutdown of all the tin plate industries in the United States is more far-reaching in its importance than any labor difficulty that has taken place in this country in many years, and after midnight Friday, according to the announcement, there will not be a wheel turning in any tin plate factory in America. The trouble has arisen by reason of the failure to settle the wage scale at the conference in Chicago, and fully 50,000 persons will be made idle by the shutdown .

The workers' Wage Committee, acting under instructions from the annual convention, held in Detroit last month, demanded an advance of 20 per cent. The present wage scale expired on June 30, and members of the Amalgamated Association are not permitted to work after that date unless the new scale is signed.

About 25,000 skilled workers are members of the association, and as many more are dependent on them and will be idle while the skilled men are unemployed. Nearly 75 per cent. of the tinplate workers of the country are employed in western Pennsylvania mills. The scale for the tin house men, or unskilled labor, was arranged weeks ago, and provides for a big advance to some of the workers, and averages nearly 20 per cent. All the tinplate mills in the country are union mills, with but four exceptions. Some of them may continue in operation, but this is improbable.

Secretary Williams, of the Amalgamated Association, stated that all negotiations are off for the present, and that the matter will have to be referred back to the subordinate lodges. Mr. Williams said that the manufacturers offered them an advance, but it was not as much as demanded, and, as the committee had no authority to do anything except what the Detroit Convention decided on the conference was brought to an end

It would be impossible, he said, to refer the matter back to the subordinate lodges this week, much less arrange for another conference. He would express no opinion as to the probable action of the lodges, but it seems to be the general impression that there will be no modification of the original demands.

The Alameda Robbery.

Honolulu, June 18, via San Francisco June 27.—The Hawaiian detectives and Marshal Brown are confident that they have located the thief who stole $25,000 in British sovereigns from the steamer Alameda on her last trip from Sydney to San Francisco. They are confident that the thief was Wilson, an Australian confidence man and adventurer, who travelled with four others and has been engaged in several big robberies.

Their theory is that the treasure was carried to Wilson's staterooom and was removed at Honolulu. Wilson got off here and sailed for Japan. One of his accomplices is believed to be a man who brought ashore here a valise full of sovereigns, and who pulled out these big gold coins several times to pay hackmen and others.

Richer Than Gold Mines.

Seattle, Wash., June 27.—A strike is reported in one of the districts along the shores of Lake Bennett, and this time it is of metals that are seldom mentioned in Alaska—silver and lead. But the value of the ore and the width of the body combine to make this strike one of interest. Miners in this Territory have given little attention to anything but gold and copper, and have walked over fortunes in order to obtain those metals. The new Lake Bennett mines have a width of ten feet of clean silver-lead ore that assays $120 a ton. The ledge is traced the full length of two claims, 3,000 feet. At the present price of lead it is better than a gold mine.

White Disperses Deputies.

Manchester, Ky., June 27.—Sheriff B. P. White, Jr., is much disturbed over the turn of affairs in the Baker-Howard feud, because of the killing of Tom Baker while a prisoner in charge of the State troops and the determination of Gov. Bradley to call an extra session of the Legislature which will probably abolish the county of Clay. White had retained twenty-six men as deputy sheriffs, who usually did the fighting. Thes deputies have now been dispersed, it being the aim of the officials to quiet the town as much as possible until the danger is past.

Third Kidnaper Sentenced

New York, June 27.—Mrs. Addie Barrow was arraigned before Justice Werner in the criminal branch of the Supreme Court, on a charge of being one of the kidnapers of the child, Marion Clarke. She pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to a term of twelve years and ten months' imprisonment.

Sheep-Herder Found Murdered.

Santa Fe, N. M., June 27.—Cruz Apodeca, a sheep-herder, was found murdered in the mountains, about ten miles from the village of Jemez. He was killed by two comrades.

Fourteen Deaths at Manila

Washington, June 27.—The War Department has received a death report from Gen. Otis at Manila of fourteen deaths from wounds, small-pox and dysentery.

NEBRASKA'S LABOR LAW.

Retail Stores Object to Provision Regarding Women Clerks' Hours.

Omaha, June 27.—The provisions made by the last Nebraska Legislature in favor of women clerks promises to provoke more trouble than all the efforts of labor agitators in the past in this State. The new law prohibits the employment of women in retail or wholesale establishments, factories, manufactories &c., for more than ten hours a day. It is made obligatory on the part of proprietors to provide seats for all employes. A fine of not more than $50 and not less than $20 is to be imposed in each case where a failure to observe the law is proved. It is made the duty of the Deputy Labor Commissioner to see that the law is properly enforced.

The law goes into effect on July 1, but it has attracted very little attention among the clerks whom it is supposed to benefit most. The large retail stores of this city and Lincoln, however, think that the law works a positive injury, since they are not warranted in employing an extra force for the Saturday night trade, which is the only time that their interests conflict with the time provision of the act. The managers of most of the big concerns think they should be permitted to employ female labor more than ten hours a day by paying for the excess time put in, but the law does not allow this to be done. It is predicted on all sides that the effect will be to drive a large number of girls out of employment.

It is the general opinion among business men that the latter will adjust itself when once the law is in operation. The State Labor Bureau Commissioners say that they will strictly enforce the provisions of the law and will prosecute all violators.

Officers Home for Rest.

San Francisco, June 27.—Among the arrivals on the steamship Rio de Janeiro from Hong Kong were Capt. N. M. Dyer of the Baltimore, who has been succeeded by Capt. J. M. Forsyth, and is on his way to his old home in Melrose, a suburb of Boston; Capt. A. N. Walker of the Concord, who has been succeeded by Capt. Seth M. Arlkey, and is here on his way to Frankfort, Ky., and Medical Inspector J. C. Wise of the Baltimore, who is going to Washington. These officers have been detached from duty and ordered home to secure much needed rest.

Havana's Health.

Havana, June 27.—Gen. Ludlow, governor of the department of Havana, has recommended the removal of the marines from their present quarters at the wharf, believing the locality to be unhealthy. But he does not believe their removal to the navy yard would improve matters. He considers the worst part of the city is the section adjoining the old Spanish Military Hospital and favors the marines being kept afloat.

Roosevelt Starts Homeward.

Las Vegas, N. M., June 27.—Governor Roosevelt left here amid the playing of bands and cheering of a large crowd. The features of the parade were the Rough Riders, the "Coming Rough Riders" (a battalion of small boys), Toas Indians, the Chihuahua Band and a boy band from Silver City. The parade was a mile long, and crowds stretching out for three miles cheered the Rough Riders at every point.

Spuyten Duyvel Badly Shaken.

Brooklyn, N. Y., June 27.—Spuyten Duyvel was shaken by a terrific explosion following the accidental discharge of 500 pounds of dynamite. That there were no lives lost as a result of the explosion is remarkable, for persons two miles away were knocked down, roofs were torn from buildings, glass was shattered in every direction and altogether damage to the extent of $30,000 was done.

Set His Clothes on Fire.

Belleville, N. J., June 27.—Henry Hess, 2 years old, was fatally burned at the home of his parents in John street. While playing with other children in the cellar he found a box of matches and set them all ablaze. His dress caught fire and he ran to the street, a mass of flames. John Lotus of Newark extinguished the blaze, but too late to save the lad's life.

To Tear Down China's Wall.

Denver, Colo., June 27.—According to Frank Lewis, a Chicago civil engineer, now in this city, the Chinese Government contemplates the destruction of the ancient Chinese Wall that separates China proper from Chinese Tartary. He is en route to China to get the contract for a Chicago syndicate.

McKeever Beats Zeigler.

Coney Island, N. Y., June 27.—In their contest before the Coney Island Athletic Club, Charley McKeever was giver the decision in the seventh round, over Owen Zeigler. The latter's seconds threw up the sponge to save a knock out. The contest was to be a twenty-round go.

The Cornells Won.

Highland, N. Y., June 27.—Cornell won the freshman eight-oarded boat race on the Hudson, finishing in 9 minutes 54 1-5 seconds. "Pennsy's" four defeated the Cornell four over a two-mile course.

The Sponge Game.

Two fans, one for yourself and one for the person whom you are going to play with, and a small sponge, are all you need for the sponge game. Toss the sponge in the air, and hit it with your fan to your comrade, and he will hit it back to you. At the beginning of the game each person has fifty points, and whoever lets the sponge drop on the floor loses one point. The game is kept up until one of the two has no points. He is the loser and the other is the winner.

In Paris and other large towns in France female bootblacks are increasing in number. They wear a peculiar garb, not unlike that of Sisters of Mercy, which renders their appearance rather neat and attractive. Not a few among them attend to their work with gloved hands.

NATIVES ARE SCATTERED.

The War Department Receives Full Information From General Otis

WET SEASON'S ARRIVAL.

The American Troops Have Worked and Fought to the Limit of Their Endurance.

Help From a Change of Policy By the United States Their Only Hope—Much Contention Prevails Among Them and No Civil Government—Sickness of Our Troops Increased.

Washington, June 27.—Gen. Otis, in reply to a cable from the war department asking for information regarding the situation and conditions in the Philippines, has cabled a long reply, as follows:

"Adjutant General, Wahsington:

"Rainy season. Little inland campaigning possible in Luzon. We occupy large portion Tagalog country, lines stretching from Ismus south to San Fernando, north nearly sixty miles and to eastward into Laguna province. Insurgent armies have suffered great losses and are scattered; only large force held together about four thousand in Tariac province and northern Pampanaga. Their scattered forces in bands of fifty or five hundred in other portions Luzon; in Cavite and in Batangas provinces could assemble possibly two thousand, though demoralized from recent defeats; mass of people terrorized by insurgent soldiers, desire peace and American protection; no longer flee on approach of our troops, unless forced by insurgents, but gladly welcome them; no recent burning of towns population within our lines becoming dense, taking up land cultivation extensively; kept out Manila much as possible, as city population becoming too great to be cared for. Natives southeast Luzon combining to drive out insurgents; only hope insurgent leaders in United States aid. They claim near overthrow present administration, to be followed by their independence, which enables them to hold out; much contention prevails among them and no civil government remains; trade with ports not in our possession, former source insurgent revenue, now interdicted; not certain of wisdom of this policy, as people in those ports are without supply of food and merchants suffering losses; meditate restoring trade privileges, although insurgents reap benefits. Courts here in successful operation under directions of able Filipinos. Affairs in other islands comparatively quiet, awaiting results in Luzon. All anxious for trade and repeated calls for American troops received. Am giving attention to Jolo Archipelago and Palawan Islands.

"Our troops have worked to limit of endurance. Volunteer organizations have been called in; replaced by regulars, who now occupy salient positions. Nebraska, Pennsylvania and Utah now taking transports, and sixth infantry sent to Negros to relieve California. These troops in good physical condition; sickness among troops has increased lately, due mostly to arduous services and climatic influences. Nothing alarming. Of the 12 per cent. of the command reported sick nearly 6 in general hospital of whom 3 per cent. have typhoid and 17 malarial fevers; 25 per cent. have intestinal troubles; remaining 56 per cent. have various ailments, 14 of which are due to wound injuries. Many officers and men who served in Cuba break under recurrence of Cuban fever, and regular regiments lately received are inadequately officered. OTIS."

The inadequacy mentioned in the last part of the above cablegram has been remedied by the sailing of the transports Zealandia and Sheridan, carrying a number of officers for regiments in the Philippines.

Adjt.-Gen. Corbin says that all officers belonging to the regiments in the Philippines who are not absent on account of a surgeon's certificate are under orders to join their regiments at once. Forty-four have sailed on the recent transports going from Manila.

Child Burned to Death.

Burlington, Mich., June 27.—A negress named Amanda Davis kindled a fire in her kitchen oven. The wood therein was too long and the ends projected out of the door. She went to chat with a neighbor and left her 4-year-old child playing in the kitchen. During her absence the burning ends of the wood fell from the stove and ignited the little girl's clothes. The child was heard screaming, and when Amanda returned to her home she found the baby dead on the floor.

Hon. H. S. Boutelle Hurt.

Chicago, Ill., June 27.—Congressman H. S. Boutell, is suffering from injuries caused by being run down by a bicycle "scorcher" at Grand Boulevard and Forty-third street. He was rendered unconscious by the shock. He was carried to his residence in Evanston and placed in bed. He will be out early this week it is expected.

Execution Date is Fixed.

Middlesboro, Ky., June 27.—The jury in the case of C. H. Burch, of Tazewell, Tenn., returned a verdict of guilty of murder, and fixed the penalty at death, August 11 having been set as the day for him to be hanged. Burch was charged with having killed Deputy Sheriff Nat Cloud and John Cadle last August.

Shot Woman, Ended His Own Life.

Chicago, June 27.—In a fit of jealous rage William Q. Preultt, an inventor, formerly of Davenport, Iowa, shot and mortally wounded Jessie Porter, a chambermaid in the Palmer House, and then shot and killed himself.

Postoffice Employe Jumps to Death.

Brooklyn, N. Y., June 27.—During a fit of temporary insanity William H. Cornell, thirty-four years old, leaped from the roof of his house in which he lived, No. 1 Kosciusko street, and was killed almost instantly.

A gentleman of Brooklyn, employed by a great publishing house, had suffered for three years from dyspepsia and had it so badly that the doctor said his was a confirmed case. This gentleman, who was somewhat facetious as well as dyspeptic, used to say that he had his ticket engaged for a passage over the Styx. He had dieted for years until his wife said he had nearly come down to drinking dew and eating rose leaves. Now it happened that one day he had a dinner invitation which he really wanted to accept and he was induced to make trial of Ripans Tabules, because he had seen their wonderful effect advertised so much. He began three days in advance, taking one after each meal, then he went to the dinner and allowed himself full swing, but took two Tabules afterward. Next morning he found himself all right and very soon a lady neighbor was heard to ask his wife: "What have you been doing to your husband lately? He is looking fine!" He had not eaten a good dinner for three years before that night, but now his friendly relations with turkey have been resumed and in the exuberance of his new liberty he cultivates pie and, in fact, has a tendency to sample everything there is going.

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOUR PACKETS (40 tabules) enough for a reasonable period of use, tendered for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York. A single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

IN A DESPERATE STRUGGLE

Wounded White Man Finally Kills His Negro Assailant.

Montgomery, Ala., June 27.—News of a desperate fight between a white man and a negro comes from Litus, near Wetumpka, Ala. Kenneth Kelly was working on his farm. A negro laborer named John Matthews was assisting him in taking down a wire fence. The negro persisted in cutting the wire instead of drawing the staples which held it to the posts. Mr. Kelly remonstrated, and relieving him of the tool, proceeded to illustrate how the staples should be drawn. As he was doing so, the negro struck him on the head with a heavy stick and grasped for a pistol the white man had in his pocket. Both got their hands on the weapon, and the negro succeeded in pointing the barrel toward Mr. Kelly's breast, lodging a bullet in the neighborhood of the heart.

Mr. Kelly however, contrived to get possession of the weapon again, and shot the negro, who was approaching him with an ax, killing him instantly. Mr. Kelly is reported to be fatally injured.

Hurled From Trestle

Chicago, June 27.—While walking on the tracks of the Chicago Terminal Railroad, John Kotowsky was fatally injured in a remarkable effort to save the life of Annie Gross. The two were crossing a trestle, the girl a few steps in front, when a switch engine rounded a curve at high speed. Kotowski sprang sprang forward, and grasping the girl about the waist, swung himself on one of the iron braces, but the pilot of the locomotive struck him, and with the girl, he was hurled thirty feet below. Kotowski struck the ground first, breaking the girl's fall but fracturing his skull. The girl escaped with slight injuries.

Two Strikes at Knoxville, Tenn.

Knoxville, Tenn., June 27.—Union bricklayers have declined to work on a large business block about to be erected in the business center. The reason assigned is that the structural iron work for the building is to be fusnished by a foundry in which union foundrymen are refusing to work now on account of a dispute as to wages. Forty-five skilled marble-workers have walked out of the Evans marble mills, this city, on account of the refusal of the management to pay "time and a half" for extra hours, instead of "time and a quarter," as is now the case.

Manila Recruit Insane.

Kansas City, Mo., June 27.—Dave Murphy, a recruit on the way to join the army in the Philippines, was taken from a Rock Island train at the union depot, to police headquarters here. His mind became deranged after he enlisted in New York, and he now fancies that he is being pursued by two Massachusetts girls. He insisted that the girls were riding on top of the railway coaches, and the conductor had great trouble to keep him from jumping from the car windows while the train was in motion.

Illicit Distiller in Jail.

Fort Worth, Tex., June 27.—John Robinson was brought here by Deputy United States Marshal Dryden and put in jail. Robinson was indicted two years ago for illicit distilling near Morgan Mills, in Erath County, but he escaped before his arrest could be made. He recently returned to his old stamping grounds, when the federal officers pounced down upon him.

Boy Kills Himself.

Kansas City, Mo., June 27.—While playing with a loaded revolver, Edward Williams, 16 years old, son of G. W. Williams, was accidently killed. The boy pointed the revolver at his own head to show his comrades that he was not afraid. His finger caught in the trigger and the revolver was discharged. The ball entered his left eye and lodged in his brain.

Burial Dispute Settled.

Anderson, Ind., June 27.—The dispute over the burial of Mrs. Annie Vonderheide, the wealthy spiritualist, of Cincinnati, in the spiritualists' camp ground here, has been settled. The body will be interred in a country burial ground near the camp. The remains have been at her cottage for three weeks.

Taunted Husband Attempts Suicide.

Paris, Tenn., June 27.—The wife of W. A. Letsinger, a jewler, threatened to secure a divorce on the ground that he paid too much attention to another woman, and he attempted to commit suicide with morphine, but prompt measures saved his life. Mrs. Letsinger and her rival are reported to have engaged in a fist fight.

Mount Sterling Boy Demented.

Colorado Springs, Colo., June 27.—Edgar L. Crain, of Mount Sterling, Ill., aged about 19, who arrived here a week ago, has been arrested for disturbance. His actions were considered irrational. Examination showed him to be suffering from temporary insanity.

Woman's Fatal Leap From a Car.

Anderson, Ind., June 27.—Mrs. Robert Spaulding was fatally injured here by leaping from an interurban car en route to Alexandria under full speed. She was picked up unconscious, with a broken arm and severe internal injuries.

Southerners to Celebrate the Fourth

Decatur, Ala., June 27.—The glorious Fourth is to be celebrated here as it has never been before in the history of the city. Gen. Wheeler is expected home and has been invited to deliver an old-fashioned spread-eagle speech.

Dairy Cattle Diseased.

Normal, Ill., June 27.—Of the twenty-four head of dairy cattle supplying milk for the Soldiers' Orphans' Home, fifteen have been found by the tuberculine test to be afflicted with tuberculosis. They will be killed.

Deputy Marshal's Body Recovered.

Eaton Rapids, Mich., June 27.—The body of Heck Bruner, the United States deputy marshal who was drowned in Grand River, has been recovered.

EXPORT TRADE INCREASING

American Manufactures at the Rate of a Millon a Day Going Abroad.

STATISTICS PREPARED.

An Increase of 110 Per Cent. Shown On Our Manufactured Exports in the Past Ten Years.

European Countries Furnish Satisfactory Market For Our Manufactured Goods—No Considerable Increase in Exports by Other Countries Are Made Mention Of.

Washington, June 27.—The Treasury Bureau of Statistics has prepared a series of tables showing that our exports of manufactures have more than doubled in the last six years, more than trebled since 1880, more than quadrupled since 1870, are more than eight times as large as they were in 1860, and in 1898 and 1899, for the first time in our history, exceeded the importation of manufactures. The exportation of manufactures in the fiscal year about to end will average more than $1,000,000 for each business day of the year. In the ten years 1889-98 the total value of our manufactures exported increased 110 per cent., while the exports of manufactures by other countries do not show any considerable percentage of increase in any of them during the same period.

It is in the production, manufacture, and exportation of metals that we seem to excel. In 1889 manufactures of metals formed less than 20 per cent. of our total exports of manufactures, while in 1898 they formed over 44 per cent. The exports of brass and manufactures thereof in 1889 were only $321,137, and in 1898, $1,320,093; instruments for scientific purposes increased from $1,033,338 to $2,770,803, and in the year about to end will reach nearly $4,000,000; cycles of which there were no exportations in 1889, amounted to $6,846,529, in the exportations of 1898; clocks and watches increased from $1,355,319 in 1889 to $1,724,489 in 1898, zinc and manufactures thereof from $28,684 to $1,339,668, copper and its manufactures from $2,343,954 to $32,180,872, and iron and steel from $21,156,077 in 1889 to $70,406,885 in 1898, while in the fiscal year 1899 the total will exceed $90,000,000.

Another interesting fact developed is that the European countries have long been established furnish as satisfactory a market for our manufactured goods as do the countries where manufacturing has not yet been largely developed. In reapers and mowers, clocks and watches, sewing machines, bicycles and the various manufactures of iron and steel, and many other articles of the higher grades of manufacture, the European countries in which manufacturing plants and machinery and skilled workmen abound furnish a market for a large share of our exports thus failing to justify the expressed fear that a development of manufactures in countries where we are now seeking a foothold for our commerce would destroy their value as a permanent market.

Silver Republicans Acquitted.

Colorado Springs, Colo., June 27.—In the El Paso District Court the jury acquitted Samuel Emerick, Thomas Clark, William Arnett and Isaac Dagfor, charged with rioting. G. S. Duffield, also a defendant, was released by the court for lack of evidence before the case reached the jury. The defense introduced no evidence. The prosecution showed that Harris, of the attacking party, was killed by a Teller factionist, who, with sixteen others, was in possession of the opera house when the Broad faction, of the Silver Republicans, sought admission. All the defendants were Harris' companions.

Murder Has Occurred.

Toledo, Ohio, June 27.—Trouble is feared with the negroes of the B. and O. construction train near Siam, a small city in Seneca County. A murder has already occurred and the assailant escaped. The negroes got in a fight among themselves and several of them seriously wounded. The citizens of Siam are fearful of an outbreak and are taking precautionary measures.

Dewey Going to Halifax?

Boston, June 27.—The "Herald" says that Admiral Dewey will visit Boston and be entertained here before he goes to New York, this forecast being based on the reported statement of the United States Consul General at Halifax that he had received word direct from Washington that the Olympia would make Halifax its first American stopping place.

Three to Be Hanged for One Crime

Baltimore, June 27.—Cornelius Gardner, Charles and John Myers, all colored, have been sentenced to be hanged for assaulting thirteen year old Annie Bailey, also colored. Governor Lowndes may set July 28 for the execution of the trio and in that event there will be a quartette of negroes to pay the life penalty on that day.

Arrested on Another Charge.

Columbus, Ohio, June 27.—The Sheriff of Warren County called at the prison here and took Charles Shaw, who had completed a two-year term from Clinton County for burglary and larceny, back to Warren County, to stand trial for stealing a horse.

Dead Baby in a Cistern.

Winchester, Ky., June 27.—Workmen cleaning a cistern on the farm of Hub Stevens, near Becknerville, fished out the body of a fully developed white male child wrapped in an old shawl.

Groom Shot Himself.

Carlisle, Ky., June 27.—W. M. Shannon, who shot himself accidently Thursday, died of his wound. He was a prominent stock trader, and had been married but a few weeks.

THE STRIKE COST $140,000.

Cars Are Beginning to Run Again With Regularity.

Cleveland, O., June 27.—The operation of street cars in this city is gradually assuming normal conditions. There were no mob demonstrations against the few non-union crews which were in charge of cars. Many of the new men are leaving town. Some of them came here with pistols in their pockets, and as soon as the excitement was over they did not want to stay. The company has no contracts that compels it to keep the old men, and probably it will not be very long before the greater part of them will leave. The police will endeavor to prevent a repetition of the disturbances at South Brooklyn, in which the non-union crews were clubbed and pelted with bad eggs. The cost of the strike to the Big Consolidated is estimated at $110,000 and to the strikers, $29,000.

Two Men Drowned.

Helena, Mont., June 27.—The Montana rivers are veritable torrents as a result of the melting of the snow in the mountains. The Missouri River is higher here than the oldest inhabitant ever saw it. About eight feet of water is passing over the top of the Canon ferry dam near here. A portion of the town of Townsend, twenty miles east of here, is inundated. The Yellowstone is also running bank high. W. H. Sullivan of Chicago and W. Lawrence of Kansas City, who started from Big Timber with five others in a small boat, intending to float down the Yellowstone to the Missouri River, and so on to Dakota, were drowned soon after the boat started. The others managed to reach the shore of the raging river.

Smallpox Caused a Riot.

Richmond, Va., June 27.—News has been received from Rocky Mount, on the Norfolk & Carolina Railroad, of a smallpox riot, during which a number of negroes were seriously injured. Two negroes, who were attacked by the disease, were ordered taken to the pest-house. Two hundred of their friends, well armed, assembled and swore they would not allow the negroes to be removed. The whites thereupon armed and attacked them, a number of the negroes being badly wounded.

Eight Babies in a Mail Box

New York, June 27.—The body of a dead infant, the eighth one during the last two months, was found in a package mail box at the corner of Broadway and Twenty-fifth street. It was wrapped in Manila paper with an outer wrapping of heavier paper, and on the outside was pasted an advertisement similar to that found on the last package in this same box last week. The package was taken to the general post office and subsequently to the Morgue.

Convict Stays in Cell.

Sing Sing, June 27.—Alfred Caesar, a negro convict, who is serving a five-year term for assault, would be a free man now if he had not assaulted one of the keepers in the State Prison. With the regular allowance for good behavior with which he was credited until the assault, Caesar might have had money in his pocket, a new suit of clothes and his ticket for New York. He will now have to serve out his full term.

Girl Discovers a Rich Mine.

Tacoma, Wash., June 27.—Miss F. Flormen, of the Black Hills, South Dakota, has discovered what mining men believe will become the greatest quartz mine in Alaska. It consists of an ore vein from 200 to 600 feet in width and nearly a mile long, intersected by Atlin City. The largest surface assay is $27, and many assays average $80, making it much richer than the famous Treadwell mine, if these values continue with the depth.

Congressman Norton's Mishap.

Columbus, Ohio, June 27.—Hon. James A. Norton, of Tiffin, met with a painful, if not serious injury here. Having completed a purchase in a furnishing store on High street, he stepped out of the door onto a board walk which broke through and precipitated the doctor violently to the hard stone walk. In falling he struck his left leg on a sharp projection breaking his leg twice below the knee.

Enemies of Dreyfus to Fight.

Rennes, France, June 27.—The acquittal of Dreyfus is far from being a certainty. The case against him will be fought to the bitter end, and the trial will last a full week. The slow progress of the cruiser Sfax, with Dreyfus on board, is due to the fact that her bottom is foul and she is in great need of docking and cleaning.

Cubans Have Very Poor Schools.

New York, June 27.—The Rev. Sam W. Small, the evangelist, and at present superintendent of public instruction in the province of Matanzas, Cuba, is in this city. Rev. Small says that the schools are in bad condition, as the teachers know nothing of pedagogical science. After this year English will be introduced.

Golden Hopes for the Jubilee.

Cincinnati, June 27.—The golden jubilee of the North-American Saengerbund will be the most largely attended musical affair ever held in America. The International Saengerfest was organized here fifty years ago. The new hall with a stage capacity of 4,000 and a total capacity of 14,530, was dedicated last Sunday.

Typographical Union Wins.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 27.—Before leaving this city for Chicago, President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, gave it out that the fight on the part of the International Typographical Union to force linotype machinists to join their union instead of the National Union of Machinists would be successful.

Automobiles for Chicago.

Chicago, June 27.—Richard O'Neill, the manager of the North Side Carette Company, made the announcement last night that the carettes would be replaced by automibles about Sept. 1. The company has purchased thirty automibles in Paris.

Facts Are Stubborn.

If Plainfield People are not Convinced by Local Testimony they differ from other People.

Our readers must have noticed in the past two years how "cures" have multiplied in the newspapers like mushrooms in a meadow, and following the Plethora of cures, the general public have turned remarkably skeptical. Facts are demanded but it has become also essential to know who supplies them, where are they from, in fine, whom they have cured. Doubting Thomas would not accept at par incredible cures on the other side of the continent. He wants it at home. "Give us some neighbor, then I will believe" is what he asks for. Well, Doan's Kidney Pills do this. Call it what you like, at home, local or neighbors testimony, you can always ascertain the truth of it without leaving the city limits. Here is a case:

Mrs. R. A. Martin, of No. 70 Jackson avenue, says:—"I had pains in my back and loins for about a year or more, no doubt caused by my kidneys being out of order. I felt it more in the morning just after getting up or if I did any stooping or lifting. Notwithstanding the fact that I took all kinds of medicines I never found anything which helped me until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at L. W. Randolph's drug store. They not only removed the pain but they strengthened me in other ways. I can cheerfully recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone suffering with a lame back."

Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers; price 50c a box. Mailed on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Two Feet of Pain.

Pain is not usually measured by the foot, yet it is a fact that the unfortunates who suffer the miseries of aching feet endure an inch of torture to every square inch of foot they own.

Pain of any kind causes a strain upon the nervous system, and if prolonged and unchecked will create depression of spirits and despondency.

Aching feet are vexatious, aggravating and irritating, and nothing is more annoying than feet deformed and distorted from corns and bunions. Mr. Brown's painless method for the treatment and cure of corns, bunions, ingrowing and club toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty, chafed and burning feet, is endorsed by all eminent physicians. He has made diseases of the feet a life study. Corns, bunions and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago in Plainfield have not come back and the feet today are sound and well. Read the proof:

D. S. Scheuer, grocer, Front St; H. A. Weber, grocer, Liberty and Second streets; S. Sharkey, grocer, Third and Richmond streets; G. Voehl, bakery, 127 Front street; F. R. Vanderhoof, at F. Endress' meat market, Front street, and many others had corns, bunions, and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago; no trouble since. Albert Runyon, 41 Mountain avenue; J. Q. Miles, J. P., 28 Somerset street; F. Cullen, and Mrs. Cullen, 1001 Second street; Mrs. M. C. Terry, 331 East Third street; J. D. Smalley, meat market, 153 Front street; H. L. Overbaugh, 118 Elmwood place; W. W. Warnock, bakery, 138 North avenue; J. J. Stites, blacksmith, Dunellen; and hundreds of others say that Mr. Brown completely cured their bunions, ingrowing toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty and tender feet, etc. They all say the treatment was painless; no soreness after.

COMING EVENTS.

June 29—Opening of the camp at Northfield, Mass. Information at Y. M. C. A.

Combine of Railway Interests.

What the people of New Jersey have been fearful of as a result of Legislative enactment for several years past, the formation of a coal combine, has, according to the Newark Sunday Call, been effected by a union of business interests that will be just as powerful as though it had assumed a phase that required the approval of the Legislature. The Call describes the situation in the following:

With comparatively little noise, the coal combine has been effected, and in a way which can scarcely be reached by the courts. The option held upon the Lehigh Valley Railroad stock of the Packer estate has been exercised, and its ownership now passes into the hands of the Morgan banking interests. Identical control—of that mysterious kind is usually described as "in the interest of"—now exists in all the coal-carrying railroads—Lackawanna, New Jersey Central, Lehigh Valley, Erie, Susquehanna and Western, Reading, Delaware and Hudson and Ontario and Western, the sole exception being the Pennsylvania, which is sympathetic and not large. Four or five men who have agreed to act together, or who are compelled by circumstances to agree, now control the policy of all these great companies, and it seems likely that they will continue to act unitedly for many years to come. What they will do in regard to coal is a question. The great trouble with this trade—and it is undoubtedly in bad shape—is that bituminous coal is taking the place of anthracite for manufacturing. This is a matter for regret, in the effect upon public health and comfort, but it seems to be established. About all the coal combine can do now is ito cheapen production and transportation, without raising prices materially, for increase in price simply means loss of trade.

THE NEW BATTLESHIP KEARSARGE.

A historic name is preserved in the building of the Kearsarge, which is now nearing completion at the yards of the Newport News Shipbuilding Company. The original Kearsarge won fame in the civil war and was finally wrecked on Roncador Reef, Windward Islands. The new Kearsarge is a battleship of the first class and will be one of the finest and most formidable in the navy.

It is said that Representative Fowler is in line of promotion to be chairman of the committee on immigration and naturalization, as he was second man on the committee in the late Congress and Chairman Danford is dead. If he can get the chairmanship of the banking and currency committee he prefers that assignment.

One of the biggest elastic corporations that has been organized under the laws of New Jersey has just been sprung on the public in the American Isthmus Ship Canal Company, who start business with a nominal capital of $30,000, but are empowered to increase it to $250,000,000.

At this season of the year householders cannot be too careful in exercising precaution against fire. The small boy and his noisy fire-cracker are capable of great things in the conflagration line if they are not watched with a reasonable amount of care.

The various views that are being expressed relative to the railroad facilities that Plainfield possesses are just the sort of interchange of opinion that will contribute to bring about a change, if such a thing is possible.

With a Law and Order League back of him Rev. Mr. Shott, of Scotch Plains, will undoubtedly be able to conduct a much hotter campaign than he has been able to stir up yet in the sleepy old town.

The Newark News observes "that Union county Republicans will prefer J. Martin Roll to Joseph Cross for Senator is possible, but there is no use in being in a hurry to accuse them of it."

There is a chance for a wide difference of opinion as to how the cat is going to jump in Union county Republican politics this fall.

Hon. Roger Franklin Murray may not be as a dead, politically, around about convention time as some would like to see him.

The Babies' Camp Fund of The Daily Press still grows.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

Elizabeth furnishes an excellent example of the way for not enforcing the laws. The proprietor of a saloon there openly advertised in the Elizabeth Journal Tuesday that his place is open for business Sundays, and pleads as an extenuation of his conduct that a similar policy by other dealers forced him to thus violate the law.—Summit Record.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

The officials of the Nixon shipyards at Elizabethport have decided to bar feminine visitors. The following notice is posted at the entrance to the yards: "Ladies are not admitted to this shipyards because the men neglect their work to look at them." "We have 300 men working here," said an official, "and we have found out that if a pretty girl comes into the yard every man of them losses on an average three minutes in looking at her. That makes 900 minutes to each girl, a loss of fifteen hours' time, or almost $8."

He Fooled the surgeons.

All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on earth, and the best Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

A snake does not climb a tree by coiling round it, but by holding on with the points of its scales. A snake could not climb a glass pillar.

Spiders are a serious plague in Japan. They spin their webs on the telegraph wires and are so numerous as to cause a serious loss of insulation. Sweeping the wires does little good, as the spiders begin all over again.

There is a fish found in Hudson Bay which absolutely builds a nest. This it does by picking up pebbles in its mouth and placing them in a regular way on a selected spot on the bottom of the bay, where the water is not very deep.

DRINK GRAIN-O

after you have concluded that you ought not to drink coffee. It is not a medicine but doctors order it, because it is healthful, invigorating and appetizing. It is made from pure grains and has that rich seal brown color and tastes like the finest grades of coffee and costs about ¼ as much. Children like it and thrive on it because it is a genuine food drink containing nothing but nourishment. Ask your grocer for Grain-O, the new food drink. 15 and 25c.

Table Damask Sale.

This is not the season for a Sale of Table Linens, but when we are able to give such values as we shall offer for the next few days we feel justified in making this sale. A large Importing house about to move was anxious to dispose of as much stock as possible to avoid moving same. The remarkably low prices quoted for very desirable goods induced us to buy very heavily, and we now find ourselves in a position to offer the people of this community such Bargains in Table Damask as they never dreamed of. The lot comprises some inconceivably choice 72 in Bleached Damask in the most attractive designs.

There are also many exceptionally good half-bleached German Damasks made to stand hard service. They will bleach very quickly and wear interminably.

THIS SALE is one of supreme importance to all thrifty housekeepers who wish to "stock up" with little expense.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, June 27th—The Father Light Missionary Society of the First Baptist church cleared something over $20 at their festival held last week. This money will be devoted to a fund established to purchase a new carpet for the church.

Prof. VanSyckle and family left yesterday for Fort Lee, where they will visit Mrs. VanSyckle's mother for a time. Next fall they will go to Oradel, where Mr. VanSyckle will teach school next year.

Mrs. Thomas Thomas and family, of Washington avenue, will leave this week for Asbury Park to spend the summer. Mrs. Thomas has leased her residence to a New York party for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. James Manning, of Trenton, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Runyon, of Washington avenue, have gone to Easton, Pa., to visit relatives.

At the meeting of the Borough Council, to be held next Monday evening, the sidewalk ordinances will be adopted and steps will be taken to enforce the same.

Last Sunday Rev. Frank Fletcher preached both morning and evening in his church, and large congregations attended both services and heard two good sermons.

Miss Fulper, Miss Wilguss, Miss Lloyd and Miss Weatherwax, local school teachers, left today for various places to spend their summer vacation.

Capt. John Wherley and family, of Somerville, spent Sunday with Mayor R. S. Swackhamer and wife, of Church street.

John W. Case, who fell from a cherry tree a week ago and sustained severe injuries, is now improving slowly.

Abner Coriell, son of former Postmaster Chas. Coriell, has secured a position with the Standard Oil Company.

Rev. Frank Fletcher goes to Elizabeth this evening to attend a conference of Baptist church workers.

Miss May Apgar is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Sherman Cooley, at Flemington.

Mrs. W. H. Terry, of Church street, has returned from a visit with Brooklyn relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Terry, of Washington avenue, are spending a week at Budd's Lake.

A. C. Dickson and family, of North avenue, spent Sunday with relatives at Flanders.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, June 27—A disgraceful scene was witnessed on Park avenue Sunday afternoon. Three Italians walking up the avenue, carrying what appeared to be an overload of "Jersey lightning," became tired, and, when near the Baptist church, concluded to rest by the wayside. As soon as they were seated one produced a quart bottle of liquor from his coat pocket and all began to drink its contents. They were soon reinforced by three more, and then the bottle had to be passed once more. This was continued, much to the annoyance of the neighbors, until the contents of the bottle was gone. In justice to the local hotels it can be said that the liquor was not procured of them. The Italian settlement seems to be able to get an abundant supply of the goods on Sunday without depending upon the hotels.

Rev. Mr. Woodruff, of the Methodist church, preached an able sermon before a large congregation Sunday evening. The text chosen was "The Great Robbery." This was Mr. Woodruff's last sermon to his people prior to his taking his summer vacation, and at the conclusion of the sermon his members all wished him a very pleasant vacation and God-speed on his long journey, which is to take him as far west as Colorado. Mr. Woodruff started Monday. During his absence his pulpit will be occupied by Rev. Mr. Lewis, who is no stranger in the village, having occupied the Methodist pulpit on several occasions.

The work of erecting the poles for the trolley extension will probably be completed to Park avenue today; then for the rails and stringing of the wires, and last, but best, the long-delayed trolley complete.

Mrs. George Schick and Miss Anna Molloy, of Glenside, who have been spending a week with Mrs. Schick's sister in Philadelphia, have returned.

Charles Frentz, the mason, has accepted a position as foreman over a large contract in New York city.

Miss Emma Clark has returned from a two days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bacon, of Plainfield.

Miss Lena Bruchman led the Epworth League meeting in the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Philip Holborn, of Newark, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hand.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Westfield, June 27—A feature of the Fourth of July celebration in this town will be a fifteen-mile bicyle road race, and a large number of entries have already been received by Wesley Robinson, the chairman of the committee in charge of the race. The committee has offered a $75 racing wheel as the first prize and a wheel of the same cost for a time prize. The committee will hold a meeting this evening to determine what shall be offered for second and third prizes. The race will be run on Broad street, and will start from the corner of Broad and Elm streets and finish at the same place. The turning point will be on the top of the hill at Fairview cemetery, and the riders will be compelled to ride over the course five times to make the fifteen miles.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders.

—I. H. Boehm has painted the residence on Grandview avenue owned by him and now occupied by H. Philo.

—Boice, Runyon & Co., are having their frame building on Park avenue painted and improved in an up-to-date style.

—Thursday of this week a vocal and instrumental concert will be given at the Christian church for the benefit of the pastor, Rev. H. W. McKane.

—The Christian Endeavor Society of Warren chapel will hold their regular meeting this evening, and a cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

—By the first of next month most all of the borough public school teachers will have left town to enjoy their summer vacations in various parts of the country.

—Early next month the letter-carriers will begin their vacations. It is likely that two or three will be off at a time. Each one is allowed fifteen days with pay.

—Preparatory services will be held at the First Presbyterian church next Friday evening and the following Sunday morning the regular communion service will be held.

—The new Calvary Baptist church will be occupied next Sunday for the first, when a number of noted preachers from various parts of New Jersey will be present to assist in the dedication.

—Beginning with next Saturday, the sessions of the Sabbath-school of the Seventh-Day Baptist church will begin at 4 o'clock in the afternoon instead of at 3 as heretofore. The hour of the Christian Endeavor meeting has also been changed from 4:15 to 5 o'clock.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help, but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion build up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by L. W. Randolph, druggist. Guaranteed.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that their is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

ON ASBURY PARK SANDS.

SEASON OPENS WITH A BIG BUSINESS AT THE SEASHORE.

Never Such a Demand for Accomodation, Says the Hotel Men—Summer Diversions Will be Numerous.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Asbury Park, June 28—There can be no doubt as to whether or not the season at Asbury Park has fully opened. The bud of promise is now the full bloom rose of realization, and both cottages and hotel men have their hands full in expectations of full pockets later on.

This year the season is at least two weeks in advance of last and those anticipating a trip to this favorite resort over July 4th, need have no fear as to whether or no they will find all the Park attractions and fakes at their disposal.

In previous seasons it has been customary to open the bathing grounds and bathhouses on the eventful Fourth, but already have the bathhouses been opened and life lines all along the beach are in readiness for the cautious, as well as life savers for the reckless bathers, while the sand is in prime condition, ready to act as a show case for the dainty suits which adorn would-be but touch-not-the-water swimmers.

Of these latter, owing, no doubt, to the vast improvement in bathing costumes which comes with the up-to-date athletic girl, there promises to be a great plenty, and several early birds have been along the beach in search of the proverbial worm.

There is also a great improvement this year in the hotels. They, too, are adorned with bright summer raiment, be it only a coat of paint, while many have been adding to their commodious structures in anticipation of an overflow.

Of course, there are the usual number of diversions planned for the summer guests, and July 4th will witness one of the finest displays of fireworks Asbury has ever witnessed, provided it does not rain. The celebration will take place from the end of the Asbury fishing pier, in sight of both the Fifth avenue and Bradley's pavillions, and where the reflection will add much to the beauty of the scene, even if it does scare off a few fish.

This will be followed somewhat later in the season by the annual carnival when Wesley Lake is transformed into a floating fairly panorama of magic lights and Japanese lanterns. Then comes the famous baby parade when the boardwalk becomes a moving mass of flowers, carriages, children, nurse girls and camera fiends.

Another feature will be the bicycle parade, while hops innumerable will be held at least twice a week in all the leading hotels, to say nothing of Ocean Grove's camp meeting which opens about the middle of August and lasts until September.

ABUSE OF PERFUMES

Nauseating Heavy Odors Like Musk Shows Lack of Refinement.

Some of us, in these days of artificial musk and suffocating rose, who have stifled in theatres and have been overcome in cable cars and restaurants by the heaviness, have fervently wished the promiscuos use of these powerfu. odors, might be restricted to the boudoirs and drawing rooms whose queens elect to vulgarize all their surroundings by this and kindred extravagance.

Fastidious women (with here and there an exception) are as delicately refined in their selection of sweet odors as in every other personal appointment A high-bred woman does not associate herself with musk or patchouly. She may select the most delicate of violet extracts, and so assimilate her personality with the flower as always to recall it, or her linen may be fragrant with the faintest odor of florentine orris. The shadow of the clear pungent lavender may precede her, but the most sensitive and refined women shrink intuitively from the odors that attract the parvenue.

Few people outside the scientific world know the hygienic value as well as the danger lurking in flower scents. The effect of musk, rose saffron and almond flowers is almost hypnotic to some sensitive organizations. To others the heavy odors are like strains of sensuous music, and in their results the reverse of elevating. Hysteria is inevitably aggravated and frequently caused by the odor of musk, and the use of this perfume should be forbidden delicate girls and women.

On the other hand, the effect of the odors yielded by the balsams of Peru and Mecca, benzoin tolu, cascarilla and cinnamon are tonic and invigorating. The perfumes possessing real antiseptic qualities are numerous, and it is an acknowledged fact that until the Egyptians abandoned the practice of purifying the houses of the sick and embalming the dead by the use of aromatic and resinous gums, such as storax, myrrh, cedar, origanum, &c., the terrible pestilence never laid the Nile country waste.

It is said that the followng aromatic essences will kill bacteria germs in typhoid: Clove, verveine, thyme, sandal, cedar, ceylon, cinnamon, camomile anise; and lavender water, according to Monin, the great French hygienist, will, if used freely by the attendants, greatly lessen the danger of contracting contagious maladies.

Dancing Girl's Bracelet.

Not satisfied with wearing pretty bouquets in their corsage, dancing girls now wear flowers at their wrists.

BRACELET FLOWER HOLDER.

The blossoms are fastened to a bracelet, which is especially made for the purpose.

The Manufacture of Wall-Paper.

While various kinds of printed fabrics were known to the people of most remote antiquity, it was not till the eighteenth century that wallpaper in anything like its present form came into common use in Europe, though it appears to have been used much earlier in China. A few rare examples which may be as early as the sixteenth century exist in England, but these are imitations, generally in "flock," of the old Florentine and Genoese cut velvets, and hence the style of the design in no way shows the date of the wallpaper, the same traditional patterns being reproduced with little or no change for many years. It was not till the end of the last century that the machinery to make paper in long strips was invented. Up to that time wallpapers were printed on small square pieces of hand-made paper and were very expensive. On this account wallpaper was slow in superseding the older mural decorations, such as tapestry, stamped leather and paper cloth.

A work printed in London in 1744 throws some light on the use of wallpapers at that time: "The method of printing wallpapers of the better sort is probably the same now that it has ever been. Wooden blocks with the design cut in relief, one for each color, are applied by hand, after being dipped in an elastic cloth sieve charged with wet tempera pigment, great care being taken to lay each block on the right place so that the various colors may 'register' or fit together. In order to suit the productions of the paper mills these blocks are made in England 21 inches wide, and in France 18 inches wide. The length of the block is limited to what the workman can easily lift with one hand—two feet being about the limit, as the blocks are necessarily thick, and in many cases made heavier by being inlaid with copper, especially the thin outlines, which, if made of wood, would not stand the wear and tear of printing.

"In 'flock' and gold or silver printing the design is first printed in strong size, the flock (finely cut wood of the required color), or metallic powder, is then sprinkled by hand all over the paper; it adheres only to the wet size, and is easily shaken off the ground or unsized part. If the pattern is required to stand out in some relief, the process is repeated several times, and the whole paper then rolled to compress the flock. Cheaper sorts of paper are printed by machinery, the design being cut on the surface of wooden rollers under which the paper passes. The chief drawback to this process is that all the colors are applied rapidly one after the other without allowing each to dry separately, as is done in hand printing. A somewhat blurred appearance is usually the result."

SUMMER NOVELTIES.

The National Colors—New Shape In Tan Shoes.

Although red, white and blue are not sported quite as aggressively as they were last year, they are still sufficiently prominent, the national colors entering into shirt waist percales, neckties and fans. During hot weather the cheap fan is everywhere evident, and one of the newest ideas among the little Japanese folding fans is the American flag design, in which the 13 stripes follow the curving shape of the fan, while the union is up in the left hand corner. The sticks are of bamboo painted red, white and blue, and the fans are made in Japan for the American trade.

A bright red, tan and a rather deep brown seem to be the favorite shades for summer shoes. The fashion of wearing white or colored footgear during the hot weather has become confirmed, and black shoes are the exception rather than the rule. Tan shoes are certainly cooler than black ones, and those made of white canvas or gray linen are cooler yet. The fashionable toe is very ugly—it is moderately pointed and is stiffened hard, with a sort of thick, bulging effect, which is certainly masculine, but disagreeable and clumsy.

The picture illustrates a black satin costume. The trained skirt has a tunic trimming of jet embroidery. The little coat has a square basque and is short in front, where it is embroidered with jet. It opens over a vest of pink silk fastened with crystal buttons. The close sleeves are embroidered with jet at the wrists. The collar and cravat are of white embroidered crape. The hat of black spangled tulle is trimmed with black plumes, a bow of pink silk and a jeweled ornament.

WARM WEATHER GOWNS.

Silk and Cloth For Pretty Summer Costumes.

Among the new taffetas which are used for entire costumes for young girls or for separate bodices to be worn with darker skirts by girls and women are some very attractive ones having a ground of old rose, perriwinkle blue, bengal rose, mauve, turquoise or light green crossed and checked by small lines of black and white.

Cloth, formerly considered a fabric for cool weather, has now been so idealized and refined away by manufacturers that it may be worn all summer and is reckoned this season among summer materials. The new cloths are exceedingly thin, light and soft, with an exquisitely satiny finish, and the colors are the most delicate that can be imagined.

Fine shepherd's plaid silk, in black and white, composes some very neat summer gowns, the belt being of silk of another color, to give accent to the costume. Scarlet, dark green and French blue are all used.

The picture illustrates a charming gown of lilac silk crepon. The skirt has a flounce of lilac mousseline de soie, simulating a tunic and looped at the side by a chou. The Louis XV bodice, with a tight basque growing shorter at the back, is bordered by a ruffle of mousseline de soie and has revers collar and pocket flaps of white satin with pompadour embroidery. Jeweled buttons decorate the front. The half length sleeves have cuffs of embroidered satin and a frill of mousseline. The collar and cravat are of white embroidered tulle. The hat of lilac straw is trimmed with lilac flowers, with yellow hearts and lilac tulle.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Anhalt. Braunschweig. Lippe.

Dessau. Hier hat sich ein Komite zur Erbauung eines Krematoriums gebildet, dem die Stadt nicht sympathisch gegenübersteht.

Braunschweig. Im Mai 1896 wurde bei Braunschweig der Handlanger Seeger ermordet aufgefunden. Der Mörder blieb unentdeckt. Jetzt gesteht der Strafgefangene Müller in Wolfenbüttel, die That begangen zu haben. — Auf den Minister und Wirklichen Geheimen Rath Hartwieg dahier ist ein Mordanfall gemacht worden. Der Pedell der Oekonomiekommission des Herzogthums, Raehmer, drohte den Minister zu erschießen, weil dieser ihm die erbetene Gehaltserhöhung verweigert hatte. Der desperate Pedell wurde hinter Schloß und Riegel gebracht.

Detmold. Hier ist Archivrath Berkemeyer, der vor einiger Zeit entlassen wurde, weil er auf dem Lipper Erbfolgestreit bezügliche Akten bei Seite geschafft haben soll, vom Strafgericht freigesprochen worden, obwohl der Staatsanwalt in der Anklage ein halbes Jahr Gefangniß beantragt hatte.

Großherzogthum Hessen.

Darmstadt. Die Zweite Kammer nahm gegen vier Stimmen die Regierungsvorlage betreffend die Errichtung einer staatlichen Klassenlotterie an.—Prinz Heinrich von Hessen, der zur Zeit in München wohnt, hat sein hiesiges in der Wilhelminenstraße gelegenes Grundstück für 350,000 Mark verkauft und will dauernd in München seinen Aufenthalt nehmen.

Bischofsheim. Die Gesammtkosten der Umgestaltung des hiesigen Bahnhofs zu einem Güter- und Rangirbahnhof ersten Ranges werden auf 4,000,000 Mark veranschlagt.

Mainz. Nach einer Mittheilung des preußischen Gesandten zu Darmstadt an die hiesige Bürgermeisterei hat der Kaiser in Folge der Immediateingabe der Stadt Mainz die Bestätigung der bekannten Simon Bladt'schen Erbschaft an die Stadt Mainz ausgesprochen, so daß die Auszahlung der Erbschaft nunmehr erfolgen kann.

Offenbach. Die Süddeutsche Gummiwaarenfabrik von Petri u. Luzi wurde durch eine Feuersbrunst vollständig eingeäschert.

Starkenburg. Vom Schwurgericht wurde der 26jährige Bäckergeselle Bühler aus Langenhard, der am 25. März den Gemeindewald von Bürgel fahrlässig in Brand gesetzt und einen Schaden von circa 10,000 Mark angerichtet hatte, zu einer Gefängnißstrafe von zehn Monaten verurtheilt.

Bayern.

München. Die jüngste Obmännerversammlung des Sanitäts-Verbandes, einer großen Vereinigung zur Pflege naturgemäßen Heilverfahrens, hat beschlossen, einen weiblichen Arzt anzustellen. Die Verwaltung wurde beauftragt, diesbezügliche Schritte zu unternehmen. Diese Einrichtung wird von den Frauen der Kassenangehörigen und den vielen weiblichen Mitgliedern freudigst begrüßt werden.—Dieser Tage machte der Einjährig-Freiwillige Christian Altschuh der 10. Kompagnie des 1. Infanterie-Regiments durch Erschießen mit dem Dienstgewehr seinem Leben ein Ende.—Eine ungenannt bleibenwollende Dame hat für die Blindenversorgungsanstalt 200 Mark gespendet.—Der Wurstwaarenfabrikant Winter nahm in einer Badeanstalt ein Kastendampfbad, wobei der Badediener den Dampfhahn nicht rechtzeitig schloß und dann den Badegast vergaß. Winter starb unter qualvollen Leiden.

Altheim. Hier hat der Häusler Bensauer nach vorausgegangenem Streit mit seiner Ehefrau diese schwer verwundet und sodann sich selbst erschossen.

Augsburg. Auf dem großen Exerzierplatz ging dieser Tage das Pferd eines Chevaulegers durch und rannte hart an dem Major Bech vorüber, wobei die Lanze des Reiters dem Major in den Rücken drang. Glücklicher Weise traf sie das Schulterblatt, so daß wenigstens keine lebensgefährliche Verletzung hervorgerufen wurde.

Bamberg. Nach einer offiziellen Mittheilung aus Berlin an den ersten Bürgermeister v. Brandt wird hier in der zweiten Woche des September 1900 der Deutsche Juristentag abgehalten werden.

Freising. Der königliche Notar und Justizrath Vinzenz Weninger ist im Alter von 70 Jahren gestorben.

Gmund a. T. Das fünfjährige Söhnchen des Oekonomen Beck, nächst der Brauerei Moosrain, verunglückte dadurch, daß es beim Ueberklettern eines Gartenzaunes in einen Topf mit Glasscherben fiel und sich die große Schlagader am Halse durchschnitt. Das Kind war in wenigen Minuten eine Leiche.

A GREAT FISH EXPOSITION.

The Centennial Celebration Commission of Ohio Plans a Novel Building.

FISH WITHIN A FISH.

Interesting Story Comes to Light By Renewal of Patent for Such Buildings Issued to Lafferty.

First Building of This Recorded in History the Celebrated Trojan Horse—United States Patent Office Evidently Thought Lafferty Was Not Infringing on Patent Rights of Ancient Greeks.

The great Elephant Hotel, for years the greatest of the many attractions of Coney Island, is to be eclipsed in Ohio. The Centennial Celebration Commission of that State has planned to erect a building for the fisheries exhibit at the Centennial in the form of a gigantic black bass. In size, method of construction, appearance and every other way it will be greatly superior to the famous elephant.

An interesting fact has come to light since the announcement of the building of this novel structure in the application for a renewal of patents issued to James V. Lafferty, of Anderson, Ind., by his widow, Mary C. Lafferty.

Lafferty erected several of the buildings at the Centennial Exposition held at Philadelphia in 1876. Shortly afterward he was employed to construct the Elephant Hotel at Coney Island, which was the greatest marvel of that resort until it was destroyed by fire a few years ago. It was 175 feet high, measuring from the ground to the top of the band stand, 220 feet long and 60 feet wide, with a capacity of 2,000 people.

FISH WITH FISH EXHIBITION INSIDE.

The Elephant was so successful financially and otherwise, that companies were at once formed in Chicago, Los Angeles and other cities to construct similar buildings, and in order to protect his interests at Coney Island Lafferty took out a patent on the construction of buildings in the form of animals, birds and fish. The patent was granted on the understanding that but one similar structure had ever been erected. Up to the present time there has been no other, except an elephant, on a smaller scale, built by Lafferty at Atlantic City.

The one exception was the historic Horse, of Troy, the proof of whose existence is vouched for by Homer, Virgil and others. The Trojan wars, the greatest in the history of Greece, lasted some ten years, ending about 1184 B. C. Paris, son of King Priam, of that city, fell in love with the wife of Menelaus of Sparta, the beautiful Helen, and captured her, taking her to his walled city.

He was the same Paris who, according to legends, bestowed the golden apple upon the Queen of Beauty, in the Judgment of Paris. The entire Greek nation was incensed and sought revenge. Nine years were spent in planning to take the city, and then an army of 100,000 warriors set sail with 1,186 ships for Troy. Headed by Agamemmon and Achilles they held a siege for nine years.

A dissension among the leaders almost brought about a catastrophe, which was averted by the strategy of Ulysses. He induced the entire army to set sail, ostensibly for home, but really for a nearby island, behind which they hid from the Trojans. They left behind a monstrous wooden horse, in which one hundred warriors were concealed.

The Trojans, seeing the enemy disappear, opened their gates, to find the horse and one lone Greek, who said that he had been left behind. He also stated that the horse was a gift from the Gods.

The horse was hauled through the city gates by the Trojans, who at once proceeded to celebrate their victory. At the height of the festivities when all vigilance had relaxed, the Greek unlocked the doors of the horse, the warriors tumbled out, murdered the sentries, and threw open the gates to the Grecian army, which awaited them outside.

The patent office authorities evidently believed that Lafferty was not infringing upon the rights of the heirs of Ulysses, and granted his patent. Mrs. Lafferty now hopes to have the patent renewed, so that the Ohio Centennial Commissioners will be obliged to pay her a royalty.

The building, as planned by them, will be far larger than the Coney Island elephant. The entrance will be through the open mouth. There will be two floors devoted to the fisheries exhibit, and the rest of the space will be given over to dancing floors, restaurants and other concessions.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

Love with women is like poker with a man—he does most of his winning while learning it.

Women know more about love than they do about loving; men know more about loving than they do about love.

Married men are rare whose pride is so strong that they can't bear to think they might have been refused when they proposed.

Every other woman you meet has either a missionary scheme that she is interested in or else a kitten that she wants you to take care of.

There is no surer way for a man to make a girl think she has got to have another man than for him to make her think he thinks he has got to have her.—New York Press.

AT MANILA BAY

Harbor Lights in Abundance Necessary on Account of Numerous Islands.

Manila harbor is one of the best illuminated seaports in the world. Filled as it is with islands, it needs plenty of lighthouses to make it safe for mariners. To learn the language of the different lights is not an easy thing for a seaman to do. Seven different lights flash their rays over the bay from various altitudes and in various colors.

On the summit of Corregidor, one of the islands, which divides the entrance to Manila Bay into two channels, stands a lighthouse 60 feet high, from which is exhibited, at an elevation of 639 feet above the sea, a white light, revolving once every 10 or 20 seconds, and visible in clear weather from a distance of 20 miles. A fixed white light is shown from the white tower on the West Mole Head, at the entrance to the bay on the north side of the island.

A fixed white light is exhibited from a low spur on the northeast part of Caballo Island, 27 feet above high-water mark, and is visible six miles. This light is concealed by high land to seaward between the bearings of NNE. and E. by N., and screened toward the north shore between the bearings of S. by W. and ESE.

A fixed white light, showing a sector of green light through an arc of 75 degrees or between the bearings of N. 47 degrees E. and N. 28 degrees W., is exhibited from a lighthouse on Sangley Point (ch. 5, p. 49), the outer extreme of the low land at the entrance of Port Cavite. It is elevated 29 feet above high water, and is visible in clear weather from a distance of six miles. The light is shifted as the point extends.

A fixed red light, elevated 51 feet above the level of the sea, is exhibited from a white circular tower, on the northern mole at the entrance of Pasig River, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of nine miles.

A fixed green light is exhibited from an iron stand painted red, on the battery of the southern mole, entrance of Pasig River. This light is elevated 16 feet above high water, and should be seen from off the entrance of the river between the bearing of NW. and SE. at a distance of one mile; it bears south from the red light on the north mole.

Corregidor Island light, Manila Bay, has been replaced by a provisional light of the same character, but of less power, pending the installation of a new permanent light.

Premonitory Signs of Typhoons.

The Philippines are the land of typhoons, or revolving storms, that come with great regularity in the season in which they are due. Constant observation and careful recording of the barometer is necessary. The Weather Bureau gives the following advice to ship captains:

When on sea and there are indications of a typhoon being near, heave to and carefully observe and record the changes of the barometer and wind, so as to find the bearing of the center, and ascertain by the shift of the wind in which semi-circle the vessel is situated. Much will often depend on heaving to in time. When, after careful observation, there is reason to believe that the center of the typhoon is approaching, the following rules should be followed in determining whether to remain hove to or not, and the tack on which to remain hove to:

In the northern hemisphere, if in the right-hand circle, heave to on the starboard tack. If in the left-hand semi-circle run, keeping the wind if possible, on the starboard quarter, and when the barometer rises, if necessary to keep the ship from going too far from the proper course, heave to on the port tack. When the vessel lies in the direct line of advance of the storm—which position is, as previously observed, the most dangerous of all—run with the wind on the starboard quarter. In all cases increase as soon as possible the distance from the center, bearing mind that the whole storm field is advancing.

In receding from the center of a typhoon the barometer will rise and the wind and sea subside. It should be remarked that in some cases a vessel may, if the storm be traveling slowly, sail from the dangerous semi-circle across the front of the storm, and thus out of its influence. But as the rate at which the storm is traveling is quite uncertain, this is a hazardous proceeding, and before attempting to cross the seaman should hesitate and carefully consider all the circumstances of the case, observing particularly the rate at which the barometer is falling.

The rate of progress of the typhoon is about 13 miles an hour; in none of those observed has it exceeded 14 miles nor fallen below 11 miles. The diameter of the exterior revolving circle of the storm varies from 40 to 130 miles, and the diameter of the inner circle, or calm region, may be estimated at from 8 to 15 miles. The duration of the true typhoon at any place is never longer than 10 hours and generally much less.

Origin of Menu Cards.

It was the Duke Henry of Brunswick who was first observed, in the vals of a banquet to scan carefully a long strip of paper by the side of his plate; and when the curious guests ventured to inquire into the nature of his studies, he explained that it was a sort of programme of the dishes which he had commanded from the cook, to the intent that if some delicacy which especially appealed to him were marked for a late stage in the repast he might carefully reserve his appetite for it.

The simplicity and excellence of the idea instantly apealed to the good Duke's guests, and the menu card from that moment became an institution. In its old-fashioned form the bill was usually written large on cards of such dimensions that room for only one could be found at each board. This was in 1500; and this aid to selection must have been a boon, for the medieval dinner was a mine of surprises. It was divided into courses; whereas nowadays the diner has a general idea that fish will follow soup, and that the entree will be succeeded by a roast of its equivalent, there was no knowing what was going to happen at an early English dinner.

AT MANTANZAS

A Glimpse of the Plaza de Armes at the Close of the Spanish-American War.

As we stroll on the plaza de Armas in the phosphoric brilliancy of the big moon and many stars, the aftermath of the war faces us in other forms. We meet the senora, our hostess—a fat, beguiling person who speaks an English as complicated as the coils of a boa constrictor, impossible to reproduce. She walks with us, and tells us who among the crowd are Spanish residents, inwardly savage, hating all and everything belonging to the new regime. She tells us who that ghostly, white-haired woman is sitting on the edge of the mass of people, but with a cold shoulder to them, a mantilla draping her severe profile marked by unbent pride:

"Ah, she is sad. She will never smile again," so says the senora. "She has lost sons—husband?" "Ah, no. Much worse," and the senora sticks out her lip and looks profoundly sad; "she and her husband are alone save for the boy beside her. Her three daughters are living—yet dead to her—dead, forever. Why? They loved Spanish officers, and a month ago went away on the transport with them to Spain—giving up mother, home, country—all. Who can control love?" The senora looks wise.

The pale, sad woman nods to her once and looks away.

With the close of "The Star Spangled Banner" comes good night, and the crowd divides, filling like thin streams the yardwide sidewalks of the ineffectually lighted streets. From one corner, however, there comes a flare of light. It is one of the relief stations, and the reconcentrados are there for the nightly contribution of food. A hapless crowd—one to sicken the heart, and arouse the futile, agonizing "why" which never has been answered and never will be. The patience of these outcasts and their quick word of thanks as one displaces another, taking no choice, no interest other than the unquestioningly and gratefully whatever is given, is the strongest evidence of what they have endured. There is receiving of something to keep the breath within them another day.—The Criterion.

Largest Bunch of Islands Known.

The number of islands which comprise the Philippine group is to this day not definitely known. Some years ago it was estimated that about 1,200 islands would cover the number, but now discoverers say that there are at least 2,000 of them. New ones are being constantly added to the map. Some members of this vast archipelago, as well as the more remote districts in the larger islands lying beyond the direct control of the Spanish, have never been explored.

Even the regions governed by the Europeans are still but imperfectly known, and up to date no methodical and detailed study of the Philippines has been made. The maps and charts in vogue to-day are exceedingly defective, except for the seaboard, in the survey of which the leading maritime nations have co-operated.

Out of the estimated number of 2,000 islands, those known as the principal ones are Luzon, Mindanao, Paragua, Samar, Panay, Mindoro, Leyte, Negros, Cebu, Masbate, Bohol, Catanduanes, Polillo, Marinduque, Tablas, Burias and Ticao.

Think of it—17 islands out of 2,000!

Luzon, the largest, has an area of about 41,000 square miles; Mindanao, the next, about 37,500 square miles; and the five next in size have an area of over 10,000 square miles each. The most reliable estimate places the aggregate land area of the entire group at 114,356 square miles, or equal to the area of Arizona. There remains yet to be explored an aggregate of nearly 27,000 square miles. Luzon, upon which the city of Manila is located, is equal in area to the State of Virginia.

The coast line of all the islands is very irregular and broken, the ocean cutting in and forming many gulfs, bays, isthmuses and peninsulas. There are long stretches of canals and passages between the islands, but these are not always navigable. Although situated in the region adapted to the growth of corals, the scarcity of this formation is accounted for by the presence of volcanic fires and the occasional deluge of hot water, which prevent the growth of the polyps.

The constant change in the number of islands is due to the frequent eruptions of active volcanoes, with which these islands are said to be infested.

The Mayon, in Luzon, for instance, is an active volcano over 8,200 feet high. It has been the scene of several eruptions during the present century.

Increased Finnish Imigration.

Reports come from Finland to the effect that the people of that country are emigrating to the United States in large numbers to avoid Russian oppression. Tyrannical rule in European countries has driven millions of people to the United States who have become as good citizens as any in the Republic, and Russia of late years has furnished its full share. The Fins are among the best people of the Czar's empire. They are not Slavs, but are allied to the Scandinavian races, and ever since being incorporated into the Russian empire have enjoyed a large measure of home rule, through a legislative body of their own. As a consequence of the recent edict of the Czar curtailing their liberties the younger element is leaving the empire. As a hardy, peaceable, industrious and intelligent people, in every way calculated to make good citizens, the United States will welcome their coming.

Strange as Fiction.

An Illinois woman, whose husband had deserted her, disguised herself as a fortune teller, called on his mother and found out that he was in Chicago. Then she went to Chicago, established herself and began detective work. In the midst of her endeavors she had a dream in which she saw him working in a bicycle factory. The next day she hunted up the factory, took out a warrant for his arrest and had him landed in jail for abandonment. This is one of the cases which make us realize that life is not only stranger but a good deal more interesting now and then than fiction.

When a Porto Rican wants a drink and is not near a spring or a tavern, he climbs a tree and gets it. The tree is a palm and he finds his drink in a coconut

STORY OF KANG YU WEI.

Romance in Which Fate of Chinese Empire and Great Powers Were Involved.

JUST ESCAPED DEATH.

Empress Dowager Fearing His Influence Over the Emperor Offered Reward for His Assassination.

Under Kang's Influence the Emperor Issued an Extraordinary Series of Edicts Many of Which Were Equivalent to a Revolution—Increased Liberty for the Press—Edict for Free Schools.

The story of Kang Yu Wei, the great Chinese reformer, is one of the great romances of the age. It is a romance in which the fate of the Chinese Empire and the high politics of the great powers of the world are involved.

Kang gained the confidence of China's Emperor and almost brought about a reform of the Celestial Empire on modern lines. Then he was checkmated by the Dowager Empress and condemned to death. Only with the aid of British war ships did he escape. There is now a reward for his assassination.

A child of the common people, whose father was a small shopkeeper, and whose grandfather was a coolie, Kang rose from obscurity by force of brains and determination alone.

When the reform movement began to break out openly in China, a year or two ago, Kang appeared at the head of it. He was a very Dr. Parkhurst. In company with the Rev. Mr. Reid, a Presbyterian missionary, he organized a club and started the first newspaper ever published in Pekin, except the Official Gazette, which has been going for 3,000 years. They called the new paper Chinese Progress, and advocated reform, the adoption of modern ideas, the right of petition and the freedom of the press.

With his almost American energy and audacity, Mr. Kang succeeded in breaking through the sacred seclusion which surrounded the Emperor. He obtained admission to His Majesty's presence at all times, much to the alarm and indignation of the Empress Dowager, the Princes and all conservatives. He became a sort of tutor to the Emperor.

Kang read to the Emperor the life of Peter the Great and inspired him with a desire to emulate that remarkable monarch, who lifted Russia out of barbarism. Through Kang the Emperor also became familiar with the development of Japan, and resolved that China should not be left behind its near neighbor in the march of progress. The Emperor became so much interested in Kang's books that he had them read to him twice, and Kang's visits to the palace sometimes lasted eight hours, exciting intense anger and jealousy among the high officials.

Under Kang's influence the Emperor Kwang Su issued a series of extraordinary edicts. One of them granted the right of petition to the throne for everybody, and said that "The Board of Censors will hereafter be delighted with the special duty of receiving and presenting to His Majesty all petitions that may be presented by scholars not in office or men of the people, persons hitherto not allowed to address the throne, except through their respective Viceroys or Governors. The Board of Censors is warned not to put obstacles in the way of people who wish to communicate with His Majesty, for only through such sources can the Emperor learn the exact state of affairs throughout the empire."

This proceeding was regarded as equal to a revolution by the Conservatives. Mr. Kang was in great danger, but, nevertheless, he went ahead. He persuaded the Emperor to sign another edict recognizing the freedom of the press, which was issued on August 9, 1898. By it the editors of newspapers were granted "the special privilege of writing on political subjects in order to enlighten those in authority, and tear off the veil which hides in security the misgovernment of officials. This is the primary reason for the institution of newspapers in all countries."

It is difficult to convey an idea of the sensation this edict created. Hitherto there were no unofficial newspapers outside of the treaty ports, and any one who had the audacity to criticise an official had his head cut off, while a mere attempt to communicate with the Emperor was punished by a horrible death.

Mr. Kang is also credited with having secured an edict for the establishment of a free school system and a number of universities at the capitals of the several provinces for instruction in modern sciences. Another edict required candidates for office to be examined as to their knowledge of modern history.

He further brought about the abolition of slings and bows and arrows as weapons in the army, and also the use of fireworks and bad odors.

Wang Tu Ho, for a quarter of a century the most powerful man at court except Prince Kung, had been the Emperor's tutor, and had great influence with him. He was the leader of the conservative party, and undertook to oppose Reformer Kang, but he met with disaster. He was stripped of his offices and honors, banished from Pekin and forbidden to ever enter the gates of the city again. Several others who attempted to oppose the young Canton reformer met with a similar fate, and it is believed that he, with the assistance of Kang Yen Hoon, brought about one of the numerous degradations of Li Hung Chang.

One of the great objects of Kang's policy was to bring about honesty in the financial affairs of the empire. The Empress Dowager was the greatest thief of public moneys, and it was Kang's boldness in this direction that led to his final downfall.

In 1887 the sum of $42,000,000 was set aside for the creation of a navy. After five battle ships had been partly paid for the Empress Dowager appropriated the rest, spending a large sum on the repair of the Echo Garden. Later another $42,000,000 was set aside for the construction of railroads, which she also largely misappropriated.

Kang fled from China, being threatened with assassination by the Empress Dowager's emissaries.

RAILROAD FACILITIES.

A CORRESPONDENT SEVERELY CRITICISES THE CENTRAL.

Says That the Service is Not Up-to-Date as it Should be—It is a Great Draw Back to Plainfield's Advancement.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—

I fully approve of the article in Saturday's Press on the subject of the New Jersey Central. Heretofore it has been considered rank heresy for anyone to suggest that our railroad facilities were not perfect. We can congratulate ourselves that at last we are beginning to realize the real situation—the first step towards a remedy is to be sure of the disease.

Twenty years ago it was easier to go to Plainfield than to the suburbs of New York or Brooklyn. Even a trip to Harlem before the elevated roads were built took two hours. Men seeking homes at moderate rents naturally came to the New Jersey towns because they were comparatively easy of access. Today this is all changed.

Electric cars run from the New York end of the bridge to all parts of Brooklyn quickly, without change and for a five cent fare. The elevated roads take one from the Battery to 155th street an the West Side, or to Tremont on the East Side without change for five cents. A complete system of transfers without charge adds to these advantages.

The result of this is that Brooklyn, Harlem and New York city north of the Harlem river are developing enormously. It is inconceivable to one who has not seen it. Our little New Jersey towns are simply "not in it." We must face the facts; we are behind the times. The cause of our decline is economic, not sentimental. We offer people the same fare that we gave them twenty years ago, but now they turn up their noses at what they formerly were glad to eat. Men go to Brooklyn and Harlem because they can live there cheaper and better than here. Our railroad repels people, it does not attract them. The desirable trains are few and slow; delays are frequent; the fare is high and has not been reduced in years although the cost of running the road is much less than formerly; the cars are crowded, uncomfortable, and at all points the passenger is subjected to unnecessary annoyances. Take two instances. In the Jersey City station the trains fairly swarm with noisy, dirty insolent peddlers selling all sorts of nasty trash. A few days ago eight passed through the car in seven minutes, and one can often see three in the aisle at once.

Arrived in Plainfield the passengers has to step down a distance of 20 to 25 inches; a very distressing thing for small persons, women especially. This things are not necessary. The Pennsylvania road abolished train peddlers years ago, and almost all their station platforms are raised above the ground so as to make it an easy step to the car step. Has that road lost custum by catering to the comfort of its patrons?

The Jersey Central is years behind the times and we all suffer for it. Its ancient ferry boats are typical of the whole concern. Plainfield can hire a brass band and blow till Doomsday but it will never attract residents from New York and Brooklyn until it has cheaper, quicker and easier means of access. X.

FIRECRACKERS TO BLAME

STUBBORN FIRE IN GEORGE KIRCH'S BUILDINGS.

Mr. Kirch Badly Burned Trying to Rescue His Horse—Grocery Stock Was Damaged Both By Fire and Water.

A lively blaze started in the barn of George Kirch, the Liberty street grocer, this afternoon, and badly damaged his store and residence before the flames were gotten under control. The loss to Mr. Kirch and neighboring property will reach $3,000.

Mr. Kirch's store is at 400 and 402 Liberty street, the corner of West Fourth street. His residence is next door, 404. The barn, where the fire originated, is in the rear of the house.

Mr. Kirch's young son, Robert, was playing near the barn. John Harding, of John street, who happened to be passing, says that young Kirch was lighting a firecracker. A spark flew into the hay in the barn and the place was ablaze in a moment.

Mrs. Kirch saw the blaze and screamed "fire." Mr. Kirch rushed to the scene and managed to fight his way through the flames and rescue the horse. Mr. Kirch was badly burned about the head and hands.

The flames soon spread to the rear of the house and store and to the adjoining residence of Mrs. Brokaw on West Fourth street. Harding ran to Box 34 and sent in an alarm at 1:40 o'clock.

Sergeant Kiely was among the first there and took command of the removal of the household goods. The West End hose wagon was the first to arrive and found the rear and top of the house all ablaze.

Streams were laid in on all sides and as the paper goes to press, the fire is nearly extinguished. Most of the contents of the house was saved. The grocery stock was badly damaged by water.

The buildings are the property of Mr. Kirch and are covered by insurance. Mrs. Brokaw owns her residence which was partially damaged. The whole loss will amount to $3,000. The wagons in the barn, which were destroyed, were not insured.

MR. HOBART'S CONDITION.

His Health Is Good, But He Will Rest More Hereafter.

Vice President Garret A. Hobart is now at Norwood Park, and one of his visitors on Saturday sought to ascertain the truth as to his condition.

Mr. Hobart was asked as to rumors that he was really a victim of some incurable malady.

"No, I have not cancer of the stomach nor an incurable disease of the heart," said Mr. Hobart. "My heart action is a little weak as a result of the serious attack of indigestion I had, but there is nothing organic the matter with me. I am eating finely, sleeping well and more hours per day than I ever did in my life, and am taking no medicine now except a little strynchnine for a tonic. I am improving every day and gaining weight. I shall stay here until September, and by that time should be as well and strong as ever.

"Long continued overwork was doubtless responsible for my sickness. I supposed that I could stand anything, but have found out my mistake, and one experience of that kind is enough, I can assure you. Hereafter I intend to take it easier. I shall designate some one to assist me in presiding over the Senate, and will curtail my social engagements."

ATROCIOUS CRIME NEAR FREEHOLD.

Two Men Arrested for the Murder of a Woman in a Lonely House.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Freehold, June 27—Mrs. Mary A. Hulse, thirty-two years old, living in a lonely house on the Smithburg road, was found by neighbors Saturday lying on the floor dead and almost naked. The autopsy revealed that death occurred from the killing of an unborn babe by the outrageous assault of two or more men. There was no evidence of a hard struggle, but one Taylor and William Hendrickson, who are known to have been at the house that night, have been arrested. Hendrickson has served already a term in prison for killing a woman. The inquest will be held tomorrow, and startling facts are expected to come out.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night, and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

LIVES ENDANGERED BY BURNING BARN.

Lively Fire in Rear of George Kirch's Store.

KIRCH WAS BADLY BURNED.

FORGOTTEN BABY FOUND AND SAVED BY SERGEANT KIELY.

One Man Knocked Down and Slightly Injured by Stream of Water—Several Buildings Seemed Doomed But Good Work by Fire Department Saved Them—Loss Will Reach $2,500, Mostly Insured.

The first serious fire, since the burning of the Brady ice house, gave the fire department a lively time yesterday afternoon when the barn of Geo. Kirch, of Liberty street, was gutted by fire and his store and residence badly damaged. When the department arrived on the scene, the structures seemed in a fair way to be entirely destroyed. By quick work the flames were subdued without the damage resulting that seemed probable. The loss can be estimated at $2,500, which is almost entirely covered by insurance. The fire was marked by several exciting incidents.

At first no one seemed to know exactly what started the conflagration except that it originated in the barn. Little Robert Kirch was playing in the barn and snapped the fated match that started it. It is supposed that he was trying to light a firecracker or did succeed in doing so.

Mrs. Kirch was in the house. She heard the horse in the stable plunge and stamp. Running to look out she saw the fire and shouted to her husband, who saved the horse at the risk of his own life. He was badly burned about the head and hands and his hair was singed. His injuries were dressed at E. F. Randolph's pharmacy across the street.

In the excitement the baby was forgotten and sat in the back room surrounded by flames. Sergeant Kiely found the little one and snatched it out of harm's way before the child's clothing caught.

During the height of the excitement, Israel P. LaRue, of Liberty street, was assisting in the removal of the property from the home of Mrs. Isaac Brokaw when he was struck by a stream of water and felled to the ground by the force of it. He was bruised and received a severe shock by the fall. He was assisted to his home.

The shell of the barn remains but it is gutted and is practically worthless. The backs of the house and store are charred but the prompt work of the firemen prevented the flames from doing much damage to the interior. The roof of the house is also considerably damaged.

These buildings are all the property of Mr. Kirch. The loss on them will reached $1,200, which is covered by insurance. The loss by fire and water to the contents of barn, house and store will be $800, all of which except the wagons was insured.

There seemed little hope of saving the residence of Mrs. Isaac Brokaw, on West Fourth street, next door to the fire. The side of the building was all ablaze. The stream from the chemical engine rendered good service inside and prevented a greater loss by water had a regular stream been used.

The loss to the house will be in the neighborhood of $200. Mrs. Brokaw owned the house and occupied the first floor. The house was insured and so was her household property. The loss on the latter will amount to $75. The second floor was occupied by Miss Mary Mercier, a dressmaker. Her loss will reach $100. She had no insurance. She was absent from the house when the fire started.

Four lines of hose were laid in beside the stream from the chemical engine. The progress of the fire was stopped with unusual rapidity when the burning buildings seemed to be doomed.

The first of the apparatus of the fire department to reach the scene of the fire was the No. 1 hose wagon, driven by Harry Bush, and not the West End hose wagon as stated in yesterday's Press. The latter wagon was, however, a close second.

Death of Mrs. Stanford.

Mrs. Phebe L. Stanford, wife of the late Geo. W. Stanford, aged 68 years, died on Sunday last at her home in Newark the result of paralysis. Mrs. Stanford's husband conducted a shoe business on Front street where the Atlantic and Pacific tea store is now located, forty years ago. The funeral services will be held from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. A. V. Whitlock, 1424 West Front street, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will be in Plainfield Avenue cemetery.

NEWARK'S FREE TRIP.

HUNDREDS OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN FILLED THE COACHES.

Jostled and Fought for Tickets in an Excited Crush—Many Take Advantage of the Free Ride to Visit Newark.

The free excursion given today by the business men of Newark was well patronized. Half an hour before the special excursion train left this city the North Avenue station was filled with several hundred people, most of whom were women, who pushed their way up to the ticket window, jostling each other in an excited manner, while their skirts suffered from the struggle and their tempers were badly ruffled and much the worse for their efforts.

One woman became so excited that she handed her money to a Press reporter to count, while another was seen to grab up a neighbor's child in mistake for her own.

The train leaving Plainfield at 8:55 was made up of fourteen coaches, but only about half of them were filled when the train pulled out. Along the sides of the coaches were hung streamers bearing the words: "Newark Merchants' Free Excursion," while from the pilot of the engine yellow flags, bearing the same words, fluttered in the breeze.

Ten minutes after the first train pulled out the special from Somerville, Bound Brook and Dunellen came rolling into the North avenue station. It was made up of thirteen cars, eleven of them being comfortably filled, their human freight being made up largely of women and children. The cars of this train were also decorated with streamers and flags similar to those of the first train.

The second section of the excursion was flagged at this station for the purpose of putting on board several boxes containing cheap fans which the Newark merchants had supplied gratis to the excursionists.

Many of the excursionists were heard to say that they had taken advantage of the free ride to go to New York, which they could reach from Newark by trolley cars for 10 cents.

The number of tickets sold at the North Avenue station was 398. At Somerville, 405; Bound Brook, 100; Dunellen, 65; Fanwood, 25; Westfield, 150; Cranford, 55.

MAGGIE WILL REFORM.

QUEEN OF PARADISE ALLEY SIGNED THE TEMPERANCE PLEDGE.

She was Very Penitent in City Court This Morning, and Laid the Blame on Man Who Brought Her the Bottle.

Mrs. Maggie Benford has decided to reform. City Judge Runyon thought it was a very good thing for her to do. While he overlooked her misdemeanors of Saturday night, he warned her that any future indiscretion meant serious punishment. She wanted the young Judge to prepare a temperance pledge for her to sign, but he declined in favor of Father Westman.

Maggie had a pitiful tale to relate this morning. She laid all the trouble on one Willian Perrine, who, she alleged, brought beer and whiskey. Saturday afternoons, she said, he usually went to see Mrs. Charles Jenkins, next door, but last Saturday Mr. Jenkins was home and he came to see Maggie instead.

"Pete" Benford, her sixteen-year-old son, who lost one leg on the railroad, told the Judge how he put Perrine out of the house when he discovered him there. But it was too late; Maggie had taken the whiskey and Paradise Alley was all ago with excitement.

BAD WORDS MAKE TROUBLE.

Two Cases Brought in City Court for City Judge Runyon to Settle.

There were two cases of alleged improper language for City Judge Runyon to settle this morning. Mrs. Lena Kline, of Italian descent, runs a little store on South Second street. She claimed that young Tom Marley had stolen goods from her store and that his mother, Mrs. Maggie Marley, came into the store, used profane language and assaulted Mrs. Kline's little girl. The trial will be held Friday morning.

Nicolino Pasqua, an Italian, was accused by Mrs. Rosa Fie of using the wrong kind of language to her on the premises of 1203 North avenue. The case was adjourned for a week at the request of the defendent's lawyer, Councilman Walter L. Hetfield.

Not Typhoid Fever.

Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh, of West Eighth street, is not ill with the typhoid fever as heretofore stated. His illness proved to be a type of bilious fever from which he is now rapidly recovering and hopes to be out again in a few weeks.

AN ORATORIO CONCERT.

PRODUCED WITH EXCELLENT EFFECT LAST NIGHT.

Proceeds for the Benefit of Muhlenberg Hospital—The Artists All Acquitted Themselves in Fine Manner.

An audience that almost filled the First Baptist church last evening enjoyed one of the best concerts ever given in this city. It was the second private concert given by the choir of the church under the direction of E. J. Fitzhugh, musical director, and to him is due credit for the perfect rendition. The regular choir was augmented by a number of the best singers in the city, and the chorus was one of perfect harmony throughout.

The works given are favorites and well known. The first consisted of selections from "The Redemption," by Gounod, including some of the very best parts. There was considerable solo work in part first, and the soloists acquitted themselves in a highly creditable manner. A great deal of interest was evidenced in the singing of George Leon Moore, tenor soloist, for he had much work both in part first and second. He displayed a good voice of excellent quality, and especially in part second he performed work of a high character in the Latin rendition of "Stabat Mater."

William Holmes, baritone, was given plenty of work, and he won meritorious applause from the audience. His voice was in excellent condition.

Miss Luella C. Harris, soprano soloist, as usual, won the highest praise and admiration for her work. Her work of last evening was delightful.

Praise is also due Mrs. F. M. Ward, contralto soloist, whose work is always of the highest attainment. She rendered her difficult parts with much feeling and grace, and won deservedly the hearty approbation shown.

"The Stabat Mater," by Rossini, was given in part second and the Latin version rendered, thus the very best effect was secured and the rendition made more pleasing and effective. The solo, duet, trio and quartette parts were given in a charming manner, and the audience frequently showed its appreciation by applause.

Howard M. Case presided at the organ and Miss Jessie M. Utter at the piano. Their work was perfect and assisted materially in making the concert a success.

The proceeds of the concert, which will be large, will be given entirely to the building fund for Muhlenberg Hospital, and too much cannot be said in praise of Charles W. McCutcheon, who arranged the concert and gave it for the purpose mentioned. Everyone who took part has worked hard and faithful for the production, and they enjoy the supreme satisfaction of knowing that the concert was perfectly given and compares favorably with any previously presented in this city.

Beware of Food Samples.

Quite recently in New York two deaths occurred from poisoning by the use of powders sent to the victims by mail. In Leavenworth, Kans., the other day nearly every doctor in town was called to attend the children who had gathered up, eaten, and been made ill by samples of an article left at houses by canvassers for advertising purposes.

Alum baking powders have always been favorite articles for this sampling business. Yet there is nothing more liable to lead to danger than the practice of using the various samples of baking powder left at the door. They are presented by irresposible parties, in appearance are not distinguishable from arsenic, and indeed, in Indiana, some time since one package was found, after it had caused the death of the housewife, to have been mixed with that poison.

It is safer to refuse all samples of food or medicine offered at the door Pure cream of tartar baking powders sell upon their merits, and are never peddled or sampled.

Odd Fellows Elect.

Last Monday evening there was election both of the lodges of I. O. O. F. Queen City Lodge, No. 226, I. O. O. F., elected as follows: Noble Grand, Harry Fraleigh; vice noble grand, Alex. Muir; recording secretary, Jas. R. Neal. The installation will take place on the evening of July 17th. The election at the meeting of Plainfield Lodge, No. 44, I. O. O. F., was as follows: Noble Grand, Peter Doeringer; vice noble grand, Matthew C. Pennington; recording recretary, J. F. Shepherd.

Trolley Makes Building Boom.

Since the trolley has been running in the east end of the city, J. Fred MacDonald has sold eight lots in that section, and there are good prospects of a building boom.

UNCLE SAM'S BIRTHDAY IS APPROACHING.

Plainfield Will Celebrate it in an Old-Fashioned Way.

BIG PARADE WITH FLOATS.

BUSINESS MEN AND OTHERS ARE TAKING INTEREST.

Military, Civic and Fraternal Organizations, to the Number of Several Hundred, Will Be in Line—Much Enthusiasm Evinced at Last Night's Meeting—Hard Work Before Committees

Bright prospects are apparent for a big celebration in this city next Tuesday. At last night's meeting of the general celebration committee the various committees were well represented and much interest was manifested in the proposed Fourth of July function. While there was not much of anything new to report different than The Press has from day to day furnished its readers, it may be of interest to the public to know that the business men are wide awake to the big event and purpose making the celebration a credit to the city.

Chairman Ulrich, from the executive committee, said he was surprised to learn how quickly The Press got its news, some of which was new to him. However, he admitted that, as The Press has already stated, that the Reserves and Marines were both coming and would participate in the parade; but that the latter organization would not bring a band of music.

He said that the fireworks would be sent off on White's lot on Giraud avenue, but he had nothing to report as to a speaker, as yet, those invited having all declined.

Frank G. Smith, chairman of the printing committee, reported that the large bills had been posted in the various villages along the railroad, and that a contract had been made with a local printer for a handsome embossed programme.

William C. Smith, chairman of the parade committee, stated that the line of march was being prepared and would be ready for publication in the daily papers next Saturday. The parade would form on Crescent avenue, near Seventh street, at 10 o'clock, and would countermarch on Park avenue. As far as he had heard from the businessmen they would be represented by thirty-seven floats, the wheelmen by thirty-five and the juniors by about 100. There were others yet to hear from, he said.

Mayor Smalley, from the subscription committee, reported that he had secured pledges for $144.50, of which he had collected $81. Various amounts were reported, and it is believed that about $900 has been pledged thus far. The committee needs about $1,100.

It was the sense of the meeting, after various resolutions, that invitations be extended to the Governor, State Senator, Congressman from this district, and the Mayors of the city and borough to be the guests of the Fourth of July committee. Invitations are also to be sent to the High School and Leal cadets to take part in the parade.

A resolution was also passed authorizing the secertary to communicate with the Common Councils of the city and borough requesting those bodies to contribute each a sum of money towards the subscription fund.

The committee then adjourned to Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the Board of Trade rooms in the Babcock building.

After the meeting of the general committee the various sub-committees met and compared notes.

LEHIGH'S NEW SHOPS.

Abandons Plan to Locate in Jersey City—Yard Between Newark and Elizabeth.

It is said authoritatively in Jersey City that the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company had abandoned its project of locating a large freightyard and shops in Jersey City for a more advantageous site on the Newark meadows, between Newark and Elizabeth.

The company complains that it has not been fairly treated in Jersey City. It was promised, it is said, permission to lay tracks at grade across Communipaw avenue, to enable it to build its proposed railroad yards and workshops.

Mayor Hoos and many other citizens objected to the proposed grade crossing, and the Street and Water Board failed to pass the ordinance over the Mayor's veto.

Mrs. Horace G. Terry and son, Griffith, of Albany, have been guests at the home of B. O. Bowers, of Franklin place.

A DOG CATCHER'S LUCK.

CAPTURED A "PURP" THAT MADE HIM LOTS OF TROUBLE.

Cranford Official Sick of His Job—Citizens Did Not Like the Way He Dragged His Victim Around the Town.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Cranford, June 28.—Yesterday morning Harry Jenks was appointed the official dog catcher of this town, and this morning he was looking for the man who had the nerve to recommend him for the exalted position.

"Some are born great, while others have greatness thrust upon them," said Jenks this morning, "and I had my share yesterday."

It was Jenk's fortune or misfortune, soon after receiving his appointment to see a stray dog trotting through the main street. "Here's my chance," said the dog catcher as he glided after the pup and shortly afterward he returned. Tugging at a rope at one end of which was a small dog of questionable breed. No sooner had Jenks turned into the main street than he was accosted by a woman who wanted to know why he didn't return the dog to its home instead of dragging it about the streets.

Jenks managed to stave the old woman off but not so with smiling Harry Sanderson, the genial manager of Tony Pastor's Fourteenth street theatre. The latter, who was on the way to his train, would not leave the dog to suffer alone and he was backed up by George Morris, at the office of the Society for the Preventy of Cruelty to Animals. They would not allow Jenks to drag the dog by the rope and as the canine refused to be led Jenks had to sit down and wait until the commuters had all taken their trains for the city.

This was the only dog that Jenks caught during the day and now he says that he doesn't care for the position although it was very kind of Committeeman Thompson to have him appointed. He says that he would rather be a committeeman himself.

AT ST. MARY'S SCHOOL.

Graduating Exercises to be Held Tomorrow and Friday Evenings.

The graduating exercises of St. Mary's school, at Liberty and Sixth streets, will take place tomorrow and Friday evenings at 8 o'clock. An interesting programme has been prepared. Tomorrow evening the drama of "Rebecca's Triumph" will be rendered, and Friday evening an operetta entitled "Old Glory or the Boys of '76" by a baker's dozen of the boys of the school. Miss Frances Hillman will deliver the valedictory. The class of '99 is composed of the Misses Frances Hillman, Anna Ryan, Mary Doll, Julian Lutz, Mary Burke, Anna Daley and Henry Shannon. Miss M. Smith will reside at the piano and Miss K. Flynn at the organ.

OPPOSES THE TROLLEY.

Cross County Line Receives a Setback in Mountainside.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, June 28—The cross country trolley line from Rahway to Millburn has received an unexpected setback in the shape of opposition in the borough of Mountainside. William Miller, who owns a large frontage on the county road, is trying to persuade the Council to limit the franchise to twenty-five years. This the company will not accept. Today engineers begin the work of laying out a route through private property around the borough, through Branch Mills, and striking the county road in Springfield township. This route will make Echo Lake easily accessible.

Changes in Residences.

The following residential changes have been made recently by Conover's moving vans: Mrs. Randolph, from Spooner avenue to Plainfield avenue; Mrs. Schaefer, from Richmond street to East Fourth street; John Johnson, from East Front street to Watchung and Kensington avenues; Mr. Conde from Harmony street to Somerset street; Alfred Seidel, from Seventh street, New York, to 422 East Second street; Mrs. C. F. Hollis from West 132d street, New York to Fairview avenue; Wm. McIntosh, from Feight station to 811 College place; C. P. Williams, from 105 Grandview avenue to 897 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Quick Payment.

D. W. Littell, treasurer of Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, has received a check for $3,000 for payment of claim of the death of their late brother, John M. Dayton, who died June 3d. From the time the proof of death was mailed from Plainfield it required only fourteen days to receive the check as payment in full.

RECTOR'S LAST WEDDING

PRETTY WEDDING AT THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY CROSS.

Miss Mary Grannett and Bradley S. Hall Wedded by Rev. T. Logan Murphy, the Last One Before His Departure.

The Church of the Holy Cross was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon when the marriage of Miss Mary Grannett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Grannett, Sr., of this city, to Bradley S. Hall, son of Joseph R. Hall, of Cranford, was solemnized in that sanctuary. It was the last marriage ceremony to be performed by Rev. T. Logan Murphy, while rector of the church. It was a pretty ceremony but quiet, and was witnessed only by the relatives and immediate friends of the young couple.

The bride wore a tailor-made gown of castor, trimmed with white silk and carried a white prayer book. She was attended by a single bridemaid, Miss Alice M. Thompson, who was gowned in blue and carried a shower bouquet of pink and white carnations.

The best man was George Taylor, of Cranford. There were also four ushers, Charles Western, of Brooklyn, Messrs. Holland and Gardiner, of New York, and Henry Hall, of Cranford a brother of the groom. The wedding march was played by Henry M. Western, of Cranford, a brother-in-law of the groom.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Murphy, at 3 o'clock, Mr. Grannett giving the bride away. The church was artistically decorated in green and white, flowers being largely used.

After the marriage, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 742 West Fourth street. The couple then left on a short tour and will go later for a trip through the south.

A large and valuable array of gifts told of the high esteem in which the young people were held by their many friends. Mr. Hall formerly resided in Washington Park, where he is well known.

A furnished flat, all complete, in the Thorn building, Somerset street, awaited Mr. and Mrs. Hall. They will make their home there.

TO REPORT THURSDAY.

BOULEVARD COMMISSION NEARLY FINISHED ITS TASK.

They Hope to Have the Report Confirmed This Time So That the Work Can be Started At Once on the Enterprise.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, June 28.—The Westfield avenue commission has been holding daily sessions, taking testimony on the valuation of the property which it is proposed to condemn along the north side of the avenue to make the roadway wide enough for Kean's double track trolley. Tomorrow the commissioners will be ready to award the benefits and assess the damages and make an early report to the court.

The first report was sent back to the commission by Justice VanSyckel for revision. The commission hopes to have its report confirmed this time, so that work on cutting and grading may proceed, as the laying of trolley tracks has already begun.

FUNERAL OF J. A. FREEMAN.

Largely Attended by the Older Generation That Knew Him Well.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Jarvis A. Freeman were held from his late residence, 402 Watchung avenue, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. They were largely attended by the older generation of Plainfielders who have known Mr. Freeman so long. The pall-bearers were: B. O. Bowers, John Ross, Isaac Brown, Jr., Mr. Clawson, of Plainfield, and Mr. Cadmus and Freeman Cadmus, of Philadelphia.

Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Pa D., officiated, assisted by Rev. William Charles O'Donnell. There were many beautiful floral rememberances from friends and relatives. Interment was in the North Plainfield cemetery. A short service was held at the grave.

Made an Executor.

Rev. E. E. Jackson, pastor of the Mt. Olive Baptist church, has been made executor of the estate of the late Mrs. Ella Prior, who died recently in this city. This morning Mr. Jackson went to Elizabeth and qualified for his position before Surrogate Parrot.

One Fined, One Discharged.

Richard Waring and Herbert Schutt were arraigned last evening in the Borough Court to answer to a charge of fast driving. The evidence disclosed the fact that Mr. Waring was driving and a fine of $5 was imposed. Mr. Schutt was discharged.

GERMAN CHURCHES MAY CONSOLIDATE.

Such a Result Due to Episcopal Consolidation.

REV. H. C. EYME RESIGNS.

GERMAN LUTHERANS TO LOSE $550 ANNUAL RENTAL.

That is the Sum Paid by the Church of Redeemer for the Use of the Edifice—Lutherans Will Probably Consolidate With the Reformed Church, to Which Most of the Members Once Belonged.

As a result of the consolidation of the Episcopal societies of the Church of the Redeemer and the Church of the Holy Cross, it is likely that the consolidation of the German Lutheran and the German Reformed churches will follow. This result will brought about by the withdrawal of the Church of the Redeemer from the German Lutheran church as a tenant of their edifice, for which $550 rental was paid annually, and which formed the principal support of the German society.

For some time past the membership of the German Lutheran church has been gradually diminishing until within the last few weeks the expenses would not have been met if the rent from the Church of the Redeemer had not been coming in. As in the case with the Episcopals the community is not large enough to support two German churches without one or both suffering. In this case it was the youngest society—the Lutherans—who felt the tide of adversity.

Last Sunday Rev. Hermon C. Eyme, pastor of the German Lutherans, preached to only a handful of worshipers, and as this had happened frequently of late he concluded that it was a waste of effort for him to continue as minister of the society any longer, especially since the principal financial support of the church would be withdrawn with the consolidation of the Episcopal churches. He announced then that thereafter he would not occupy the pulpit. The resignation will be formally presented to the Board of Trustees in a few days.

When this matter is acted upon it is probable that steps will be taken to consolidate the Luthern with the German Reformed society, the latter being the strongest. The Lutheran church was formed a few years ago by a number of members who then belonged to the German Reformed church, but who were dissatisfied with the way the church affairs were administed at that time. The Lutherans have always had a hard struggle to get along.

Rev. Mr Eyme and wife will go to Orange next Friday to visit friends till July 8th, when they will sail for Germany to spend the rest of the summer visiting relatives. Rev. Mr. Eyme is an educated and polished gentleman, who has a splended command of the German language, of which he is an efficient instructor. He has a large class of students in this city and the borough and will return next fall to take up the instruction again. He will retain his present residence at 78 Duer street.

HUNTING THE WOODS FOR A BOY.

A Westfield Farmhand Thought to Have Wandered Off in a Fit.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, June 28—Matthew Collin, an orphan, fifteen years old, is missing from the farm of Frederick Sheelan, near here. He had been living with Mr. Sheelan for about two years, and helped in the farm work. Monday afternoon the boy was tossing hay in a field where Mr. Sheelan was mowing. About 4 o'clock the boy was left alone. He has not been seen since, and the woods are being searched for him.

About six months ago he had a fit, and about two months ago another. It is feared he wandered into the woods and had one and died. Mr. Sheelan does not know if the boy has any relatives except a sister who lived in Newark, but whose name he does not know.

Mother's Attempt at Suicide.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, June 28—Annie Heinemeyer, living with her husband and year-old baby at 419 South Park street, swallowed two tablespoons full of paris green yesterday with suicidal intent because she said her husband did not treat her kindly. When placed in the ambulance she fought like a tigress for her baby, and finally broke away from the ambulance surgeon and driver. She got her child and then went peacefully to the hospital. She is in a critical condition.

BEVERLY WHITE IS KILLED

The Kentucky Feud Leader Shot Dead by One of the Baker Partisans.

MORE TROUBLE BREWING

Hostilities Again Renewed and Both Factions Are Going Around Armed to the Teeth

One Side or the Other Likely to Be Exterminated Before the Trouble Ends—White's Slayer Escapes to the Mountains—Excitement Runs Higher Than Ever.

London, Ky., June 28.—Hostilities have been renewed in the Baker-Howard feud. A. B. Hampton, one of the late Tom Baker's attorneys, became involved in a quarrel with some of the White sympathizers, when Sheriff Beverly P. White attempted to arrest him.

Hampton drew a 45-calibre revolver and fired three shots, two of which took effect in White's head, killing him instantly. Hampton then fled to the mountains. He is being followed, according to the report, by a number of White's friensd, who swear vengeance against him.

Excitement is higher now than ever, and more trouble is sure to follow. Hampton belongs to the Philpot family, one of the strongest in the mountains.

It is said that both the Howard and Baker factions are getting together in full force and arming themselves for a "finish" fight, and it is not believed possible to ever restore peace and harmony in the respective neighborhoods of the Howards and Bakers until one side or the other shall have won a decisive victory in the way of practically exterminating their enemies.

The people here are wild with excitement over the turn the affair has taken in the past few days, and it is feared that the most heoric measures will have to be resorted to to prevent a wholesale slaughter among these two factions who have openly declared war on each other and are ready to fight at a moments notice. If the matter continues to increase in seriousness, the governor will again be appealed to, to send troops here to cool the feverish condition of the Howards and Bakers and their sympathizers.

Badly Beaten at a Mine.

Montgomery, W. Va., June 28.—J. M. Smith, Vice President of the United Mine Workers of America, and George Scott, who arrived here and went up to Brooklyn, on New River in response to a request from miners in that section, were assaulted and badly beaten, they claim, by John Long, manager of the mines on his land. John Longfi George Moran, S. H. Bartonn and Charles Moran were arrested and waived examination, giving bond in the sum of $500.

Spiritualists in Session.

Mishawaka, Ind., June 28.—The Indiana-Michigan Spiritual Society opened its annual session at Lake Cromo. Mrs. Adah Sheehan Horman, of Cincinnati, delivered the opening address on "The Philosophy of Spirit Return." Maggie Waite, of Detroit, gave messages from friends departed. Mrs. Worthington, of Texas, is presiding at the meeting.

Hettie Green Foreclosing Trust Deeds

Chicago, Ill., June 28.—Mrs. Hettie Green has ordered the foreclosure of eleven trust deeds, given in 1885 by Robert L. Martin, upon property in various parts of Chicago. The aggregate amount of the indebtedness secured by the deeds is $156,000. On June 17 a confession of judgment on seventy-five notes amounting to $33,759 was made by Martin in favor of Mrs. Hettie Green.

Two Children Cremated.

Clarkesville, Tenn., June 28.—While alone at the home of H. M. Beckett, at Ridley, the house caught fire and burned, and Edith Beckett, aged 5, and the 3-year-old son of J. P. Cawthorne, were burned to death. The barn of Ira Collier in Sumner County, also burned. Henry Parrish, an old colored man, was cremated.

Bear Holds Up a Freight Train.

Altoona, Pa., June 28.—The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has sent out a force of hunters after a big bear that threatens to cause a wreck. Several times the animal has sat on the track in a narrow cut near here and forced a freight train to stop, then ambled into the woods.

The Pan-American Railroad.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 28.—At a meeting of the Pan-American Railway Company, held in this city, a survey was ordered of the route from Tampa, Fla., south to a terminus on the Gulf of Mexico. Work will be commenced as soon as profile maps can be submitted to the contractors.

Soldier Jilted for Lawyer.

Columbus, Ohio, June 28.—Florence Coke, a society belle, has reversed the usual order by eloping with a lawyer on the eve of the day she was to have married a soldier. The lawyer is Allen J. Seney; the jilted soldier, Captain E. D. Schurmer, of Cleveland

Fayetteville, W. Va., June 28.—A small son of Sheriff A. B. Ballard secured the keys to the jail and liberated Clay White, a dangerous prisoner. White was pursued for some distance, but is still at large.

WAR ON SCIENTISTS.

Philadelphia Physicians Preparing to Start a Crusade Against Them.

Philadelphia, June 28.—A prominent member of the medical profession is responsible for the following statement:

"Information is now being collected from different parts of the United States by Philadelphia physicians concerning the practices of Christian Scientists as "healers," and when sufficient is obtained to form the basis for action, it will be laid before the Attorney-General of the United States as an evidence of the necessity of calling the attention of Congress to the abuses of these healers and securing the passage of a bill that will have a tendency to stop their pratcice by imposing a heavy penalty for its violation. Long before this reform is initiated there will certainly be waged an interesting battle in this city and in other places in this State against the "faith curists" under the provisions of the State law.

"Members of the medical profession have resolved to take the matter in hand and to punish violators of the law to the full extent. The methods employed by the healers, were told in the recent case of Joseph McCaig, who died here, and a more prominent victim of the healers was added to their credit on Saturday night in the death of former Congressman Smedley Darlington at West Chester.

Henderson Makes No Plans.

Washington, June 28.—Word has been received here from General Henderson of Iowa, that he has not made any plans yet in regard to the chairmanship of the several Congressional Committees in the event of his election as Speaker of the House. He also says that he has given no authority to state that he has made any final conclusions along this line.

Want Another Receiver.

Springfield, Mass., June 28.—A movement has been started to have a second receiver appointed for the Taber-Prang Art Company. It came from the banks who hold the company's paper. They are careful to state that they make no criticism of Receiver Leet. They feel that in view of their large interest as note holders they should be represented in the management while affairs are in their present condition. A petition signed by both interests will be sent to the United States Circuit Court, which appointed the first receiver, for the appointment of another.

The Chippewas Ugly.

Minneapolis, June 28.—A special representative of the Times has just returned from Walker, Minn., and thus explains the situation on the Chippewa reservation: "Capt. Mercier's action in ordering the whites away was simply to avoid trouble with the Indians, if not another uprising. Emboldened by their success last October, the Chippewas were ready to take the warpath again and bloodshed was imminent when the order directing the removal of the intruders was issued. The Indians had been in an ugly mood for weeks.

Death Sentence for Negroes.

Baltimore, June 28.—For the first time in the history of Baltimore the sentence of death was imposed for rape on a colored girl. Three negroes are to suffer the penalty, their victim having been a 13-year-old colored girl. Those who will be hanged are Cornelius Gardner, Charles James and John Myers. The child they assaulted is Annie Bailey.

PAWNEE BURNED AT SEA.

Flames Make a Total Wreck of the Big Clyde Line Steamship.

COTTON AND OIL CARGO

Boats From "City of Macon" Are Lowered and Go as Close as Possible to the Ship.

No Signs of Life Notwithstanding Captain Savage Swept the Sea With His Glasses—Fire So Fierce That Heat Was Intense One Mile Away—Crew Probably Rescued.

New York, June 28.—Fire destroyed the steamship Pawnee of the Clyde Line when at sea forty miles off Cape Henry, according to the report brought here by Captain George Savage of the Savannah Line steamship City of Macon.

When the city of Macon sighted the burning vessel at 8 o'clock in the morning the Pawnee was already enveloped in flames and huge columns of black smoke obscured the sky. The weather was bright and clear.

Boats from the City of Macon were lowered and approached as near as possible to the blazing steamship. There were no signs of life, and although the City of Macon hove to for a time and Captain Savage swept the sea with his glasses nothing was seen of the ship's boats.

The passengers of the City of Macon were crowded on the decks, watching the splendid spectacle that the ship presented. As the Pawnee plied between Brunswick, Ga., and Boston, she was heavily laden with cotton, oils and highly inflammable materials.

The cargo burned with such ferocity that the heat could be plainly felt on the decks of the City of Macon, although the latter stood about a mile off.

Great burning brands were carried for miles by the stiff breeze that was blowing. Captain Savage cruised about the doomed ship for three hours, making a ten mile circuit, but he was unable to see any signs of life.

Captain Savage then determined that the crew had either been picked up by a passing vessel or had put off in boats and laid their course for Cape Henry.

As cotton smoulders long in the hold it was the opinion of Captain Savage that the crew had had a long and desperate fight against the flames before they were finally obliged to abandon the vessel.

It was not the custom of the Pawnee to carry passengers. The vessel was commanded by Captain Ingham.

Wilmington, N. C., June 28.—The crew of the burned steamship has been picked up by a Clyde Liner off this port. The ship that rescued the men was the George W. Clyde.

Laborers Scarce.

Reading, June 28.—Owing to the unprecedented boom in iron, iron ore, limestone and kindred interests in the Schuylkill Valley, labor has become alarmingly scarce. Farmers will have great difficulty in taking in their crops.

Truck gardeners are now pressing married women into service for berry picking. The single girls are all in the silk and hosiery mills and cigar factories. There will not be near enough men for the hay and grain harvest. Iron men are putting up shanties to house hundreds of foreigners they have employed at the New York office to do heavy work about the furnaces. Farmers are hunting about for help. Wages may go higher than $1.25 a day and board, which will be an additional hardship at the present price of wheat. The farmers paid only a dollar a day before, when wheat was $1.50 a bushel. The District Attorney has served notice on thirty husbands charged with non-support of wives that "no work" will be absolutely no excuse in court at the coming term.

St. L. I. M. & S. Railroad.

St. Louis, June 28.—A special meeting of the stockholders of the St. Louis Iron Mountain and Southern Railroad was held here at the general office, Equitable Building, for the purpose of ratifying the action of the directors in various matters. The vote was unanimous in favor of increasing the capital stock of the company by the amount of $40,000,000 and to increase the bonded indebtedness of the company by the amount of $40,000,000.

A New Geyser

Mammoth Hot Springs, Yellowstone Park, Wyo., June 28.—A young geyser came into life at the Fountain Basin, fifty miles south of here. The eruption which lasted over an hour, was from a hitherto quiet pool fifty feet north of the famous fountain geyser. The new geyser tore an opening in the basin about thirty feet in diameter and played continuously to a height of from 200 to 250 feet.

Perished in Siberia.

Nevada City, Cal., June 28.—Mrs. Norval Douglass of San Francisco has received a letter saying her son Harry Douglass, with twenty-five picked miners from California, who left June 2 of last year for Siberia, have perished from privation and cold. It is said that the party went to Siberia under contract to a New York company, expecting to be gone three years.

Loss of the Selkirk

San Francisco, June 28.—News of the total loss of the ship Selkirk in the Philippine Islands was brought from the Orient by the steamship Rio de Janeiro. The Selkirk, which was owned by W. P. Cameron of Nova Scotia, had sailed from Manila on May 9 with a $400,000 cargo for Boston. Capt. Crowe was in command.

John Cook Drowned.

Rock Island, Ill., June 28.—John Cook, fireman on the steamer Winona, went to sleep on the upper deck, rolled off into the water, and was drowned. The body was recovered.

Two Feet of Pain.

Pain is not usually measured by the foot, yet it is a fact that the unfortunates who suffer the miseries of aching feet endure an inch of torture to every square inch of foot they own.

Pain of any kind causes a strain up on the nervous system, and if prolonged and unchecked will create depression of spirits and despondency.

Aching feet are vexatious, aggravating and irritating, and nothing is more annoying than feet deformed and distorted from corns and bunions. Mr. Brown's painless method for the treatment and cure of corns, bunions, ingrowing and club toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty, chafed and burning feet, is endorsed by all eminent physicians He has made diseases of the feet a life study. Corns, bunions and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago in Plainfield have not come back and the feet today are sound and well. Read the proof:

D. S. Scheuer, grocer, Front St; H. A. Weber, grocer, Liberty and Second streets; S. Sharkey, grocer, Third and Richmond streets; G. Voehl, bakery, 127 Front street; F. R. Vanderhoof, at F. Endress' meat market, Front street, and many others had corns, bunions, and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago; no trouble since. Albert Runyon, 41 Mountain avenue; J. Q. Miles, J. P., 28 Somerset street; F. Cullen, and Mrs. Cullen, 1001 Second street; Mrs. M. C. Terry, 331 East Third street; J. D. Smalley, meat market, 153 Front street; H. L. Overbaugh, 118 Elmwood place; W. W. Warnock, bakery, 138 North avenue; J. J. Stites, blacksmith, Dunellen; and hundreds of others say that Mr. Brown completely cured their bunions, ingrowing toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty and tender feet, etc. They all say the treatment was painless; no soreness after.

HIT BY A STRAY SHOT.

A Cuban Planter Dies From the Effects of a Bullet.

Havana, June 28.—The Cuban press expresses great indignation over the row that occurred at Cienfuegos between a number of Americans and Cuban policemen. The trouble began in a house of ill-repute, where the Americans created a disturbance. The police interfered and a fight followed, both sides using revolvers. It is alleged by Cubans that the guard of six soldiers in front of Major Rafferty's pay office also fired on the crowd. Pablo Santa Maria, a sugar planter, who was passing in a coach, was hit by a bullet and died yesterday. Col. Randall ordered two companies of troops out and stopped the riot. Two Americans have been arrested.

At La Punta a Cuban soldier, Quirino Hernandez, presented himself for payment, but did not receive any money because his name was not spelled correctly on the lists. A policeman wished to arrest him, evidently thinking that he was attempting to obtain money under false pretences. Soldiers of Hernandez's regiment defended him, saying that he was really a soldier. The policeman however, would not listen, and summoned other officers to aid him in making the arrest. Some of the policemen clubbed Hernandez, who fought back with the butt of his gun, knocking several of the policemen down. The Cuban soldiers then took an active part in the row, charging the policemen with their guns. American soldiers were promptly on hand and restored order. Later Col. Randell released Hernandez, for which the Cubans are very grateful. Four other Cubans who attempted to impose on Col. Randall by representing themselves as soldiers were promptly arrested by the Americans.

Bitten by Big Rattler.

Wabash, Ind., June 28.—Rattlesnakes are more numerous in Northern Indiana this year than ever before. A number of persons have been bitten by the reptiles, but so far as known only one death has resulted. The last victim is the seven-year-old son of J. H. Barkley, near Wakaruasa. With his father the boy was out in the woods in his bare feet and walked directly over the serpent, which darted at him three times in quick succession, each time sinking its fangs into the foot. The lad called for assistance, and the father went at the snake with a club. The rattler showed fight, and was with much difficulty killed. The boy was hurried to a physician, antidotes administered, and while the foot swelled to enormous dimensions, he will recover. The snake was four feet long and had ten rattles.

Pana Strike Near the End.

Pana, Ill., June 28.—The prospects of an early settlement of the strike are brighter than ever. The Pana mine has paid off the present nonunion laborers and dispensed with their services. Word received by local union mine officials from Secretary Ryan, who is at Lincoln in consultation with Operators Frorer and Hart of the Pana mine, states that matters have been amicably settled and that the colliery will begin operations next week with union labor. The Springside mine is closed down for repairs and the men have been paid off. The negroes claim it is a ruse to dispense with their services, and much ill-feeling is developing among them.

Will Not Be a Cadet.

Elkhorn, Wis., June 28.—Oscar W. Deignan, of Merrimac fame, is in this city visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Ellen O'Brien. He has given up the idea of becoming a naval cadet. A bill was introduced in Congress authorizing the President to make him a naval cadet, but it was amended requiring him to pass an examination the same as any other candidate for admission. He has not the means to go through a preparatory course, and though his friends have tendered him assistance he has declined it.

Shot Dead by a Mere Boy.

Clarksburg, W. Va., June 28.—Near the Baltimore and Ohio Depot, a boy named McClung and a young man became involved in an altercation. Officer Waldo attempted to arrest the latter, who ran and attempted to swim the river. The officer called several men to assist him in making the arrest, and Valle Boughner, a young boy, having a revolver, shot at the fugitive just as he jumped into the river, killing him instantly. Boughner was acting under instructions of the officer.

Murder Case Recalled.

New York, June 28.—William Ballard, a negro, was arrested at the Sheepshead Bay race track by Detective Sergeants Armstrong and Reidy of the Central Office in connection with the murder of Clayton Young, a horseman, which occurred in St. Louis in August of 1896. Ballard was taken to Police Headquarters.

Appeal for Order at Rennes.

Rennes, France, June 28.—The Catholics have placarded the town with a strong appeal urging the people to observe justice and moderation, in view of the coming court-martial, reminding them that Dreyfus is no longer a convict, but an unjudged defendant.

Major Fitzpatrick's Funeral.

Mound City, Ill., June 28.—The funeral of Major Thomas A. Fitzpatrick, was attended by thousands of the residents of this community, Cairo and several other adjacent towns. The body was interred in the National Cemetery in this city.

Chinese Tin Miners Revolt.

Paris, June 28.—A dispatch from Saigon says that the tin miners at Mongtze, in the Yunnan district, have revolted and looted the Customs House and the French Consulate.

Henry C. Payne's Denial.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 28.—Henry C. Payne has declared untrue the story that he is considering an offer of the chairmanship of the Republican national committee.

Havana's Customs Receipts.

Havana, June 28.—Collector Bliss expects that the customs receipts for the month of June will exceed $1,000,000.

CLOSE TO RECORD TIME.

Transports Grant and Hooker Reach Manila With More Troops For Otis.

OVER 2,000 MEN LANDED

General Otis Cables the War Department of the Safe Arrival of the Two Big Transports

The Grant Makes the Voyage in Fast Time—More Troops for Philippines Reach Pacific Coast—The Government to Send Two Stenographers to Manila.

New Orleans, June 28.—New Orleans will furnish the first of the four Spanish-English stenographers and typewriters wanted by the United States government for the courts in Manila, Philippine Islands. Louis M. Rodrigues, born in Manila, of Spanish parentage, and Carlos Julio Elizalde, a Cuban, at present editor of the Spanish edition of the New Orleans Trade Journal, have accepted the government's offer, and will shortly leave for Washington, thence to New York to Manila. The salary is $2,000 per annum, with all expenses paid to Manila.

Troops for Manila.

San Francisco, June 28.—Troop F, sixth cavalry, Capt. E. F. Wilcox, has arrived at the Presidio from Fort Leavenworth, Kan. The command will later proceed to Sequoya Park. Companies B and F, twenty-first infantry, have also reached the Presidio. The remaining companies of the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth infantry are on their way to San Francisco. These two regiments, with the remaining troops of the fourth cavalry, will soon sail for Manila.

The Grant and Hooker at Manila.

Manila, June 28.—The United States transports Grant and Hooker have arrived here.

Washington, June 28.—The war department has received the following cablegram:

"Manila, June 27.

"Adjutant General, Washington:

"Transport Grant arrived this morning; no casualties. OTIS."

The Grant sailed from San Francisco on May 30, carrying the sixteenth infantry, forty officers and 1,655 men, Lieut.-Col. W. F. Spurgin, commanding. This is a twenty-six-day passage, and very close to the record for the run from San Francisco to Manila.

Escaped to Central America.

Chicago, June 28.—Matt Smith and "Coffee" Braner, the alleged murderers of Martin Meier, are thought to be well on their way to Central America or some other southern country, where the hand of the law is not liable to reach them. Last night Chief of Police Kipley received the following telegram dated Hoboken, N. J., from Detective Mullen, who is searching for the sailors. "Money received; located parties. They have left for Central America. Letter will follow."

Collision on New Haven Road.

Deadham, Mass., June 28.—The north-bound New London train collided with a work train, a little south of the Deadham road station on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, both trains being thrown into a ditch. The engineer of the freight train, Roger P. Jones of Boston, was killed, and his fireman, J. Augustus Hobart, was badly scalded and received internal injuries.

Hailstorm Injures Crops.

Silex, Mo., June 28.—A terrific hailstorm occurred about five miles southwest of this place. Corn was completely cut to pieces and ruined. Oats and wheat were very badly damaged. A great deal of poultry and many hogs were killed, and considerable damage was done to other stock. Apple and other fruit trees were completely stripped. The storm lasted about half an hour.

McKinley Abandons Tour.

Washington, D. C., June 28.—President McKinley has been compelled to abandon his Western tour because of the ill health of Mrs. McKinley. His return to Washington was due to her condition. It is probable that the President will stay in Washington all summer in consequence, only making short trips away.

Prevalence of Disease.

Charleston, W. Va., June 28.—The State Board of Agriculture has decided to enforce more rigidly the state law pertaining to diseased animals. It is stated to the board that the spread among cattle and horses in the state is more alarming than has been supposed.

Young Lady Seriously Injured.

Monroe, Mich., June 28.—Miss Pearl Roland, living near here, was probably fatally injured. Her father was moving a binder out of the barn and it fell on her, inflicting a serious wound in the head and mashing the shoulder, collar-bone and blade.

Young Wife Gets a Divorce.

Warrensburg, Mo., June 28.—A divorce has been granted in the Circuit Court to Mrs. James Cunningham, aged 18 years, from her husband, aged 81. The parties are Dunkards, and live at Valley City.

Made Sure of Death.

Valparaiso, Ind., June 28.—Charles Schulze, aged 50, a well-to-do farmer, residing near here, suicided by taking over half a pound of paris green. Ill health was the cause.

Trout Caught With Hands.

Mattewan, N. Y., June 28.—S. B. Westfall has a large trout that he caught with his hands in a shallow brook, where a trout was never seen before.

He sells cheap soap; the sale, once made,
Brings larger profits for to-day.
The soap, when used, offends his trade,
Which deals, henceforth, "across the way"—
Both purchaser and seller lose;
But Ivory Soap makes steadfast friends;
'Tis best to sell, and best to use,
And brings best profits in the end.

A WORD OF WARNING.—There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

TAX RIOT IN SPAIN.

Saragossa in a State of Siege—Gen. Borbon Wounded in Fight.

Madrid, June 28.—The trouble in Saragossa, which led to a riot and the proclamation of martial law, arose from a demonstration against the taxes. There was a similar disturbance in Valencia. There was a passive demonstration here and in the most important cities of the country. These were organized by the Chambers of Commerce, which recommended the closing of shops and offices during part of the day as a protest. The suggestion was followed, with rare exceptions.

In consequence of the riots at Saragossa and elsewhere the shopkeepers have closed their places of business everywhere. At Valencia the mob became so violent that it was charged upon by the gendarmes.

A state of siege has been declared at Saragossa, where order was restored about midnight by the most vigorous measures. Gen. Borbon was wounded at Murcia in a collision between the troops and the mob. The houses of the civil guard were set on fire by the rioters.

Pennsylvania Won.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 28.—With every ounce of strength that their strong frames contained thrown into the pendulum-like swing of the oars the eight-oared crews of Wisconsin and Pennsylvania fought out to the last inch the most exciting boat race ever seen on the Hudson. Pennsylvania won, but so close were the sturdy oarsmen from the West at the finish that the thousands of spectators along the bank and on the pleasure craft and observation train were in doubt as to the winner until the signal of three gunes from the referee's boat proclaimed that the Quakers had triumphed in the great four-cornered aquatic struggle.

Choked a Mad Dog to Death.

Orange, N. J., June 28.—Andrew Archton, a Northfield farmer, drove into South Orange with a dead dog in his wagon. Archton said that on the mountain the dog, which had caused a mad gog scare among the farmers, attacked him and his horse, and he had fought with it for half an hour before he succeeded in lassoing the animal. He then tied it behind the wagon, whipped up his horse and chocked the dog to death.

Pingree's Plan "in the Air."

Detroit, June 28.—The plans of Governor Pingree and his associates for municipal ownership and operation of Detroit street railways were left "in the air" by the Common Council. The two pending ordinances and other matter appertaining to the municipal ownership scheme were laid on the table by unanimous votes, and it is problematical when these questions will be again publicly debated.

Canal as a Power Route.

Albany, June 28.—Superintendent of Public Works Partridge granted permission to the Hudson River Power Transmission Company to erect poles and string wires along the canal from Mechanicsville to Albany at its own coast and expense, with the proviso that the state be allowed to string telephone wires on the same poles if it so desires.

Triple Lynching in Alabama.

Birmingham, Ala., June 28.—Word has been brought here that four negroes have been lynched by a mob of farmers at Adamsville. It was at first reported that one man had been killed by the mob, but afterward the news came that three others had been caught, and that they, too, had been dealt with summarily.

Only One Was Drowned.

Columbus, Ga., June 28.—The dispatch received here regarding the sinking of the steamer Apalachee was greatly exaggerated. Only one man, a negro deckhand, was drowned. The boilers did not explode as the boat went down and there was not over 20 passengers an board.

Blaze Caused by Fireworks.

Plainfield, N. J., June 28.—The first fire attributed to fireworks occurred here, when a combination of a small boy and a Chinese crackers started a blaze in the barn of George Kirch. In attempting to rescue his horse from the barn Mr. Kirch was badly burned about the face and arms.

Ex-Confederate Reunion.

Clinton, Mo., June 28.—Major General Robert McCulloch of the United Confederate Veterans has appointed Major Harvey W. Salmon of Clinton, Ark., chairman of the committee to select a place for holding the annual reunion.

Buffalo Strikers Give In.

Buffalo, June 28.—The strike of the freight handlers along the wharfs, which has been in progress for several weeks, has been declared off, and the men have returned to dork.

Yellow Fever at Lancaster.

Lancaster, Pa., June 28.—Dr. M. L. Chadman has reported to the Board of Health that a four-year-old girl, living on East Frederick street, was suffering from yellow fever.

WHICH FOOT WALKS FASTER

One Leg Will Invariably Take a Longer Stride Than the Other.

You may think this is a very silly question to ask, but is it? There is no catch about it. It is a simple, demonstrable fact, which you can prove to your own satisfaction in a very few minutes.

If you will take any pavement that is clear of other pedestrians, so that there shall be no interference, and walk briskly in the centre, you will find that before you have gone a hundred yards you will have veered very much to one side. You must not make any conscious effort, of course, to keep in the centre, or you may do it, but if you will think of something and endeavor to walk naturally it is a hundred to one you cannot keep a direct line.

The explanation of this lies in the peculiarity of one foot to walk faster than the other. Or, to be more correct, perhaps it should be said that one leg takes a longer stride than the other, and this, combined with the quicker movement, causes one to walk more to one side than the other.

It is well known, for instance, that if one be lost in the woods the tendency is to walk in a circle and eventually to return about to the starting point. This demonstrates the fact also that one foot walks faster than the other.

You can try an interesting experiment in this way if you will place two stakes in the lawn, about eight feet apart, and then stand off about sixty feet from them, allow yourself to be blindfolded, and endeavor to walk between them. You will find it an almost impossible task, because one foot will go a bit faster than the other, either to the right or left. Now, which one of your feet walks faster than the other?

The Supply of Babies.

It has been computed that about 36,000,000 babies are born into the world each year. The rate of production is, therefore, about seventy per minute, or more than one for every beat of the clock.

With the one-a-second calculation every reader is familiar, but it is not every one who stops to calculate what this means when it comes to a year's supply. It, will, therefore, probably startle a good many persons to find, on the authority of a well known statistician, that, could the infants of a year be ranged in line in cradles, the cradles would extend around the world.

The same writer looks at the matter in a more picturesque light. He imagines the babies carried past a given point in their mother's arms, one by one, and the process being kept up night and day until the last hour in the twelfth month had passed by. A sufficiently liberal rate is allowed, but even in going past at the rate of twenty a minute, 1,200 an hour during the entire year, the reviewer at his post would have seen only the sixth part of the infantile host.

In other words, the babe that had to be carried when the tramp began would be able to walk when but a mere fraction of its comrades had reached the reviewer's post, and when the year's supply of babies was drawing to a close there would be a rear guard, not of infants, but of romping six-year-old boys and girls.

Trust Capitalization.

A list of trusts and combinations in trade organized since January 1st, 1898, has been made by the Boston "Investor." There are 487 concerns in the lists, representing $1,628,706,900 of preferred stock, $5,742,076,483 of common stock and a total capitalization of $7,370,783,383, which is over a billion more than the capital of the manufacturing establishments in the United States in the year 1890 as reported by the federal census that year. This leads the Newark Advertiser to say truthfully: "The merest tyro knows that this capitalization of $7,370,783,383 isn't all money actually invested. Nearly all the common stock is water, and probably also is a considerable per cent. of the preferred stock. At least two-thirds of the capitalization represents prospective advantages and profits to result from combination and monopoly."

It would be well for the merchant to remember his advertisements, says the Philadelphia Record. Each day that he advertises in a newspaper which circulates extensively he may be considered to be in conference with his patrons. Not having them before him at the moment, he uses the advertising columns in order to tell them what he wants them to know; and if he tells it in a proper manner his information and suggestions will be heeded, to the advantage of his customers and himself. Naturally, an abundant show of confidence ought to characterize the business announcements by which the clever and discerning tradesman puts himself into direct communication with the purchasing public.

GENERAL LAWTON AND THE OPERATIONS IN CAVITE.
The province of Cavite, south of Manila, has been the seat of late operations in the Philippines under General Lawton and there has been considerable hard fighting, the most stubbornly contested battle being at the Zapote river. The insurgents were defeated and driven farther into the interior, where they are said to have a large force.

The announcement made yesterday that the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company will locate their shops between Elizabeth and Newark, together with the fact that the Singer Sewing Machine Company proposes to greatly increase their already large force, as well as having other manufacturing concerns in prospect, ought to mean great things in an industrial line for Elizabeth. It is a pity that Plainfield cannot come in for a share of the good industrial plums.

"Christian Science" has aroused the medical profession, and the fraternity in Pennsylvania is about to take steps to place the practice under the ban of the criminal law. The Philadelphia Press says: "The law is explicit, the issue clear. It is for the doctors and the District Attorneys to act for the protection of the public. Academic discussion has gone as far as it can; the time for action has come."

For several years it has been the practice of the city to appropriate about $50 every Fourth of July to pay volunteer firemen for standing ready to answer calls for fire protection at any hour of the day. Under the present system of paid call men this sum will be saved hereafter, as every member of the fire department will be compelled to do this work without extra compensation.

Good for five years, and worth $2,000 every twelve months, is it any wonder that the County Clerkship is much sought after by those who would serve the dear public?

The fact that Governor Pingree is bunking in with Secretary Alger only again emphasizes the truth of the saying that "politics make queer bedfellows."

That Union county would retire a Cross for a Roll in the highest Legislative body of the State does not seem probable. But nothing is improbable in politics.

Well, a week from today the glorious Fourth will be but a noisy memory.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

The newspapers of Elizabeth, Plainfield and Rahway should bear in mind that the city of Summit is in Union county, and is the fourth city of importance and population, and that also that when the time comes to present nominations for members of the next Legislature Summit will in all probability have a candidate to name for Assembly.—Summit Herald.

Charles S. Tunis, of Monmouth county, has been designated by the director of the census as supervisor of the Fourth Census District of this State. Included in the district are the counties of Middlesex, Somerset, Union and Hunterdon. Mr. Tunis is a gentleman of character and capacity, and is withal a staunch Republican. He has had experience in business affairs and will make a courteous and painstaking official.—Unionist-Gazette.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

The Jersey Central ferryboat Plainfield spent twenty-four minutes in getting into her slip at the foot of Liberty street last evening, with several Plainfielders aboard. She got there finally after making a series of social calls at most of the piers in the neighborhood, and her passengers, who had wasted a large amount of energy in advising the pilot how to run a ferryboat and what kind of a ferryboat to run, went ashore. A few of them had lost trains, and more had lost their tempers. The Plainfield is an old offender.

* * * * *

Plainfield's fame as a manufacturing city has become not only national but also international. The products of this city are now shipped to all parts of the world. Among the fortunate business men who have recently been honored is D. W. Littell, the North avenue plumber, who has just filled an order for goods for South America. The contract called for two thousand square feet of improved standing tin roofing. The goods were shipped today by the Panama Steamship line to L. Mollindo, Pern, South America. After reaching Pern the goods are transported over the mountains to their destination which requires about 60 days to make the journey. The reputation Mr. Littell has gained for first-class goods is indeed most flattering to him.

CONNECTICUT HOTEL RULES.

The following set of rules and general notices is posted in a hotel in a small Connecticut town:

RULES FOR HOTEL GUESTS.

Board $50 per week—meals extra.

Guests are requested not to speak to the dumb waiter.
Guests wishing to get up without being called can have self-rising flour for supper.
The hotel is surrounded by a beautiful cemetery. Hearses to hire, 25 cents a day.
Guests wishing to do a little driving will find a hammer and nails in the closet.
If the room gets too warm open the windows and see the fire escape.
If you are fond of athletics and like good jumping, lift the mattress and see the bed spring.
If your lamp goes out take a feather out of the pillow; that's light enough for any room.
Any one troubled with night mare will find a halter on the bed post.
Don't worry about paying your bill, the house is supported by a foundation.

He Fooled the Surgeons.

All doctors told Reniek Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on earth, and the best Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

—H. G. Runkle, of Plainfield, is one of the directors of the Mount Kisco Lighting Company, whose certificate of incorporation was filed last Saturday. The company is capitalized at $20,000, and its duration is fifty years. Its operations will be in Westchester county, N. Y.

DOES COFFEE AGREE WITH YOU?

If not, drink Grain-O—made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I made Grain-O I did not like it but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee." It nourishes and feeds the system. The children can drink it freely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a package today from your grocer, follow the directions in making it and you will have a delicious and healthful table beverage for old and young. 15 and 25c.

Table Damask Sale.

This is not the season for a Sale of Table Linens, but when we are able to give such values as we shall offer for the next few days we feel justified in making this sale. A large Importing house about to move was anxious to dispose of as much stock as possible to avoid moving same. The remarkably low prices quoted for very desirable goods induced us to buy very heavily, and we now find ourselves in a position to offer the people of this community such Bargains in Table Damask as they never dreamed of. The lot comprises some inconceivably choice 72 in Bleached Damask in the most attractive designs.

There are also many exceptionally good half-bleached German Damasks made to stand hard service. They will bleach very quickly and wear interminably.

THIS SALE is one of supreme importance to all thrifty housekeepers who wish to "stock up" with little expense.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, June 28—Rev. A. I. Martine, pastor of the Presbyterian church, preached a sermon last Sunday in which he called attention to the young people patronizing a certain dance hall which is being conducted on Front street. The minister is alleged to have affirmed that the place was the resort of young boys and girls of questionable character and that it was not much better than some of the places in the Bowery, which the police of New York had made a feeble effort to suppress. The young man who keeps the dance hall to which Rev. Mr. Martine evidently referred, has taken exceptions to the statements alleged to have been made and has consulted a lawyer with reference to bringing an action against the clergyman for libel. Harry Milligan, who conducts the place, denies that his dance hall is the resort of men or women of questionable character. Rev. Mr. Martine's sermon seems to have stirred up a hornet's nest.

There was shipped to Senator John R. McLean, at Washington, D. C., today, a rustic bridge, which was made by the Suburban Equipment Co., of New York. The bridge is to be put upon the Senator's handsome place in that city. The bridge cost about $50.

After July 1st the Dunellen postoffice will become a salaried office. The salary which the new postmaster, Adam Dealaman, will receive, will probably be about $1,100.

Letters for the following people remain uncalled for at the postoffice in this village: Henry Slater, Mrs. C. F. Randolph, Mrs. W. H. Harthey, John Capitulie.

The Watchung Water Co. is laying the final cross section of pipe on Washington avenue to connect with the water main.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary F. Randolph was held yesterday afternoon from the Friends' meeting-house in Plainfield.

Next Monday evening a grand ball will be given at the Avoca Villa.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, June 28—Hugh Bold, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bold, of Fanwood, seems to have a mania for running away. Friday he left home and when night came failed to return. Search was made for him around Fanwood and Scotch Plains, but no trace of him could be found. The father notified the police of Plainfield and surrounding towns and the search was kept up. He was finally found Monday and returned to his parents. Bold has done this several times, much to the annoyance and worry of his parents, and now his father is going to have him committed to the Reform School and see if he can get away from there as easily as he does from home.

Mrs. Brockway, of Brooklyn, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. William Gere, of Barth avenue.

Ernest Marsh, who has been confined to his home through illness, is reported as being very much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hoppell are entertaining Mrs. Hoppell's sister, Miss Trautman, of Wisconsin.

Miss Mary Westcott, of Fanwood, is spending two weeks with relatives and friends in Massachusetts.

Miss Rena Wagner, of Madison, is spending a few days with her cousins, the Misses Cook.

Mrs. Edward Emery and daughter, of Bayonne, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Emery.

Fanwood Council, R. A., held an interesting meeting in their rooms last evening.

Onward Council, L. A, held a regular meeting in their rooms last evening.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Westfield, June 28.—Chandler W. Riker, president of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railroad Company and Col. E. Hine, secretary of the same company, were in town yesterday looking over the line of the proposed trolley to Plainfield and Elizabeth. Both gentlemen contradicted the statement that their company had come to an understanding with John Kean and that the two companies would likely unite.

Drake's celebrated band of Elizabeth will be at Westfield all day on the Fourth of July. They will furnish music for the parade in the morning and the afternoon and evening will give band concerts on a grand stand to be erected on the Ferris lawn, corner Broad and Elm streets.

Crop Report.

Weather Observer Naegle's crop report for the past week is as follows: "Showers of 20th and 24th helpful, but not sufficient rainfall for all crops; wheat down, and in bad shape for cutting, on account of weevil; pasture so short so short that cattle are being fed on hay; rainfall, 0.81 inch."

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help, but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion build up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by L. W. Randolph, druggist. Guaranteed.

BOYNTON BEACH.

THERE IS ONLY ONE
FOURTH OF JULY A YEAR.

It is a shame not to spend it where you are sure of a good time. There isn't another place in New Jersey where you can take your whole family and know that each one of them will have a good time.

Of course you know all about the comfortable shaded grounds, the cool seats on the veranda overlooking the water, the boating, naptha launch rides, bowling and bathing.

Maybe you have never heard the

composed of five fine musicians. It will furnish the music on the FOURTH.

Dancing, as usual, will be one of the chief pleasures.

The Diving Dock for swimmers, so popular last season, continues to draw crowds.

Fishing we put at the last, but it may be the only amusement you care about. Never mind, "There are others" just like you. Here's a quiet tip. The weak fish are running well now. You can have a glorious day catching them while your wife and children picnic.

Be Sure and Bring Your Family With You.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that their is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

—A special communication of Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., will be held Wednesday evening, July 5th, to confer the F. C. degree on one candidate. Other business of importance will also be considered.

—Sharpers must think residents of Richwood are easy, as two have been taken in recently. A wheelman, who pleaded that he was "broke," palmed off a pair of 15 cent spectacles on a sympathizer for $2, and another farmer took the agency to sell a tree trimmer, and signed his name to the agreement, which turned up on Saturday as a promissory note for $20.

ALL SORTS OF MEN.

Why does a man seldom meet another man smarter than himself?

Men who at heart are the most romantic pretend to the last not to be.

The man who thinks of his last end, financially, will not be in a hurry to reach it.

The nobleman who has pride of birth or birth to be proud of will not marry for money.

The man who never has lied must have endured many painful intervals of silence.

When a man says that nobody cares whether he lives or dies, he isn't advertising himself very well.

The laborer who is worthy of his hire naturally resents any but a business view of his relations to his employer.

The man who is contented may be all right in himself and in the bosom of his family, but he is not in the procession.

The man who professes religion in season and out of season is as good as anybody else, so long as he behaves himself.

The experienced patrolman who keeps up a speaking acquaintance with the ex-convicts on his beat is neither an interested student nor a sympathetic friend, but an armed neutral.

The farmer who admires the agent's graphic description of the new-fangled article is not without a feeling of pity for the people who know so little about the gullibility of the rural population.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

No girl believes in long engagements who can get a short one.

He who would be the master of Love must first become his servant.

A woman always has a lot of sympathy for a man who pretends he hasn't any for himself.

The average girl has an idea that when a man is in love with her he always talks about her to his dog.

A man feels sort of queer when he hears that the woman he was once engaged to is going to get a divorce.

When two men quarrel one of them is wrong; when two women quarrel both of them are.

What God and the angels do not understand about human nature is known only to the women.

At the bottom of half of the married trouble in the world is a nagging wife, and at the bottom of the other half is an indulgent husband.

For the first six months the average married man wonders how his wife ever came to do it; for the next six he wonders how he ever came to do it himself.

SOME WISE SAYINGS.

When men grow virtuous in their old age they are merely making a sacrifice to God of the devil's leavings.—Swift.

He whose first emotion, on the view of an excellent production, is to undervalue it, will never have one of his own to show.—Aikin.

Creditors have better memories than debtors; and creditors are a superstitious sect, great observers of set days and times.—Franklin.

For the credit of virtue it must be admitted that the greatest evils which befall mankind are caused by their crimes.—La Rochefucauld.

We ought in humanity no more despise a man for the misfortunes of the mind than for those of the body, when they are such as he cannot help.—Pope.

Consolation indiscreetly pressed upon us when we are suffering under affliction, only serves to increase our pain, and to render our grief no more poignant.—Rosseau.

HOME OF MRS. GRANT

AN ELEGANT RESIDENCE OF MASSACHUSETTS AVE., WASHINGTON.

Senator Edmunds Used to Call the Dwelling She Now Occupies His "Little Cottage"—Mrs. Grant in Good Health—Proud of Her Sons.

About the time that Mr. Richard Olney was moving from the office of Attorney General under President Cleveland into the office of Secretary of State, and when he was living on Massachusetts Avenue, beyond Twenty-first Street, in a house built by Senator Edmunds, at a time when he supposed that he was to remain a member of the Senate for many years, Mrs. Julia D. Grant, the widow of Gen. Ulysses S. Grant, called upon the Olney family. Upon entering the house she saw at once, upon the wall near the door, a portrait of Gen. Grant, and soon after, while she was enjoying the sunlight that poured into the drawing room windows, she found another excellent portrait of the same subject. She was looking for a home in Washington. The location of this house its liberality of arrangement, its adaptability to the uses to which Mrs. Grant expected to put her home, together with the agreeable impression made by the discovery of the two portraits so interesting to her, helped Mrs. Grant to determine that this was the house she had been looking for, and here she would make her home for the rest of her days. She bought it and has since lived in it.

MRS. U. S. GRANT.

Senator Edmunds used to call the dwelling in which Mrs. Grant now lives his "little cottage." Well, it is a house lacking in pretense, but it is not small. About fifty feet in breadth it reaches well back on the lot, and rises three stories to a roof that slopes toward the front. It is a modern house, having its central doorway on the the ground floor instead of by the once-favored high stoop. The lower windows are barred against intrusion by stout iron guards of ornamental pattern. The material is brick, with stone trimmings; there is no excess of decorative features, and the windows, excepting those in the corner tower at the west side, are large but not too numerous.

The outer sliding doors of glass open upon a vestibule, and inner doors admit to the wide hall lined with oak.

Just in the rear of the library is a commodious and cheerful apartment, finished in polished wood of light color, which is used as the breakfast-room. The two windows give to the north and overlook a good neighborhood, and the cheerful interior is made attractive by a wide fireplace in which a blazing fire often contributes a home-like coziness to the room. The rooms at the left and back are put to various domestic uses.

THE HOME OF MRS. U. S. GRANT IN WASHINGTON.

Half way to the rear of the first floor a stairway leads to the west and to a landing a few steps up, then turns and, with a second flight, reaches the main room. This is a large room, facing on Massachusetts Avenue, and adjoining it and scarcely separated from it by an open door and portiere, is a second parlor, which is Mrs. Grant's own room. Here she passes much of her time, surrounded by interesting mementoes of her husband, the gifts of many friends and admirers. Both these apartments are handsomely furnished. In the large drawing room are curtains and vases and fans, and other objects of an artistic character that were presented by the Emperor and Empress of Japan, the Chinese Emperor, and by other notable people at home or abroad. A large portrait in oil of Gen Grant by Healy hangs in a conspicuous place. Mrs. Grant says it is a good likeness of her husband. In an opposite corner is another portrait. Strangers seeing it for the first time at once remark upon the youthfulness of this profile portrait of the younger Ulysses S., and not of the father. The profile likeness is startling. Over the mantle is a framed medallion, in bronze, carrying the superimposed heads in relief of Washington, Lincoln, and Grant, with the inscription below "Pater, 1787—Salvator, 1865—Custodius, 1872." in a scroll below the portraits.

Mrs. Grant is in good health and in excellent spirits. She follows closely the movements of her sons and is proud of them. She declares that she never could understand politics, and that Gen. Grant never would tell her enough about them to enable her to comprehend their meaning. She refers without a trace of apparent resentment to the fact that Jesse has "turned Democrat."

NEW SHIRT WAISTS.

Novel Variation of This Garment to Which Women Cling.

Never in my recollection has there been a fashion so long in vogue as that of the shirt waist. And it shows no signs yet of failing to keep its place. Young and old, rich and poor, wear shirt waists, and wear them at all times and in all places.

Simply the changing of cotton ones for silk makes them fit for any but the dressiest occasions. Shirt waists even do not seem to be out of place in the summer in church, though they naturally are of modest color, most often of black pongee or taffeta.

The shape and make vary as much as ever. There are so many different ideas that one's hair would turn gray from old age ere the half could be told. But I noticed a few the other day, and these have the merit of novelty.

One new design has the waist laid in round box plaits to the yoke. This style is prettiest in chambray, linen, pique or dimity in solid color and is made to wear with white cuffs and collar and a leather belt. The yoke is cut to fit the shoulders, and there is a high self collar, over which the white one is to be worn, turned down. The yoke is pointed in the back, and the box plaits are laid in the same way.

A black and white striped cotton crepon had plain inch wide plaits laid down the front. The whole was bloused with a short yoke in the back. The collar and cuffs were of the same. There were a cardinal satin tie at the neck and a heavy cardinal belt with Roman gold buckle. The cuffs were shirt sleeve shape, but with short turned up cuffs of the same at the edge. The simplicity of this made its superior style.

A mohair blouse waist was also called a shirt waist. It was of very dark gray and simply gathered in at the waist. A yoke and caps to the sleeves were made of Bulgarian embroidery in dark red, blue and cream, the work done directly on the material. The only way this can be done is to have a piece of canvas with loose mesh basted over the material. The cross stitch work is then done through both materials, the stitches not drawn very tight. When the pattern is wrought, the linen canvas threads are pulled out, and that leaves the work on the material in high relief. It is quite effective and has an oriental air very pleasing.

Where one wants a washable waist which shall also be dressy and elaborate, one of the line gray and white and pink striped zephyrs is just right. The sleeves have turned up cuffs, and the collar is high and has one portion turned over. Down the front are three flat plaits, between which are two insets made of tucks and fine torchon lace, set on horizontally. This, however elaborate it looks, is to be ironed flat and the lace picked up afterward.

White linen of rather heavy quality was used to make another. This had a stitched plait down the center, with several narrow tucks on each side, leaving spaces, filled in with diagonal tucks, with insertions made of Deimel linen mesh. The effect is very fine, and it shows its value. A high collar with black or red tie belongs with it.

Another mannish shirt waist is of blue and gray madras, the stripes running crosswise. It is laid in folds from top to bottom. A collar and cuffs of the same add to its masculine appearance.

Aside from these new ideas, there are many dainty, crisp waists of white, blue, nile, cream, pink and yellow taffeta, all as crisp as piecrust. These cost ready made all the way from $5 to $50, according to the manner of making and trimming. Some of them have the whole front covered with narrow ruffles of fine ribbon. Others have lace.

Many of the fine waists are made with the queerest shoulders. Where the sleeve is set in the shoulder slopes down almost to the armpit. Some of them are cut so that the fronts, back and upper part of the sleeve are all on one picee with no shoulder seam at all. This style cannot be cut in anything but firm and yet flexible wool, all in one color, and without up or down, like cashmere.

HENRIETTE ROUSSEAU.

Not all American girls abroad are seeking titles. Miss Della Rogers of Denver, heiress to one of the great fortunes of the west, has rejected an offer of marriage from Prince Ghika of Roumania.

Mrs. John B. Henderson, wife of former Senator Henderson, and Miss Elvora Bucknum, the lecturer on hygienic food, are collaborating on a book to be called "The School For Twentieth Century Cooking."

At Queen Victoria's last drawing room three charming American girls were presented to her majesty. They were Miss Mary Stillman, Miss Edith Jennings and Miss Osborne, daughter of Consul General Osborne.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Aus der Rheinpfalz.

Frankenthal. Die Strafkammer verurtheilte den Kesselschmied Peter Brenner aus Flomersheim wegen versuchter Gefährdung eines Eisenbahntransportes zu sechs Monaten Gefängniß. Brenner hat, um dafür Rache zu nehmen, daß die Tochter des Weichenstellers Seidenspinner in Flomersheim seine Bewerbungen um ihre Hand zurückwies, die von dem Vater des Mädchens bediente Weiche verstellt, so daß der früh Morgens gegen 6 Uhr von Weisenheim nach Frankenthal gehende Arbeiterzug hätte zur Entgleisung gebracht werden müssen. Wäre die falsche Stellung der Weiche nicht noch in den Nachtstunden wahrgenommen worden, würde ein furchtbares Unglück ganz unvermeidlich gewesen sein.

Lambsheim. In den Flammen umgekommen ist bei einem Schadenfeuer das fünfjährige Mädchen des Jakob Maaß.

Kirchheimbolanden. Zur Erinnerung an die 1849 im Kampfe um die Reichsverfassung in einem Gefecht mit den vom Prinzen Wilhelm von Preußen, dem nachmaligen ersten Deutschen Kaiser, geführten preußischen Truppen in Kirchheimbolanden gefallenen Freischärler des rheinhessischen Freikorps fand hier am 1. Juni, als dem 50. Gedenktag des Kampfes, eine große Erinnerungsfeier statt.

Neustadt. Hier fand im Saalbau die Hauptversammlung des Bundes der Landwirthe für die Pfalz statt. Lucke-Patershausen erstattete den Jahresbericht über die süddeutschen Abtheilungen. Der Mitgliederstand war großen Schwankungen unterworfen, ist aber jetzt fast auf gleicher Stufe wie im Vorjahr.

Württemberg.

Stuttgart. Der in der Generalversammlung des hiesigen Exportmusterlagers erstattete 17. Jahresbericht konstatirt einen lebhafteren Geschäftsgang als in den letzten Jahren, insbesondere als in dem Jahre 1897; die Summe der verkauften Waaren steigerte sich um mehr als 100,000 Mark. Die bedeutende Zunahme des Umsatzes ist insbesondere der Anknüpfung neuer Geschäftsverbindungen in Ostasien und Australien zu verdanken. Die Zahl der Käufer war eine geringere als in den Vorjahren, doch stellt sich die Gesammtzahl der Aufträge mit 2540 im letzten Jahre höher, als in den beiden vorhergegangenen, wo sie 2433 und 2328 ausmachte. Verluste kamen nicht vor, da an dem Prinzip der Kassenregulirung festgehalten wurde. Die Besucher und Aufträge vertheilen sich auf eine große Zahl von Städten der ganzen Welt.

Blaubeuren. Der Kaufmann und Gemeinderath Wilhelm Ehni besuchte kürzlich gesund und munter das gegenwärtig hier im Gasthofe zur „Post" weilende Theater. Am Schluß der Vorstellung fiel derselbe todt vom Stuhle; ein Schlag hatte dem 57jährigen kräftigen Mann plötzlich den Tod gebracht.

Heilbronn. Bei Groß-Gartach wurde die Lehrerin Fräulein Gilbert aus Konstanz auf dem Wege zur Bahn von einem Strolch angefallen und, als sie sich zur Wehre setzte, niedergestochen. Der Thäter wurde festgenommen; es ist der 35 Jahre alte Bierbrauer Vogel aus Habelbach in Niederbayern. Er stellte sich tobsüchtig.

Stockheim. Eine eigenthümliche und zugleich komische Mißbildung aus der Thierwelt ist gegenwärtig auf dem Stocksberg zu sehen. Ein junges Entlein watschelt mit vier ganz deutlich ausgebildeten Füßen munter durch den Hof. Die beiden überzähligen Beine sind weiter nach hinten stehend und auch etwas kleiner gebildet, so daß das Thier dieselben beim Gehen nicht direkt benützt, sondern sich nur in der Ruhe darauf stützt.

Ulm. Das Münsterbaukomite hat dieser Tage den Plan für die Bau- und Restaurirungsarbeiten des laufenden Jahres festgestellt; dabei ergab sich, daß der Münsterbaufonds noch etwa 670,000 Mark beträgt. Der Jahresetat 1899 bis 1900 der evangelischen Gesammtkirchengemeinde zeigt Einnahmen 62,814 Mark, Ausgaben 62,481 Mark, somit einen Ueberschuß von 332 Mark.

GRANDMA AND I.

My grandma talks of the "good old days"
To me and my little broher Ben;
But if you won't tell, I'll whisper to you
That I'm awfully glad I didn't live then.

My grandma's doll couldn't shut her eyes,
For, you see, they were only daubs of paint,
And her hair was made of raveled yarn,
I tell you, I'm glad that my dolly's ain't!

Such funny books as they used to have,
And the pictures weren't pretty a single bit:
The old New England primer was one—
I guess you'd laugh if you looked at it.

There weren't any furnaces in church,
And sometimes grandma would almost freeze
And she says, when she was a child like me,
She never had seen any Christmas trees.

My grandma is dear, and wise, and good,
And I love her a lot, but anyhow,
I think that the good new times are the best,
And I'm glad that Benny and I live now.

HINTS ON RUNNING.

Alvin Kraenzlein Tells How to Become a Record Breaker.

Alvin C. Kraenzlein, who made a new world's record in the running broad jump, has this to say regarding his wonderful powers as an athlete:—

"From the time when I was a very small youngster I was very fond of athletic sports of all kinds, but at that time there were plenty of boys that could beat me in short and long distance running. I determined to make a study of running, and become the fastest runner in the school. In the first place I read a number of hints given by trainers, and these I adopted as much as was possible. To begin with I was always careful to take care of myself, and I never ruined my lungs with tobacco or my stomach with coffee every morning.

"My training at this time was very simple, but I think very effective. Each morning and night I used to go through the setting up exercises that are used at West Point, which almost every one knows and which so very few practice. Personally I believe these exercises to be the best kind of a home gymnasium it is possible to have, and some of my records, perhaps, may be directly attributed to them. Gradually I kept on running and practising, until I was acknowledged the fastest runner in the school, and I am sure that I felt more proud of this distinction than I have ever any of my later records.

"If you are going to quote me as to my methods, I won't know where to begin, but first of all I would advise any young boy to get his body and mind so that they will work together at all times. By this I mean that the true runner or jumper depends upon his head quite as much as his legs, for the fastest runner when rattled is beaten before the race begins. Another thing, you want to cultivate confidence in your abilities. Go into the race with the idea of winning, and if you lose, have it because the other man could run faster and, what is more, admit it.

"This same admission may be up to him in the future, and you will enjoy your victory more because you had to work and wait for it. Begin your practising by light running, allowing plenty of development for your lungs. Don't strain yourself at the start, but try to build up a physique and acquire a method of running that can be relied upon when you are in a race. Keep your stomach in good order. More races are lost from a bad stomach than poor legs. Add to this good American sand and faithful and conscientious practice and you may find yourself a world's champion some day."

A Zoological Comedy.

MR. MOUSE.

"With fright I feel I'm turning——,
I wonder what has got my ——!"

MRS. BIRD.

"Although it may resist and——,
I mean to have this splendid——!"

Times Had Improved.

Said an exasperated father at the dinner table: "You children turn up your noses at everything on the table. When I was a boy, I was glad to get enough dry bread to eat."

"I say, pa, you are having a much better time of it now you are living with us, ain't you?" remarked little Tommy.

A little 4-year-old occupied an upper berth in the sleeping car of the Scotch express. Awakening once in the middle of the night his mother asked him if he knew where he was. "Course I do," he replied, "I'm in the top drawer."

No bird can fly backward without turning. The dragon fly, however, can do this, and can outstrip the swallow in speed.

SLATE TRICK EXPOSED

The Writing Tests Are Very Simply Performed.

The easiest trick at the wonderful "slate writing tests" is done very simply. After both sides of the slate have been cleaned, the false flap is dropped on to the table, the side which is then uppermost being covered with cloth similar to the table top, where it will remain unnoticed, or the flap is allowed to fall into a second slate with which the first is covered. In the latter case no cloth is pasted on the flap. Sometimes the flap is covered with a piece of newspaper and is allowed to drop into a newspaper lying on the table, then the newspaper containing the flap is carelessly removed, thus doing away with any trace of trickery.

ORDINARY SLATE WITH FLAP.

Another scheme is to have the writing put on an ordinary slate, then covered with thin silk of the same color. It is fastened at the corner with wax. A thin string is secured under it and fastened to the opposite wrist of the "medium." He extends his arm, the string draws the covering into his sleeve and the slate is passed around for inspection.

Still another method is to obtain a piece of cloth painted with a kind of paint known as liquid slating, which, when dry and hard, is for all the world like the real article. This cloth is twice the length of the slate and just the exact width. The two ends of the cloth are united with cement, so as to make an endless piece or loop. There is a small rod or roller in both the top and bottom pieces of the frame, the ends being made hollow to receive them. Over these rollers runs the cloth, stretched firmly and tightly. Just where the cloth is joined or cemented is a little black button or stud of hard rubber or leather. This allows the cloth to be pushed up and down, bringing the back to the front; and by doing so quickly the writing which is written on the cloth at the rear of the frame is made to come to the front in plain view.

City vs. Country Boys.

The city-bred boy, and we are referring to the great majority, goes to regular labor at so early an age that the laws of nearly every State contain restrictions upon his employment until he has attained a certain age. Yet no one believes, who has taken the trouble to investigate, that these laws are strictly observed. Let any one stand in the vicinity of large shops and factories just before business commences, or at the close of working hours, and see the large numbers of very young boys, and girls too, supposed to be over 14 years of age but who are evidently one or two years younger, who work six days in the week, and from eight to ten hours a day, and he will begin to understand what the average boy in the city has to go through before his attendance at school should have ceased.

Very few city boys remain at school longer than necessary to pass through the first eight grades of the common school, and may never reach that point before they are compelled to leave and begin their life's labor. In this place they pay more attention than usual to the education of the young, with factory inspection to prevent the employment of boys and girls under 14 years of age, and a compulsory school law, yet not two-birds of the pupils ever reach the eighth grade of the common schools, and less than 10 per cent of those who attend the common schools ever enter the high schools of the city.

The struggle for existence begins four or five years earlier in the city than in the country. The average country boy attends school longer, has more leisure time, lives better, and has to consider much less the question of existence than the great mass of city boys. We know this to be the case from actual observation. Then the country boy, when he goes to work, is not driven as the average boy in the shop or factory is. As for the strength and powers of endurance of the two classes, it is developed much earlier in the city than in the country boy. The strong men of the country are to be found in the great machine shops, foundries, blacksmith shops, etc., as the result of continuous and extraordinary physical exertion. The farmer has less muscle, but better health and a stronger constitution.

The boy on the farm, and the man, too, have more liberty, less worry, sounder health, and their labor is less exacting than if they were living in the city. The boy who leaves the farm to have an easier time will surely meet with disappointment. It is true the city offers greater opportunities to the ambitious and enterprising than the country, but the price for them is health, peace and mind, and length of years is a high one and is sure to be exacted.—St. Louis Republic.

"I feel like a store with a bargain sale," groaned Tommy, as he approached from the pantry, the immediate surroundings of his mouth being a suspicious dark red.

"What's the matter, my dear?"

"Jam inside."

A BRAVE OFFICER KILLED.

Lieutenant Garesche Ord First Furnished the Generals on San Juan Creek Definite Information Concerning Location of the Enemy—A Hero Living a Hero Dead—Bravest of the Brave.

A great round moon rose slowly over the treetops and cast soft, long shadows over that seeming solitude of death. I climbed the hill of San Juan, sad and heavy hearted, to look for the body of my "bunkie," Lieutenant Garesche Ord. For seven weeks we had lived in the same tent in Tampa, and for over a week had shared the hardships and fatigue of the Cuban campaign together. On the morning of the last day of his life he came to me in the creek bottom of San Juan River, as the men of General Hawkins' brigade were marching through to go into action, and with a happy, joyous laugh, begotten of the excitement and the martial spirit which imbued him, he slapped me on the back and said, in a stage whisper, "Bunkie, old man, I'll come out of this either a Colonel or a corpse!" I shook hands with him and wished him good luck, and, as he left me, called after him, "Be careful, Garry."

Poor Garry! I found him that night, lying in the white, pure moonlight, fast asleep, with his head pillowed on his arm, and I imagined, as I patted his face in a fond farewell, that the same old boyish smile rested there. He lay on the furthest Spanish trench of the San Juan hill, dead, killed by the hand of a wounded Spanish soldier in the trench. It seems that Ord was many yards in advance in that wondrous charge up the hill, and that as he stood on the edge of the trench, he turned and shouted to the men that followed, "Don't shoot the wounded men. Make them prisoners," and at the same instant he fell by a pistol shot from the hands of the very man whose life he attempted to save.

Too high a tribute cannot be paid to this gallant fellow—there were many that day who deserved as much. He knew no sense of fear. His highest aim in life was to support a widowed sister—widowed by the loss of her soldier husband at Wounded Knee—and to emulate the historic military career of his famous father, General Ord.

It was Ord who furnished the Generals who stood in San Juan Creek with the first definite information as to the position of the enemy in front of them. He climbed a high tree and reported to General Hawkins from this lookout point the location of the fort, the direction of the trenches, and the apparent force of the enemy. During the entire time he was under fire from the sharpshooters, but gave no evidence of the slightest trepidation.

It is related that Ord climbed two more trees in the death-trap jungle far to the left, where Hawkins' brigade was forcing its way to final charge, reporting each time valuable information. Ord's bravest act, the one which never will be forgotten by those who witnessed it, was the leading in the charge of a handful of the Sixteenth Infantrymen to the top of the hill. General Hawkins gave him permission to organize and get in possession for the final desperate assault some bodies of soldiers on the right who had become confused by their devious windings in the underbrush. He was next seen after the sounding of "Forward!" far in advance of the line, waving his men on in the charge. It was the unanimous opinion of officers and soldiers alike that to this young hero unquestionably belongs the honor of first scaling the intrenchments of San Juan. He lies buried on the hilltop, under two waving palms, rolled in a blanket—the soldier's coffin—promoted in the hearts of those who loved him to a rank far higher than the colonelcy he coveted—to the rank of a hero born, a hero dead.—Truth.

Got a Commission After All.

One enthusiastic guardsman in New York was holding a commission as a surgeon before the troops were ordered to camp. It was discovered when his command was ordered out that a surgeon was not called for and consequently he couldn't go as a commissioned officer. He didn't hesitate, but promptly enlisted as a private. His company went into camp and the physician pitched in and did duty as a private without any vain regrets for the commission that he had once held.

In this camp it was discovered one morning that an assistant surgeon was needed for one of the regiments. Thus far whenever a man of any profession or trade had been wanted the commanding officers had found him serving in some capacity in the Guard. So several officers started out to see if a physician could be found to act as assistant surgeon of their regiment. As they walked down the company streets one of them stopped, and pointing to a man in a uniform of a private, who was digging a trench around his tent, said:

"Well, this is funny! There is Dr. So-and-So dressed up as a private. Hello! Doctor, what are you doing here?"

"Digging," was the laconic response.

"But you are masquerading as a private."

"No masquerade about it," said the physician; "I am a private. I couldn't come any other way and I enlisted as a private two weeks ago. Now I'm here."

The physician then explained how he had lost his opportunity of being mustered in as a commissioned officer and why he had enlisted. There was no question as to his ability and a commission as assistant surgeon was promptly offered to him and accepted.

"That," said the officer, who tells the story, "is a fair sample of the temper of the guardsmen who volunteered."

THE SENSE OF TASTE.

Experiments That Have Brought Out Some Curious Discoveries.

Curious experiments by Prof. G. T. W. Patrick, of the University of Iowa, show that our ideas about the sense of taste have been all wrong. He experimented on an anosmic—that is, a person absolutely without the sense of smell. He experimented also on normal subjects, with most interesting results. His conclusions are as follows:

There are only four simple taste sensations, namely, sweet, bitter, sour and salt. It is said by some that there are only two, sweet and bitter. All other sensations which are commonly called tastes are complex results of sensations of smells, touch, temperature and sight. The means by which we distinguish almost all of our common food and drinks is not the sense of taste so much as it is the sense of smell, touch, temperature and sight.

All the fine differences by which we distinguish the various fruits, meats and drinks depend not upon taste at all, but upon these other senses. Pure sensations of taste add hardly more than a certain emotional element to the complex sensations. Sweet things we call "good" and bitter things we call "bad," while salt and sour add a certain piquancy, which is pleasing when not excessive.

A partial proof of these facts may be given by merely blindfolding the eyes and closing the nose and taking various kinds of foods and drinks into the mouth without swallowing them. It will then be found that it is quite impossible to distinguish many of the commonest foods and drinks. If the further precaution be taken to eliminate as much as possible the senses of touch and temperature upon the tongue by representing the material in liquid form or chopped into small bits, the results are still more striking.

It is always difficult to eliminate the sense of smell in normal subjects. Professor Patrick was able, however, by experimenting with a subject possessing no sense of smell whatever, and comparing the results with those obtained from normal subjects, to get more accurate results as to the more important part played by smell in distinguishing foods and drinks.

It is, of course, generally known that what is popularly mistaken for the taste of coffee, tea and wine is only their aroma or odor. By these experiments, however, it was shown that coffee and tea have a distinct taste, which is simply bitter and cannot be distinguished from a weak solution of quinine. A weak infusion of coffee or tea, however, cannot be distinguished from water.

Even with normal subjects, with the eyes and nose closed, twenty experiments with coffee gave the following results: It was called "coffee" once, "bitter" eleven times, "quinine" four times, "tea" three times and "milk" once.

In the recognition of foods and drinks, as well as in their enjoyment, the sense of sight plays a much more prominent part than is usually supposed. With normal subjects blindfolded it was found impossible to distinguish many of our common foods and drinks. Different kinds of meat and meat broths, as well as the different kinds of bread, were often confused.

One subject, a woman noted for her skill in cooking, made the following judgments: Raw potato chopped she called acorns; boiled pumpkin she said was something sweet and flat; fresh pear she called sweet berry slightly fermented; roast pork she called boiled beef; raw turnip, chopped, she called cabbage sweetened; raw apple was grape juice; roast trukey was called beef, and horseradish she said was something she had never tasted.

So Easy to Go Down Hill.

A recent traveler, in giving a description of his climbing Mount Popocatepetl, in Mexico, and visiting its crater, says that they were able to return from the top of the mountain to the snow-line in fifteen minutes, covering a distance which had required them six hours to ascend. One sees things like that often in common life. A man struggles for years to build up a good reputation for honesty and integrity among his fellow-men, and then in an unguarded hour he takes a fatal toboggan-slide that hurls him in a single act below where he began to climb twenty or thirty years ago. It is those who persevere unto the end who win the crown, and no one can afford to grow careless or to cease to be watchful against temptation.

Requested An American Tune.

A native merchant of Manila, while undergoing his last illness, expressed a desire to have "one of those beautiful American tunes" played at his funeral. He could not give its name, but a friend knew the tune he meant, and so the funeral passed on to the cemetery, the band playing "A hot time in the old town to-night."

The floor of the rotunda in the London coal exchange, where the merchants gather, is very unique. It is composed of inlaid woods, arranged in the form of a mariner's compass, within a border of Greek fret. Upwards of 4,000 pieces of wood are employed. Almost every British variety is included in this scheme of decoration.

When one receives an invitation to a wedding in Cairo, Egypt, it is an important event, because instead of being asked for a 10-minutes' church ceremony or a brief evening reception, the invitation reads for three days. There is feasting during all this time, and the house and street are liberally decorated with flags and lanterns.

The lord chancellor of England is never allowed, under any circumstances, to make a journey which involves a sea voyage, however short the passage. He is supposed to have the great seal in his immediate keeping, day and night, under all circumstances and its safety is not to be risked.

That plants when injured suffer from fever is a new discovery by a British botanist. Plants suffer in a similar manner to animals under like conditions. The rate of respiration increases and the temperature rises, reaching a maximum within twenty-four hours.

The wool on the back of a sheep is a shepherd's barometer. The curlier the wool the finer will be the weather.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—A handsome awning has been erected in front of Geo. Ralph's place on Somerset street.

—A large plate glass was broken in one of the store doors in the Heyniger building on Somerset street this morning. The cause of the accident was a guest of the wind.

—The complimentary concert at the Christian church, Grove street, to Rev. H. W. McKane, the pastor, to-morrow night promises to be one of the best of the season. Some of the best talent in the city will appear. M. A. Korff, violin; Herbert Herald, piano; Garrett C. Dunham, trombone; ladies' orchestra; Mrs. McKane and E. C. Martin will sing.

FELL BENEATH THE WHEELS.

A Little Fellow Run Over by a Wagon on Front Street.

A grandson of J. G. Burdick fell from the latter's delivery wagon on East Front street, near Whitney's store, about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The wheels of the vehicle passed over the boys side and upper portion of his body. He was picked up by Roundsman Flynn and taken to a nearby drug store, and from there to the office of Dr. Clawson who rendered medical aid. The boy was not seriously injured, and was able to be taken to his home. No bones were broken.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night, and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

The Boots are Not Mates.

Justice Mosher has reserved his decision in the case of Moses Benner, who is charged with wrongfully retaining a pair of rubbers boots belonging to Patsey Christmas. It developed at the trial yesterday that the boots recovered by the constable are not mates. Benner claimed he could not tell of whom he bought the boots. Attorney Hetfield appeared for the defendant and W. G. DeMeza for the complainant.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Walter Thorn, of Pennsylvania, is visiting his parents in this city.

Dr. F. M. Hallock leaves on Saturday for Lake Plains, N. Y., to be gone until September 1st.

Druggist Frank Rowley and wife witnessed the college boat races at Paughkeepsie, on Tuesday.

Miss Smalley, Miss Carrie Pangborn and Mrs. Wm. Campbell, of the borough, have been visiting Newark relatives.

Dr. Fred Hughes, of the borough will go to St. Vincent Hospital, New York, tomorrow, and make final arrangements for his work which he will commence on Monday next.

George Ryder, of East Front street, a graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, is spending a few days at his home prior to entering upon his duties at St. Vincent Hospital, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Newman, of Richman street, were called to Lakewood this morning owing to the very sudden death of Mr. Mr. Newman's brother in-law, Benjamin Everingham, of that place. Mr. Everingham has visited Plainfield a number of times and has many friends here.

Mrs. J. J. Hillhouse, Miss Adelaide D. Hillhouse and maid, who have been spending several months in the Chase residence on East Front street, sailed this morning on the American liner "St. Paul" to spend the summer in England and France. A party of Plainfield friends were at the dock to see them off.

Mrs. Joseph Rosso, of Pittsburg, Pa., left for home today after a very pleasant visit at the home of her cousin, I. A. Connett, of East Fifth street. Mrs. Rosso is a daughter of Matthew Connett, who many years ago was a resident of Alton, Middlesex county, but now living at Pine Bluff, Arkansas. This is Mrs. Rosso's first visit to Plainfield and she is in love with the beautiful city. While here she called on her aged grandmother, Mrs. Emily Connett, 92 years old, living at Scotch Plains, and had a delightful chat with her, never having seen her before.

MOUNTAINS OF COAL.

Largest Coal Storage Plant in the World is the Lehigh's.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company has never been so busy since the coal storage plant at South Plainfield was established as it has of late. It has been working the force of men day and night for a month past.

This is usually the slow season at the plant, and when the employes were looking for a lay-off their force was actually increased and a night gang was put on, more than doubling the labor.

The storage capacity is 310,000 tons, and this limit has been nearly reached. Coal has been coming to the plant in gondolas, jimmies, box cars and anything to haul it in, and coal is piled up at South Plainfield like a view of distant mountains.

A Mystery at New Brunswick.

The dead body of a man was found near New Brunswick yesterday. It was badly decomposed. The police suspect that the man was murdered. There was no means of identification. It was at first thought that the body might be that of a boy who escaped last February from the Reform School, but it is too large.

Quietly Married at St. Mary's.

A quiet marriage was performed in St. Mary's church this morning by Rev. Father Westman, when Miss Mary Guinee became the wife of Philip Butscher. Miss Lizzie Guinee was bridemaid and John Butscher best man.

—W. H. VanWinkle, of Park place, has had dahlias in bloom in his garden for over a week, which is considered very early.

Siamese Love Bathing.

The Siamese are more devoted to the water than any other nation in the world. They are nearly always bathing, generally with their clothes on, and they never go anywhere by land if they can possibily go by water. The streets of Bangkok are like those of Venice, and the inhabitants say that their idea of paradise would be a town with canals, where there were currents in both directions, so that they might be spared the effort of rowing.

Ships' Anchors.

Ships' anchors cost from 5 to 7 cents a pound, so that a 6,000-pound anchor, which would be a very large one, would cost, even at the lowest price, about $300, and a big ship that required an anchor of that size would carry two of them. The two big anchors carried by a ship of, say, 2,000 tons, would weigh from 4,800 to 5,000 pounds each.

The Turks have no war songs except those they have translated from other tongues.

The Sandwich Islanders estimate the beauty of women by their weight.

MANY TO ENTER COLLEGE

PLAINFIELD YOUNG MEN TO TAKE ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS.

Examinations to Be Held in New York Tomorrow, Friday and Saturday—All But One Will Go to Yale College.

There is quite a party of young men from this city who will go to New York tomorrow morning to take their final and preliminary entrance examinations for Yale and Harvard Universities. Wm. J. Roome, Jr., Carroll L. Runyon, George Richards and Wm. Terriberry, who graduated from Mr. Leal's school this year, go to take their finals for Yale. John Hall, of the same class, is the only Plainfielder trying for entrance into Harvard.

Charles W. Fisk and Augustus R. Fisk, sons of Former Mayor Charles J. Fisk, will take their preliminaries for Yale. They have been tutoring here during the winter and will continue to prepare for the finals to be taken next June.

Howard Bushnell, Aubrey Hall, George Dupee and Aubrey Crowe, juniors at Mr. Leal's school, will also take their preliminary examinations for Yale.

These examinations will take place tomorrow, Friday and Saturday at the building of the Twenty-third street branch of the New York Y. M. C. A.

UNITED AMERICANS NOW.

Junior Mechanics Substituted a Better Name.

The New Jersey delegates to the National Council of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics have returned from Minneapolis, and report that it was decided to change the name of the organization, and hereafter it will be known as the United Americans. The local lodges will adopt the title in the course of a few weeks.

The election of officers resulted as follows: National councilor, Charles Reimer, of Maryland; national vice-councilor, Charles F. Reeves, of Washington; national treasurer, J. Adam Sohl, of Maryland; national conductor, J. A. Shields, of Nebraska; national warden, James A. Miller, of Pennsylvania: national inside sentinel, H. J. Shannon, of Georgia; national outside sentinel, W. E. W. Sellers, of Wisconsin: chaplain, Rev. C. A. C. Thomas, of North Carolina. The next place of meeting will be Detroit, Mich.

Good Health, Good Humor.

It is hard to be cheerful with aching feet. You will be able to do twice as much work and do it easier than if you are nagged and worried with corns or bunions, which irritate the nerves, producing headaches, bad temper, nervous prostration and a long train of evils. Worry and pain brings on old age, fades the face, ruins the temper, withers you up, makes you old before your time. Get good feet; that's the way to look well. S. R. Hope, janitor of the Bryant School, of 353 East Third street, says for years he was almost a cripple. Bunions so painful he tried everything he ever heard of but got no better until advised by cured friends to see Specialist Brown at 145 West Second street. Mr. Hope went to the office limping and when he left he felt like a new man, and what is marvelous the treatment is painless and bloodless. No soreness after. Jacob Varian, of 223 East Fifth street, says he feels ten years younger since Mr. Brown completely cured his ingrowing toe nails and enlarged great toe joints immediately after treatment. New and close fitting shoes or boots can be worn with ease and comfort.

Throw Your Colors to the Breeze.

Business houses and private residences will be decorated this week in honor of the celebration in this city of the nation's birthday. Most of this decorating will be done by the firm of Lyon & Co., of Newark, an experienced concern in this line. Handsome designs will be put up on the Kensington and City Hotel by this firm. All business houses in the city and all private residences should be decorated by next Tuesday morning. Don't be afraid to show your patriotism. Remember, this is the last time you will celebrate Fourth of July in this century, so let Old Glory wave and think of the boys in the trenches at Manila. Let everybody decorate.

Among the stores to be elaborately decorated will be those of Crosby & Hill, Morris Van Arsdale, J. A. Smith & Brother and Franke Linke.

To Build a Home at Lincoln.

Frank Holland, of Rahway, has bought about ten acres of land at Lincoln, and will erect a handsome residence there at a cost of $3,500. The sale was effected through the real estate agency of John McIntyre.

CENTRAL RAILROAD NOTES.

J. S. Chambers has been appointed master mechanic at Elizabethport.

July 1st the company proposes to withdraw from the service all of its four-wheel coal cars and replace them with hoppers of 80,000 capacity.

The company, it is said, will shortly erect a new transfer platform in the avenue yard at Elizabethport. The platform will be about 400 feet in length and covered by a shed.—Railroad Employe.

Brick Pavement for Elizabeth.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, June 28th—Livingston street, in this city, will be the first one in Elizabeth to be paved with brick. The property owners on it held a large meeting last night and decided that they would give brick a trial. The work will be done this summer, and the experiment will be watched with much interest by the land owners on the twenty other streets that are to be paved under the new departure made by the City Council.

SUMMER CAMPAIGN ON THE CITY STREETS

Great Activity Noticeable in Street Department.

WHERE REPAIRS ARE MADE.

PARK AVENUE PRESENTS THE MOST STRIKING COMPARISON.

West Seventh Street Receiving Much-Needed Repairs—Boundary Streets are "Turnpiked" by Contractor—Culverts Repaired and Rebuilt—Deplorable State of West Fourth Street, West of Plainfield.

The regular summer campaign on the city streets is continuing with vigor. A number of the streets have been put in condition and others are being labored with with the prospect of good results.

Park avenue presents the greatest comparison of any thoroughfare in the city. Between Seventh and Fourth streets, Park avenue is the admiration of every horseman and wheelman who drives or rides over it. North of Fourth street Park avenue is something to be dreaded, thanks to the new storm sewer and former excavations. Wheeling over it has become singularly thrilling.

West Seventh street, between Park avenue and Division street, is the present abiding place of the steam roller, and that street will soon assume an appearance as of old when it was such a favorite ride for local cyclists. The street, west of Division street, is in need of repairs which will be made later in the season. Park avenue, south of Seventh street, is receiving a new top dressing of crushed stone that will greatly improve it.

A number of the dirt roads, which are boundaries of the city, are receiving temporary improvements through the joint efforts of the city and Fanwood borough and township. Terrill and Cushing roads and Woodland avenue are being "turnpiked" by Michael Walsh, who holds the contract for the work. Leland avenue, which is also a dirt road, has been included in the job although not a boundary line. The city road machine is on duty there. The roads are being cleaned, leveled and properly crowned and the gutters scraped.

An old culvert at the intersection of West Seventh street and Central avenue has been repaired and put in working order. The large culvert under Netherwood avenue, near the old railroad embankment, has been rebuilt and an extra 24-inch pipe laid there in case of emergency to carry the little brook there under the roadway.

West Fourth street, between Plainfield and Grant avenues, is in decidedly poor condition. The Plainfield Street Railway has completed the job of laying its track at the new grade established there, which was below the old level of the tracks. That made the removal of considerable earth necessary. That part of West Fourth street never was very good, but the dirt that has been left in uneven heaps and now makes rather mountainous riding, is far worse than before. The extra earth is to be removed some time, Street Commissioner Gavett says. Wheelmen who pass that way usually take to the sidewalk.

A SURVIVOR OF THE MAINE.

One of Uncle Sam's Skilled Gunners is Visiting in Plainfield.

Alfred Johnson, a survivor of the battleship Maine, which was blown up in Havana Harbor, February 15, 1898, is visiting in Plainfield at the home of William H. Clum on East Sixth street. Mr. Johnson was injured so badly in the explosion that he was in the Chelsea Hospital at Boston for a considerable time; in fact he has never fully recovered from the terrible injuries he received on that memorable night. However, he recovered sufficiently to again enter the service and was on the Marblehead during the bombardment of Santiago, being first gun captain on that cruiser. Since the war with Spain Mr. Johnson has been honorably discharged, after a service in Uncle Sam's Navy of about twelve years, during which time he has visited almost every country on the globe. Mr. Johnson is of fine physique and before the casualty to the Maine was of robust health. Since being retired he has made application for a pension, and it would seem as though he certainly deserved it.

LOCAL DEMOCRATS ALIVE

PROPOSE TO DISPUTE THE SWAY OF ELIZABETH LEADERS.

Big Political Picnic Planned to Stir up Enthusiasm in Party Ranks—The State Leaders to be Invited.

For the first time in several years the Democrats of the territory around Plainfield are preparing to take an active part in county politics this fall. In years gone by the Democrats of Plainfield have been content to send a small delegation to the county conventions in Elizabeth in order to keep up appearances, but the delegations seldom figured much in the proceedings. Several of the younger members of the party are bestirring themselves now and propose to send a delegation to the county convention this fall that will try to make a combination with other sections of the county to defeat the heretofore certain rule of the Elizabeth leaders.

One of the instruments devised to bring about such a result by stirring up an interest in the party is the holding of a big political picnic in the vicinity of Plainfield the latter part of July or the first of August. The project is already assuming shape and the first of next week a meeting of those interested will be held to set the ball in motion. In order to make it an important function it is not intended to restrict it to a Union county affair, but also to engage Somerset county Democrats in the scheme—that is those who live in North Plainfield.

The picnic will be held at some convenient point for both places—possibly the historic Washington rock on Watchung mountain—and distinguished Democrats from all over the State will be invited to attend. Here, it is calculated, an impetus to party interest will be given and out of it a strong organization will grow.

Several Plainfielders are grooming themselves for nominations to some of the important offices to be filled at the next election and when the proper time comes the organization will take up the claims of one and go to the convention prepared to nominate him for the office.

BIG BOOST FOR THE FUND.

Nine Little Girls Present $41.10 as the Profits of Their Entertainment.

The biggest boost that The Daily Press fund for the Babies' Camp has received in any one contribution occurred today when $41.10 was received from the nine little girls who gave the performance of the "Daughters of Liberty" in W. L. Saunders' barn a week ago.

The little girls that arranged and carried out this clever performance were Louise Saunders, Margaret Curtis, Mai Faber, Marjory Howard, Dorothy Howard, Adelaide Howard, Aurelie Austin and Mabel Hooley.

The example of the little girls in raising this substantial sum through their own efforts for the benefit of the poor babies is worthy of emulation from many others.

The fund stands as follows today:

Previously acknowledged and check sent to Mrs. Hattie M. Myers, treasurer of the Babies' Camp fund,	$124 26
Willie and Clyde Doane and Vincent Miner, profits of "wild west" show	1 34
L. P. A.	10 00

WANTS SALE OF LAND STOPPED.

Transfer Said to Have Been Made to Defraud Creditors.

Charles T. Gall has secured from Judge Kirkpatrick a rule to show cause, returnable July 10th, why Mary E. Canary et al. should not be restrained from selling a property at Piscataway, Middlesex county. It is alleged that she obtained the property by transfer from her husband, Thomas C. Canary, now deceased, without consideration, the transfer constitution a fraud on creditors of Canary. Canary ran the Bijou Theatre, New York. He rented it at $27,000 a year, and a judgment for $6,000 was obtained against him for balance on rent due. It is claimed the property was transferred to Mr. Canary so it could not be seized under this judgment.

BANKS PLEA TO CLEARING HOUSE.

Protest Against Paying Charges for Handling Business.

COMMITTEE WILL ARGUE.

PRINCIPAL BANKS OF NEW JERSEY IN THE MOVEMENT.

United States Senator John Kean One of the Committee That Will Visit the Officers of the Clearing House—The New Jersey Banks Want to be on to the Discretionary List of Clearing House.

The banks in the larger cities of New Jersey, with the exception of those in Newark, Jersey City, Hoboken and Paterson, have organized a move on the New York Clearing House, to protest against payment for the collection of their checks in New York, or, in other words, they want to be placed on the discretionary list of the Clearing House and not to be considered country banks, and have to pay for their banking.

Many of the banks have sent petitions to William A. Nash, chairman of the Clearing House Committee, and they will follow this petition by the personal visit of a committee of five presidents, appointed at a meeting held in Newark last week, which was attended by twenty bank presidents.

This action on the part of the banks is the result of the recent rule adopted by the New York Clearing House charging one-tenth of one per cent. on all country checks, except those from correspondents in certain cities which, for special reasons, have been placed on the free or par list. This rule went into effect nearly three months ago, the Clearing House deciding that no change in its operation should be made for at least three months. This limitation will expire July 3d, and the bankers are hopeful that the Clearing House will then remove the ban from many New Jersey cities.

At the meeting of bank officers representing banking institutions in the northern part of the State, Bird W. Spencer, president of the People's Bank and Trust Company of Passaic, was chosen chairman, and a committee of five was appointed to see the members of the clearing house committee. This committee is composed of Senator E. C. Stokes, of this city; Bird Spencer, of Passaic; Donald McKay, of Englewood; Theodore Little, of Morristown, and United States Senator John Kean, of Elizabeth. This committee will visit New York Saturday.

TO THE PLAINS.

Trial Trip on the Trolley Will be Made Tomorrow.

Rapid progress is being made on the Scotch Plains trolley and Superintendent Adleman expects to make a trial trip to Scotch Plains tomorrow afternoon. The work of laying the tracks is about completed and employes are now busy stringing the trolley wire. When the road is completed a person will be able to ride from Dunellen to Scotch Plains for five cents, which is about six miles by trolley.

OVER A MILLION OF DOLLARS SAVED.

The Drought Broken at Last by Good Showers.

RAIN CAME JUST IN TIME.

MARKET GARDENERS STOOD ON THE VERGE OF RUIN.

Hay Crop is a Failure, But Late Corn and Other Grains Saved—Late Pasturage Now Promised—Farmers Compelled to Feed Cattle on Grain—Pastures Were Dry as Tinder—Water Supply Was Low.

There was general thanksgiving among the farmers and garden truck growers of New Jersey, yesterday, when the rain drops began to patter down on the thirsty ground. The rain of Sunday did thousands of dollars worth of good throughout the State but it was only a taste. More was needed. The rain of yesterday and this morning came in the nick of time. The good done throughout the State will amount to far over $1,000,000.

The drought that has prevailed through this State and Long Island for the past month has been very disastrous to the crops. The hay crop has been a failure while the pasture lands are all dried up. In many cases the owners of cattle have been compelled to feed their stock on grain as in winter.

While the rain cannot resurrect the pastures at once, it gives promise of a good pasture late in the season. The late corn and grains have been lying in the ground, just sprouted, and the much needed water will save them from drying up.

The market gardeners have been despairing over their various crops. A few days more of the drought threatened to destroy them utterly and perhaps ruin the owners. The rain has saved them as well.

In Plainfield and other cities in the State, the lawns are all dried up except where lawn sprinklers have been used. In some cities, the scant supply of water would not permit their use and the lawns, once so green and beautiful, are now barren. The rain will also increase the supply of water which has been growing very low.

In many places, the coming of Fourth of July with all its accompanying fire, was dreaded on account of the fires that would undoubtedly follow had the drought continued. Pasture lands, right in the vicinity of Plainfield, were reported to be so dry that a single spark would start a blaze that would sweep the pastures.

WANTS ONLY $10,000

F. W. HARGRAVES SUES WESLEY BROKAW FOR THAT SUM.

Former Alleges That Piano Tuner Alienated His Wife's Affection—Suit Started in Supreme Court Today.

The latest episode in the troubles of Fred W. Hargraves and Wesley R. Brokaw is the fact that Mr. Hargraves has begun an action in the Supreme Court against Mr. Brokaw, charging him with alienating the affection of his wife. Mr. Hargraves thinks about $10,000 will be about the proper sum as solace for his wounded feelings, and he therefore sues for this amount.

G. W. V. Moy has been retained by Mr. Hargraves and by his advice brings the action. Irving L. Brady represents Mr. Brokaw.

UNITY LODGE ELECTS

Two Prominent Pythians Were Guests of the Lodge Last Night.

The annual election of officers in Unity Lodge, No. 102, Knights of Pythias, was held last evenng. It resulted as follows: Chancellor Commander, James Stansfield; vice chancellor, Edward Smith; prelate, Charles Randolph; master of work, Edward Chappell, master at arms, Andrew Drew; inner guard, R. H. Loughlin; outer guard, Frank Rathbun.

Past Chancellor Deming, of Erie Lodge, Cleveland, O., was present at the meeting and told the Plainfield Knights of the methods in vogue in Ohio. Past Chancellor McLane, of Ashland Lodge, New York city, was present and entertained with several recitations.

The new chapel being erected in the east end of the city by St. Mary's church, is being built under the supervision of Rev. Father Westman, who has general oversight of the construction.

CITY AND TROLLEY MAGNATES TO AGREE.

Conference Tonight to Arrange for New Extension.

ARLINGTON AVENUE LINE.

NEW ORDINANCE WILL BE ON SAME TERMS AS LAST ONE.

No Apparent Obstacle in Path of the Arlington Avenue Extension—Ordinance Providing for It Will Probably Be Introduced at July Council Meeting—Terms to Be Settled Tonight.

There's nothing like being up to the times after all. In Plainfield now, as in the other enterprising cities of the country, the trolley lines are beginning to spread out on every side, bringing the city in closer relationship with its neighbors and opening up new territory at every hand. The Scotch Plains extension of the local trolley system is supposed to be ready for use this week. Tonight the street committee of the Common Council will meet with the officials of the Plainfield Street Railway Company with a view to arriving at a distinct understanding regarding the Arlington avenue extension.

There was a conference between the members of the street committee and the trolley magnates a week or so ago, but nothing was decided. Both sides are favorable to such an extension and the necessary consents are reported as having been secured. There will be a meeting of the Common Council tomorrow night, but the introduction of the new ordinance providing for the Arlington avenue line will probably not take place until the July meeting of the Council, which will be held next week.

At the conference tonight it is expected that the text of the argeement between the city and company will be settled without difficulty. The new ordinance will be based on the same principles as the one which provided for the Scotch Plains line, and will probably contain the same terms.

The Arlington avenue extension will branch off the West Fourth street line at Arlington avenue ane follow that thoroughfare to Randolph road, thence across to Woodland avenue, by which street the line will go out to the course of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

Plainfield Stinted in Its Water Supply to Make Profit.

Consumers of water are being notified to be saving of water during this dry period. Under ordinary circumstances this would seem all proper, but this caution is issued by the water company not because the Plainfield water supply is not sufficient for the citizens of Plainfield, but because the water company is diverting the water to the various towns between this city and Elizabeth in order to swell its profits. Plainfield is favored with an adequate amount of water for all our needs under all or any conditions. It is all wrong that our people should be stinted in its use in order that John Kean and his co-partners may be enriched. The way out of all this is municipal ownership of this great necessity and utility. It is high time that this question should receive public attention. If there is profit in the supply of water by the water company, there can be profit to the people in controlling their own supply.

J. E. Martine.

Dr. Ard a Speaker.

The sessions of the one hundred and thirty-third annual meeting of the Medical Society of New Jersey were resumed at Allenhurst yesterday. At the morning session among those to present papers was Dr. F. C. Ard, of this city. Dr. Norton L. Wilson, of Elizabeth, was among the afternoon speakers. At the banquet held in the evening Dr. D. C. English, of New Brunswick, was one of the speakers.

New Boulevard

Saturday next the boulevard from Lincoln to Bound Brook will be opened to the public, and thus there will be a fine macadamized road from Whitehouse to Jersey City, which is something that has always been a dream in the minds of many. For two years Silas D. Drake has worked hard to seeure that boulevard at Lincoln and is now pleased to know that it is accomplished.

Off for Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Sandford and daughter, Pauline May, Mrs. Letitia S. Penfield, of this city, and Rev. Dr. E. G. Read, of Somerville, sailed this morning on the North German Lloyd line for Europe. They are under the guidance of the Honeyman agency of this city. They expect to return early in September.

ELIZABETH WILL WAIT

RATHER SUBMIT TO NOXIOUS RIVER THAN PAY SEWER TAX.

Hopes That Some Day the Channel Will be Dredged at Government Expense—Board of Trade in Opposition.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, June 29—The Oranges Vailsburg and Summit are not likely to succeed in getting the proposed joint sewer through this city even if they do gain the consent of the Union County Board of Freeholders to cross the county roads. The Board of Trade has passed vigorous resolutions against the project, and if the city shows an inclination to concede the privilege the Board will fight the matter in the courts.

At a recent meeting of the Common Council Mayor William M. Mack sent in a communication calling attention to the matter, and suggesting that proper steps be taken to safeguard the city's health and interest, and see to it that the city was properly compensated for having its streets torn up.

The published statement of Dr. E. R. O'Reilly, a member of the State Board of Health, recommending the use of the joint sewer for relieving the Elizabeth river of pollution, has revived the public opposition to the sewer, and it is safe to say that the sewer will never go through here.

Captain James MacMaster, secretary of the Board of Trade, said: "The joint Deep Waterway Commission has in view the cleansing of the Elizabeth river and has secured an appropriation from Congress of $15,000 to cover the preliminary expenses in making a survey and estimates for deepening the channel from Passaic to below Elizabethport. When this is done the Elizabeth river will be widened and deepened, making it navigable up to the Broad street bridge, above the point where the sewage empties into it, and it will then be flushed twice a day by the tides.

"The reason there is not water enough in the summer months to carry off the sewage is due to the fact that the Elizabethtown Water Company drains it from above for its own use."

RIKER'S ROAD.

Plans Prepared for the Cross-Country Line From Springfield to Boynton Beach.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, June 29—Hon. Chandler W. Riker, president of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company, and Col. E. W. Hine, secretary, visited this place Tuesday in the interests of the south side trolley now being built by the company to connect Elizabeth with Plainfield. Both took dinner at the North Avenue Hotel at this place, and then drove to Springfield, where Harry C. VanEmburgh, the engineer in charge, has been looking up a route for the cross-country trolley to connect Springfield and Essex county trolley systems with Rahway and Boynton Beach.

The officials of the Street Railway Company and the Lehigh Valley Railroad have agreed on a bridge to go over the railroad tracks at Picton. Levels were taken yesterday and plans for the bridge will soon be submitted to the Lehigh Valley officials.

GOVERNOR'S NEW ROLE.

New Jersey's Chief Executive Will Give a Bride Away Tonight.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, June 29—Governor Voorhees appeared last night in a new role, that of giving away a bride. The young woman who had this honor bestowed on her is Miss Eleanor H. Reeve, the adopted daughter of the late A. Ross Reeve, who for several years was Health Inspector of Elizabeth and was a strong Republican. The ceremony took place at the bride's home, 52 Sayre street, and was a very exclusive affair. Besides the Governor, only the relatives and intimate friends of the couple being in attendance.

The bridegroom is a son of the late Colonel John C. Rose, of the Third Regiment, who was a member of the Union County Board of Freeholders and claim agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad for many years.

Closing Exercises.

The Plainfield Business College will have interesting exercises in its rooms in the City National Bank building, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. Diplomas will be awarded to nine graduates, several of whom have already secured positions. Friends of the school are cordially invited. The Ladies' Orchestra will furnish the music.

VanEmburgh & Son

Place on sale to day a big purchase of children's hosiery, direct from the mill. The price 10 cents and 15 cents pair is about half their value. This is an opportunity not to be overlooked.

SLAP IN FACE NEARLY CAUSED A MURDER

Mrs. Moses Carey Wielded a Water Pitcher With Force.

J. CAREY'S HEAD WAS CUT.

LOST A GREAT QUANTITY OF BLOOD FROM WOUNDS.

Carey and His Wife Were Talking When His Sister-in-law Added Her Remarks—He Replied by Slapping Her and Then She Struck Him Over the Head With the Pitcher.

There was a row last evening at the Carey home on Manning avenue, and Mrs. Moses Carey, in a fit of passion, came near being guilty of murder. The trouble arose between John Carey and his wife, who have a sick child. Mr. Carey gives baths to people and he had a case last evening that called him away from home. When he returned his wife complained about his going away and not taking care of his sick child.

One word led to another and finally Mrs. Moses Carey, who lives in the same house, engaged in the dispute. As a result, it is said that John Carey slapped Mrs. Moses Carey in the face. However, Mrs. Moses Carey picked up a large water pitcher and proceeded immediately to hit him over the head with it. Carey's head was terribly lacerated, several arteries being severed. A great quantity of blood was lost and his condition was considered serious. Mrs. Carey who did the act is in a delicate condition and it was feared that serious results might follow.

In the meantime the disturbance attracted the attention of the neighbors and Marshal Schenck was sent for. He put in an appearance and Carey was taken to the lockup. Dr. Pittis was then sent for and he gave proper treatment and dressed the wounds. Carey was constantly losing blood, and his condition was very weak. The cuts in his head were deep and it was feared the brain might be affected. Dr. Pittis was of the opinion that it was a miracle he was not killed.

Owing to Carey's condition and the condition of Mrs. Moses Carey no action can now be taken by the authorities, but it is likely arrest will follow Carey's recoverey.

Dr. VanHorn, of this city, happened to be passing the lockup the time of the trouble and Dr. Pittis called him in to assist in fixing the man up.

MASONIC ASYLUM OPENED.

Plainfield Masons Visited Their New Brunswick Brethren.

Temple Commandery, No. 18, Knights Templar, of New Brunswick, had a formal opening of their new temple last evening. About twenty-five Sir Knights from Trinity Commandery, of this city, went by special trolley car to attend the affair. Representatives of other commanderies in the State were also present. After a short parade through the principal streets of the city the Sir Knights gathered in the new asylum, where Eminent Commander Thomas Riddle delivered the address of welcome to the visiting Sir Knights. Addresses were also made by other members of the commanderies. A feature of the function was the presentation to Temple Commandery by the ladies of New Brunswick of an elegant silk banner suitably inscribed. A collation was served and dancing was indulged in, though the Sir Knights from this city did not remain to participate in the terpsichorean art, but reached home on a special trolley car supplied by the Brunswick Traction Company, about 12:20 o'clock. The visiting Sir Knights were highly pleased with their visit.

Bottling Company Incorporated.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, June 29.—The Eastern Bottling Company filed articles of incorporation here yesterday with the Clerk of Union county. The incorporators are Henry W. Moeller, of Newark; Frank Linke, of Plainfield, and Frederick A. Lehibach, of Newark. The plant will be located at 220 West Second street, Plainfield. Their capital is placed at $15,000, and the business will begin with $12,000. Moeller holds the controlling interest in the business.

To Entertain the Reserves

It is the Woman's Relief Corps of the G. A. R. which is to entertain the Naval Reserves on the occasion of the Fourth of July celebration and not the W. C. T. U. The Relief Corps has secured the basement of Reform Hall and will there provide a palatable collation for the Reserves.

Facts Are Stubborn.

If Plainfield People are not Convinced by Local Testimony they differ from other People.

Our readers must have noticed in the past two years how "cures" have multiplied in the newspapers like mushrooms in a meadow, and following the Plethora of cures, the general public have turned remarkably skeptical. Facts are demanded but it has become also essential to know who supplies them, where are they from, in fine, whom they have cured. Doubting Thomas would not accept at par incredible cures on the other side of the continent. He wants it at home. "Give us some neighbor, then I will believe" is what he asks for. Well, Doan's Kidney Pills do this. Call it what you like, at home, local or neighbors testimony, you can always ascertain the truth of it without leaving the city limits. Here is a case:

Mrs. R. A. Martin, of No. 70 Jackson avenue, says:—"I had pains in my back and loins for about a year or more, no doubt caused by my kidneys being out of order. I felt it more in the morning just after getting up or if I did any stooping or lifting. Notwithstanding the fact that I took all kinds of medicines I never found anything which helped me until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at L. W. Randolph's drug store. They not only removed the pain but they strengthened me in other ways. I can cheerfully recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone suffering with a lame back."

Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers; price 50c a box. Mailed on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

SHE CREMATED THE CHILD.

Colored Nurse Girl Says She Committed the Crime to "Save Bother."

MADE TOO MUCH NOISE.

The Girl Confesses and Says That She Has Made Several Attempts to Burn Employer's House.

Has a Strong Mania For Crime and is Especially Fond of Setting Fires—Tries to Poison a Whole Family—Locks Baby in Room After Setting Fire to Its Clothing.

Dover, Del., June 29.—The case of Mary Barrett, a bright colored girl, fifteen years old, is a puzzle to the police.

Mary is in the city jail charged with having set on fire and burned to death Jackson, the eighteen months' old child of J. W. Lafferty.

When first arrested she denied any crime, but afterward confessed that she had set fire to the baby's clothes. She said she was tired of attending to the infant, and wanted to be relieved. Besides, the baby cried too much.

While the baby was playing in the kitchen, with its mother on the outside, she lit two matches and applied them to the child's dress. She closed the door so that the cries of the infant could not be heard, and after waiting until she thought the baby was burned to death she called the mother. The girl also confessed that she had made several attempts to set the Lafferty house on fire.

The detective who made the arrest thinks that she tried to poison the family, as some time ago a green substance was found in the coffee, but fortunately Mrs. Lafferty detected something wrong and the coffee was thrown out.

Mary Barrett was employed by the Laffertys, who live near Leipsic. On the day of the child's death, she was the last one in the kitchen when little Jackson caught fire and the first one to find him in flames. She acted very suspicious and Levi Pyle, twelve years old, a bound boy, says she said to him when Pyle was mourning the little one's fate:—

"Oh, don't go on so. He's too little to know. And then he won't have to be taken care of now."

She is said to have threatened the boy if he disclosed anything against her.

The girl seems to have had a mania for fires. First, a bag of rags was found on fire in her garret rooms. Secondly there came the baby's death, and last her bed was found to be on fire.

Attempt to Blow Up Coal Mine.

Evansville, Ind., June 29.—A dastardly attempt was made last night or early this morning to blow up the First Avenue coal mine. This morning Manager Thomas of the First Avenue mine was informed that the company's powder magazine had been broken into and that some of the powder was missing. The magazine contained 400 kegs of the most powerful blasting powder. An investigation was made and beneath a small bush near the engine room and airshaft the powder was found. Attached to it was a fuse which had been ignited, but had fortunately gone out before burning the powder.

Struck Two Bystanders.

Toledo, Ohio, June 29.—Marsalas Pofet and John H. Wilson got into an altercation when Pofet pulled out a revolver and fired three shots at Wilson. The bullets missed Wilson, but one lodged in the brain of C. Callaghan, of Page street, and he will die. A second ball struck a man named Nelson, a sailor, in the shoulder. Pofet is locked up.

Paid Officer to Let Them Escape.

Guthrie, Okla., June 29.—At the preliminary trial of James and Robert Scroggins, the Dent County (Mo.) men arrested for wholesale chicken stealing, who escaped from a constable in this city and were recaptured after a long chase, in which they were shot several times, both testified that they had paid the constable $9.50 to allow them to escape.

Boy's Harrowing Death.

Unionville, Mo., June 29.—A harrowing accident occurred at the Crumpacker mill, one mile southeast of this city, where Will Rowland, 15 years of age, became entangled in a belt and was drawn into the machinery and frightfully mangled. His body was wrapped completely around an iron shaft. He died a few moments after being released.

Clan-na-Gael Scare Stirs England.

London, June 29.—The Pall Mall Gazette says it has discovered in London two members of the Clan-n-Gael from the United States who are en route to the Transvaal and trying to enlist money and men in support of the Boers.

He Died for Love.

Middletown, Ohio, June 29.—Linwood Keister, aged 28, and employed at the farm of J. Selby, between Poasttown and Germantown, fatally shot himself through the head. He was despondent because his sweetheart had refused to marry him.

Were Handcuffed Together.

Springfield, Ohio, June 29.—Two men handcuffed together were seen here. They asked several people for a file and are supposed to be escaped prisoners. They avoided the police and got out of town.

Platt's Castle Sold.

Bellefontaine, Ohio, June 29.—The famous Mac-o-Cheek Castle, this county, erected by Poet Donn Piatt, has been sold to Edward Donnead, former ly Director of Accounts of Columbus.

ENDEAVORERS TO MEET

Detroit Will Be Beautifully Decorated for the Occasion.

Detroit, Mich., June 29.—Banners of welcome and decorative devices will obstruct the view in Detroit streets during the International Christian Endeavor convenion next week. The city council has taken action suspending operation of an ordinance prohibiting stringing banners across streets during the month of July. A commercial communication from Mayor Maybury, advising special illumination of the Campus Martius during the Christian Endeavor convention has been referred to a council committee and the public lighting commissioners, who will recommend a plan of illumination to be submitted to a special council meeting. Accommodations have now been provided for 40,000 delegates.

Suit Caused by an Explosion.

Fort Wayne, Ind., June 29.—James Ragan has filed suit in this city against the Wabash Railway for $30,000 damages. Regan was a fireman on the road in 1898 and in September of that year was on an engine which exploded near Lafayette, Ind. His complaint alleges that he was burned, scalded, hurled a distance of 300 feet and so injured as to render him totally and permanently unfit to earn a living. He alleges the explosion was due to the negligence of the company in not keeping the engine in repair.

Changed With Robbing the Mail.

Vicksburg, Miss., June 29.—Frank Mangum, river mail agent between Greenville and Vicksburg, has been arrested here by Inspector Jones and Woods, of the Post Office Department, on the charge of embezzling valuable packages from the mails. He was taken before United States Commissioner Short and released on a $500 bond. Mangum stoutly protests his innocence and claims that he will be able to prove it. The arrest was brought about through a decoy letter.

Fatal Trolley Accident.

Kankakee, Ill., June 29.—The trolley wire on East avenue, the main business street, broke down while a South Side street car loaded with people was en route to the Illinois Eastern Hospital. Conductor Joseph Brosseau jumped from the dying car and was instantly killed and two lady employes of the hospital were seriously injured. The balance of the passengers stayed in the car and received only a bad shaking up.

Kentucky's Full Ticket Named.

Louisville, Ky., June 29.—The Democratic State Convention adjourned after nominating the following ticket: Governor, William Goebel. Lieutenant Governor, J. C. W. Beckham; Secretary of State, Breck Hill; Attorney General, Judge R. C. Breckinridge; Auditor, Gus Coulter; Treasurer, Judge S. W. Haeger; Commissioner of Agriculture, I. B. Hall; Commissioner of Public Instruction, H. V. McChesney.

Baptised in Family Tub.

Atlanta, June 29.—An unusual baptismal ceremony was performed here by the Rev. L. G. Broughton. Miss Ellen Pitman, an invalid, had expressed a desire to join the Baptist Church, but her illness prevented a pulpit baptism, so Dr. Broughton went to Miss Pitman's home and immersed the almost dying woman in the family bath tub. The nature of Miss Pitman's affliction makes it almost impossible, it is said, that she will recover.

Agree to Uphold Rates.

New York, June 29.—W. K. Vanderbilt's power as a dictator in the railroad world has been again displayed. Rates on all freight from the Mississippi River to the seaboard are to be advanced and a threatened cut in passenger fares has been averted. An agreement looking toward that end was reached. At a meeting of railroad presidents in the Grand Central Building, in West street

Columbia's Great Showing.

New London, Conn., June 29.—In a thirty-eight-mile beat to windward, the new yacht Columbia beat the Defender eight minutes, besides giving the old cup champion a two-minute handicap. Yachtsmen from New York and hereabouts are jubilant, for the new yacht's most sterling qualities must com eout in a race to windward.

Copper in California.

Redding, Cal., June 29.—It is stated that German capitalists intend to build a great smelter in Shasta County. It is also reported that the German syndicate will soon begin the work of building a railway line eight miles in length to connect with the Southern Pacific. The new smelter will double the copper output of Shasta County.

Lindewall Indicted for Murder.

Galesburg, Ill., June 29.—The grand jury, recalled to consider the murder of Peter Boltenbach, indicted C. A. Lindewall. Boltenbach was killed in his saloon by Lindewall, who claimed to have intrusted some money to him on the night before. It is now asserted that Lindewall left no money in the saloon.

Roosevelt Was Cheered.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 29.—Governor Roosevelt took part in the carnival parade here, and later an informal reception was given for him in the Milwaukee Press Club. New York's Governor was wildly cheered by thousands.

WHY?

Why doesn't the sea cow give watered milk?

Why isn't a dirt cart a real-estate conveyance?

Why isn't the object seen by an inebriate a circular saw?

Why does the silent partner in a business always have so much to say?

Why does a small boy's face always look as if he had been eating something?

Why isn't a doctor attending a patients funeral a case of cause and effect?

Why is it wrong to hit a man when he's down after working so hard to get him there.

Why doesn't some genius crown himself with glory by discovering a process for extracting gold and silver from mining shares?

AGUINALDO AT TARLAGE.

He Asks For a Complete Report of the Present Situation in Manila.

PURPOSE IS NOT KNOWN.

May Mean That the Filipino Leader is Contemplating Some Terms of Surrender.

Aguinaldo's Message Made Known by a Native Friendly to Americans—Severe Typhoon Prevents the Vessels From Opening Ports—Increasing Activity.

Manila, June 29.—One of the most prominent Filipinos living in Manila has received verbal instructions directly from Aguinaldo, who is at Tarlace, instructing him to make the most complete report possible of the situation in Manila, both political and military. This is capable of a double interpretation. Possibly Aguinaldo desires to know what the chances are in the event of his surrender; or, it is possible that he wants to obtain information as to what places are bringing produce into the country. The blockading gunboats recognize clearances, but the fact that the opening of ports would enable the natives to collect duties has delayed the issuance of an order to this effect, and the consequence is that there is great hardship at several ports because of lack of food, and business is stagnated. This has influenced Gen. Otis, who considers the situation sufficiently favorable to permit the opening of ports.

The Filipinos are seeking from native sources information concerning the strength and state of health of the American troops and the intention of the Americans to operate during the rainy season.

The Filipino mentioned in the foregoing, who has been steadfastly friendly to the Americans, has been requested to join Aguinaldo, but he has frequently refused to do so. This order for information, however, settles the question of Aguinaldo's reported assassination.

A severe typhoon delays the vessels in opening ports to advantage and the order of Gen. Otis simply permits the landing of food at various places.

The natives remain comparatively quiet in the south. A Filipino scouting party met a patrol of the Wyoming regiment and fled into the arms of a battalion of the 4th Infantry. Two of the natives were killed.

There is increasing activity at San Fernando, where the natives apparently want to fight. It is reported that Gen. Pio del Pilar, with 2,000 men has joined the main body there.

The End Not in Sight.

Vancouver, B. C., June 29.—Louise La Dow, who recently arrived in Yokohama from Manila, is quoted in the last Japanese papers as expressing the conviction that the end of the war with the Philippines is by no maens yet in sight. The official reports of American losses, he thinks, are not wholly reliable, as they make no allowance for numbers who die in the hospitals. The number of Americans killed in battle, or who have died in the hospitals since the outbreak of hostilities will, he thinks, easily reach 5,000. The volunteer force he regards as the flower of the army of occupation, for their training has made them efficient as any regulars in the world. Unfortunately the more recent despatches of reinforcements are not nearly so good as the original volunteers, who were not actuated by any prospect of high pay, but by patriotism or love of adventure.

It is a remarkable fact that although the American troops have often remained in the trenches in a soaking condition for ten days at a time they have never caught cold.

To Enlist Men for Volunteers.

Washington, June 29.—After much deliberation and in order to give General Otis an effective fighting force of 30,000 men, it has been decided to enlist troops sufficient to make up for the casualties and sickness in the Philippines. The new force will be volunteers instead of regulars and the first detachment enlisted will be sent to Manila to fill out the three skeleton regiments Gen. Otis is forming from the State troops already there. It has been decided, in officering the provisional army, to act upon the recommendations of General Otis, who is instructed to "select for officers those who have demonstratel their fitness to command and who have distinguished themselves in battle. It is believed that the three regiments of volunteers thus provided will effset for the present the ineffective troops in the Philippines, estimated at 12 per cent. of the army there.

Filipinos Seeking Peace.

London, June 29.—Marti, the representative of Aguinaldo, who was recently in Europe, and later went to Hong Kong on his way to Manila, has returned to London, where the members of the Filipino Junta are endeavoring to obtain an interview with Senator Hoar and other Americans with the object of securing concessions to Aguinaldo and promoting peace.

There will shortly depart from Madrid a prominent man of Manila, who is going to Washington with a similar object as the representative of the Manila Autonomist Peace Committee.

Dewey Sails.

Washington, June 29.—The following cablegram was received at the Navy Department:

"Secretary Navy, Washington, Port Said.

"DEWEY."

Translated, this dispatch means that the cruiser Olympia, with Admiral Dewey aboard, sailed from Colombo straightaway for Port Said, and that Admiral Dewy has no intention of stopping at any intermediate port.

BOY MURDERS HIS COUSIN

Startling Confession of John Kornstadt, 16 Years Old.

Harper, Kan., June 29.—John Kornstadt, 16 yeasr old, living in the southeastern part of Harper County, has confessed that he murdered his cousin, the 10-year-old daughter of Tony Kornstadt.

He first assaulted the girl and then threw her into an abandoned well, where she was found on Wednesday. She was alive when found, but died an hour later without recovering consciousness.

The boy was suspected of the crime, and the feeling became so strong that lynching was talked of. Sheriff Gillespie took charge of the boy and brought him to Harper for safekeeping. Close questioning by County Attorney McColloch brought out the confession The prisoner has been taken to Wichita to avert mob violence.

Arguing After Case Is Over.

Canton, Ohio, June 29.—Prosecutor Pomerene has decided to carry the murder case of Mrs. Anna George to the Supreme Court to get decisions on a number of points that came up in the trial. He has filed his bill of exceptions, and as soon as allowed the case will be taken on up. The action will not affect Mrs. George, as she cannot be tried again. One point the prosecutor especially wants a decision on is on the ruling out of Professor Smith's testimony of the analysis of the scrapings of Mrs. George's hands after she was arrested.

Paper Making Plants Sold

Appleton, Wis., June 29.—The receiver of the Manufacturing Investment Company has sold the paper plants in Appleton and in Madison, Me., to Oliver H. Payne. The Madison plant will be transferred to the Great Northern Paper Company of Maine, and the Appleton plant will be operated either independently or in connection with the Great Northern Paper Company. The last-named company is controlled by Mr. Payne, and will oppose the print paper trust. The consideration is understood to have been greatly below the cost price of nearly $2,000,000.

Woman Delegate Dies.

London, June 29.—Miss Ellen C. Johnson, Superintendent of the Massachusetts Women's Reformatory Prison, died suddenly at the London residence of the Bishop of Rochester, the Right Rev. Edward Stuart Talbot, D. D., where she was a guest. It is believed she expired from heart failure, resulting from excitement in reading a paper at the meeting of the international Council of Women. The deceased was attended by Mrs. Dr. Barrows, of Boston.

Novel Cause for Suicide.

Altoona, Pa., June 29.—Mrs. Israel Kauffman, who was recently deserted by her husband and had just had a long illness, went to Lakemont Park for an airing. She was ordered off the grass by a park policeman. "My God!" she cried, "the world is all against me," and with that she plunged headlong into the lake. She was rescued and brought to the Altoona Hospital, where it is feared she will not recover from the nervous shock.

Pauncefote Will Retire.

London, June 29.—Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British Ambassador to the United States, will retire from the diplomatic service after the Peace Conference.

The probable successor of Sir Julian at Washington is Francis Villiers, who is a brother of Lord Clarendon. Villiers has the reputation in the diplomatic world of being an exceptionally able man.

Western Writers' Association.

Warsaw, Ind., June 29.—The fourteenth annual meeting of the Western Association of Writers opened here with a reception at the Winona Hotel. The reception was a brilliant affair, and was one of the most enjoyable social events in the history of the association. James Whitcomb Riley and other distinguished writers were present.

Wife Saved Him From Mad Dog.

Plainfield, N. J., June 29.—Hydrophobia is dreaded by Wilbur Hoffman, a telegraph messenger at Fanwood station, as the result of a frightful battle with a dog. He was delivering a message on his wheel when the dog pulled him off. He fought it with his hand until he became unconscious, when his wife beat the dog off.

Southern Kansas Crops.

Independence, Kansas, June 29.—Wheat harvest has been completed in Southern Kansas, and never in the history of the country did the farmers have a better week to harvest their wheat. The wheat turned out much better than was expected a few weeks ago. The yield this year will be up to the average.

Extensive Skin Grafting.

Waterloo, Iowa, June 29.—One of the most extensive skin graftings ever attempted was performed here, local physicians operating on Will Barrett to cover an era of three square feet burned during a fire two months ago. Skin was donated by eleven friends of the young man, who is very popular.

Peace Proclaimed at Pana.

Springfield, Ill., June 29.—Governor Tanner has issued a proclamation withdrawing the troops from Pana and also revoking his former proclamation placing all territory within a mile of the city limits of Pana under martial law.

Gen. Miles Present at This Wedding

Syracuse, June 29.—At Skaneateles occurred the wedding of Lieut.-Col. M. P. Maus, of Major-Gen. Miles's staff, and Miss Lindsay Poor. Among the guests was Gen. Miles, his daughter being one of the bridesmaids.

Paint Factory Burned.

Cape Cirardeau, Mo., June 29.—Martison Bros.' mineral paint mill was completely destroyed by fire. The fire is supposed to have started from the smoke stack. The loss is $100,000 with no insurance.

NON-UNION MEN ATTACKED

More Trouble Takes Place on the Big Consolidated Car Lines at Cleveland.

CARS PELTED WITH EGGS

Men on the Cars Made to Look as Though They Had Been Treated To an Egg Bath.

Beer Barrels and Other Obstructions Placed on the Tracks and Motormen Compelled to Stop Their Cars Thus Giving the Crowd an Opportunity to Pelt Them.

Cleveland, O., June 29.—The attempt to run the Consolidated cars with non-union men resulted in more rioting in this city. On the south side cars and their crews were stoned and rotten eggs were thrown, while several of the non-union men were compelled to run for their lives. President Henry Everett and Attorney Virgil P. Kline of the road called on Mayor Farley and asked for better peace protection. This was promised.

In Newburg the trouble started when the first car with a non-union crew left the barns. When the car reached Broadway, people were gathered on the roofs of the buildings and about 500 men, women and children were in the street. Bricks, stones and cans were thrown from the buildings and the roof of the car was shattered. The people on the street called the conductor and motorman names, threatened them and finally showered rotten eggs on them. Three deputies got off the car and the crowd retreated. As soon as they got on the car again the crowd advanced and resumed the egg throwing. The car finally succeeded in leaving the corner and proceeded down Broadway. Small crowds were gathered all along the street, and eggs and stones were thrown. At some points garden hose was attached to water plugs and the motormen and conductors were showered with water. Another car, which pulled out of the barns with a non-union crew later, had a similar reception. The non-union men looked as though they had taken egg baths. Beer barrels and other obstructions were placed on the tracks at different points and the motormen were compelled to stop their cars several times, thus giving the crowd a chance to pelt them. The police from the Wales street station arrived on the scene and dispersed the crowd.

A non-union crew on a Burton street car was held up at Dennison and Rhodes avenues by a crowd of about fifty young men. The car was stopped by stones which had been placed on the tracks, and the crowd immediately began throwing eggs. A patrol wagon loaded with policemen went to the place, but before it arrived the crowd had scattered.

Indiana Street Car Combine.

Indianapolis, June 29.—Articles of incorporation have been filled with the secretary of state for the Union Traction Company of Indiana, capitalized at $2,000,000, which controls the street railway systems of Anderson, Alexandria Elwood, Summitville, Frankton, Orestes, Marion, Jonesboro, Gas City and Fairmount, and franchise to connect them. The Muncie, Anderson and Indianapolis Street Railway Company has a capital of $2,000,000 and owns the franchises in Muncie and by way of Anderson, Pentleton, Portville and Ingalls to Indianopis.

Zinc Mines Shut Down.

Joplin, Mo., June 29.—Reports received from all parts of the Missouri-Kansas mining district say that nearly every mine in the district is standing by the association's order to take out no ore for two weeks. The mills are closed, but the miners are not idle. They are put to work making repairs, cutting prospect shafts and doing all kinds of dead work. Some of the miners are taking advantage of the opportunity to prospect for themselves.

He May Die of His Wounds.

Marion, Ind., June 29.—H. Horwitz, the pawnbroker who was shot by Willie Brown, the sixteen-year-old novel reader, who attempted to rob the store in true Western style Saturday night, is still alive and is rational at times. The doctors do not think he can recover, as he was shot through the stomach in nearly the exact location as that of his partner Cunopop, who only lived 30 minutes after being shot.

Suspected Murder or Suicide.

Shelbyville, Ind., June 29.—Under protest, William Yarling yesterday evening married Mary Conley. They left the city for the girl's home in the southern part of the county. Failing to reach there a search was begun. The horse and buggy were found in the Blue River bottoms. The belief is that the river bed will reveal the bodies of Yarling and wife, and a drag will be made.

Mustering Volunteers.

Ridgway, Ill., June 29.—Jacob Willis, a Lieutenant of the 9th Illinois Volunteers under Col. Campbell, who has recently returned from Cuba, is mustering volunteers here for the Philippines The troops Mr. Willis has are to compose a part of Col. Campbell's regiment, which, it is said, will go to Jefferson Barracks soon for drill and thence to the Philippines.

Blast Furnace Resumes.

Chicago, June 29.—The officials of the South Chicago Furnace Company, will start up their big plant at 106th street on the Fourth of July, and it is expected will run steadily for an indefinite period. Its entire capacity for the coming twelvemonths has already been sold.

Fatal Explosion.

New York, June 29.—An explosion occurred in Childs's brewery, Thirty-third street and Tenth avenue. Fred Schaechtle, one of the employes, had both legs blown off. He was taken to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died.

RIOT IN BRUSSELS.

Socialists Assault Ministers—Troops Clear the Room.

Brussels, June 29.—There was an unparalled scene in the Chamber of Deputies. The Socialists persisted in a course of systematic obstruction, whistling, singing and shouting constantly.

They finally attempted to assault the members of the Government with their fists and many of them rolled on the floor in rough and tumble combats.

The person of the Premier was threatened as the one responsible for the suffrage bill, and he was protected from violence only by members standing in front of him.

The Chamber was finally cleared by the troops.

The public are wildly excited and the streets are crowded.

The King has decided to return to Brussels and remain in the palace during the discussion of the suffrage bill.

Riots are inevitable. The Government buildings are being guarded by troops.

Revolutionary speeches were made at large meetings held at Liege and Ghent. A crisis is imminent.

Mrs. McKinley Improving.

Washington, June 29.—Mrs. McKinley's health continues to improve, although she is not yet a well woman by any means. Her physician says she is getting along as nicely as can be expected and that he does not consider her condition of an alarming nature.

MRS. M'KINLEY.

Negro Killed by a Train.

Mount Vernon, Ill., June 29.—Arthur Brown, colored, 20 years of age and supposed to be from Birmingham, Ala., was run over and killed by a Louisville and Nashville freight train at Bell Rive, ten miles east of this city. Brown and two companions were "beating" their way to St. Louis, and were put off by the trainmen at Belle Rive. As the train pulled out they attempted to board it again, but Brown fell beneath the wheels and was crushed to death.

William Levans Dead.

Princeton, Ind., June 29.—William Levans, president of the People's National Bank in this city, died here. He was 71 years old. He held the bank presidency ince its organization, nearly thirty years ago. He was town and city treasurer for thirty-five consecutive years. His estate is valued at $200,000. He was a bachelor, and leaves his fortune to a niece and four nephews.

Returns to Stand Trial.

Minneapolis, June 29.—Louis F. Menage, former president of the defunct Northwestern Guaranty Loan Company, which failed for a large amount in 1893, has returned and surrendered to the Sheriff. There are two indictments against Menage for grand larceny, and after spending six years in Guatemala and Mexico he determined to return and stand trial.

He May Be Insane.

Dillsboro, Ind., June 29.—A man who has probably escaped from his family or from some asylum is being held by Henry Ellinghausen, Superintendent of the County Poor Farm, for identification. He appears to be about 30 years old, has light brown hair and blue eyes and weighs 125 pounds. His height is five feet and six inches.

Capt. Mosley Commits Suicide.

Troy, Mo., June 29.—Capt. M. V. Mosley, a prominent farmer, living eight miles southeast of Troy, committed suicide by shooting himself in the forehead. The deed was done as he knelt by the side of the bed in which his wife was sleeping. For a week Capt. Mosley had been in a despondent mood.

Cattle Dying From Hydrophobia.

Perry, Okla., June 29.—Near Jennings, east of here, is a community in which 100 head of cattle and 100 head of hogs have died recently of hydrophobia. Mrs. Steve Clark, the wife of a well-to-do farmer, who was bitten by a pet pig, is dying. Several persons have been bitten by dogs and other animals.

Tennessee Valley Cotton Report.

Huntsville, Ala., June 29.—Reports from various parts of the Tennessee Valley show that cotton has suffered slightly during the past month from the continued drouth. The average prospective yield of this year is about 85 per cent. of the crops of 1897 and 1898.

Lynchers Have Confessed.

Athens, Texas, June 29.—It is reported that three of the men who assisted in the lynching of the three Humphries have made a full confession stating that the plot was prearranged, and that informers were to be punished with death. An ex-Sheriff, it is stated was the ringleader of the party.

Reckleben Gets Fifteen Years.

London, Ohio, June 29.—Judge Walters overruled a motion for a new trial in the case of Carl Reckleben and sentenced him to 15 years in the penitentiary. Rechleben assaulted Mrs. James Hutsler, shot her three times and then attempted to burn her up.

Two Feet of Pain.

Pain is not usually measured by the foot, yet it is a fact that the unfortunates who suffer the miseries of aching feet endure an inch of torture to every square inch of foot they own.

Pain of any kind causes a strain upon the nervous system, and if prolonged and unchecked will create depression of spirits and despondency.

Aching feet are vexatious, aggravating and irritating, and nothing is more annoying than feet deformed and distorted from corns and bunions. Mr. Brown's painless method for the treatment and cure of corns, bunions, ingrowing and club toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty, chafed and burning feet, is endorsed by all eminent physicians He has made diseases of the feet a life study. Corns, bunions and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago in Plainfield have not come back and the feet today are sound and well. Read the proof:

D. S. Scheuer, grocer, Front St; H. A. Weber, grocer, Liberty and Second streets; S. Sharkey, grocer, Third and Richmond streets; G. Voehl, bakery, 127 Front street; F. R. Vanderhoof, at F. Endress' meat market, Front street, and many others had corns, bunions, and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago; no trouble since. Albert Runyon, 41 Mountain avenue; J. Q. Miles, J. P., 28 Somerset street; F. Cullen, and Mrs. Cullen, 1001 Second street; Mrs. M. O. Terry, 331 East Third street; J. D. Smalley, meat market, 153 Front street; H. L. Overbaugh, 118 Elmwood place; W. W. Warnock, bakery, 138 North avenue; J. J. Stites, blacksmith, Dunellen; and hundreds of others say that Mr. Brown completely cured their bunions, ingrowing toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty and tender feet, etc. They all say the treatment was painless; no soreness after.

Senator Cross' Renomination.

According to many newspapers in New Jersey Senator Cross is going to have a hard fight to be re-nominated in Union county this fall. The rumor has caused a good deal of political gossip, but the Elizabeth Journal dismisses it thusly:

"It is not only Judge Cross' intention to run for the senatorial nomination, but it is Gov. Voorhees' freely expressed desire to have him run and to have him re-elected. But better than even this, it is the desire and determination of the Republicans of Union county to have him run for the nomination and have him elected to the Senate. There is practically no other man named or thought of in this connection. The Trenton correspondents of the newspapers named could easily ascertain these facts by asking Governor Voorhees any time he is in Trenton. Put this down as a fact, Judge Cross will be nominated by the Republicans and elected. The other nominations in Union county may be subject to discussion, but that of Judge Cross is essentially settled by the will of the people."

AMERICAN RACING AUTOCARS.

A Frenchman claims the autocar racing championship, but his title is to be contested with an American built carriage. An American firm is said to have built an automobile which will run 65 miles an hour on good roads. One of these cars will be sent to France. The autocar shown was made in Chicago.

The reign of terror is at hand, and the following suggestions made by the Chief of the New York Fire Department in view thereof should be heeded in every town:

The patriotic feeling of the people since the termination of the Spanish-American War seems to indicate that Independence Day, July 4th, 1899, will be celebrated by an unusal display of fireworks, thereby likely to cause a greater number of fires than during the same period of previous years. The attention of all citizens is therefore called to the necessity of more care in the interests of the preservation of property. Citizens are particularly requested to keep all areaways clear of all accumulation of rubbish or combustible material of any kind: to see that all doors leading to cellars and areaways are kept closed, more especially in the business sections of the city: also all windows or scuttles on roofs where fireworks are likely to enter should be closed and kept closed until after the display is over. To be prepared for any fire which might occur. I would suggest that pails of water be kept handy for instant use, and that the citizens should be cool and use good judgment which may be the means of preventing a conflagration.

An official change that has long been anticipated comes in the announcement that State Fish and Game Protector Charles A. Shriver has resigned. The resignation was presented because the incumbent realized that he would not be able to be re-appointed. When Governor Voorhees was elected it was predicted that Mr. Shriver would be forced to resign, because he had openly opposed the Governor. Mr. Shriver is a political pow- and his friends thought that sufficient influence could be brought to bear upon the Governor to induce him to withdraw his opposition to Mr. Shriver's reappointment. When Governor Voorhees appointed the New Fish and Game Commission it was known that Shriver would have to go.

A study of the figures denoting the number of persons who took advantage of the free excursion to Newark yesterday affords an encouraging view for the Plainfield merchants in comparison to the merchants in other towns that the Newark dealers are striving to attract attention from. From Somerville, which is about one-quarter as large as Plainfield, more people took advantage of the free ride than from this city, and the same proportion prevailed with reference to the other stations. The reason for this, of course, is that Plainfield possesses stores able to compete in every way with Newark establishments, and the people have less reason and inducement for leaving town to trade than any of the other towns.

The ardor of the Newark Advertiser in its desire to attract trade from Plainfield to Newark induces the wildest sort of exaggeration at times. For instance, in its account of the free excursion given to Plainfielders by the Newark merchants the Advertiser declared that there were 2,500 who took advantage of the offer, and that a brass band led the excursionist to the North Avenue station in this city. The number that went on the excursion did not exceed 1,200, and the band of music was all a gigantic myth.

The Chicago Times-Herald after discussing events at the Peace Conference, in which it says that Russia's hand is against civilization, concludes: "There will be no way of disguising the fact from the world that in the Peace Congress at every stage of the deliberations America has stood for the most humanitarian and the most progressive ideas known to modern enlightenment and civilization."

The other day the esteemed Elizabetd Journal professed to be ignorant of any attempt of the Tin Plate Trust to raise priees because it has a monopoly of the Trade. The scholarly editor of the Journal is the only gentleman in the profession that assumes such an attitude. The oppressive tactics of the Tin Plate Trust are too well-known for anyone else to champion this combine.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

A Cincinatti man recently advertised his desire to sell a valuable secret for 50 cents. He stated that he would tell how he was cured of drinking, smoking swearing, staying out at night, going to the races, gambling and how he gained twenty pound in weight in two years. Several persons sent him 50 cents each, and here is the secret they received: "Just cured of all the bad habits named by an enforced residence for two years in the Ohio State prison."

"Four hundred miles from home. No grub. No land in sight. If found please advise my wife at Bound Brook and say my last thoughts were of her —Oh what a night."

It was written on a scrap of yellow paper and trust into a bottle, which was discovered Monday afternoon, at New Market pond, just above the iron railroad bridge. Charles Burt and Elliott Taylor, both of West Seventh street, with three friends, were hunting for turtles when they discovered the bottle and its strange contents. Documents of this kind are occasionly picked up in the neighborhood of New Market but are the work of some would-be brilliant joker. The fact that no amount of cruising in New Market's famous lake is likely to take anyone out of sight of lank, mades the contents of the document sound extremely unreliable.

The stinging insect, of which much has been said, has considered Plainfield of enough importance not to pass by. The bug, or insect, found a victim a few days ago in a young man whom it stung unmercifully as he was on his way to business one morning. The celebrated Jersey mosquito is not in it with this pest. The new offender does not even display the usual courtesy of the native mosquito, but steals upon those whose peace he would destroy and deals them a blow on the cheek, neck or lips, as the case may be, and then disappears as suddenly as he comes. Some people are so ungrateful as to maintain that the insect is a product of Spain and was brought over by the Spaniards when they came over to put to route the interferring Yankees. The insect usually operates, however, in the night when the unfortunate victim is in the arms of Morpheus. No one appears to know what the offending insect is like, as the creature has never been detected at work.

He Fooled the Surgeons.

All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on earth, and the best Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

GIVE THE CHILDREN A DRINK

called Grain-O. It is a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the finest coffee but is free from all its injurious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about ¼ as much as coffee 15 and 25c.

Table Damask Sale.

This is not the season for a Sale of Table Linens, but when we are able to give such values as we shall offer for the next few days we feel justified in making this sale. A large Importing house about to move was anxious to dispose of as much stock as possible to avoid moving same. The remarkably low prices quoted for very desirable goods induced us to buy very heavily, and we now find ourselves in a position to offer the people of this community such Bargains in Table Damask as they never dreamed of. The lot comprises some inconceivably choice 72 in Bleached Damask in the most attractive designs.

There are also many exceptionally good half-bleached German Damasks made to stand hard service. They will bleach very quickly and wear interminably.

THIS SALE is one of supreme importance to all thrifty housekeepers who wish to "stock up" with little expense.

Washable Silk Shirt Waists $1.75.

Of course they were not made to sell for such a price. The manufacturer expected to get at least $3 for them; no fault of the waist that he took less, and if we choose to do without a profit, you are the gainer. We want to know just how fast a desirable article can be sold if marked at half value, that's why this price..... $1.75 are guaranteed every thread silk, made with separate waist lining, have stock collars, deep pointed double stitched yoke and pleated backs. They are in pretty plaids, stripes and checks, sizes 32 to 38, sale is for Friday and Saturday only.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, June 29.—The semi-annual election of officers of William G. Holton Council, Junior Order of American Mechanics, was held Monday evening. These officers were elected: Junior Past Councilor, John Henry; Councilor, Louis Vosler; Vice-Councilor, I. J. Stites: Conductor, Eugene Thompson; Warden, H. N. Vail; Inside Sentinel, William Schveley; Outside Sentinel, Harry Dodwell; Recording Secretary, J. N. Apgar; Assist. Recording Secretary, A. R. Merrill; Financial Secretary, W. N. Apgar; Treasurer, F. W. Vail,

Many people went on the excursion to Newark yesterday, and in consequence the village was deserted. Sixty-five tickets were sold at the local station.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Sutten are the happy parents of a son, born to them on Sunday.

Mrs. S. B. Stryker is entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Young, of Flemington.

The Misses Lizzie and Mary Martine are visiting in New Brunswick.

Mrs. Wm. Wyckoff is entertaining friends from Flemington.

Henry Garretson spent yesterday at Perth Amboy.

Eugene Ruyon is visiting in Newark.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, June 29.—Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hall, of Fanwood, entertained a number of the teachers and scholars of the Baptist church at their home, "The Terrace," last evening. The pleasant little affair was arranged for the purpose of introducing the Misses Shott, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Shott, who are spending their vacation with their parents.

Frederick Scheelen, of Jerusalem road, was married Wednesday morning in New York city to Miss Mary Mehowens. Mr. and Mrs. Scheelen will shortly take up their residence at the Hawthorne place on Mountain avenue.

The Mountain avenue five mile course is a favorite practising ground, not only for Scotch Plains cyclists, but Plainfield ones as well. Nearly every night a large number of riders can be seen practising on the course.

Wilbur Miller, who was so badly bitten on the arm by Mrs. Hoffman's New Foundland dog Tuesday, has a very sore and painful injury and it will be some time before he will be able to use the member.

The ladies of Scotch Plains turned out in full force Wednesday to attend the free excursion tendered by the Newark's dry goods merchants.

The condition of Mrs. Fred Rose, who has been very ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Gibbs, remains about the same.

William E. Collins, of Fanwood, has been making a number of improvements to his home, "Corona Villa."

Thomas Whiteman's cottage on Forest avenue looks very neat with its new coat of paint.

Mrs. George Clark is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Smith at Lincoln.

Mrs. Samuel Bishops, of Elizabeth, was the guest of friends in town Wednesday.

Miss Kittie Buckley visited friends in Westfield Wednesday evening.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Westfield, June 29—R. M. Stickle has been appointed the official handicapper of the fifteen-mile bicycle race to be run the Fourth of July. He will do the handicapping under the supervision and direction of Charles H. Norwood, of Paterson, the State handicapper of the L. A. W. Entries for the race are coming in fast and it is expected that at least fifty men will start in this race, which it is proposed to make an annual event in Westfield. The first prize is a $75 racing bicycle and the time prize a wheel of the same value. A gold and silver medal will be given for second and third men.

No news has yet been heard from Matthew Collins, the sixteen-year-old boy who disappeared from the farm of Frederick Sheelan Tuesday. Mr. Sheelan now thinks that the boy must have grown tired of farm life and went to Newark, where he had a sister residing.

The Shakespeare Press, of Westfield, will publish early in September a revised and up-to-date history of the life of Shakespeare, which will be adapted to use in the public schels of the country.

—If you want the lowest cash price in bicycles or bicycle sundries, and want to save money in buying these goods, go to Frucht's, 218 to 224 Park avenue.

—The raspberry crop in the vicinity of Vineland this year is the smallest known for some time, but farmers have to a great extent been compensated for the light yield by the unusually high prices realized.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help, but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion build up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by L. W. Randolph, druggist. Guaranteed.

L. W. Randolph, of Washington Park, was able to take a carriage ride yesterday, which is the first time he has been out since his severe illness.

George Kirch, of Liberty street, who was severely burned Tuesday last, is slowly recovering. He still suffers much severe pain about the face and hands.

Mrs. E S. F. Randolph, of West Fourth street, and Miss Sadie Randolph, of West Eighth street, who have been summering at Spring Valley, N. Y., are now visiting at Nyack, N. Y., the former home of Mrs. Randolph.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that their is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

BOYNTON BEACH.

THERE IS ONLY ONE
FOURTH OF JULY A YEAR.

It is a shame not to spend it where you are sure of a good time. There isn't another place in New Jersey where you can take your whole family and know that each one of them will have a good time.

Of course you know all about the comfortable shaded grounds, the cool seats on the veranda overlooking the water, the boating, naptha launch rides, bowling and bathing.

Maybe you have never heard the

BOYNTON BEACH ORCHESTRA,

composed of five fine musicians. It will furnish the music on the FOURTH.

Dancing, as usual, will be one of the chief pleasures.

The Diving Dock for swimmers, so popular last season, continues to draw crowds.

Fishing we put at the last, but it may be the only amusement you care about. Never mind, "There are others" just like you. Here's a quiet tip. The weak fish are running well now. You can have a glorious day catching them while your wife and children picnic.

Be Sure and Bring Your Family With You.

A BEAUTIFUL GOWN

Effective Costume Made Up of Lace and Foulard.

Dress of foulard and lace. The upper part of the dress is made of white foulard figured in black. The overskirt is scalloped on the bottom; the scallops are lined with the foulard. The overskirt falls over two scalloped circular pieces of the foulard, which are attached to the foundation skirt and fall over a flounce of lace which is also attached to the foundation skirt. The skirt fastens in the back.

DRESS OF FOULARD AND LACE.

The opening is finished on each side with a cluster of tucks. The corsage is made of the foulard. The collar is made of black chiffon inserted with lace over white lace. The sleeves are made of the foulard and the lace. The lower part of the corsage is tucked above the waist line. The sleeves are made of the lace and the foulard.

Popularity of Fat Women in Turkey.

In Turkey the most beautiful and desirable woman is the one who weighs the most. A thin and willowy creature would have no social standing in Turkey, and would be a total failure on the stage in Constantinople. Unless a woman is fat she cannot secure an engagement in a music hall, and the fatter she is the more enthusiasm she arouses and the larger her salary.

On the evening after my arrival in Constantinople I went to the Concordia Music Hall with my American acquaintances, and there I saw more feminine breadth, depth, thickness, heft and circumference than I had ever before seen under one roof.

Judging from the arrangement of the bill and the applause bestowed on the various mastodon soubrettes, I would say that in Constantinople a woman weighing 225 pounds and possessed of a fair singing voice could get an engagement at a music hall, but she would be compelled to accept a low salary and appear early in the bill.

In the bill at the Concordia were French and German women, one lone American (estimated weight 275) and several from Turkish Europe. The first woman who sang was fat; the second was fatter; the third was—no, not fattest, although she was much heavier than No. 2. She was merely the promise of what was yet to come. They were holding back the really big artists for the finale. At last these two came on. They were "sisters," and they made a large family by themselves.

"Great Scott!" exclaimed the man from Lafayette. "Why didn't they roll them on the stage? How much do you suppose they weigh?"

"A ton a piece?" ventured the New Yorker.

"Too low, too low."

The house arose in joy as the two vast, egg-shaped objects appeared on the stage. The Turks, who had been sitting stolidly in the boxes looking with dull concern at the frail vocalists who weighed less than 300, now straightened up and clapped their hands. The Turk in front of us (he had checker-board trousers and a low white vest) shouted "Bravo!"

The two sisters were the hit of the show. They had to sing until their globular faces were pink with exertion and their balloon like costumes rose and fell with the heavings of their exertion. We wondered if they ever had comic opera in Turkey, and if it would be safe to put the entire chorus on one stage.

Things to Consider in Making a Menu.

The planning of menu is one of the most exacting duties of a hostess who desires to make or keep a reputation as a successful entertainer. "Pot luck" and "take us as you find us" are all well enough up to a certain point, but there are occasions that demand a carefully thought-out arrangement of a dinner, and when anything else would be a discourtesy to one's guests. In making up a menu the season limits one at the start. A stumbling block that remains through all seasons are the limitations of one's cook. If you are not the possessor of a skilled chef it is of no use to expect high-art cooking and elaborately concocted dishes. Plan your menu within the range of your cook's capabilities.

It may be impossible to please all one's guests, but it will be well to have those things on the menu that will appeal to the greatest number. A hostess who has divined the idiosyncracies of her guests and is able to humor them is sure of a success. One of the chief attributes of success is the ability to give a personal or distinctive note to one's dinner.

PROFESSIONAL WOMAN'S LEAGUE.

A Worthy Organization and the Noble Woman Who Founded It.

By OLIVE HARPER.

Mrs. A. M. Palmer has been so closely identified with the Professional Woman's league, as founder and president, that her name is a household word everywhere. Few people, even those who have heard of "the P. W. L.," as its members lovingly call the league, know how farreaching and how useful a society it is. It is at once a proof that a club can exist and be at one and the same time a means of pleasant intercourse among women whose tastes and occupations make them congenial companions.

Of its substantial benefit to those in need of a helping hand it is not necessary to speak in detail. Only a few words may be said about the most useful library of all sorts of books valuable to members of the theatrical profession. This is open to all members, and affords them a choice of needed works scarcely to be found elsewhere. The wardrobe is a wonder in its way. All sorts of garments, wigs, jewels and costume shoes are there, most of them donated by different actors and actresses. Many of them possess historic value, as well as practical usefulness.

There are also many curious things—relics of persons and things pertaining to the profession. A fine array of costumes of every description is also provided for the use of such members as may require them and who perhaps are not able to buy.

There are many ways in which a helping hand is held out to members. Lessons in languages, dancing, fencing, etc., are all provided at a cost impossible to the learner under other circumstances. Besides, there is always the handsome clubhouse, with its homelike feeling of calm and repose as soon as the doors close upon the noisy street.

This club has as its aims "to bring together women engaged in dramatic, musical, literary, artistic and scientific pursuits, with the view of rendering them mutually helpful; to minister to the financial needs of members; to provide instruction in the various branches made necessary by the requirements of each member's chosen profession, at the lowest possible rate, and to arrange and conduct a department to provide members with such outfit as is necessary for the obtaining of employment."

Aside from these are many private acts of kindness not provided for in the laws, but all the same they are performed in a way to help the needy one without destroying her self respect by charity.

There is no part of this excellent work that does not run smoothly and form a component part of the whole complicated machinery. To Mrs. A. M. Palmer is due the credit of this most excellent organization. She devised it, planned it, and with energy and a keen knowledge of women and their needs carried it forward to perfection.

There has been no begging for it other than a couple of bazaars, where everybody had his or her quid pro quo. There are no debts and a very comfortable sum in the savings banks. During all these years Mrs. Palmer has been president. She now declares that she will not run for another term. She needs rest, and, besides that, she has branched out in a new role, that of theatrical manager.

This role has taught her several new things. One is that it is easy to get into lawsuits and that they are costly.

Mrs. Palmer has always been particularly renowned for her love and appreciation of other women. Her heart is as tender as it is big. Every one who knows her is charmed by the frank sincerity of her speech and the loving kindness in her eyes. She may be truly called "the friend of women," not of one woman, but of all.

There was recently conferred upon her the grand medal and international order of Les Sauveteurs of France for her devotion to the cause of humanity and the succor of those in need. The order in question is of gold and enamel, and has a ribbon and rosette, also buttons, as insignia to wear upon the lapel of her coat. The grand medal is only to wear at great functions and special occations. Every one who knows Mrs. Palmer and many who have never met the genial, brainy founder and president of the P. W. L., feel that she has deserved this recognition.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Baden.

Karlsruhe. Der hiesigen „Liederhalle" ist es beim Kasseler Wettsingen gelungen, den sechsten Ehrenpreis, einen silbernen Becher, gestiftet vom hessischen Sängerbund, zu erringen.—Nach 50jähriger Dienstzeit ist der Vorstand des hiesigen Domänenamts, Domänenrath Josef Kreutz, in den Ruhestand getreten.—Der Direktor der großherzoglichen Kunstgallerie, Ernst Richard, ist gestorben.

Emmendingen. Bei der Fahrt zur Jagd entlud sich das Gewehr des Hauptmanns Giese. Die Schrotladung ging in's Knie, das vollständig zerschmettert wurde.

Mannheim. Der Bürgerausschuß bewilligte zur Bestreitung der Kosten der Vorarbeiten für die Erbauung von Vorortbahnen einen Kredit von 50,000 Mark.—Hier verursachten strikende Zimmerleute einen Aufruhr, welcher derartige Dimensionen annahm, daß die Polizei einschreiten mußte und 51 Verhaftungen vornahm. Von dem Richter wurden am darauffolgenden Tage die Arrestanten zu insgesammt 582 Tagen Gefängniß verurtheilt.

Pforzheim. In der Nähe der Stadt erschoß sich der 25jährige ledige Buchhalter Fried. Klotz aus Neuhausen.

Reichenbach. Die Maschinenfabrik und Eisengießerei von Geer u. Langner in Rothenthal ist vollständig niedergebrannt.

Seckenheim. In der Nähe der hiesigen Station sprang der 21jährige Hausbursche Johann Hettinger vom Zuge, um seinen Hut, der ihm vom Kopfe gefallen war, zu holen. Der junge Mann erlitt dabei schwere Verletzungen.

Elsaß-Lothringen.

Straßburg. Das Verschenken elsässischer Burgruinen scheint epidemisch werden zu wollen. Elsässischen Zeitungen zufolge soll die reichsländische Regierung die Schloßruine Kaysersberg dem bisherigen Besitzer um 1800 Mark abgekauft haben, um sie nach Vornahme mancher Ausbesserungsarbeiten dem Vogesenklub zu schenken. Das imposante Schloß, von dem noch die crenelirte Umfassungsmauer und der mächtige Donjon stehen, stammt nebst der Stadtmauer, die mit dem Schloß verbunden ist, von dem Kaiserlichen Landvogt Wolfelin, unter Kaiser Friedrich dem Zweiten; im 30jährigen Kriege wurde es aufgelassen und ist seitdem immer mehr in Verfall gekommen.

Metz. Dieser Tage wurden die beiden Denkmäler, welche die Vereinigung zur Schmückung der Kriegergräber den beim Sturm auf St. Privat gefallenen Kriegern errichtet hat, eingeweiht. Das eine Denkmal hat die Form eines Obelisken, das andere die eines Kreuzes.

Oesterreich.

Wien. Die „Deutsche Zeitung" stellte kürzlich ihr Erscheinen ein, weil ihre Setzer die Arbeit niederlegten. Der Grund des Ausstandes ist die Einstellung des Setzers Kauschek, eines Bruders des christlich-sozialen Agitators, der sich weigerte, der sozialdemokratischen Buchdruckerorganisation beizutreten.—Der vom Bicycleklub angelegte Radfahrerweg von Wien nach Bockfließ, derzeit der längste Radfahrerweg Oesterreichs (21.5 Kilometer), ist dem Verkehr übergeben worden.—Offiziere der bayerischen Militär-Luftschifferabtheilung, die Premierlieutenants Faener, Plauc und Lieutenant Kapeller, langten kürzlich per Ballon bei Siebenhirten an. Der Ballon flog in östlicher Richtung über Braunau, Wels, Amstetten, St. Pölten. Die größte Höhe betrug 3500 Meter. Offiziere waren nach Wien gekommen, um ihre Luftschifferkameraden zu besuchen und wurden in herzlichster Weise aufgenommen.—Hier gehen die Wogen gegen die antiliberale Gemeindewahlrechts-Vorlage sehr hoch. Es finden zahlreiche Protestversammlungen statt. Zu Ausschreitungen kam es vor der Wohnung des früheren Bürgermeisters Strobach. Die Polizei zog blank und verwundete mehrere Personen, darunter leider auch eine Greisin.

Budapest. Aus Süd-Ungarn, speziell aus den getreidereichsten Komitaten, kommen Nachrichten über einen verheerenden Hagelschlag, der vier Fünftel der Saaten vernichtete.

Fünfkirchen. Der Lithograph Hochrein und Mechaniker Goepil sind wegen Fälschung von 10-Guldennoten, welche sie auf photographischem Wege täuschend nachmachten und in großer Menge verbreiteten, verhaftet worden.

Groz. Der evangelische Pfarrvikar von Laibach, Otto Baumgart, ein noch junger Mann, begab sich zu einer Probepredigt nach Feld am See, stieg zum Botanisiren in die Berge und stürzte ab. Er wurde in Feld am See begraben.

Hallein. Die Salinenarbeitersgattin Maria Moik stürzte sich in die Alm. Ursache des Selbstmordes soll häuslicher Zwist sein.

Reichenberg. Hier hat sich ein Komite gebildet zur Errichtung eines Denkmals für den Fürsten Bismarck.

ON THE FIELD OF EL CANEY

Thrilling Account of the Battle By Lieut. Wallace, U. S. Infantry.

A MEMORABLE MARCH.

Bodies of the Dead Soldiers Lined the Road and War Became a Stern Reality.

The Awful Rain of Bullets From a Spanish Stone Fort—Rivers of Lead Flowing in Each Direction—Cannon Found the Range and Structure Was Quickly Demolished.

Lieut. William Wallace of the Seventh United States infantry, a nephew of Gen. Lew Wallace of "Ben Hur" fame, tells of his experience in the trenches of Santiago de Cuba as follows:

"At 4 a. m. June 24 we moved forward and marched about six miles over the worst road imaginable. All the roads here are of the same character, and were originally foot and mule paths, but centuries of rain has made them deep gullies scarcely wide enough for one man and his pack to march in. We reached a beautiful cocoanut grove about 8 in the morning. Everyone was nearly exhausted by that time. There were no horses or mules yet and I saw a general carrying a pack. I believe it was the intention to camp here during the day, but the Spaniards thought differently.

"The rough riders (riders by courtesy only, since all were afoot) were exceedingly anxious to get into Santiago first. They thought they could simply walk over every Spaniard in sight and get into the town that night. The army needed an advance guard, so they, supported by the First and Ninth cavalry, were detailed as such.

"We had not been in camp more than half an hour when furious firing was heard far to the front. The Seventh, which throughout was at the head of the column was hurried forward, followed by the rest of the brigade—the Twelfth and Seventeenth infantry.

"No one who made that march will ever forget it. Exhausted to start with, the men soon began to lighten themselves of their packs. The road was simply lined with packs, blankets and haversacks. You could have walked afterward all the way on government blankets. Hour after hour we kept it up and at 2 o'clock we came to a halt where the morning firing had taken place. The firing, however, had ceased.

"The rough riders with our cavalry had driven the enemy back. The appearance of the infantry caused them to further retire. Why, I do not know, for 300 of our men could have held such a position for a week, perhaps a month. It was here we saw the first evidences of war. Our dead soldiers lined the road, and the wounded were being taken to the hospitals a little in the rear. I can never forget the sight, and from that moment the picnic part of the war ended for us. War became a stern reality at the sight of those dead soldiers.

An hour's rest here and again we are pushed to a better position. Another rest and again on until finally at 7 o'clock we went into camp for the night. On June 25, 26, 27, 28 and 29 we moved about, but never far. We did ordinary patrol duty and covered the assembly of troops in the rear. June 30, at 4 p. m., the brigade was formed, and in a pouring rain we set out. But where to was a mystery. By 9 that evening we had marched around to the north side of the city, about three miles east of El Caney.

"At daylight, July 1, we were ordered forward without breakfast, toward Caney. At 7 some firing was heard in the front and the march was hastened.

"The worst of it all was, that no one seemed to know where the fire was coming from. There was, as I afterward saw, a stone fort on the left and a blockhouse to the right. The bullets were coming thicker and thicker. Death was all around.

"The order finally came to advance. The company crossed a bullet-showered field in good order. I never expected to get across alive. Very soon the companies were all behind the crest commanding the town. The fun began when all the companies commenced to fire into the town. It was rivers of lead flowing each way. The fusilade was awful, yet to rise so much as to your knees was certain death. Finally, after a whole day of useless firing, the cannon got the range of the stone fort and silenced it. This was the key to the Spanish position, and after its fall the firing grew less heavy. At 4 o'clock the Spanish firing ceased altogether, and a little later we were withdrawn."

The Naval Engineer in Battle.

If you were sealed up in a heated iron tank floating on the sea and hammered at by missiles which now and then let in daylight and splinters, you would get a dim idea of the lot of the engineer's men aboard a battleship in action. But the engineer's men have to work in the hurly-burly, and you would go mad in your tank. The enemy's shot pounds the ship, but the engineer and his men know not where the enemy is or where the ship is heading. And they can't stop to think about it. Keep that bearing cool, smother it in oil, down it in water! Keep it cool, or the game's up! The men on deck can let the splinters lie where they fall, but the men in the engine room have to keep the splinters out of the machinery. Steam pipes are pierced. Mend 'em. Crawl behind the boilers, and stop that steam leak Impossible to shut off anything Scalded? Never mind. It's all in the day's work. Don't let the water down Pass the coal lively. And while you are about it, put out that fire in the bunkers. In the lower engine rooms the thermometer shows 136 degrees in front of the ventilating blowers; in the upper engine rooms, 190 degrees.—Engineering Journal.

APOSTLE OF SCHOOLS.

DECREE OF CANONIZATION OF JEAN BAPTISTE DE LA SALLE.

Its Publication a Memorable Event In the Annals of the Congregation Which the Great Teacher Founded. His Virtues and His Miracles.

The decree of canonization of the venerable Jean Baptiste de la Salle was read before the holy father on Sunday, April 30, and has been published in the Osservatore Romano.

How exceedingly excellent and fruitful, says the decree, is virtue when not left to natural powers, but based upon the lofty groundwork of Christian faith, is distinctly shown by the examples of those who have been enrolled among the saints by the church, for, besides the innumerable multitudes who have died as unconquered martyrs in the cause of religion, others, buried with Christ, have led solitary lives, so pure that their virtue seemed to rival that of the angels, but others, again, have been signally distinguished while exposed to the trials of daily and public life and discharging common duties. Among the latter is to be reckoned Jean Baptiste de la Salle, founder of the religious congregation known as the Brothers of the Christian Schools, an eminent man the seventeenth century had a right to glorify.

The decree then gives a history of his life. He was born at Reims in 1651, of a good family. He was chosen a canon of the metropolitan church of Reims in his sixteenth year, and, having become a priest, he more than fulfilled the expectations formed of him. Being specially suited for the work of education, he founded primary schools and introduced that system of training which the congregation adopted, and the utility of which has been proved by experience in all parts of the world. He also desired the establishment of a training college for teachers, of which method of preparation for school work our own age boasts as a modern introduction. It is not surprising that France publicly set up a statue to one who deserved so well of his kind. A man of singular piety, he renounced his paternal inheritance and family advantages and lived a humble and austere life, full of all sorts of difficulties and annoyances.

Two miracles effected through his intercession are then recorded—one the case of a youth who was dying at the Ruthenian college in France, and the other of Brother Netheelmus, who was suffering in the spine at a house of the congregation, the Maison Neuve, and was unable to walk. Both were cured instantaneously in 1889 through the intercession of blessed Jean Baptiste de la Salle.

The brothers of the Christian schools, says the London Catholic Times and Opinion, have sent an address to the holy father, thanking him for the decree. It affords them immense consolation in a time of trouble, and they are convinced that this glorification of the apostle of the Christian schools will be an efficacious lesson at a period when it is sought to deprive the young of the influence of the church. They hope that Leo XIII will soon enroll the name of their founder in the calendar of the saints.

The publication of the decree of canonization of the founder of the brothers of the Christian schools, continues The Times and Opinion, will be a memorable event in the annals of that congregation. What they have done through their schools for the welfare of France could not be easily described. The millions of children whom they have trained have always been among her most exemplary citizens, yet such have been the effects of the anticlerical movement in recent years that any incident in the most remote degree tending to prejudice the public against the brothers is eagerly seized upon by journalists and made the theme of the most bitter accusations against men whose lives are, as a rule, models of resignation and self sacrifice. It is no slight encouragement to them to find that their work is appreciated at Rome and that the virtues they practice are honored in their founder. They will feel that they discharge their duties toward society well when they reach the ideal he aimed at. That is a system of training in which the best elements in the minds of the young are drawn out and perfected to the advantage of the individual, society and the state.

"Adore" and "Worship."

The word "adore" has come to be used among Catholics to characterize the honor and devotion we pay to God. In this country, at least, we do not use the word "worship" as much as we might. It is a good word, whether it is applied to honoring God or the saints, images or relics. But in controversies with Protestants they have so abused the use of the word, trying to make it appear that because we worshiped both God and his creatures we were idolaters, not distinguishing between the greater worship to be given to God and the lesser worship given his creatures, that it is seldom used. Because of the misleading use of the word by Protestants, Catholics have used "adore" to express the act of worshiping God and "honor" and "venerate" to express the act of worshiping the saints, images and relics.—H. M. Beadle in Freeman's Journal.

Maria Crescentia Hoessin.

On April 25, the cardinals, prelates and members of the Sacred Congregation of Rites met at the Vatican and held a sitting (preparatoria) for the discussion of three miracles ascribed to the intercession of the venerable servant of God, Maria Crescentia Hoessin, professed tertiary of the order of St. Francis in the Convent of Kauffbur, Bavaria. The miracles were proposed for consideration in support of the cause of beatification of the venerable servant of God.

ECCLESIASTIC ROME.

Marion Crawford on the Eternal City and the Holy Father.

It will be worth the while of non-Catholics as well as Catholics at the present time, when so many Protestants in England are shrieking out wildly "Delenda est Roma!" to weigh what Mr. Marion Crawford has to say of Rome and the papacy. Here is one of the foremost contemporary novelists. He is a Catholic, it is true, but he is also a man of the world. An American and a traveler who has seen many peoples and many cities, he is surely competent to give on this subject a judgment worthy of attention.

"'Lay' Rome, if one may use the expression, is not in the least a remarkable city. 'Ecclesiastic' Rome is the stronghold of a most tremendous fact, from whatever point of view Christianity may be considered. If one could in imagination detach the head of the Catholic church from the church, one would be obliged to admit that no single living man possesses the farreaching and lasting power which in each succeeding papal reign belongs to the pope.

"Behind the pope stands the fact which confers, maintains and extends to that power from century to century—a power which is one of the highest elements of the world's moral activity, both its own direct action and in the counteraction and antagonism which it calls forth continually. It is the all pervading presence of this great fact in Christendom which has carried on Rome's importance from the day of the Cæsars across the chasm of the dark ages to the days of the modern popes, and its really enormous importance continually throws forward in cruel relief the puerilities and inanities of the daily outward world."

As an acute and thoughtful observer of the signs of the times he sees no bright hopes for "United Italy," which is in his opinion verging toward anarchy, but in the reign and work of Leo XIII, whose character he brilliantly sketches, he perceives the germs of great things for humanity and for that Rome of which he may say that it is dimidium animæ—the half of his soul.—Father Mathew Herald.

HE HEARD MASS.

And Yet He Thought There Was Something Strange About It.

An amusing story is being told in Irish circles just now. A recent arrival in London is a Catholic gentleman hailing from the kingdom of Kerry. Having heard that a certain church in his neighborhood was much resorted to by Irish people, he resolved to hear mass there in future.

The following Sunday he wended his way to the church which had been described to him and noticed, to his surprise, that the service was not altogether what he had been accustomed to in Ireland, nor could he see any of his Irish friends. Still the clergymen at the altar were undoubtedly saying mass, and round the church were stations of the cross, just the same as at home. On the following Sunday he had similar doubts, but as there was a nun praying not far from him he convinced himself all must be right.

In a conversation with a friend a few days afterward he expressed his surprise that a number of his friends never seemed to go to mass. The friend was astonished, too, and asked what church he usually attended. When he heard, he laughed and told the Kerry man, to his great dismay, that the church in which he had prayed so devoutly for several Sundays belonged to the Established church. It was a ritualistic church, in which the services were very high church indeed and one in which the "mass" was regularly gone through. The nun, of course, belonged to a Protestant order.—London Catholic Times and Opinion.

A Jeweled Communion Service.

St. Paul's Roman Catholic church of Washington will have one of the most costly communion services in America. The Rev. Dr. Joseph Rankin and Father Mackin have collected enough gold and precious stones to make a superb chalice and enough silver for the ciborium and plate. The jewels consist of 200 pearls, many diamonds, rubies and other rare stones.

The contributions consisted of nuggets of gold and silver, old coins and jewelry, many of the latter being family relics. Some of the heirlooms have been handed down for generations in the oldest families of the country. One magnificent gift—a cross of diamonds—will adorn the chalice.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Archbishop Carr, Roman Catholic, of Melbourne is visiting in this country.

The most Rev. Denis O'Connor, D. D., has been installed archbishop of Toronto.

The Rev. Philip R. McDevitt of Philadelphia has been appointed superintendent of Catholic parochial schools in the archdiocese of Philadelphia.

Archbishop Elder has named the Very Rev. P. X. Specht, V. G., the administrator of affairs in the Columbus diocese until Bishop Watterson's successor is appointed.

Pope Leo XIII, when a young man, was very shortsighted, but as he grew older the range became longer. He usually wears glasses for reading print, but the excellence of his sight is perhaps the most noticeable feature of his holiness' striking personality.

Father Bellord has been appointed vicar apostolic of Gibraltar. He is an army chaplain of the first class and stationed at Colchester, England, and has ministered to the Catholic troops of that garrison for the past three or four years. Bishop Bellord served through the Zulu, the Boer and the Egyptian campaigns, and it was to him fell the duty of performing the last rites over the body of the prince imperial.

ARTIFICIAL DAYLIGHT

Nikola Tesla's Discovery to be Put to a Practical Test.

The promise made by Nikola Tesla to the world some two years ago that he would soon give it a means of lighting its homes, its offices and its streets at night time by "artificial daylight" has been fulfilled. The invention has been entirely completed for several weeks. A day or two ago the authoritative announcement was made that contracts have already been signed with several New York business houses to equip their business places with the new light at once. The promoters of the company which is pushing the new invention are so certain of its great practical utility that they predict that it must soon supplant the arc lamp.

"Vacuum tube lighting by high frequency currents" is what Tesla himself calls it. The name, though clumsy, is sufficiently descriptive. The essential parts are a vacuum tube, and a special current of high frequency, produced by a special dynamo, of Tesla's invention. "The tubes," Mr. Tesla explains, "have had all the air pumped out, but, of course, are full of ether. The passage of this special current sets the ether in motion, forming light waves. The light differs from arc illumination in that it has no particular center. The whole tube glows and sheds a radiance like daylight all around."

The tubes, of course, are sealed tight at both ends. A wire is made fast to one end, but there is no wire inside. The tubes at present in use are about a foot long. For special purposes, such as studio illumination, street lighting and so on, they can be made any size up to a yard. The glory and the beauty of them is that their light goes all over the place to be illuminated—is as strong in the corner of a room, as directly under the tube. Hence the truth of its name, artificial daylight. A lighted tube in a room has exactly the effect of daylight flooding the windows. Notwithstanding the tube itself is not trying to the eyes. You may look steadily at it, with no evil effects whatever.

In incandescent lighting 97 per cent. of the electric current goes to making the filament hot, leaving but 3 per cent. for illumination. And this brings us to a second long advantage of the vacuum tube. It never grows hot. You may touch the glass an hour after the light is turned on and find it as cool as when first lighted. An electric bulb in like case is hot enough to scorch, not to mention giving headaches to the luckless mortals who happen to sit directly underneath or beside it.

The tubes can be attached to the electric light fixtures in common use, but cannot be illuminated by the ordinary current. Or rather they can be made to glow with it, but the process is too costly. That was one thing that made the wise men doubtful in the beginning. A few of them thought Tesla might probably perfect his light process, but were firm in the belief that it would remain too costly for commercial use.

Tesla's new dynamo has changed all that. Contracts now signed insure that several important structures in New York city will be equipped with the new light. There can be no doubt that it will rapidly supplant other methods of illumination as soon as moneyed men build and operate high frequency current stations. The first cost of wires, tubes, etc., is about the same as for incandescent lighting, but the tubes have the very great virtue of not burning out after the manner of incandescent globes or carbon pencils, hence the cost of operation will be very much less.

When it comes to use there is simply no comparison possible. It is just the same as having a day twenty-four hours long. Everywhere, for every purpose, artificial daylight equals the real thing. The photograph of the inventor's hand was made at midnight, in his laboratory, with a two-second exposure. It was not only taken, but printed by the artificial daylight, yet it shows clearly the lines of the palm and the texture of cuff and sleeve.

Nothing remains now but to equip the world with proper wires, dynamos, and so on. Men with money know a good thing when they see it, even without artificial daylight, so it is very likely that in a matter of twelve months there will be practically no night in any considerable city of the world.

SAVING TO LAWYERS.

Revenue Stamps Not Required on Certificates of Search.

Since the enactment of the revenue law, and up to within a few days ago, the Supreme Court of this State affixed a 10 cent stamp to each certificate of search. Every abstract of title has to have one of these searches annexed, and the number turned out each day by the clerk is enormous, so that the stamps became a big item in the charges against the lawyers and title companies.

Assistant Supreme Court Clerk Charles N. Codding, of Westfield, went over the revenue law carefully soon after his appointment a few weeks ago, and gave it as his opinion that the revenue stamps could be left off the certificates. He drew up a statement of the case and submitted it to the treasury authorities at Washington, and they have sustained his view of the matter.

The saving that Mr. Codding has thereby effected for the patrons of the office amounts to considerable, and they have been complimenting him upon his success.

Do Not Want to Consolidate.

A committee of the members of the German Lutheran church called at The Daily Press office this morning and stated that they were not in favor of consolidating with the German Remormed church, as suggested in the article yesterday announcing the resignation of Rev. H. E. Eyme. They stated that another pastor had been engaged and that the church would continue to exist as it has since it was organized.

GOLF.

Men's foursome will be played on the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club grounds next Saturday. July 4th the the Bogey handicap will be played, and a reception will be held in the clubhouse from 4 to 7 o'clock.

Quite a bunch of the club experts are expected to turn out on the links of the Park Golf Club, Saturday afternoon, to participate in the regular competition for the Mrs. C. W. McCutchen Cup. There are several of the players, comparatively new at the game, who are coming forward in the contest with considerable rapidity. Fred P. Taylor stands first with five points, but, as he is out of town at present, Meridith Dryden, the energetic young secretary of the club, is practically in line with 4½. Steady careful play has landed him at the front. Augustus Faber is next in line, having scored feur points in the competition. E. T. Douglass and G. W. Cooley are strong rivals and both are playing well, despite considerable hard luck. H. D. Hibbard, F. S. Overton and A. C. Crowe are making low scores, considering their handicaps.

The principal event in local golfing circles scheduled for the Fourth of July, is the open handicap on the Park Golf Club links for the Fourth of July cup. The trophy is a neat silver cup, properly engraved. The handicap will be a men's competition, eighteen holes, medal play, open to all active and associate members, over sixteen years of age, of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club and the Park Golf Club. Play will start at 1:30 o'clock that afternoon. Competitors are requested to send their entries to Meredith Dryden, secretary, 745 Watchung avenue, on or before July 3d. It is expected that the Hillside Club will send a good representation of its best players to try for the trophy. Of course, the Park Club players will turn out well and try to keep the cup at home. The advantage will naturally be with the Park Club experts as they are used to the course but more experience on the Hillside players is apt to tell.

FIGHTING REGIMENT'S REUNION.

Civil War Veterans Meet Each Other in Newark.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Newark, June 29—Veterans of the old Eleventh New Jersey Volunteer Regiment of the Civil War gathered in Lincoln Post rooms, this city, yesterday and enjoyed the annual reunion. This regiment was one of the famous fighting regiments of the Rebellion, and more than 60 per cent. of its members were killed, but despite this fact there were about 100 members present at the reunion and they thoroughly enjoyed greeting one another.

The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows: President, John Schoonover, of Trenton; first vice-president, Alonzo B. Searing, of Dover; second vice-president, Capt. William Hand, of Plainfield; secretary, Bishop W. Mains, of Newark; treasurer, Capt. Chas. A. Oliver, of New Brunswick; chaplain, Rev. E. Clark Cline, of Phillipsburg.

The reunion was in every way a success No place was fixed for the 1900 reunion. Among those present from Plainfield who are members of the regiment were Capt. Wm. Hand and T. O. Doane.

Mrs. Clifton Wharton left this morning for Alexandria Bay, N. Y.

Dr. Norman Probasco, son of Dr. J. B. Probasco, of East Front street, is stopping with friends at Upper St. Regis Lake in the Adirondacks.

PRETTY JUNE WEDDING.

POPULAR COUPLE MARRIED IN THE GROOM'S HOME.

Miss Katherine Melcher and George Weida the Contracting Couple—Delightful Reception in Summer Garden.

One of the prettiest June weddings was that of last evening when Miss Katherine Melcher, daughter of Augustus Melcher, of Elizabeth, was united in marriage to George Weida, of West Front street, by Rev. George Hauser, pastor of the German Reformed church.

The wedding took place in the parlors of Mr. Weida's home. In one corner there was a pretty bower of flowers beneath which the popular couple were joined in wedlock in the presence of a hundred relatives and friends, mostly from out of town. The familar wedding marches from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn were played by the orchestra as the bridal party entered the parlors and after the ceremony.

The bride was gowned in white organdie, with trimmings of white satin ribbon and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. She entered the parlors leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away in marriage. The bride was also attended by Miss Julia Hammer, of Elizabeth, as bridemaid. Her gown was white organdie over pink. The best man was Frank Haurand, of this city.

The ceremony was that used in the German church, and after the couple were wedded all then adjourned to the summer garden in the rear of the residence where a supper was served under the direction of Mrs. Markthala, of Elizabeth. The garden was decorated with Japanese lanterns and flowers. A feature of the reception was the dancing which took place in the garden.

The bride remembered the bridemaid in a pleasant way and presented her with a handsome opal ring, while the groom presented his best man with a costly scarf pin. The many valuable presents received by Mr. and Mrs. Weida attested in a measure to the high esteem in which they are held by their friends.

Among those who assisted in receiving with the bride and groom was Mrs. Charles Laury, formerly of Somerville, but now of Plainfield. Mr. and Mrs. Weida will reside on West Front street, where the wedding took place.

CHANCE TO BE A NAVAL CADET.

Orville Waring, of the Borough, Appointed Alternate to Annapolis.

New Brunswick, June 29.—The result of the competitive examination, held in this city on June 22nd to decide the appointment to a cadetship in the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, has been announced. The winner of the examination is Horace D. Vandern, sixteen years of age, of Red Bank, and Congressman B. F. Howell has appointed him to fill the vacancy. The second best examination was passed by Orville F. Waring, of North Plainfield, eighteen years of age, and he has been made alternate. The appointment is contingent upon the successful candidate successfully passing the entrance examination at Annapolis next fall. The examination here was taken by eight candidates from the various parts of the Third Congressional Districts, and was conducted by County Superintendent Willis, of Middlesex, the Superintendent of the Red Bank schools, and the County Superintendent of Somerset county.

Three Boys Injured by Explosion.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, June 29—John Kleinknecht, William Field and George Schenck were playing with a toy canhon on North Washington street yesterday, when a pound box of powder which they were using was ignited by a spark and exploded. The boys were thrown several feet by the force of the explosion. Field's eyes are burned out and Kleinknecht has lost one eye and is horribly burned about the body. Schenck escaped with severe burns about the body.

A New Bridge.

In about three weeks time the iron truss bridge on Union avenue, Bound Brook, over which the Brunswick Traction Company cars run, will be completed and it will be one of the best improvements hereabouts.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night, and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

FREEHOLDER MOBUS MARRIED.

Quietly Married to Miss Mary Kunzelman Last Night.

A very quiet wedding took place last evening when Miss Annie Mary Kunzelman, daughter of Pierce Kunzelman, and Freeholder Augustus Mobus, of Washingtonville, were united in marriage by Rev. George Hauser, pastor of the German Reformed church. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kliner, of Somerset street, who were the only witnesses present.

The bride is a very popular young woman among a large circle of friends and acquaintances, and her husband is also very popular. He is now serving his third year as a Democratic Freeholder and he serves his constituents well and faithfully. The couple have taken up their residence in a new home at Washingtonville, which has been completely furnished by the groom.

FARM SUPERINTENDENT MISSING.

John Mitchell, who Ran Senator Kean's Place in Union County, Causes Anxiety.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, June 29—John Mitchell, who for five years has been superintendent of Senator Kean's large farm, at Ursino, Union county, is strangely missing. He injured his hand severely with a hay-cutter June 18th, and the next day he disappeared. It is feared that the heat and his painful injuries may have had a serious effect on his mind.

Search has been made in the woods of Union township, and Senator Kean is anxious to know what has happened to him. Senator Kean yesterday notified the police of this city to search for the missing farmar, and word was sent to the police of other places to look out for him.

Decorate All Buildings.

One of his Fingers Crushed.

Albert Gaub, of 169 Duer street, aged 17 years, an employe at the Potter Press Works, had one of his fingers crushed yesterday afternoon while at work. He went to the hospital and had the injured member attended to, and he will soon be able to return to work. He will not lose the finger.

Will be in Hospital a Month.

D. W. Littell, Jr., who is now confined at the New York Opthalmic Hospital under treatment for a serious injury to his eye caused by a cinder entering it, is doing as well as can be expected. It will probably be a month before he will be able to leave the hospital.

Farmers' Picnic.

The Hunterdon county farmers will hold their annual picnic August 16th and 17th, when the politicians will gather as usual to start their booms for the fall elections. Hunterdon this fall elects a Sheriff, two Assemblymen and a Surrogate, and there are a score of candidates.

Lorraine Water Company Absorbed.

The Lorraine Water Company, which was organized several years ago by S. D. Drake, has passed into the hands of the Union Water Company. The business of the Lorraine Company will be carried on from the office of the Union Water Company.

—Everett and Frank Marsh and Joseph Blatz, youngsters about eight years old, accompanied by the father of the Marsh boys, attracted the attention of many on Sunday last, as they walked the streets attired in their sailor suits of blue jackets, white duck pants and straw hats. They certainly looked very cute.

No Good Without It.

"Can you tell me, my friend," said the gentleman to the keeper of the camel, "what the hump on that camel's back is for?"

"What's it for?"

"Yes, of what value is it?"

"Well, it's lots of value. The camel wouldn't be no good without it."

"Why not?"

"Why not? Yer don't suppose people 'ud pay sixpence to see a camel without a hump, do yer?"

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

Next week will be holiday week at both of the Proctor continuous performance theatres—the Pleasure Palace, Fifty-eighth street and Third avenue, and the "shoppers' retreat," the Twenty-third Street Theatre, just west of Sixth avenue. Grand holiday programme have been especially arranged for the great National holiday, July Fourth, and the entertainment in each theatre will being at the early opening of the doors, 9:30 a. m. at the Twenty-third Street and 10:30 a. m. at the Palace. The stars at the Palace, week of July 3d, are: "Clorindy, or the origin of the cakewalk," an idyl of coon comedy requiring the services of fifty Senegambian stellar lights; the mammoth song sheet, with its chorus of fifty voices; Bogert and O'Brien, in a unique musical act; and thirty others. The leading features at the Twenty-third Street Theatre, week of July 3d, are: Willis P. Sweatnam, the minstrel comedian; Lynch and Jewell, Casino comedy four, and some thirty others. The continuous Sunday concerts at both the Proctor houses are given as usual every Sunday from 2:30 to 10:30 p. m., and all the artists of the preceding week appear day and night.

—There will be an important meeting of the Gesang and Turn Verein next week.

CHURCH MEMBERS TO BE CUT OFF.

Membership of Scotch Plains Baptists to be Reduced.

IDEA OF REV. G. M. SHOTT.

MEMBERS WHOSE WHEREABOUTS ARE NOT KNOWN.

The Minister Does Not Like the Idea of Having Inactive Names on His Church Books—Delinquent Members Have Been Posted for Three Weeks—Will be Cut Off at a Meeting to be Held This Evening.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Scotch Plains, June 30.—Rev. G M. Shott, pastor of the Scotch Plains Baptist church, who has stirred up a veritable hornets nest by his crusade to suppress the sin and iniquity that is alleged to prevail here in such flagrant violation of the law, has taken up another line of reform—this time in his own church—which is causing considerable talk.

The Scotch Plains Baptist church is over 150 years old—being the mother of the first Baptist church ever instituted in New York—and as a consequence has a large number of names on its roster, the owners of which it is impossible to locate. Rev. Mr. Shott does not believe in having this deadwood attached to the church organization, and he says that if there are any Baptists who have not enough interest in the denomination to keep their own church apprised of their whereabouts it is time that their membership was dispensed with.

As a consequence three weeks ago Rev. Mr. Shott had compiled a list of these delinquent members which was posted in the lobby of the edifice in the hope that some of their friends would notify them of the intended action of dropping them from the membership roll. But few of the delinquents have been notified, and after the regular prayer meeting this evening a church business meeting will be called, and the matter of dropping the delinquents brought up for action. It will probably be decided to drop them.

THEIR LAST RECITAL.

Creditable Practice of Miss Marsh's Piano Pupils.

The pupils of Miss Anna O. Marsh met yesterday morning for their last monthly gathering this season. The primary class opened the programme with exercises on the table, clavier and piano. Their work was very satisfactory, and proved the excellence of Virgil method and the inestimable value of the Virgil practice clavier.

Solos followed, interspersed with duets, duo and quartettes. The latter were a minuet by Boccherrin and the Hallelujah chorus from the Messiah by Handel. A few guests from the families of the pupils were present, and enjoyed the rendering of the programme.

The pupils of Miss Minnie S. Marsh gave their closing monthly recitital yesterday afternoon, and rendered an interesting programme.

Dr. Hedges Elected Secretary.

The annual meeting of the Medical Society of New Jersey was concluded at Allenhurst yesterday. In the election of officers Dr. E. W. Hedges, of this city, was made corresponding secretary of the society. He was also placed on the standing committee.

GOOD WORK OF JUNIORS.

REVIEW OF PAST YEAR AMONG YOUNG ENDEAVORERS.

Reports Showed That Much Progress Had Been Made — Enjoyable Programme Concluded the Meeting.

The annual meeting and closing exercises of the Junior Christian Endeavor society of Trinity Reformed church was held yesterday afternoon. The annual reports showed progress. The secretary, Lida A. Wyman, presented her report, which stated that the society started October 6th, 1898, with fifty-eight members, but during the past year it has increased to ninety members. The birthday committee succeeded in collecting 56 cents. The social committee held two cake and candy sales during the year. The sum of $20 was realized from the first one for the sinking fund of the church, and the second one netted $15 for Dr. French's Memorial Fund. The missionary committee succeeded in raising $13 14 from the "Treasure Houses," which amount was given to Miss Winn, a missionary. The flowers and scrap-book committees also received mention for excellent work accomplished.

The report of the treasurer, Morris Brokaw, showed that from all sources $61 50 was raised, and that $50 was disbursed, leaving a balance on hand of $2.55.

This concluded the reports and a very enjoyable programme was then presented by the Juniors, including recitations as follows: "God's Loving Child," Beaulah VanWinkle; "The Apple Tree," Perry Holder; "The Jewels," Elsie Tier; "The Balance," Anna Holder.

The last part of the programme consisted of an exercise in which faith, hope, charity, peace, justice and patience were represented. The part of queen was taken by Hazel Martin, while Mary Vail, Anna Bodine, Catherine Gray, Ida Tier, Violet VanWinkle and Mamie Davenport took the other parts with equal excellence.

The closing number was a song entitled "Good-Bye," by Anna Holder and Anna Randall, after which the society joined heartily in singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." The society will not meet again until next fall.

MURRAY WILL RETIRE.

RENOMINATION NOT WANTED BY PLAINFIELD ASSEMBLYMAN.

Roger F. Murray Says He Is Not Going Into the Fight This Fall—Demands of Business Prevents Him.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Plainfield. June 30.—It was stated authoritatively here Thursday afternoon that Roger Franklin Murray would not be a candidate for renomination to the Assembly by the Republicans of Union county this fall, says the Plainfield correspondent of the Newark News.

This announcement will clear the political atmosphere considerably, because Mr. Murray's position with reference to another term in the Legislature was somewhat unknown. Since he became an opponent of Assemblyman Squire in the last Legislature there has been a good deal of talk among the Republican leaders that he would not be allowed to have another term in the Assembly. It was understood, however, that Mr. Murray did not propose to be retired, and as he has the reputation of being a hard fighter, and has quite a following in the county, it was quite uncertain what he might do in party politics this fall.

Mr. Murry states that his private business prevents his entering the political field this fall.

CLEAN YOUR YARDS.

Don't Leave Rubbish Around to Start a Fire on the Fourth.

Chief Doane of the fire department makes a particular appeal to the residents of Plainfield to have their premises cleaned of all rubbish before the Fourth. He doesn't want any thing unnecessary around that can start a fire that day when so much powder is being burned. The fire department will, of course, be ready for any emergency but the Chief thinks it would be well to dispose with anything not needed that may start a conflagration.

$200 For the Hospital.

The sum of $200 has been realized for Muhlenberg Hospital from the concert given in the First Baptist church Tuesday evening by the choir of the church. The entire amount will be given to the hospital.

AN INSTRUCTOR WEDDED

A. B. MEREDITH, OF HIGH SCHOOL, QUIETLY MARRIED.

Ceremony Took Place at Home of Bride, Miss Adelaide Spencer, Near Boston, Mass.—Will Shortly Return to Plainfield.

When Albert Barrett Meredith, science instructor at the Plainfield High School, returns to his duties in this city, next September, he will be accompanied by a wife. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Meridith was quietly married to Miss Adelaide Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Spencer, of Stoneham, Mass., at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. W. H. Meredith, of Lowell, Mass., father of the groom, at 4:30 o'clock, in the presence of only the near relatives of the young couple.

The summer will be spent by Mr. and Mrs. Meredith at the mountains and seashore. In the fall they will come to Plainfield and take up their residence here.

Miss Spencer was a graduate of from Wellesley College in 1897. Mr. Meredith graduated from Wesleyan College with honors in 1895. He has been in the Plainfield High School for two years, and has brought the scientific department of the local High School up to its present state of efficiency, which is considered the best in the State. He has also introduced the elements of natural science in the primary and grammar grades. He has a number of friends in this city, where he has made himself well liked.

PLEASED WITH RESULTS.

Newark Merchants Say the Excursion Was Successful in Every Way.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Newark, June 30—Representatives of the firms who arranged for the free excursion from points along the Central Railroad te this city, say that the experiment was a success.

"The scheme was conceived by the merchants, not so much to swell the trade of the stores participating, as to benefit Newark's merchants as a class," said one of the promoters of the excursion.

At all of the stores whose proprietors arranged the scheme it was said yesterday that there had been a noticeable increase in trade Wednesday. A large percentage of the visitors made purchases, and it is believed that the amount spent here by the suburbanites will go a long ways toward covering the expenses of the excursion. Of course, the merchants who contributed to the scheme may not receive in money all they expended, but they consider it a paying investment, it is said.

The firms will have a meeting soon, when it is expected that another excursion, taking in another section of the State, may be arranged for.

Christian Endeavor Social.

A pleasant sociable was held at the Park Avenue Baptist church last evening by the Christian Endeavor society. Each member brought one dollar, an amount which had been earned entirely by their individual efforts. During the evening Miss Euphemia Demarest entertained the assemblage with recitations and Harold Smalley rendered instrumental solos. Ice cream and cake were served and a jolly evening passed. The proceeds of the social are to be used for repairs to the church. The Christian Endeavor meeting this evening is to be led by Mrs. W. S. Eowrey.

Mizpah Lodge Election.

The following officers have just been elected by Mizpah Lodge, No. 1, U. O. of I. O. L.: Past lady, Mrs. Daniel Page; noble lady, Mrs. Ira Riker; vice lady, Mrs. Pearson; lady reporter, Mrs. Angleman; recording secretary, Mrs. Snyder, chaplain, Mrs. Corwin; treasurer, Miss Bennett; financial secretary, Mrs. Bush; warden, Mrs. Bird; conductor, Mrs. Myers; guard, Mrs. Waldron.

Country Roads Improving.

Never before have the roads of Washington Valley and that vicinity been in such good condition. The recent rains have laid the dust and the careful distribution of crushed stone during the spring has made a smooth surface. There are a few bad roads, of course, but the general improvement through all that section is quite noticeable.

Concert and Tea.

The Park Golf Club will do its part in the celebration of the nation's birthday by holding a concert and tea in the clubhouse, near the mountain, Tuesday afternoon.

Another Commencement.

The commencement exercises of the Plainfield Business College will be held in the college rooms, East Front street, this evening.

WILL APPLY FOR FRANCHISE MONDAY.

Bright Prospects for New Arlington Avenue Extension.

JOINT CONFERENCE HELD.

TERMS WERE PRACTICALLY SETTLED BY SCOTCH PLAINS FRANCHISE.

The Plainfield Street Railway Company Will Make Formal Application for Franchise at the July Meeting of Common Council Monday Night—There Will be No Opposition to It.

The Plainfield Street Railway Company will make application for the franchise for the Arlington avenue extension at the July meeting of the Common Council Monday night. That was decided at the joint conference of the trolley magnates and the street committee of the Council, held in the Mayor's office, last night. The terms will be the same as those of the Scotch Plains line franchise, and there is no doubt but what the franchise will be granted by the Council without a dissenting voice.

The Arlington avenue extension was practically provided for at the time of the granting of the Scotch Plains extension. An agreement was signed by the trolley company officials at that time that they would extend their lines out Arlington avenue under the same terms as soon as the consents were secured and they also agreed to use all reasonable means to secure these consents as rapidly as possible. They have now obtained the necessary right of way and are ready to start work on the new line as soon as the city takes the formal action required.

There was not the slightest suggestion of disagreement at the conference last evening. The city's interests were represented by the members of the street committee, Messrs. Barrows, VanHerwerden and Tolles. From the Plainfield Street Railway Company, Col. Hine and Lemuel W. Serrell, Jr., were present. H. C. VanEmburgh, the company's engineer, was also in attendance.

As already stated there was comparatively little to do at the conference. The terms of the new ordinance were practically provided for by the Scotch Plains franchise. The company is now ready to go forward and will formally apply for the franchise Monday evening.

There is still some little doubt as to the exact route for the line after leaving Arlington avenue, but the general direction will be toward Woodland avenue and thence out to the Hillside cemetery.

Frank M. Bacon, of this city, is authority for the statement that the Plainfield Street Railway Company will never be able to build a line out Arlington avenue as now planned. He says that when the time for the Common Council to grant the faanchise arrives, there will be such a strong protest from some of the largest property owners along the proposed line that the Council will not dare to grant the franchise. He also says that the representatives of the company have not secured all the necessary consents for the right of way as previously stated.

Decorations Going Up.

Patriotic enthusiasm seems to have finally seized the merchants, many of whom are now having the places of business decorated by Lyon & Co., well-known decorators of Newark. Among those whose stores are handsomely embellished are J. A. Smith & Bros., Boehm, Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co., City Hotel, the Kensington, City National Bank, Lederer's and several others. Everyone should decorate. The celebration Tuesday promises to be a grand success and will eclipse the one held four years ago.

Another Rahway Mystery.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Rahway, June 30.—Ernest Campen, a young man, Wednesday found a woman lying unconscious in the woods at Miton, on the outskirts of this city. He secured assistance, and she was taken to a residence on St. Geoge's avenue, where a physician attended her. Upon recovering consciousness she gave her name as Mary Plimpon, and said she had walked from Orange. She seemed partially demented.

Rev. Mr. Moldenke to Officiate

Rev. Mr. Molnenke, of New York, who organized the German Lutheran church in the borough, was in this city yesterday, and arrangements were made for him to occupy the pulpit temporarily. He will commence his service next Sunday, when service will be held at 10:30 o'clock in the morning.

—Don't miss VanEmburgh's special sale of children's hosiery, now on.

MAY HAVE BEEN MURDER

MYSTERIOUS EVIDENCE OF A DESPERATE STRUGGLE.

Portions of Wearing Apparel, Covered With Blood, Found in Woods Between Scotch Plains and Westfield

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, June 30—John Hickory reported to the police yesterday morning that he had found what might be the clue to a murder or a desperate assault in the woods between Scotch Plains and Westfield, while out berrying Monday. John M. C. Marsh went to the spot with him and there found in the woods, near Prospect street and Brightwood avenue, a piece of a man's white shirt, the front part of a vest and a straw hat. These articles were covered with blood and in the roadway nearby were signs of a struggle. A path leading into the woods appeared as though some heavy weight had been dragged along, but a little ways in the woods the trail was lost. There was no mark in the hat except the date "Feb. 17," which had been written in a good hand with a lead pencil. Inquiries among the people who live near the scene of the discovery have been made, but no one remembers hearing any racket Sunday night. At first it was thought that the hat belonged to Matthew Collins, the boy who disappeared from the Sheelan farm Monday, but it was found that the hat was a large one such as is sold to men. Officer Marsh has the case in hand and is trying to locate the owner of the hat who, it is thought, can throw some light on the mystery.

DIDN'T WANT HIS WIFE TO KNOW.

That is What Angered John Carey With His Sister-in-law.

Mrs. Moses Carey, Jr, of Manning avenue, who figured in the quarrel at her home Wednesday evening when her brother-in-law, John Carey, had his head cut with a pitcher, has written a statement about the affair. She says that she did not interfere with with John Carey and his wife. Mrs. John Carey had been out all day working and when she came home she found her baby sick and no one to care for it. She then found fault with her husband and he threw the baby's milk bottle at her and stuck her with it, at the same time calling Mrs. Moses Carey names, saying that if it had not been for her his wife would not have known that he had been away from home. Mrs. Moses Carey says that John Carey then threatened to strike her, which he did, striking her in the face and head with his fist. She then took the water pitcher and struck him as stated yesterday. She also says she did not leave her house.

WESTFIELD'S ELATION.

Free Postal Delivery Recommended by Postoffice Inspector Snow.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, June. 30.—Inspector Snow of the Postoffice Department at Washington visited this place yesterday and after looking over the town said Westfield was entitled to a free delivery system. The town meets all requirements, having good sidewalks, all the streets named and houses and lots properly numbered. Inspector Snow stated that he would recommend free delivery for Westfield, the system to cover three and one-half square miles, which will take in the whole town.

Westfield has a population of nearly 5,000 inhibitants. The citizens are highly elated.

HAS BECOME A SOLDIER.

Fugitive From Justice Now En Route to the Philippines.

Charles Bogart, who, while under arrest charged with an assault, escaped from Constable Gjettlesen about two weeks ago, has been heard from by his brother in this city. Bogart is now in San Francisco with a regiment in the Regular Army, having enlisted a few days after his flight from the clutches of the officer. This information will be good news no doubt to the guileless constable, who has been unmercifully guyed by his friends since he allowed Bogart to outwit him.

Rev. Mr. Eyme's Resignation Accepted.

Rev. Mr. Eyme, formerly pastor of the German Lutheran church, together with his wife, will leaue the city this afternoon or tomorrow, and will sail the last of this week for Europe. His resignation has been accepted by the German Lutheran church.

—July 4th the W. C. T. U. rooms will be open all day and anyone desiring to stop and rest themselves will be made welcome.

DRAMA AT GRADUATION.

YOUNG LADIES MAKE UP THE CAST OF THE PIECE.

"Rebecca's Triumph" Cleverly Presented By Pupils of the School—Well Merited Applause—A Pretty Tableaux.

The graduating exercises of St. Mary's Parochial School were begun last evening. The cozy hall on the top floor of the school building was filled with the parents and friends of the pupils, who listened attentively to the drama, "Rebecca's Triumph," and liberally applauded the efforts of the young ladies who participated in it. The piece was well presented and the various roles assumed by the members of the cast were creditably handled. The principal parts were taken by Miss A. Darby, (Mrs. Rokeman, a wealthy lady); Miss A. Ryan, (Mrs. Delaine, a widow); Miss M. Harding, (Rebecca, a foundling); Miss J. Lutz, (Clarissa Codman, a spinster); Miss S. Barrell, (Gyp); Miss F. Hillman, (Meg, a vagrant). The rest of the cast was composed of the Misses Burke, Doll, Lutz, Birmingham, Skinner, Guinee, Harding, Higgins, Barrell and Hillman.

The drama was well handled and the audience was not stingy with its applause, which was merited. Miss Mary Smith presided at the piano and Miss Kate Flynn at the organ.

Interesting features of the entertainment were the songs, "Just Like Grandmamma," rendered by the girls of the primary department of the school, and "Little Tommy Tompkins," by the boys of the primary department.

The tableaux. "America's Great Expectations," brought to a close the entertainment, which was very much enjoyed.

This evening the boys of the school will give their friends an introduction to their efforts in the way of amateur theatricals by rendering the operetta, "Old Glory, or the Boys of '76." The valedictorian is Miss Frances Hillman. The address to the graduates will be made by Father Westman in the absence of Father Smyth.

FRIENDS SERENADED HIM

FREEHOLDER MOBUS AND BRIDE RECEIVED A VISIT.

They Did Not Expect it and Were Greatly Surprised, But Soon Recovered and Acted as Hosts in Fine Humor.

When Augustus Mobus, a member of the Somerset County Board of Freeholders from North Plainfield township, and a prominent Democratic politician of that bailiwick, went to the home of Rev. George Hauser, of Duer street, Wednesday night, and was quietly married to Miss Annie Mary Kunzelman, it was his desire to keep the wedding quiet for a few days. But that he signally failed to do so was evidenced last night by the din made by a party of seventy-five friends who learned of the marriage yesterday afternoon and determined to give Freeholder Mobus and his bride a serenade that they would not forget in many a day.

Armed with drums, fish horns and a number of cannon firecrackers, the party met after darkness had set in and proceeded to march to the home of the newly married couple in Washingtonville. Here they suddenly rent the air with all sorts of hideous noises to apprise the couple that the secret was out and that they must accept congratulations. The din was kept up for several minutes, and then the groom decided that there was nothing to do but accept the inevitable and so he went forth and invited the serenaders in.

The house was soon filled with merry-makers and Mr. and Mrs. Mobus adapted themselves as hosts in short order. Refreshments were provided in plenty and a general good time enjoyed till a late hour.

The First Excursion

The first excursion to the sea shore will be on Thursday of next week when the members of the Crescent Avenue, Grace, St. Stephens and Bethel chapel Sunday-schools will go to Asbury Park. They will leave this city at 8 a. m., and on the return will leave the Park at 5:30 p. m.

Drain Pipe Dangerous.

Street Commissioner Gavett has thus far made no effort to remedy the difficulty existing at the corner of Madison avenue and West Second street. The drain pipe is dangerous at that corner, as already stated in these columns, and it should be covered up in a proper manner.

Preparatory Service.

This evening preparatory services will be held in the Crescent Avenue church, and next Sunday morning the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed, at which time a number of accessions to the church are expected.

DEMAREST HOUSE TO BE SOLD AGAIN.

Vice Chancellor Orders First Sale Set Aside.

ADEQUATE VALUE NOT PAID.

SON OPPOSED TO ACTION OF HIS STEPMOTHER.

She Was One Of the Executors and in Settling Up the Estate Bid in the House for $6,000 Whereas it is Valued at About $17,000—Vice Chancellor Orders It to Be Sold Again.

Vice Chancellor Stevens, at his chambers yesterday in Jersey City, listened to argument in the action brought some month ago by Henry M. Demarest, of this city, to set aside the sale of the Demarest property at the corner of Crescent avenue and East Seventh street.

When the property in question was sold upon foreclosure proceedings it was bid in by Mrs. Elizabeth Demarest, the widow of David M. Demarest, for $6,000 This figure was considered ridiculously low for the property, which conservative real estate men had estimated worth from $12,000 to $17,000.

Henry M. Demarest, one of the executors of the estate, believing that he was not getting his just dues instituted proceedings to have the sale set aside on the ground that by the provisions of his father's will, Mrs. Demarest being one of the executors, she was bound by right and justice to make the property bring as large an amount as it would. This he claimed had not been done.

Henry M. Demarest, the petitioner, retained the services of Reed & Coddington, of this city, to bring the proceedings that would result in setting aside the sale. Mrs. Demarest's advisers were Messrs. Charles DeHart Brower, of New York, and Cowles & Carey, of Jersey City, while Cally & Swazy, of Newark, and Attorney Seymour, of New York, looked after the interests of interesting creditors.

Several adjournments have been taken, the case having been in the courts for several months.

The case came up for argument yesterday at the Vice-Chancellor's chambers and was there argued for the petitioner by William A. Coddington, who took the position that the amount received for the property at the foreclosure sale was scarcely one-third of its value and if the case was a valid one the petitioner was being unjustly defrauded of his rights and was entitled to a greater share of the proceeds of the property in question.

The case was contested by Mrs. Demarest's attorneys on the groud that there was not an inadequency of price sufficient to set aside the sale.

After listening to arguments on both sides the Vice-Chancellor took the view as presented to the petitioner's counsel and rendered a decision in favor of the petitioner. The property must be again advertised and a resale effected.

In consideration of the array of legal talent pitted against Judge Coddington, the decision of the Vice-Chancellor is a signal victory not only for the position assumed by the petitioner but also creditable to the legal tact and skill of the able attorney from this city.

The entire Demarest estate is estimated to be worth about $50,000 and is one of the most valuable in the State.

WILL REAPPOINT DEMOCRATS.

Slate Decided On by the Majority in the Elizabeth Council.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, June 30—The Elizabeth City Council for 1899-1900 will meet tonight for organization. The Democratic majority has decided to re-elect all the Democratic city officials whose terms expire July 1st.

They are Street Commissioner N. K. Thompson, three years; Excise Commissioner Fred Schlichter, four years; City Physicians Dr. Thomas E. Dolan and Dr. Stephen T. Quinn, one year; Sealer of Weights and Measures Jas. J. Lane; Station House Keepers Thomas P. Nolan and John Christman, one year each.

Stewart in the Toils.

G. Percival Stewart, formerly president of the American Investors' Company, of 38 Park Row, New York, with which company the Calvery Baptist church, of this city, had much to do, surrendered yesterday to the authorities at Syracuse, N. Y., under four indictments charging him with grand larcey. He was admitted to bail in $2,000.

THREE CLEAN VICTORIES.

The Harvard Crews Defeat Yale at Every Point On The Thames.

ROWED DOWN STREAM

Three of the Most Exciting Races Ever Rowed, Witnessed by An Enthusiastic Crowd.

Two Crews Narrowly Escape Being Swamped by an Excursion Steamer—Harvard's Four Also Wins in Good Time—Crimson Oarsmen Finish Far in the Lead.

New London, Conn., June 30.—The Harvard freshman crew defeated Yale 1902 oarsmen on the Thames in their annual 2-mile race, before a big and enthusiastic crowd of spectators. A light northeast breeze was blowing during the race, and the water was fine. A strong tide running out favored the oarsmen, as the races were all rowed down stream. The unofficial time was 9:30.

When the freshman crews took their positions at the start the water was smooth and the breeze was light. Conditions favored good time.

When the start was made Harvard caught the water first and took a slight lead. She was rowing 36 strokes to the minute. Yale was also rowing 36, and the race was very close. Both crews rowed in splendid form, but at the end of the half-mile both were splashing badly. Approaching the mile point Yale was rowing 34 and Harvard 35. Yale was leading and passing the mile post Yale was leading by three-quarters of a length. Harvard spurted and was rowing strong, and gaining. At about a mile and a quarter the crews were practically on even terms.

The excursion steamer Glen Island narrowly escaped swamping the crews, but steered over to the east in time. As they reached the one and three-quarter mile Yale appeared to lead.

They were rowing neck and neck apparently a second later.

Harvard was gaining. She made a spurt and won by four lengths. Time, 9:30.

New London, Conn., June 30.—Harvard's four-oared crew defeated Yale in hollow style on the Thames in the first of the big races.

Harvard's four left its float soon after the observation train took its position opposite the starting point. A few minutes later the Yale launch started down the river towing the four-oared shell. Both fours had arrived at the starting point and were waiting there when those on the observation train saw Harvard's boat suddenly turn and go back to the boat house. There the men took the shell out of the water to repair an outrigger. This was soon accomplished and the Harvard boat returned to the starting point. Harvard caught the water first and led a half length before a dozen strokes had been rowed.

The Crimson oarsmen rapidly increased their lead, but splashed considerably. The Harvard students on the observation train cheered wildly.

Yale made a slight gain, but her spurt did not last, and Harvard again pulled away from her New Haven rivals. At the end of the first mile Harvard led by two clear lengths. As the boats flew along Harvard's four began to run away from Yale, and in another quarter-mile had increased the lead to six lengths. In a few more strokes the Crimson four spurted another length ahead and the men were rowing strongly and in good form. Yale now made a desperate spurt, but splashed considerably. Harvard was eight lengths in front and pulling steady and strong. Yale succeeded in cutting down Harvard's lead, but the Crimson men were not to be beaten, and finished 8 lengths ahead. The official time was 10:57.

New London, Conn., June 30.—The conditions for the 'varsity race were excellent, wind and tide being with the crews. Both observation trains arrived on time, and on each side of the river. On the west bank fourteen cars were filled, and on the east bank cheering college men and other spectators crowded twenty-six cars.

It was a beautiful race from start to finish, both the Yale and Harvard crews pulling almost the same stroke, but Harvard keeping a trifle in the lead. After the three-and-a-half mile flag was reached Harvard gained gradually and finished three full lengths ahead of Yale in 20:52. Yale's time was 21:18.

Poured Coal Oil on a Blaze.

Greenville, Mo., June 30.—Mrs. Alice Petit, wife of Dr. Lee M. Petit, living one mile from this city, was burned to death. She was starting a fire in the cook stove and poured oil on the fuel. The blaze leaped from the stove and ignited her clothing. After vainly trying to extinguish the flames she ran to a near-by lot and plunged into the pond that is there. A neighbor saved her from drowning. She had been so badly burned, however, that she died in a few hours.

Accident to the St. Paul.

Elsah, Ill., June 30.—The steamer St. Paul collapsed her flues one-half mile below Elsah. Five men were scalded—Jack Mack, white, severely; two firemen, colored, severely; one ash hauler, colored, called Joe, slightly injured, and one sailor, white, unknown. The sufferers were conveyed to St. Louis by boat. A safe landing was made.

Effingham (Ill.) Militia Election.

Effingham, Ill., June 30.—At a special election held in Armory hall to fill the vacancy of Captain in Company G, 5th Illinois National Guard, Lieut. John Burr was elected Captain, and Sergt. Roy Sielz was elected First Lieutenant.

Drowns Himself in a Well.

Carmit, Ill., June 30.—Fred Friend, a farmer, 60 years old, committed suicide by drowning in a well at his home, six miles southwest of here.

CHILD'S MARVELOUS ESCAPE

Rescued Alive From a Forty-Two Foot Well.

Lewiston, Ill., June 30.—At Smithfield, a village twelve miles west of here, the 3-year-old child of Oscar Cannon fell into a well 42 feet deep. The father was standing near, and, seeing the child fall, became violently insane, it taking the united efforts of his wife and her father to prevent him from cutting his throat with a razor.

The screams of the mother attracted the attention of a farmer in a near-by field, who called more help to get what was supposed to be the dead child. They secured grab-hooks, and after some time were able to raise the child to within 5 feet of the top, when the hold broke, letting the child fall back into the 5 feet of water below. After this failure one of the farmers was let down into the well. He found the child breathing, and brought it to the top, where it was found to be uninjured, except a slight scratch made by the grab-hook. After being violently insane for twelve hours the father's reason was restored.

Beaten by a Crazy Negro.

Galveston, Tex., June 30.—Julius Warren, an insane negro, escaped from the Sealy Hospital clad only in a shirt. Two hours later he broke into the residence of Francis Lammers, an aged and wealthy cotton factor. Mr. Lammers was awakened by the crashing of glass, and, going into the kitchen to investigate was met by the negro, who had armed himself with a heavy iron dipper. The negro beat Mr. Lammers over the head half a dozen times, painfully but not seriously injuring him. When the police arrived they found Warren hiding in the pantry. He fought them with an iron bar, and two shots were fired at him before he was overpowered. Mr. Lammers is Belgian Consul at Galveston and is one of the wealthiest men in the city.

Encountered Highbinders

San Jose, Cal., June 30.—In an encounter with highbinders in Chinatown Deputy Sheriff Bache was shot in the side and badly wounded. Sheriff Langford received word that six highbinders were coming from San Francisco to kill Lee On Poon, president of the Hip Sing Tong, and, with several deputies was on the watch, when a gang of Chinese appeared and opened fire, which was returned by the officers. Deputy Bache was hit at the first volley, and it is thought that one of the Chinese was killed, but his body has not been found. Four of the highbinders were arrested.

Stabbed With Scissors.

Middlesboro, Ky., June 30.—Jim Rush was fatally stabbed with a pair of scissors in the hands of Dora Hardin, a pretty young mountain girl. Rush and Dora had been sweethearts since childhood, but of late Rush had been showing some attention to Miss Sanders, a Tennessee girl, which had aroused Dora's jealousy. When her former lover passed her house, Dora rushed out and hacked Rush in a dozen places before bystanders could interfere. She was arrested and says she will kill the Sanders girl when she is released.

Burford Divorce Case.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 30.—A divorce case of great interest in Indianapolis has been filed. Nellie A. Burford, daughter of James A. Carnahan, major general, commanding the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, is suing her husband, Miles A. Burford, son of W. R. Burford, one of the oldest and best known business men in Indianapolis. Both families are in the front rank socially, and both young people are great favorites. Their wedding in November, 1897, was one of the social events of the year. General cruelty and neglect are charged.

Motorman Badly Crushed.

Baltimore, June 30.—A car of the United Railways jumped the track on Fort avenue and crashed into the bridge crossing the Baltimore & Ohio yards near Locust Point. Motorman Frank Harden was caught between the platform and the car in front. He was badly chushed and is expected to die. Several others were severely cut and bruised.

Chicago Stock Yards Stride.

Chicago, June 30.—The situation in the stock yards strike is substantially unchanged. Some of the men have gone back to work, and it is said that they have received an advance, but there are still many out, and the determination to make the movement general on July 1 if the 1893 scale is not restored on that day still holds. Between 300 and 400 men have gone out within the past 24 hours.

Stenographer Mangled.

New York, June 30.—Mabel F. Green, a stenographer employed by Thomas A. Scott, a bond broker in the German-American Building, was frightfully mangled by an elevator, and John F. Lynch, the elevator man, had his right wrist dislocated while trying to rescue her. The doctors at the Hudson street Hospital say that the young woman will probably die.

$10,000 for a Two-Year Old.

Cincinnati, O., June 30.—C. H. Smith the Chicago wheat speculator, has bought the two-year-old colt Lieutenant Gibson, from Baker and Gentry for $10,000. The colt has started in five races and won three, was second once and third in the other. His best performance was winning the Sensation Stakes at Latonia June 17.

Five Men Drowned.

Clarksville, Mo., June 30.—Five men were drowned in the Mississippi River, a mile above here, by the overturning of a skiff. They were government laborers engaged in the river improvement work. The dead are: William Hodge, Henry Howland, J. W. Philips, Arnold Philips and W. J. Jamison.

Wife Murderer Hanged.

Harrisburg, Pa., June 30.—Joseph Hollinger, a farmer who killed his wife a few months ago, was hanged in the yard of the county prison. For two hours before the execution a crowd of several hundred persons surged about the jail. Next week Albert Smith will be hanged for poisoning his wife.

KING LEOPOLD IS ALARMED

The Belgian Government Being Threatened by Socialist Leaders.

CABINET MEETING HELD.

An Excited Mob Before the Royal Palace Charged and Dispersed by the Mounted Police.

A Serious Riot Occurs and the Gendarmes Are Assaulted With Paving Stones—Rioters Fired Upon—More Trouble and Bloodshed Is Anticipated at Brussels.

Brussels, June 30.—Five thousand persons made an Anti-Suffrage bill demonstration outside the Government buildings, the Parliament house and the royal palace. The police were unable to disperse the crowds and mounted gendarmes repeatedly charged upon them with little effect.

A serious riot occurred in the Rue Treurneberg. The gendarmes were assailed by the mob with paving stones and fired upon the rioters with their revolvers. Finding that this had no effect upon the mob, the gendarmes made a charge wth fixed bayonets and drove the rioters back.

The King has recalled M. Beernaert from The Hague and has had a prolonged conference with him. M. Vandenpeereboom, Minister of War, has also had a long audience with the King.

M. Beernaert, who was recalled from The Hague by King Leopold in consequence of the disordered state of affairs here, was closeted with his Majesty for several hours.

The Cabinet was also summoned in council, the King presiding over the meeting. The Government is alarmed at the revolutionary tendency of the great mass meetings held at Liege, Ghent and Brussels. The Socialist leaders openly threaten to overthrow the Government. When it was announced in the Chamber that the Government would persist in pushing the suffrage bill the opposition speakers shouted: "Then the Premier will be responsible for the corpses that fall henceforward!"

Great crowds are assembled outside the chamber. The force of gendarmes has been greatly increased and the populace has assumed a militant attitude.

Here He Is Again.

Galena, Kan., June 30.—John Mygard was arrested here by Chief of Police Parker. Parker thinks Mygard is really Otto Mattias, who has been wanted for two years at Staunton, Ill., for the murder of State Senator James Wall. Mygard is a Salvationist, and was helping the local army in a revival when arrested. The officers are positive they have made a lucky capture and have wired C. R. Wall, of Wall Bros., at Staunton that they have the murderer of his brother under arrest. There was a standing reward of $2,000 for Mattias.

Salesman Alleged to Be Short.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 30.—O. P. Barnell, city salesman for John O'Neil, wholesale flour dealer, is reported to be $1,900 short in his accounts, with his present address unknown. O'Neil observed the slow collections in the district covered by Barnell, and the fact that one particularly prompt-paying firm was indebted $300. This started an investigation, which has resulted in an indictment against the accused solicitor. He is bonded in the United States Fidelity and Guarantee Company for $2,000.

Stole His Own Horses?

Altoona, Pa., June 30.—Liveryman Thomas Broadwell came to Altoona last Monday and identified the double team stolen from his stables at Carnegie, near Pittsburg, by H. M. Kyle. The thief safely jailed, Broadwell started for home, driving his own team. When half way home, at Blairsville, he was arrested by the Chief of Police who landed him in Altoona. He was promptly released at the Mayor's office.

Missing Couple Found.

Shelbyville, Ind., June 30.—William Yarling, the young married man who, with his wife, mysteriously disappeared Saturday night, has been found wandering aimlessly about, twenty miles from this city. His wife has also been found, and returned home. She refuses to talk.

Two More Die of Yellow Fever.

Washington, June 30.—Gen. Brooke has cabled the War Department the following death report from Havana, "Twenty-seventh Santiago, Musician James McCarthy, G, Fifth Infantry, yellow fever; Puerto Principe, Sergt. Hugh Letow, C, Eight Cavalry, yellow fever."

Granted a Sick Pardon.

Lansing, Mich., June 30.—Gov. Pingree has granted a sick pardon to Robert Chambers, who was sent to the Jackson penitentiary in January, 1898, from Lapeer, for two years, for burglary. Chambers has consumption, and the prison physician and inspectors recommend the pardon.

Gives Birth to Three Boys.

Wabash, Ind., June 30.—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Abbott, of Huntington, have become the parents of triplets. The strangers are lusty little fellows and will live. All the children are boys, and each weighs 5½ pounds. Mr. Abbott is a freight conductor on the Erie road.

To Destroy a Derelict.

Queenstown, June 30.—The British second-class cruiser Molampus and the torpedo-boat Gossamer have left this port to destroy the derelict bark Siddartha.

E. B. Andrews Re-elected.

Chicago, June 30.—E. Benjamin Andrews, formerly president of Brown University, was re-elected superintendent of the Chicago public schools.

ABOUT OTIS' ARMY

Gen. Charles King Says It Should Be 50,000 or 60,000 Men.

Chicago, June 30.—Gen. Charles King who commanded the first brigade, first division, first army corps, in the Philippines, discussed the various phases of the Philippine situation freely, and among other things declared that if Gen. Otis had had 50,000 troops at his command at the outbreak of hostilities he would practically have ended the war by the beginning of the rainy season. He expressed the opinion, however that warfare of a guerilla character is likely to be kept up for some time after the close of organized opposition. He also said that Gen. Otis should have from 50,000 to 60,000 men when active hostilities are resumed with the return of the dry season. He reiterated his former statement recently made that the Filipinos are capable of self-government, and paid a tribute to the western volunteer soldiers, who, he declared, have proved themselves to be the best soldiers in the world.

Shot at the Constable.

Shelbyville, Ind., June 30.—At Fairland, Harry McCartey, of Boston, Mass., was arrested on suspicion of having stolen two horses, which he had attempted to sell to Mason Thompson. Soon after his arrest the stock was claimed by a farmer named George Platt, of Decatur County. The officers believe the name given to be fictitious, and that his home is in Indianapolis. Before being arrested he shot at Constable Crosby and was himself badly wounded by the officer, who shot him in a lower limb.

Suspected of Cattle Stealing.

Marshall, Ill., June 30.—Hector Dulaney bought four fine steers from Daniel Jones and Lum Daughbetee, of Parker Township, last Saturday, they declaring they had bought the steers from Adire Baber, of Edgar County. Dulaney deferred payment, and wired Baber. He received a reply that no cattle had been sold the two men. The latter have disappeared. It is believed there is an organized gang of cattle thieves in the county, some of the members being men of standing and supposed respectability. The matter will be investigated at once.

Indiana Music Teachers.

South Bend, Ind., June 30.—The twenty-second annual convention of the State Music Teachers' Association opened here with President J. S. Bergen, of Lafayette, presiding. Among the notables in attendance are Miss Birdice Blye, pianist, New York; Christian Oelschlagel, violinist, of Indianapolis. Dr. M. L. Bartlett, of Des Moines, will deliver his widely noted lecture on "Musical Misfits."

"King" Baldwin Dethroned.

Mayville, Ky., June 30.—The toll-gates and guards have been removed from the three big turnpikes purchased by the Fiscal Court, and Mason County is now enjoying free roads. This closes Colonel W. W. Baldwin's career as the "Turnpike King." He has fought his opponents and the raiders with determination from the start, but is glad now that he's out of it.

Burned Home and Killed Himself.

Terre Haute, Ind., June 30.—James Nunley, of Coal Bluff, set fire to his house and then cut his throat, with fatal result. He had returned from the Soldier's Home at Lafayette a few weeks ago. Once, after a quarrel with his wife, he tried to commit suicide, but his life was saved. This time the old man began drinking, set fire to the house and then cut his throat and died.

Ernest Tucker Killed.

Pinconning, Mich., June 30.—Ernest Tucker, of Piedmont, was struck by an Iron Mountain train just north of Leeper Station, and both lower limbs cut off. He died shortly after the accident. He was a brother of J. H. Tucker, manager of the telegraph office at Piedmont.

Hunter Accidentally Killed.

Keokuk, Io., June 30.—Henry Kerr, a prominent merchant and stock dealer of Mount Sterling, Io., thirty miles northwest of here, was accidently killed. He was out hunting and his gun was discharged, the load entering his body. He lived but a short time.

Illinois Music Teachers Meet.

Quincy, Ill., June 30.—The Illinois Music Teacher's Association is in session here. The session is to continue four days. The exercises opened with an organ recital by Prof. Louis Falf, of Chicago, in the Congregational Church.

Raised to a Ten.

Middlesboro, Ky., June 30.—J. H. Robinson, claiming to be a tinner of Louisville, was arrested here by Shelby Ball, charged with raising a one-dollar bill to a ten. A lot of alleged counterfeit tools were found on his person.

Strike at Sylvan Steel Works.

Moline, Ill., June 30.—About five hundred men are idle at the Sylvan steel works because of a strike of the 12-inch mill men. The entire plant is liable to be shut down.

Picquart to Regain His Rank.

Two Feet of Pain.

Pain is not usually measured by the foot, yet it is a fact that the unfortunates who suffer the miseries of aching feet endure an inch of torture to every square inch of feet they own.

Pain of any kind causes a strain upon the nervous system, and if prolonged and unchecked will create depression of spirits and despondency.

Aching feet are vexatious, aggravating and irritating, and nothing is more annoying than feet deformed and distorted from corns and bunions. Mr. Brown's painless method for the treatment and cure of corns, bunions, ingrowing and club toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty, chafed and burning feet, is endorsed by all eminent physicians. He has made diseases of the feet a life study. Corns, bunions and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago in Plainfield have not come back and the feet today are sound and well. Read the proof:

D. S. Scheuer, grocer, Front St; H. A. Weber, grocer, Liberty and Second streets; S. Sharkey, grocer, Third and Richmond streets; G. Voehl, bakery, 127 Front street; F. R. Vanderhoof, at F. CANNOT IMPORT MINERS

The Governor of Arkansas Rules on a Question of Importance.

A PROCLAMATION ISSUED

Citizens of Sebastian County Say Kansas and Texas Coal Company Brings Criminals.

Also By Misrepresentation and Fraud Induced Others to Quit Work in Neighboring States Who on Finding a Strike in Force Refused to Go to Work—More Trouble Imminent.

Little Rock, June 30.—A proclamation was issued by Gov. Jones prohibiting the further importation of negro coal miners to take the places of the striking miners in the western part of Arkansas, principally in Sebastian county. The proclamation follows:

"I am to-day presented with the following document, signed by more than 1,700 citizens of the mining district of Sebastian county, viz:

"'We the undersigned, citizens of Sebastian county, respectfully represent that since the issuance of your proclamation giving your consent to the importation of peaceful, law-abiding citizens, the Kansas and Texas Coal Company, have, through misrepresentation and fraud by their agents, induced several miners, both white and colored, to quit their avocations in other States and come here to labor in these mines; that some of said miners after coming here and finding that a strike is on, refuse to work in the mines and are left penniless on our community; that the Kansas and Texas Coal Company have brought into Sebastian county large hordes of low, vicious ex-convicts and degraded criminal laborers, and thrust them upon the citizens of Sebastian county; that said imported laborers are a menace to the peace of our community and State; that said people will be an expense upon our county.'

"Now, therefore I, Daniel W. Jones, Governor of Arkansas, for the purpose of preserving the public peace and preventing bloodshed in said county, do hereby order and direct that the further importation of such lawless, depraved and otherwise objectionable miners from other States to said county cease, and that the former proclamation by me in this matter be strictly enforced by the Sheriff of said county, and that he immediately take proper steps, employ such deputies, call on such citizens and make such inspections as may be necessary to prevent such importation of objectionable men to the end, that peace may be preserved."

The petition embraced in the proclamation was presented to the Governor by Representative John E. Tatum of Greenwood and A. J. Burke of Huntington. They say that the Kansas and Texas Coal Company has imported about 200 negro miners from Illinois, Kentucky and Alabama and that trouble is imminent.

Plotting for a Throne

Port Townsend, Wash., June 30.—According to advices brought from the Orient by the steamship Glenogie, China, still continues in a state of uncertainty which borders on revolution. The China discussion says the empress dowager has pinned her faith in Jung Lu, who for many years had his mind and heart centred on usurping the throne. He has a friend at court in the person of one of the chief eunuchs through whom he has succeeded in flattering the empress dowager to such an extent that the troops have been increased and he has been placed in command. He now believes himself invulnerable. The empress dowager has been his tool. The general feeling now prevails that his next move will be to cast her aside and place himself on the throne.

Colored Volunteers Ready

Chicago, June 30.—Capt. P. S. Bomus, in charge of the United States army recruiting station here, has telegraphed Adjt.-Gen. Corbin asking permission to enlist colored recruits, and to restore the lenient physical examinations which were in use during the war with Spain.

Recruiting Sergeant Jones says if the station is given the permission to enlist colored men, practically all of the mustered out eighth Illinois volunteers will be sent to the Philippines. Under the present physical examination but one man out of ten is found qualified. Fifty applicants a day are examined.

Prayed for Them While They Stole.

Elizabeth, N. J., June 30.—George Reynolds, Otis Doolittle, George Hansen, all about twelve, and Burr Allison, fifteen, are held by Police Justice Hetfield, charged with systematically robbing Mrs. Ann E. Ogden, an aged widow. The boys rir errands for Mrs. Ogden and robbed her in various ways of hundreds of dollars. It was the custom of Mrs. Ogden to kneel and pray for the boys, who would then creep about the room and pilfer all the money they could find.

Martin's Injuries Prove Fatal.

Charleston, Ill., June 30.—John C. Martin, who lived near Oakland, died from injuries received two weeks ago in a runaway. Mr. Martin, was probable the wealthiest farmer in Coles County, owning over 6,000 acres of rich prairie soil. He was only forty-seven years old.

Two Ladies Killed.

Neillsville, Wis., June 30.—At Howard, Miss Alice Willan, Mrs. Neil Morrison and four children and Mrs. Elmer were out riding, when the brace on the buggy pole broke, frightening the team. Miss Willan and Mrs. Morrison were thrown out and killed.

The Mariel Safe Robbery.

Havana, June 30.—Advices received from Guanajay say Major Jose Acosta, of the Cuban Army, accused of complicity in the recent safe robbery at Mariel, has been captured and taken to Guanajay jail.

"Mary, how do you like the Ivory Soap?"

"Best we have ever had, ma'am. The starched clothes are whiter and the flannels are softer than when washed with common soaps. It saves my hands; they used to be very sore after a wash."

"Well, Mary, I am told that it saves the clothes, too, and you shall have only Ivory Soap after this."

Those who have tried both common soap and Ivory Soap, say that it takes only two-thirds as much of the Ivory for a wash.

A MAYOR ASSASSINATED.

Angry Office-Seeker Kills Balbirnie, of Muskegon, Mich.

Muskegon, Mich., June 30.—Mayor James Balbirnie was assassinated by J. W. Tayer, a disappointed office-seeker.

After the shooting Balbirnie turned and ran upstairs to his living rooms and dropped in the hall. He expired fifteen minutes later.

Tayer swallowed some carbolic acid and then turned the revolver upon himself and fired. The ball entered his left breast and he died almost instantly.

Rush of Men for Philippines.

Washington, June 30.—There is a rush of applications for commissions and Adjutant General Corbin is an object of interest to those anxious for employment in the military service. Hundreds of ex-officers seem to have been lying in wait in Washington, and they had sprung suddenly into activity of demand for preferment that promises to make Corbin's existence a burden for some time. The experience of the war is as nothing to the outslaught which the Adjutant General is encountering.

To all the anxious inquirers General Corbin answered that he could make no promises. The appointments were in the hands of the appointing power. That power had decided that there would be no new major generals and only one brigadier general. The applications on file for regimental officers will give the President a wealth of material to select from. It is the intention to put regular officers of the grade of captain or major in command of the new provisional regiments as colonel, like in the immunes, with other regular officers to act as instructors.

Adjutant General Corbin says he believes that if the government needed a million men there would be no difficulty in getting them.

Lake Steamship Sinks.

Toledo, Ohio, June 30.—News of the foundering of the steamship Margaret Olwill and the drowning of all her crew but one has been brought here by the steamship State of Ohio, which rescued the only man saved from the wreck.

The Olwill was caught in a gale off Lorain, Ohio. Great waves swept the decks and flooded the fires. The ship became helplesss in the storm and it went down before the boats could be launched.

She carried a crew of twelve men and one passenger—Mrs. Baldwin, of Cleveland. The Olwill was built in Cleveland in 1887. She was 142 feet long and 26 wide. Her tonnage was 554. L. P. Smith, of Cleveland, owned the Olwill, and she was commanded by Captain Brown.

One Brother Killed, Two Injured.

Marion, Ind., June 30.—Torrence Vandewater, employed at the Republic Iron and Steel Mills as shearsman, was killed by a billet of iron hurled from the jaws of the big jumbo shears of which he had charge. The piece of iron weighed about 80 pounds. It hit him on the head, churshing the skull. His brother, O. C. Vandewater, was working with him, and the billet which killed his brother struck him on the shoulder, causing a fracture. Another brother, Charles Vandewater, was at work on the excavation of the city sewer and was struck in the head with a falling bank brace about the time his brother was killed.

To Succeed Consul Clark.

Manchester, N. H., June 30.—Congressman C. A. Sulloway has received a communication from the Hon. John Hay, Secretary of State, to the effect that President McKinley has acceded to the recommendations of the New Hampshire Congressional delegation, and will transfer Capt. Louis Goldschmidt of Dover, now Consul at La Guayra, to Pernambuco as successor to Consul B. Frank Clark of this city, who recently died while on his way home and was buried at sea.

Deficit Will be About $90,000,000.

Washington, June 30.—The Treasury officials are now confident that the deficit for the present fiscal year will not exceed $90,000,000. One week ago the estimate was a little short of $100,000,000, but in the last few days the receipts have been above the estimates, while the expenditures have fallen off greatly.

Negroes in Striker's Places

Bevier, Mo., June 30.—The Union miners, who are on strike here against the Kansas and Texas Coal Company, were surprised yesterday, when the company imported 125 negro miners and twenty-five negro women into the camp on a special train. There has been no disturbance.

Life Imprisonment for Nulty.

New York, June 30.—The jury in the case of Frank Nulty, charged with killing Mamie Remley on last Christmas day, returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree. The young man was remanded for sentence on Monday. The penalty is imprisonment for life.

DOG'S LIKES AND DISLIKES.

Here Are Some Curious and Amusing Cases in Point.

Animals, like human beings, have been known to exhibit strange antipathies toward certan persons and things, dogs, perhaps, more than any other of our four-footed friends.

That famous canine, Oriel Bill of Oxford, was for a time such a violent hater of postmen that it was not safe for any uniformed letter carrier to approach the Mitre, where Oriel Bill held undisputed sway. Accordingly, arrangements had to be made for all missives to be left at the adjoining house by the postmen in order to save their feelings—physical as well as mental—and the dog from venting his curious aversion upon them.

The same precaution had to be taken in the case of another, but less famous, canine. Until a postman was foolish enough to throw a stone at this animal, without the least provocation, it was on good terms with all the letter carriers who called at the house. After that, however, a furious hatred of her majesty's postal servants took possession of this previously amiable cur, and when it had severely bitten one of the postmen they all refused with one accord to deliver letters at the house.

The owner of the dog complained to the British postoffice authorities, says Tit-Bits, but the latter supported their subordinates in the attitude they had taken up, and in the end arranged for his letters to be delivered at a place where there was no canine that delighted to bark and bite.

At a hotel in a west of England town there is a dog which exhibits an intense dislike for soldiers. What are the why and wherefore of this feeling toward the gallant redcoats it is impossible to say, but the sight of one has the same effect on this eccentric canine as a red rag has on a bull. The consequence is that the dog has to be kept severely under restraint, so that soldiers can come and go without running the risk of losing a portion of their anatomy in the process. What makes the antipathy toward them all the more remarkable is the fact that the animal shows a decided partiality for policemen.

A terrier belonging to a friend of the writer will run a mile at the sight of a siphon.. When it was considerably younger than it is now its owner deluged the dog with a siphon of soda water, and ever since it has exhibited a mortal dread of a siphon, full or empty. The remembrance of that unexpected bath is evidently responsible for this extraordinary aversion..

Siamese Matchmaking.

Every Siamese girl who reaches a certain age without marrying is ticketed and labelled and placed in a privileged class, under the special care of the king, who binds himself to find a husband for them all. His method is delightfully simple. A prisoner in one of the Siamese jails may gain his pardon and release by marrying one of the ineligible class. Whether he is already married or not is not of great consequence, for in Siam it is not necessary to draw the line at one wife. This method of matchmaking can hardly result in domestic bliss.

When You Are Away

For a week, or a month, or the whole summer, there is nothing more welcome than the news from home. There is only one way to get this news in the right shape, and that is by having The Daily Press sent to you at your vacation stopping place. When leaving town for a season be sure to order The Daily Press to follow you by mail. The address will be changed as often as desired. Ten cents a week will cover all expenses.

COMING EVENTS.

July 2—Arthur E. Crane, of Crozier Theological Seminary, will address the Y. M. C. A. rally at 4:15 p. m. Swedish singers and instrumentalists. All men are welcome.

School Monies.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Baxter has sent out the statement showing the apportionment of State school monies for the school year beginning July 1st. The monies are apportioned on the number of children in the State, according to the school censes of 1898. The total amount of the State school tax is $2,333,550, to which is added the annual State appropriation of $200,000.

In Union county there aro 22,120 school chidlren, which permits of an appropriation of $117,328.12. Somerset county has 7,607 children and will be entitled to $52,699 10. Camden, Essex, Hudson, Passaic are the only counties in the State that possess more school children than Union. Sussex, Salem and Cape May are the only counties that have fewer children of school age than Somerset.

The Buffalo Courier, in referring to the failure of the disarmament plan at The Hague, says: "The idea prevailing in Germany that every able bodied man shall be an actual soldier during a certain period of his life, has not been fully realized, but it is the principle underlying the military organization to which Germany is indebted for its present position among the Powers of the world."

PRESIDENT KRUGER AND HIS MOUNTED ESCORT.

The strained relations between Great Britain and the Transvaal, which have reached almost a point of rupture, brings prominently into public view "Oom Paul" Kruger, the patriarchal president of the little Dutch republic. Age does not seem to have diminished his courage or sagacity, nor lessened the tenacity of his purpose to protect the country of the Boers from foreign encroachments. He is ready to fight England if necessary. He is insisting on the letter of the law regarding his treaty rights of internal legislation and in so doing is actively discouraging English immigration into the Transvaal. He put forth the sine qua non that Great Britain should practically abrogate her suzerainty over the Transvaal by admitting the principle of arbitration between the two countries. To this proposition the British government objects and hence the South African war cloud.

For the first time in its history Scotch Plains will today see a real railway car in the form of a trolley vehicle direct from Plainfield. It is a sight that the staid citizens of that community have long prayed for, and it can be depended upon that no trolley car will ever receive a greater welcome from the hearts of the people it will serve than from the 'Plainsites.

To the victor's friends belong the spoils, is not the sort of political principles that Charles A. Shriner, late State Game and Fish Protector, seems to believe in, As a preserver of legitimate sports Mr. Shriner does not take his official retirement with the philosphical consideration that one would expect.

It is estimated that there will be 5,000 strangers in Plainfield on the Fourth—hundreds of them for the first time, and ready of to be convinced that this is the finest town on earth. Let the town put on its bib and tucker and give them all a royal reception.

The least that every citizen of Plainfield can do on the Fourth of July is to decorate. It doesn't cost a great deal, and it is one of the most important details of making a successful celebration.

Governor Roosevelt is out for McKinley for President. The Rough Rider's unkind critics will doubtless say that is a sequence of his learning that he is out of it.

The most effective way for the local merchants to meet the competition of the Newark establishments is by liberal advertising.

Keeping everlastingly at it has been the key to the success of Harvard over Yale.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

Who says such things only occurs in novels or on the stage? Here is a Hunterdon county farmer who has found a hidden box of gold just as it is most needed to pay off the mortgage on the old homestead, and has the empty box to prove his story. Truth is still stranger than fiction, particularly the Hunterdon county brand of truth.—Newark News.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

The young women employed in a New Brunswick cigar factory have decided to hold a bicycle road race to settle the question of who is the champion rider of their sex in Middlesex county at South River July 3d. The young women have been disputing over their rival merits for a long time, and all agree that the only thing to do is to have it out. The race will be two miles in length, and will be run in heats, so numerous are the contestants. The young women will wear bloomers and will ride the most approved styles of racing wheels.

* * * * *

Many Plainfielders have noticed during the last few days a little girl with one leg cut off above the knee hobbling about the city streets on her crutch and receiving the gifts, little or big, of all who cared to help her. She is a bright little youngster albeit rather remarkable in some ways. May Smith is her name. She is nine years old and is without father or mother. She lived in Newark once and there was run over by a horse car. Her only living relative, she says, is a sister in Brooklyn. Little May is now shifting for herself. She has some "appeal" cards which she passes out and receives whatever is given to her. She has been coming out to Plainfield every day on the train and returning to New York at night. She says she puts up at a hotel in the city at night. The other day she wandered into Randolph's pharmacy. Hopping up to the counter she asked Albert Utsinger, manager of the soda water department, to give her a glass of water. The young man complied. She then carefully poured the water on one corner of her gown and then washed her face with it. To the interested spectators she explained that her face was dirty. She has since visited nearly all the stores in town and has been generously dealt with, for the tiny cripple has excited universal pity.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, June 30—There was a pleasant family gathering at the home of Mrs. L. B. Nelson Wednesday afternoon, the occasion being Mrs. Nelson's birthday. Next week is Mr. Nelson's birthday, and his many friends took occasion to also celebrate that. Many presents were received, and in the evening a number of the young folks called to pay their respects to the couple.

Postmaster Dealaman's commission arrived yesterday and he is to take possession of the postoffice tomorrow morning. Hereafter the office is to be third-class with a salary of $1,100.

Mrs. Hannah Nelson and daughter Georgie, of Brooklyn, who have been stopping at Cedar Cottage for several weeks, left yesterday for Roselle to visit relatives and friends.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education will be held in the Whittier building Thursday evening, July 6th, instead of July 4th, which is a legal holiday.

The Methodist Sunday-school is making arrangements for their annual excursion with the First church of Plainfield to Ocean Grove July 27th.

Mrs. Nancy Thomas and family will leave tomorrow for Asbury Park, where they will spend several weeks.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help, but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion build up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by L. W. Randolph, druggist. Guaranteed.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that their is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

BOYNTON BEACH.

THERE IS ONLY ONE FOURTH OF JULY A YEAR.

It is a shame not to spend it where you are sure of a good time. There isn't another place in New Jersey where you can take your whole family and know that each one of them will have a good time.

Of course you know all about the comfortable shaded grounds, the cool seats on the veranda overlooking the water, the boating, naptha launch rides, bowling and bathing.

Maybe you have never heard the BOYNTON BEACH ORCHESTRA, composed of five fine musicians. It will furnish the music on the FOURTH.

Dancing, as usual, will be one of the chief pleasures.

The Diving Dock for swimmers, so popular last season, continues to draw crowds.

Fishing we put at the last, but it may be the only amusement you care about. Never mind, "There are others" just like you. Here's a quiet tip. The weak fish are running well now. You can have a glorious day catching them while your wife and children picnic.

Berlin. Der jüngst von Amerika heimgekehrte Hugo von Widdern wurde hier auf die Anklage der Bigamie schuldig befunden und zu einem halben Jahre Gefängniß verurtheilt. — Der „Deutsche Sparkassen-Verband" hielt hier seine diesjährige Generalversammlung ab. Wie aus dem Jahresbericht hervorgeht, gehören nunmehr 923 deutsche Sparkassen mit einem Einlegerguthaben von 3,508,000,000 Mark dem „Deutschen Sparkassen-Verband" an.—Das kleinste und theuerste Grundstück Berlins hat kürzlich seinen Besitzer gewechselt. Das fragliche „Grundstück" ist nur vier Quadratmeter groß, nämlich zwei Meter lang und zwei Meter breit, liegt zwischen Königskolonnaden und dem Theater Kauffmanns Variete und besteht in einem winzigen Laden, welcher vor einigen Jahren von dem Cigarrettenhändler Schiffmann für 6100 Thaler erworben wurde. Jetzt hat eine Baugesellschaft das „Grundstück" für 50,000 Mark gekauft.—Der Defraudant Willy Lange in der Strafanstalt Plötzensee setzt, seitdem er sich das Geheimniß von dem Versteck der inzwischen zu Tage geförderten 24,000 Mark hat entlocken lassen, allen ferneren Versuchen, ihn zu einem Geständniß über den Verbleib der noch fehlenden 16,000 Mark zu bewegen, den entschiedensten Widerstand entgegen. Er verharrt jetzt auf dem Standpunkt, daß er wenigstens den Rest der Beute für sich erhalten will, um seine fünf Jahre nicht ganz „umsonst" abzubüßen.—Bei dem Erweiterungsbau der Charite, des großen Berliner Krankenhauses, brach ein Gerüst zusammen; durch den Einsturz desselben wurden die darauf beschäftigten Zimmerleute Benthin, Hooch, Richter und Leopold in die Tiefe gerissen und lebensgefährlich verletzt.

Lenzen. Gemeindevorsteher Brüning aus Gaarz, welcher in Verbindung mit einer Schmuggelaffaire wegen Meineidsverdachts verhaftet worden war, hat sich im hiesigen Gefängniß mittelst eines Handtuchs erhängt.

Neu-Zittau. Die Leiche eines 1½ Jahre vermißten Kindes ist in der Spree zwischen Erkner und hier gefunden worden. Es handelt sich um das 12jährige Schulmädchen Elise Kelling aus Burig, das im Winter 1897 in Erkner eine Besorgung machte und seitdem verschwunden blieb. Muthmaßlich ist das Kind in der Dunkelheit in den Fluß gestürzt und ertrunken. Die Mutter erkannte die Leiche ihrer Tochter, an welcher bereits die Arme und ein Bein fehlten, an den Kleidern.

Frankfurt. Die Strafkammer verurtheilte den Zimmermann Georg Schmidt, der während des Brauerausstandes einen arbeitswilligen Fahrburschen beschimpft und mit Schlägen bedroht hatte, zu vier Monaten Gefängniß.

Hanau. Hier tagte kürzlich der Verband Raiffeisen'scher Genossenschaften des Regierungsbezirks Kassel. Es waren 500 bis 600 Theilnehmer erschienen. Der hessische Verband umfaßt nach dem Jahresbericht 313 Vereine in 847 Ortschaften mit 29,086 Mitgliedern. Der Umsatz betrug 27,000,000 Mark, der Stiftungsfonds beziffert sich auf 380,000 Mark, der Gewinn beträgt 54,375 Mark.

A SUCCESSFUL ARTIST.

St. Louis Girl Who Has Won Praise From the Paris Critics.

Few American girls studying art in Paris have attained higher rank and distinction among the best artists and critics of the French capital than Miss Sadie Waters, though but little is known of her in this country. This is perhaps due to the fact that no exhibit of her work has ever been given here and also to her extreme modesty and lack of egotism. She has never courted fame. Her work, however, has found hosts of admirers wherever it has been shown.

Miss Waters is a native of St. Louis, her father the late William Waters, being one of the millionaire business men of that city. Charming in person and manner and inheriting abundant wealth, she might have become a leader of St. Louis' fashionable society, but she chose rather a career in art.

Early in her teens she began attending the St. Louis Art school, where her talent showed itself so unmistakably that her mother decided to take her to Paris. Mrs. Waters and her talented daughter went to Paris in 1889, and the latter at once became a pupil of Luc-Olivier Merson, an artist comparatively little known in this country, but of higher repute in France.

The proficiency of Miss Waters in her studies is shown in the fact that her work was exhibited in the salon within six months after she went to Paris. Her first exhibit was a portrait of Jane Hading in "L'Aventuriere," a miniature on ivory, showing a three-quarter figure robed in fluffy white against a white background. It attracted wide and favorable attention, and every one was amazed to learn that the artist was a young girl whose course of study embraced only a few months. Since then Miss Waters has produced many exquisite compositions on ivory, and is now ranked among the most proficient artists in that style of work.

Miss Waters' most important picture thus far—at least in her own estimation—is her "Vierge aux Lys" ("Virgin of the Lilies"), which was exhibited both at the salon and the Royal academy. It is wrought on ivory, 7 by 9 inches. The virgin is painted from one of her favorite models, a beautiful Italian woman.

Portraits on ivory of Sarah Bernhardt, owned in New York, and of Leon Labbe, the French surgeon, have added greatly to Miss Waters' reputation as a portrait painter.

The home of Mrs. and Miss Waters is the center of much of the artistic, musical and literary life of Paris, and they number among their friends many artists, musicians, writers and actors of prominence, who make Miss Waters' studio their salon.

MISS SADIE WATERS.

Mrs. Waters was one of St. Louis' famous beauties in her youth, and is still handsome and stately, with a decidedly patrician air. She is very proud of her daughter's accomplishments, and justly so. Many of the mother's charms are duplicated in the daughter. She is tall and slender, of graceful carriage, and has an expressive and attractive face, wreathed in light brown hair. Her gowns, always designed by herself, are the delight of artists.

A branch of work to which Miss Waters has devoted much attention and in which she has become proficient is that of illuminating. She is one of the very few women who have been successful in this class of work. The first important thing she did in the line of illuminating was a song, "My Love Is Come," by Christina Rossetti. It was for Mrs. Raymond, who was formerly Annie Louise Cary. The music and words were done in pen and ink and the title page and borders illuminated.

Miss Waters has lately been engaged in illuminating a communion service, which she will present to the Amerian church of the Holy Trinity in Paris as a memorial to her father. It is done on parchment nearly 400 years old, given her by a collector at Venice, who took it from an old, unfinished book. It will be bound in crimson velvet, with old silver clasps. Those who have seen the work declare it to be very beautiful.

Miss Waters' work brings high prices, her miniatures alone selling for $500 apiece, and from her art she has made a goodly sum of money, all of which she has devoted to charity, as the fortune of the family is abundant.

GLADYS LA TOUR.

Miss May Anderson, a beautiful belle of Palmyra, Mo., has become a disciple of Blackstone, and proposes to maintain the reputation of a family that has given the state many noted lawyers.

Mrs. Edward M. Field, daughter-in-law of the late Cyrus Field and once a leader in New York society, has engaged in the occupation of interior house decorating in that city.

HOUSE HOLD TALKS

A CHEAP SILVER POLISH.

With It Your Silverware Can Be Very Easily Cleaned.

Unless one is fortunate to have trained servants the polishing of the silverware, if kept properly bright, must be superintended, if not actually done, by the mistress. The dining room silver is nowadays but a small part of that in use by the average household, for my lady's dressing table, and, for that matter, also that of her liege lord, is bravely decked out with this ware. Cleaning with powder is very laborious, but a good liquid polish almost makes play of this important work. A big bottle of the following should be always kept on hand: A pound of whiting is the first requisite, and 5 cents will buy this if the slight extra trouble is taken of buying it at a painter's supply establishment; that sold for four times this amount at the grocer's is no better, and it will be a satisfaction to some of our readers to learn that a well-known jeweler declares that ordinary whiting is preferred by him and others of his line of business to any other material for cleaning their goods.

Sift the whiting into a big bowl; add four ounces (eight tablespoonfuls) of spirits of turpentine, two ounces of spirits of wine, one of spirits of camphor and half an ounce of spirits of hartshorn; mix thoroughly, and when creamy pour into big-mouthed bottle; shake before using, pour a little into a saucer, apply liberally with a soft cloth, and after allowing the articles to stand until dry polish with a dry cloth and finish with a chamois skin. This liquid is of itself efficacious in cleaning, and thus violent rubbing is not required.

Pudding Cannot Burn.

The invention which is illustrated here is a simple and yet perfectly effectual preventive for articles which are being boiled from getting burned by a careless or forgetful cook allowing the water to give out, thereby endangering both the boiler and the food in it. With this stand the damage will fall solely upon the former. Even if the boiler should become absolutely dry, the limited amount of conduction between the wire stand and the bottom of the boiler, combined with the presence of water in the pudding, etc., will prevent the food being spoiled for a considerable time after the boiler is irretrievably ruined. The stands are made of tinned iron wire and there is no danger of their being crushed in, or of their affecting the food in any way. They are easily cleaned and present no points or edges to injure the hands.

THE WIRE STAND.

Cream Puffs.

One cup of boiling water, one-half cup of butter. Bring to a boil and stir in while boiling one cup of flour. Boil five minutes, beating all the time. Then add three eggs, soda the size of a pea; drop in twelve drops on a buttered baking pan; bake thirty minutes in a medium hot oven; do not open the oven door for the first ten minutes, then watch them closely, so they will not burn. For the filling cut open on the side and fill with one-half pint of cream, whipped, and flavored to suit the taste.

Delicious Asparagus.

The best results are obtained by cooking asparagus standing on end in the kettle with the tops above the water.

These tender tops need only a gentle steaming, while the older and tougher ends need a thorough boiling. By this method they cook more evenly.

Good Gingerbread.

One-half cup of sugar, one-quart cup of butter, one-half cup of molasses, one-half cup of sour milk, one and one-half cups of flour, one teaspoonful of ginger, one teaspoonful of soda, one egg, in pinch of salt. Beat thoroughly and bake in a moderate oven.

Hominy Pudding.

Two cupfuls of cold boiled hominy, two tablespoonfuls of melted butter, three well beaten eggs and a cup of sweet milk; mix thoroughly, season to taste, and bake in a buttered dish for half an hour.

Hickory Nut Macaroons.

Beat the whites of two eggs to a froth, add slowly one cupful of powdered sugar, and one cupful of nuts chopped fine. Mix thoroughly and drop on buttered tins. Bake slowly.

Sugar Cookies.

One cup of sugar, two eggs, one tablespoonful of milk, one teaspoonful of baking powder, one cup of butter. Flour to roll.

Doughnuts.

One cup of sour milk, one egg, one teaspoonful of soda, one-quarter of a teaspoonful of cream of tartar, sifted through the flour; salt and nutmeg.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning July 2—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

TOPIC.—Our country for Christ.—Ps. xxxiii, 10-22. (A Christian citizenship meeting.)

The nearness of our national birthday naturally suggests our topic. And what reasons for discussing it since July 4, one year ago. Then was brought to us the news of the destruction of Cervera's fleet. Since that time Santiago has fallen, the war with Spain successfully ended, and peace declared. What more fitting than that our nation, in deep gratitude and thanksgiving, should consecrate itself to God in Christ, should take a great forward step in making our country a Christian country, not only in name, but in fact and in deed?

1. Our country for Christ, for Christ's sake. "For Christ's sake" should be our supreme motive for every action. For Christ's sake we should strive to win our country for Christ. To pay to Him the debt our nation owes to Him, to increase His honor and to magnify His glory by our earnest prayers, our unabated interest in home missions, we should strive to make our country Christ's country.

2. Our country for Christ, for our country's sake. Christ does not need us nearly so much as we need Christ. "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, and the people whom He hath chosen for His inheritance." The American nation never needed Christ and Christianity so much as it needs them today. Grave and farreaching problems are before us, the solution of which will require the profoundest wisdom, the broadest charity, the kindliest forbearance, and what but Christianity can furnish us with these qualifications? There are interal problems of gigantic proportions before us, corruption in high places, bossism in politics, the saloon problem, socialistic problems, the Sabbath question, and many others. The solution of most of these problems is contained directly in Christianity, and all of them are indirectly contained in it. How, therefore, can they ever be satisfactorily solved unless the nation is a Christian nation?

3. Our country for Christ for the world's sake. A worldwide conflict is on. Forces are at work which are destined to determine the future character of the whole world. In the providence of God our nation is undoubtedly destined to have a large part in determining the moral, religious and political character of the world. The great republic of the west is more and more looked to as a guide and an inspiration by peoples fondly dreaming of liberty and of freedom. The Christianization of America means a long stride in the Christianization of the world. We owe it to the world to win our country for Christ, so that it shall not only assist in leading the nations of the world to political and civil liberty, but also to the liberty wherewith Christ makes men free.

Bearer of Burdens.

Christ revealed God as the world's burden bearer, full of an exquisite kindness and sympathy; that what He was through three and thirty years God was through all the ages; that what He was to publican and sinner in Bethlehem God was for all maimed and wrecked hearts in all worlds; that no human tear falls but God feels it; that no blow smites the suffering heart but God shrinks and suffers; that with wistful longing He follows the publican and the prodigal, waiting for the hour when He may recover the youth to his integrity or to lead the man grown gray in sin back to his Father's house. —Newell Dwight Hillis.

A Puritan's Resolve.

Here is a noble resolve found in the journal of an old Puritan divine: "Resolved that, when I address a large meeting, I shall remember that God is there, and that will make it small; resolved that, when I address a small meeting, I shall remember that God is there, and that will make it great." The recollection of God's presence, in the first instance, prevents the minister from being lifted up with pride and conceit, and, in the second, from being discouraged and cast down. At present God is the needed vitalizer and quickener in all religious assemblies.—Presbyterian.

The Need of Enthusiasm In Religion.

We need to inject a little heart into the cold intellectualism which sways the minds of many of our would be philosophers of today. Feed the head as much as you will, but do not starve the heart, for if you let the heart languish religion goes with it. The heart is the vital organ of religion as certainly as it is the vital organ of the human body. When it ceases to throb, religion ceases to exist. Come, brethren; give us a little more heart, a little more enthusiasm.—Jewish Comment.

Carry Our Own Burden.

Let any man carry his own burden, and he is doing much more than saving himself. He is perhaps making the best possible contribution to the strength of the common life. Let any man be lavish of his strength in serving others, and he is doing much more than helping others. He is re-enforcing his own strength to carry his own burden.—Francis Greenwood Peabody, D. D.

Religion In Arrears.

If duty be discharged diurnally, then it will be impossible for us to fall into arrears. Aye, there's the rub! Our religion is in arrears; we have not balanced the accounts.—Joseph Parker, D. D.

The Way In and the Way Out.

A sure way to get into trouble and a poor way to get out is to neglect God. —Episcopal Recorder.

Topic For the Week Beginning July 2, "Our Country For Christ." Text, Ps. xxxiii, 10-22.

"Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord."

That God has regard for nations as really as He has for individuals is the teaching of the Bible from beginning to end. He finds the Hebrews in Egypt and leads them by Moses from bondage, through the wilderness to Canaan, and under Joshua gives them the land long promised their fathers. Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Tyre, Edom and all the great powers of the ancient world are subjects of prophecy, and their fate depended upon the attitude they held toward God and righteousness. This is the unique distinction of Hebrew prophecy over all other ancient literature. It declared for the rights of men, regardless of race peculiarities or national boundaries. All men are created of God, and their rights are grounded in their relation to Him, is the declaration repeated through ages. By the test of right dealing shall all kings and nations stand or fall.

The nation that will not worship Jehovah is doomed. It cannot stand. This is more than any external form of service. It is broader than any state religion, deeper than the recognition of God by a clause in the national constitution. It is the embodiment of divine law in the constitution and nature of the people, the establishment of worship in all the dealings of the state by doing justice and protecting the defenseless. Idolatry caused the overthrow of all the great nations of antiquity. It was denounced as the most heinous sin. The Babylonish captivity was caused by Sabbath desecration, so Jeremiah declares, and Baal worship is destructive of all national life.

There are two ways at least of viewing these declarations. A narrow traditional interpretation leads either to Phariseeism or infidelity. A deep study of the prophetic literature of the Hebrew Scriptures under the light of modern historic science, with a devout recognition of spiritual truth as influential among men, leads to intelligent patriotism and Christian citizenship.

"If they will not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the Lord," is the truth as Jeremiah voices it. It is true today. It has ever been true. It must ever remain truth so long as God is God and man is man.

The Fourth of July means more than independence from British rule for the American colonies. It began to acquire meaning in that, but it signifies freedom from oppression of every kind as the foundation principle of the national life. It is a new departure in human government. It is clear eyed recognition of the foundation of human rights, not on the will of a king or an aristocracy, not even on the consent of the government, but on divine creation. Men are born with rights—rights of which they cannot be robbed nor divest themselves, rights to life, liberty and pursuit of happiness.

These can be actualized and fulfilled only by right doing. Right doing is worship, the highest devotion; wrongdoing is idolatry and is destructive of the individual and the state. Patriotism is enthusiasm for right in national affairs. Christian citizenship is personal right doing of duty in all that belongs to public interests.

Our Present Perils.

They are many and varied and from many causes. Never was the temptation to expensive living so great as now. Our life is under high pressure. Our machinery is speeded high and all our social, industrial and political movements catch the motion. Haste to be rich, to attain influential positions, and to get all the enjoyment possible, has infected us. Our church life feels the impulse. Large membership lists, elegant buildings, talented musicians, eloquent orators for pulpit and platform, immense conventions—all make for success. But under it all lies grave peril. The danger is not in wealth or in numbers, not in culture or eloquence, but it lies in the temptation to make these the end and not merely the aids to something better. It is not in any of these that success lies, but far beyond them. Is the membership devoted to service of God and man? If not, then it were better it were smaller. Does the music aid devotion, is the oratory powerful for righteousness? If not, then it were better the instruments were without sound and the lips dumb. Godliness is our need, worldly show our peril.

Courtesy is the outward shell of which friendship is the kernel. It has many grades, from the lowest and least valuable fruit of hypocrisy to the rich product of Christly love.

A man may get the reputation for learning by studying what other men have learned. No one can become wise but by understanding the truth for himself.

The Warrior's Prayer.

Long since in sore distress I heard one pray,
"Lord, who prevailest with resistless might,
Ever from war and strife keep me away;
My battles fight."

I know not if I play the Pharisee
And if my brother, after all, is right,
But mine shall be the warrior's plea to Thee—
Strength for the fight.

I do not ask that Thou shalt front the fray
And drive the warring foemen from my sight.
I only ask, O Lord, by night, by day,
Strength for the fight.

When foes upon me press, let me not quail,
Nor think to turn me into coward flight.
I only ask, to make mine arms prevail,
Strength for the fight.

Still let mine eyes look over on the foe,
Still let mine armor case me, strong and bright,
And grant me as I deal each righteous blow
Strength for the fight.

And when at eventide the fray is done
My soul to death's bedchamber do Thou light
And give me, be the field or lost or won,
Rest from the fight.

—Paul Laurence Dunbar.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anæsthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

THE TOWN OF ILOILO

A Place of Great Commercial Importance With a Brisk Coasting Trade.

The town of Iloilo, which was the storm center of the recent revolution in the Philippines, stands on a low sandy flat on the right bank of a river. At the end of this flat is a spit on which a fort is built, and close to which there is deep water. Vessels of moderate draft (15 feet) can ascend the river a short distance and lie alongside wharves which communicate with the merchant houses, touching their doors, just as the switch lines of the railroads do at Cupples' Block, for example. Large vessels must anchor outside near the spit.

Iloilo is a town of great commercial importance, and a brisk coasting trade is carried on from it. The better class of houses in Iloilo are built from strong wooden posts, two or three feet in diameter, that reach to the roof; stone walls to the first floor, with wooden windows above, and an iron roof. The poorer class of dwellings are flimsy erections of nipa, built on four strong posts. The roads and bridges are in a deplorable condition and almost impassable in the rainy season.

The chief imports are Australian coal, and general merchandise from Europe, but most sailing ships arrive in ballast.

The exports are sugar, tobacco, rice, coffee, hides and hemp; it is also the principal place of manufacture of pina, jusc, and sinamoya, a tissue greatly in use among the Philippines. In 1883 93,750 tons of sugar were exported, principally to America.

Typhoons do not occur regularly, but in most years the tail of one passes over the place, which suffers also from the visitations of locusts.

Iloilo lies on Guimaraw Island, which forms with Panay Island the Strait of Iloilo. Ilampulugan Island, in Guimaras Strait, is the most remarkable in the strait. Between this island and Guimaras there are six steep rocks with flat summits, on some of which are trees; to the northward of it are two little islets connected with it on the southeast by a bank having, one and three-quarters fathoms water on it; between this bank and the reef off Pandan (on the coast of Negros) is a channel of one and one-half miles wide and four and one-half to eight fathoms deep; it is the least dangerous passage to take, but care must be taken to avoid a bank not sounded out, shown on the chart, between Pandan and the islet of Nadulao; as also a bank of sand with one and one-half fathoms over it, of four miles extent, which lies three miles southeast to south, southeast of Ilampulugan.

Best People in the Philippines.

The bulk of the population of the Philippines is of Malay origin, and the Philippine Malays are a superior race to many other Asiatic peoples. Orderly, amiable, courteous, honest and exceedingly superstitious they are easily influenced upon profession of Christianity. Like most tropical people, their efforts are intermittent rather than steady; their wants are readily provided for, and they take life easy. The inhabitants of the island are composed of the most diverse mixtures of races, including Malays, Aets, Negritos, pure blacks, Chinese, Japanese, Indios, Moors, Europeans, and mixtures of each with the others. There are nearly as many different tribes as there are islands, and it is said that 500 languages and dialects are spoken in the islands at the present day. The inhabitants are generally tractable and amenable to government, and generally not hostile to foreigners. In the inaccessible parts of the island there are still tribes of unsubdued savages, whose number is estimated at about 602,000. Fond of music, dancing and amusements of all kinds, they are born gamblers, and cock fighting is their greatest passion. Every town has its cockpit, and in the largest the spectators may be numbered by thousands. This amusement is heavily taxed by the Spaniards, and advantage is taken of the taste for gambling by running a lottery for the benefit of the Government.

Probably not more than 15,000 or 20,000 Spaniards, or people of pure Spanish blood, are permanent residents and the number of other foreigners is not large. The majority of these are at Manila, where the English have established a club in the suburbs, which has become the center of foreign social intercourse.

Without doubt, the most primitive of the Philippine peoples are the Aetas or Negritos, a race of blacks of almost dwarfish stature. They are believed to be, and with good reason, the true aborigines of the islands, who, even at the time of the early Spanish conquest, had begun to go to the wall under the fierce struggle for existence with the encroaching Malay tribes. At present they are well-nigh extinct, and promise to become entirely so. These people are confined to the higher mountain ranges in Luzon and Negros, although a few are found in Mindanao.

The Roman Catholic is the established Church in the Philippines, and most of the ecclesiastical authority is vested in the hands of the various religious orders—Dominicans, Augustines and Franciscans.

People of Porto Rico.

Professor Robert T. Hill has presented an interesting side light on the people of Porto Rico discussing them from an ethnological and anthropological standpoint. The Porto Ricans of the upper class are of pure Spanish blood. In point of connections and respectability they are the descendants of military men, who during the long period when the island was a mere garrison, formed alliances and settled within it. These people maintain the pride of their descent, with all the stateliness of grandees, and some of them are opulent. This class of people, with white blood and Spanish feelings, opinions and prejudices so widely different from what is to be found in the British or French Islands, although numerically inferior, forms a distinctive feature of the population. It constitutes the commercial, professional and planter classes.

The "cabbies" of St. Petersburg have recently been supplied with a book of tickets by the Municipal Council for the purpose of providing every "fare" with the means of making a note of any complaint he may desire to make against the "cabby." The latter, at the request of the "fare," is obliged to tear off one of the tickets for him. The tickets bear the numebr of the cab and the tariff of charges.

THE GRIP MICROBE

SOME DISCOVERIES ABOUT THE PROLIFIC AND TROUBLESOME GERM.

While They Require a High Temperature to Breed, No Degree of Natural Cold Can Kill Them—Valuable Advice for Treatment of the Disease.

The influenza or grip germ has been found to be a bacillus shaped like a rod and about three times longer than it is broad. The bacilli are usually grouped in pairs. These bacilli have never been found naturally except in the human body or its secretions. They are abundant, in cases of influenza or grip, in the lung and bronchial tissues, in the nasal secretions and in the sputum or spittle.

They are found first usually as free clumps of thirty or forty. They get into the system through the nose and mouth. As they require the presence of oxygen or air for their development the breathing tract from the nose down to the lungs becomes their breeding place. They cannot breed below a temperature of 80 degrees, and they flourish best at blood heat—98 degrees. When thrown out of the body in sputum, or otherwise, they remain dormant until they are again taken up into another human system. No degree of natural cold can kill them.

These germs die quickly, in twelve to twenty-four hours, when dried or or placed in water. In human sputum they may live for one or two weeks. They are known to live for weeks, months, and probably for years, in the body in cases of chronic bronchitis, consumption and other chronic lung inflamations. They may also grow in the throat secretions of some healthy persons.

This bacillus was discovered by Professor Robert Pfeifer in Berlin in 1892. It may be grown in laboratory cultures, as is bacillus of consumption, typhoid fever, malaria and the germs of other diseases. Artificial influenza germs invariably require blood or haemoglobin smeared over the substance in which they are to be grown. When examined under a microscope they are stained with dyes, as in their natural state they are almost colorless.

MICROSCOPIC VIEW OF THE SURFACE OF THE HUMAN TONGUE.

There is a general impression that grip germs flourish best in the mild, foggy, unseasonable weather of winter. It has been found lately that the weather has absolutely nothing to do with the direct breeding of these germs. But these germs attack persons during times of sudden change of temperature, because the human system is apt at such times to be below the normal and unable to resist their onset.

Individuals, for self protection, must rely upon strict observance of those conditions which their own experience has shown them conduce most to their well being. Nourishing and well-cooked food, wholesome drinks, sufficient sleep and personal cleanliness are essential. We cannot eat the same food, drink the same fluids, or live under identical iron-clad rules.

GRIP MICROBE ENLARGED ONE THOUSAND BILLION TIMES.

Every one must judge for himself, but he must certainly avoid irregularity in hours, over-eating, abuse of stimulating drinks, insufficient sleep and exposure to conditions that he knows are likely to give him a cold in the head or a sore throat, for the germs of influenza find in a mucous membrane already weakened by inflamation a soil in which they flourish luxuriantly.

It is especially desirable to avoid rooms, or an atmosphere that is foul with exhalations from the human body or other impurities. Sudden changes of temperature should be guarded against by paying particular attention to the clothing, making changes in the outer clothing rather than in underwear. It might be well also to wash or rinse the nose, mouth or throat night and morning with an unirritating solution of some one of the numerous toilet disinfectants that can be found in any drug store.

As an additional preventive, use quinine for its tonic effects simply, five grains in the morning after breakfast or two grains night and morning.

A Lucky Find.

While kicking about in some dirt at the city dump, Leadville, Colo., Frank Burkhart unearthed a cave in which he found fifty sacks of gold and silver ore, stolen from the mines, and valued at $110,000.

GOLF.

Secretery Meredith Dryden, of the Park Golf Club, has already received several entries for the open handicap for the Fourth of July Cup. He anticipates a large entry list for that trophy.

Play for the Mrs. C. W. McCutchen Cup will be continued on the links of the Park Golf Club, tomorrow. Nobody has a very extensive lead in the contest for the Cup and there is lots of chance for the new contestants yet. Gifford W. Cooley, one of the crack players of the club, has been practicing this week and is now in excellent form. He expects to defeat his old rival, E. T. Douglass and come out well in the finish. Both of these players will bear watching during the summer's play for they have the making in them of two fine players.

CYCLING COMMENT.

Grand smash in prices of high-grade Victor bicycles still continues. The price is now and will continue for a short time longer at $28. George Gould, the agent, 326 Park avenue, Clifton building, sold ten of these wheels in an afternoon a few days ago.

A Neighborhood Quarrel.

Mrs. Thomas Marley and her young son, Tom, left the City Court this morning, after a lengthy trial, without punishment. They were arrested on complaint of Mrs. Lena Green, but after Judge Runyon heard the story of the trouble, he dismissed complaint against Mrs. Marley, and suspended sentence on her son. The charge was for using profane language.

Death of Evlyn A. Greig.

After a long illness the death of Evlyn A. Greig, aged 47 years, occurred this morning. Mr. Greig has been a resident of this city for many years and when Wallace Vail was postmaster of this city he assisted in the office. He was quite well to do and lived on an income. He resided with Wallace Vail, where he died. The funeral will be private.

Death of Andrew Bache.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Morristown, June 30.—Andrew Bache, father-in-law of former Town Clerk J. B. Ayres, of this place, while walking down Pine street yesterday morning from his home, in South street, to the railroad station, was stricken with apoplexy and died on the sidewalk before medical aid could reach him. Mr. Bache years ago was well known in theatrical circles as a manager.

Mr. Bache formerly resided on Park avenue, this city, many years ago and lived a retired life. His body will be brought to this city for interment in Evergreen cemetery.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night, and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

BADGES FOR FIREMEN.

NUMBERS ASSIGNED ACCORDING TO LENGTH OF SERVICE.

Insignias Are of Neat Design and Are Properly Lettered—One for Coat and One for Cap of Each of the Men.

The new badges for the members of the Plainfield fire department, both regular paid men and call men, came this morning and are being distributed. The first nine numbers are assigned to the paid men according to their time of service. Wm. Townley, driver of the chemical engine, is No. 1. James Daly, driver of No. 1 hose wagon, is No. 2. The others follow in this order: George Feiring, Wm. Ross, Harry Bush, Fred Breem, Jas. Bailey, Louis Dunavan and George Mehl, Jr.

The numbers from 9 to 15 have been held to supply an increase in the regular force. Frank Schuck, the engineer of the steamer, is No. 16, and the call men follow, beginning at No. 17.

The badges are a neat design and have "Plainfield Fire Department" on them in black letters. Each man receives two badges, one for his coat and the other for his cap.

The paid men expect their new uniform straw hats tomorrow. The hats are bought at the expense of the men themselves. They are of very dark brown straw with bands of the same color.

DID NOT REFER TO "AVOCA VILLA."

Rev. A. I. Martine Says That His Remarks Were Not Directed Towards It.

Harry Milligan, proprietor of "Avoca Villa, in Dunellen, called on Rev. A. I. Martine, pastor of the Presbyterian church in that place, yesterday, and the latter stated that the remarks he made last Sunday with reference to dance halls did not refer to "Avoca Villa." The statements that he made were of a general character and not directed at any particular establishment.

Mr. Milligan states that the sermon referred to his place does him a great injustice. He says that "Villa" is patronized by an entirely respectable class of people, and that he does not nor will not allow disreputable persons to hang around the pavilion.

This Saturday's Offerings

in Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and Trousers will comprise a remarkable lot of stylish clothing, doubly remarkable because of the low prices we will sell them. Part of the offerings are traceable to our recent extremely favorable purchases, deals in which spot cash and a great need of it by two manufacturers played an important part.

Some of the offerings come from our regular stock that but a few days ago we had an idea of reducing, but the season is advancing, our stock is still heavy, but the only method of reducing stock that we have faith in, is a great reduction of prices.
